

GRAVES KEPT GREEN.

Memorial Day Observed From the Atlantic to the Pacific Oceans.

AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Congressional Orators There Take Occasion to Denounce THE REBEL FLAGS AT RICHMOND.

Some Rather Strong Utterances at a German Celebration.

EXERCISES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

Every city, town and hamlet where the nation's dead are buried was yesterday the scene of memorial services.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Decorations Day was observed as a general holiday in this city, and all the Government offices, departments, banks and many business houses were closed.

A procession consisting of the committee of arrangements, invited guests, members of the G. A. R., ex-soldiers and sailors, orphan children and citizens formed in front of the Arlington mansion, and headed by the Marine Band, marched to the tomb of the "unknown," where halting, the band played a dirge.

Congressman Boutelle, of Maine, delivered the oration. The address of Mr. Boutelle at the Arlington Cemetery was a notable one.

THE ORATOR OF THE DAY. Congressman Boutelle, of Maine, delivered the oration. The address of Mr. Boutelle at the Arlington Cemetery was a notable one.

THE HIGHEST REVERENCE. Comrades, we pay the highest reverence to the memory of our dead.

ONLY FOR ONE FLAG. And that the Stars and Stripes, and when a man wears any other he is in his heart as much as a traitor.

AT THE NATIONAL CEMETERY. Congressman Boutelle, of Maine, delivered the oration. The address of Mr. Boutelle at the Arlington Cemetery was a notable one.

CONGRATULATIONS. The orator of the day, Congressman Boutelle, of Maine, delivered the oration. The address of Mr. Boutelle at the Arlington Cemetery was a notable one.

THE CORNER STONE OF THE MEMORIAL ARCH. An eloquent address delivered by George William Curtis.

NEW YORK, May 30.—This morning at 10 o'clock the corner stone of the memorial arch was laid.

THE HONOR OF WASHINGTON. The laying of the corner stone of the memorial arch was a notable event.

ONLY FOR ONE FLAG. And that the Stars and Stripes, and when a man wears any other he is in his heart as much as a traitor.

AT THE NATIONAL CEMETERY. Congressman Boutelle, of Maine, delivered the oration. The address of Mr. Boutelle at the Arlington Cemetery was a notable one.

left; Longstreet's assault, the awful carnage of the wheatfield and the death of Hancock station, where after describing the charge of Pickett and the wounding of the Second corps commander on the third day, the party took carriage and drove through the "National Cemetery" and Camp's Hill to the Baltimore pike and thence to the town.

While Congress was wandering over the battlefield the regular Decoration Day exercises at the National Cemetery took place. The programme consisted of ceremonies by the Grand Army of the Republic, strewing of flowers by the public school children and the singing of the National Anthem.

GERMAN VETERANS OUT. AFTER DECORATING THE GRAVES THEY DO SOME TALKING. The representatives of the Fatherland National Society were present.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—A large number of German veterans and others gathered at Prospect Hill Cemetery yesterday for the purpose of decorating graves.

Not upon the field of honor alone are there duties to perform for the patriotic citizen. There is the duty of the citizen in the calm pursuit of peaceful development.

Has the German element properly appreciated this weapon? Has it done justice to its responsibility?

THE MANAGERS OF THE SUSPENSION BRIDGE. Over 6,800 shares in the Allegheny Suspension Bridge Company were represented at a well-attended meeting of the President, managers and stockholders yesterday morning.

THE HONORED GUESTS. But the greatest applause was reserved for the honored guests of the day—President Harrison, Vice President Sherman and the cabinet.

HANDICAPPED, BUT A HUSTLER. A prisoner ship out with the Constable's horse and buggy.

NEW YORK, May 30.—A gang of pickpockets worked the crowds in Lutheran Cemetery, Middle Village, L. I., this afternoon.

CONSTABLE OOK WEINKE set out to take him to the jail in Long Island City. The prisoner was handcuffed and placed in the constable's horse and buggy.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE DOING. Some Who Travel, Some Who Do Not, and Others Who Talk.

—L. L. Scalf, formerly of Pittsburgh, but now a leader at the Boston Bar, is in the city for a few days visiting his mother.

—Harold P. Brown, the New York electrician, who is at the Duquesne, in company with E. E. Dennison, the well-known Philadelphia electrical contractor.

—John Windrim, of Philadelphia, son of the late John Windrim, of the Treasury Department at Washington, is in the city, stopping at the Seventh Avenue Hotel.

UNDER BRIGHT SKIES

The Garfield Memorial is Unveiled With Solemn Services.

A MIGHTY MULTITUDE PRESENT. Impressive Speeches by Harrison, Hayes, Sherman and Others.

MAGNIFICENT STREET PROCESSION. Tens of Thousands of Graciously Uniformed Men Marching in Line.

The exercises at Cleveland yesterday were of the most impressive character. The crowd was the largest seen in the city since the unveiling of General Grant's monument.

CLEVELAND, May 30.—A kind Providence smiled on Cleveland to-day, and if the day could not have been more perfect, every detail had been attended to and only one thing more was needed to make every body happy.

Participate in the Memorial Service at the National Soldiers' Home. MILWAUKEE, May 30.—Twelve hundred veterans were marshaled on the broad parade in front of the National Soldiers' Home this morning under command of Major Rowley, as marshal of the day.

THE VIRGINIA NATIONAL CEMETERY. WASHINGTON, May 30.—The local G. A. R. post, accompanied by the Winchester Light Infantry and citizens, marched to the National Cemetery this morning, and after appropriate ceremonies decorated with flowers the graves of the Union dead.

A NEW SIXTH STREET BRIDGE. The Managers of the Suspension Bridge Company were represented at a well-attended meeting of the President, managers and stockholders yesterday morning.

THE HONORED GUESTS. But the greatest applause was reserved for the honored guests of the day—President Harrison, Vice President Sherman and the cabinet.

A CHANGE OF DATE

Advocated by Delegates to the Democratic State Convention.

FRIENDS OF WALLACE HUSTLING. Faunce Will Sacrifice His Own Aspirations to Assist Him.

THE COMPLETE RETURNS FROM BEAVER Show an Overwhelming Majority for Townsend and Quay Number Two.

A number of Philadelphia delegates want the Democratic State Convention postponed one week, at least. The present date will interfere with the festivities of July 4.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30.—There is considerable disaffection in Democratic circles because July 2 has been chosen as the date for the holding of the Democratic State Convention, and an effort will be made to have the Executive Committee of the State Convention called together for the purpose of having it changed until July 9, one week later.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH. The "Hallelujah Chorus" by Handel was next sung, after which President Harrison was introduced. He said:

INTERFERE WITH THE PATRIOTS. "The 24 of July," continued Mr. McGowan, "which is the date fixed for the holding of the State convention, will interfere materially with those who have made their arrangements to go out of town on the 24th of July."

ONCE UNCLE BILLY. President Harrison was followed by Vice President Morton and Governor Campbell, who made short speeches. There were cries for General Sherman, and when the old warrior rose he had tumultuous cheering.

THE DEDICATION. Secretary Windom, Postmaster General Wauwatsick, Attorney General Miller, Secretary of the Interior, William W. Taft, and Ex-Postmaster General Sherman were present.

THE HONORED GUESTS. But the greatest applause was reserved for the honored guests of the day—President Harrison, Vice President Sherman and the cabinet.
