OUT AT ROCK POINT.

Nearly Twenty Thousand People at the Amalgamated Picnic.

SATURDAY'S PITHY LABOR ITEMS

Among the hundreds of picnics that have been held at Rock Point, there never was such a one as that held there yesterday by the Amalgamated Association. The had Committee of Arrangements counted on having 10,000 people out, but early in the morning trains laden with thousands of prospective excursionists lett Pittsburg, Wheeling, Bellaire, New Castle, Steubenville, Youngstown, Ashtabula Cleveland, and when all it was estimated that no less than 18,000 to 20,000 people were on the grounds. The weather was threatening at times, but old Sol had too much consideration for the picnickers to spoil their pleasure, and not a drop of rain fell the entire

The delegates to the Amalgamated Associntion met at 9 o'clock. After roll cal they formed in marching order, and, headed by the Select Knights Band, marched to the Union station. Trains comprising 150 cars, and carrying 8,000, left the Union depot inside of three hours. Many of the members took their families.

THE DAY'S ENJOYMENTS.

At Rock Point no set programme was pursued. The people rushed into the grounds and seattered back over the hills, across the Beaver river and up the Connoquenessing at will. Some fished; others played games. Some put in the whole day on the grounds. swinging, dancing, riding on the roller coaster or "flying dutchman;" others strolled up the ramble to the falls and viewed the beautiful scenery along the Connoquenessing. There was an attempt at a game of ball, but no man in all that throng could ced to assume the responsibility of umpiring the game, and it was abandoned.

There were fakirs of every description on the ground. There were also pickpockets and other crooks there. A man named Wilson, from New Castle, had a gold watch stolen from him in the afternoon Considering the vast number present, it is probably not fair to say the crowd was a disorderly one. The committee had made a rule that there should be no drinking on the ground, but the rule was like a good many of the Ten Commandments.

A FEW ON THEIR MUSCLE,

There were also a number of fights toward evening. One occurred across the Beaver river, opposite the grounds, in which William Dugan, of Youngstown, had his head and face badly cut and part of one ear bit off. During the afternoon a quarrel arose between two men over a woman. One of the men drew a knife and threatened to stab the first one who came near him. He held the fort for a while, but got into another rumpus and was pretty badly used

There was a great deal of difficulty in getting the crowd away from the Point. Trains were scheduled to run every half hour from 4 until 8:30 P. M., but owing to some disarrangement of railroad affairs no train left the grounds for any point from 5 to 8 o'clock. The Pittsburg excursionists did not get home until after 11 o'clock last

The convention will meet again to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, to continue the discussion of the scale. Now that the price for boiling has been reaffirmed, it is not thought the convention will waste much time over the remainder of the scale

THE TINNERS' STRIKE SETTLED.

A Compromise Effected at a Conference

The tinners' strike was settled yesterday, and the men will return to work to-morrow morning. A meeting of the strikers will be held this afternoon for the purpose of receiving the report of their Conference Committee as to the terms of settlement. This information could not be obtained from either side yesterday, but it is understood that the employers made great concessions.

At a meeting of the master tinners, it was decided to call another conference with the strikers and make some overtures to them. The strikers' committee was notified, and both sides came together at 2 o'clock. The meeting was held in the rooms of the Build-ers' Exchange, in the Benshaw building, and, after a stubborn fight on both sides, the matter was amicably adjusted. The conference did not adjourn until supper time, and after the strikers had left Mr. John McIlroy, of the Masters' Conference Committee, said.

"The strike has been settled satisfactorily to both sides and the men will go to work on Monday morning. I cannot say what the terms were, but concessions were made on both sides. The terms will be satisfactory to all the employers and the strikers will meet to morrow to ratify the action of their committee. There is not any question at all but that the men will go to work and everybody will be giad of it. We are away back in our work, but hope to catch up The strike was inaugurated May 1 and was for an advance of wages. Some of the master tinners signed the scale, but the majority of them, who were bound by an agree ment not to do so, stuck out and went so fa as to do all the work they could themselves many places, and out in the East End there are a number of houses waiting for the tinners to do their part of the job. In half a dozon or more places families have been kept out of their houses on account of the timpers refusing to work until they got what

ORGANIZING TUBE WORKERS.

The Knights of Labor Again Secure Footbold in McKeesport.

The Knights of Labor have again secured: oothold in McKeesport among the iron workers. About three years ago the order had about 1,000 members in the National Tube Works, but the strike of '87 killed three of the local assemblies, and the other one lapsed about six months later.

