The Pittsburgs Lose Another Game Because They Could Not Hit the Ball-Pittsburg Only Makes Five Scattering Hits in Nine Insings. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. CINCINNATI, June 5.-Clouds welcomed the Reds home and nature in thandrous peaks fur-nished the plaudits. The rain interfered with the ovation, and only 1,200 people wore out to see the locals tackie the tail enders from Pittsburg. W. L. Washington's Kennel of Irish Setter Take Everything at Cincinnati. Pittsburg dogs again loomed up as winners at Cincinnati, capturing almost everything they competed for, W. L. Washington's Irish setters

THE SAME OLD STORY.

Schmitt was in the box for the visitors, but was bit pretty freely. In the first inning hits by McPhee, Reilly and Knight, with Beard's sacri-fice, yielded a brace of earned tallies. Marr was disabled by a pitched ball in Cleveland. Mullane competent for, w. He led off in the second with a covered third. He led off in the second with a hit and the battery followed suit. A gift to McPhee forced Mullane home, and sacrifices by Beard and Holiday yielded two runs. A base on balls to Mullane, a siteal and Harrington's drive to center gave the sixth run. Another pair came in the fifth, the result of McPhee's hit after Schmitt had given both Mullane aud Harring-ton life.

Schmitt had given both Mullane and Harring-ton life. The game ended with a sensational catch by Knight of a fly from Miller's bat. Pittsburg lost because they could not hit the ball. Roat at third was way off in his playing. Schmitt's pitching was not bad by any means, considering the poor support and the fact that his side couldn't nit the ball. The Pittsburgs made five scattering hits that yielded only one run, while the Beds made 12 hits. Score:

"When Ayer's Sarsaparills was rec-ommended to me for catarrh, I was in-clined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little ben-eft, I had no faith that anything would efit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and re-ferred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bettles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood." - Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st., Lowell, Mass.