Ex-District Master Workman Ross, of D. A. No. 3. Knights of Labor, was in Me-Keesport last night and organized an as-sembly among the National Tube Works employes. When the latter were on strike a few months ago, they saw the necessity of an organization. The officials of the comorganized, the last strike for an increase of wages could not have occurred.

The new local assembly starts off with several hundred members. It has not been given a name yet and will not until the charter is received from the general head-quarters next week. This makes three ssemblies in the growing young city.

The Arbitration Committee appointed to investigate the wages paid in other mills, is still at work. It is not known yet what their decision will be. Whatever it is, the company will abide by the decision, and if higher wages are paid anywhere else, it will advance its employes to the same standard.

The sub-committee has in its possession a great amount of testimony damaging to Mr. McGaw. When the report is made the members say they will spring a sensation that will startle the labor world. One of the committee men stated yesterday that, among other evidence, they found that Mr. McGaw approached James Campbell's attorneys and asked for a settlement. The committee is also preparing statements from newspaper offices in regard to the threats made by Mr. McGaw as to what he would do if anything about the $5,000 settlement was published.

The Union's Delegates Not Admitted to the Building Trades Council.

A regular meeting of the Building Trades Council of Allegheny county was held last night, and James Mitchell and Charles Baughman, of the Plasterers' International Association, and W. A. McDade, of Painters' and Decorators' Local Union No. 84, were admitted as members.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to examine into the credentials from the Electrical Union reported that the union was composed of inside wiremen and dynamo men, and that they could not be admitted until they became exclusive organ-izations of men who worked simply on buildings during their erection. A special meeting to consider the constitution will be held next Saturday.

The German Labor Paper Assigns After an Unremoverative Existence.

The German labor paper, after a brief, spirited and unremunerative struggle with the world, gave up the ghost yesterday and decided to close out its business. The paper was started about a year ago for the purpose of advocating the rights of the German workingmen. The following tale of woe from the court records tells the story:

A deed of assignment of the property of the German Workingmen's Publishing Com-pany, proprietors of the Arbeiter Zeitung, to Lorenz Blattner for the benefit of creditors, was filed yesterday in the Recorder's office.

The Bar Association Adopts the Deed and Mortgage Revision.

Harvey Henderson, John G. Bryant and John A. Evans, Esqs., the committee appointed to procure deed and mortgage forms, reported their work to the Bar Association yesterday. The report and forms recom-mended were adopted without division. Mr. Henderson stated that no reform can be effected unless the majority of the bar co-operate, and the Bar Association will work to a man to overcome the prejudice of those who object. As the binding power of the new forms is fully equal to that of the old, and as the elimination should save taxpayers many thousands of dollars, beside contributing to security in examination of title, there does not seem to be the smallest possible reason why any one should make objection.

COULDN'T BE PROVED.

Detective Walkup's Charges Against Mayor Wyman Fall Through.

VERY FEW WITNESSES ON HAND.

And the Evidence Adduced of Such Hearsay Character That

COL. ECHOLS HAS THE CASE DISMISSED

The bearing before Alderman Reilly yesterday afternoon in the case of Mayor James G. Wyman, of Allegheny, charged by Isaac H. Walkup with perjury in taking the oath of office, collapsed very speedily. Colonel J. B. Echols appeared for the prosecutor and the defendant was flanked by Thomas M. Marshall, W. D. Porter, Frank Bennett and J. S. Ferguson, all of whom took a hand at intervals.

For some reason the witnesses for the prosecution, of which there were said to be many, were not discernible. President Hunter, of Allegheny Common Council, was first called, but did not respond. Colonel Echols stated that the constable had not been able to find him, and suggested that this wasn't material, but Mr. Marshall was not disposed to yield the point, and the prosecutor was then sworn, it being agreed that Hunter's lapse might be allowed to rest for the present, but Mr. Marshall said he would not agree that the swearing should be taken for granted.

In answer to interrogatories fired at him from all the defendant's counsel, but mainly from Mr. Marshall, Mr. Walkup stated that he represented in the prosecution a number of the best citizens of Allegheny. To this Mr. Marshall responded: "I'm one of them and you don't represent me." of them, and you don't represent me."
After some chaffing, Mr. Walkup said Louis Koemer told him he (Koemer) had been promised a position by Mayor Wyman and had carried money for him. William Scott, a moulder, ditto; H. C. Koehrner, ditto. He is an agent for the Barnes Safe and Lock Company.

WHAT HE HAD HEARD.

Witness had gotten considerable informa-tion from Robert Eberhardt, an ex-police-man, who said he got $25. A man named man, who said he got $20. A man hamed Taylor, a newspaper writer, had also furnished Walkup with information. He further testified that Albert Hetzel told him he had seen money paid to men in Beitler's saloon, on West Diamond street, Allegheny. John H. Lotta had told witness he (Lotta) had received money and the promise of a position as a detective by Wyman. Robert Boggs had told witness of having seen Harry Miller get $18 or $20 in Alderman McKelvey's office. Miller said he "was broke, and would have to see Jim." Walkup did not know but that it might have been a loan, or for work done. The recipient had asked the crowd to drink after recipient had asked the crowd to drink after he got the money. Edward Hesser gave witness some bogus tax receipts that Hesser said Wyman had used. Hesser said he had gotten them from John Milby, who said people had voted on them.

Several specimens of the receipts were exhibited, and Mr. Marshall said in comment, "This is all moonshine," and continued comment on them at considerable length in the disparaging manner incident to such the disparaging manner incident to such proceedings

After a time Walkup resumed and said that Michael Coon had told him he (Coon) had received $10 from Wyman, at which Coon broke through the crowd and denounced the statement as false. Mr. Coon was somewhat excited, but Chief of Police Murphy exerted repression, and Coon was turned out, shricking, "You shan't mis-represent me; that's a lie," etc.

BEER FOR A CLUBROOM. Walkup kept on in the even tenor of his way, and stated that Marty Oliver had told him that "Jim Wyman sent six kegs of beer to Baeder's clubroom and $5 for the use of the room. I heard the same from a man named Smith. Andy Montgomery, of the Fitth or Sixth ward, told me that his friends went to see Jim, and he promised him position, and he was all right up to within 30 minutes before Wyman announced his appointments. David Morrison, of the Second ward, said he had been promised the position of ordnance officer."

Mr. Marshall—Is there any law against making promises?

"You play poker, Mr. Walkup?"

"Yes; I have played with Mr. Murphy." Mr. Murphy replied that he was never "skinned" by the witness.

Mr. Marshall asked witness if he had no told that he was to get $300 in case he "ousted" Mr. Wyman. He said he might have said so. Mr. Marshall said: "But now you say you were not promised that?"

"No, sir. I was not. It I said so, I did it for a purpose. "Then you deliberately circulated a lie for a purpose

WOULD BE TAKEN CARE OF. Mr. Marshall then asked him what he had been promised in case he accomplished his "I was not promised any money, but was told I would be taken care of," Mr. Marshall—You never struck John Newell for eash?

Ex-County Detective William C. Langhurst was next sworn, and denied that he had been promised money or office for secur-ing Wyman's election.

William Baeder, William Braun and William Baeder, William Braun and Harry Miller were called as witnesses by the prosecution, but did not answer and could not be found on the premises, and this so disgusted Colonel Echols that he felt like making a speech, and after a brier conference with Walkup, said: "Your Honor, I wish to make a statement right here. I am not interested in this case, personally, and only took it after I had been told that the case was ready for prosecution. I was urged to take it to hurry up the matter of Mr. Wyman's guilt or innocence, and which could be done more speedily by a criminal suit than by the civil one that promises to be long drawn out. I see as well as you all do that there is nothing in this charge. I only con-sented to go into it for a cash consideration tendered me by a number of Allegheny citizens. There is no use in going farther with it, and I hereby wash my hands of the entire matter."

The Alderman announced that the suit was dismissed. Mayor Wyman was tendered a reception by his friends, and some clapping of hands and cheering were heard.

J. S. Ferguson, Esq., furnished the dessert by announcing that the civil suit was on the eve of being withdrawn. entire matter."

HARD TO GET CONVICTIONS. The matter was considerably discussed subsequently among lawyers, and the gen-eral opinion was the same as that expressed by J. D. Watson, viz.: That prosecutions for violation of Article 7 of the State Confor violation of Article 7 of the State Con-stitution will never be effective so long as the person bribed is subject to the same pun-ishment as the briber, as they cannot be made out. It was suggested that if the per-son bribed were given immunity and given half of a considerable fine imposed on the briber, elections would either become pure in a short time or there would be a rattling of dry bones that would scare active politicians out of the field.

For many years E. P. Roberts & Sons have done the largest diamond business in the city, and their trade in this branch seems to be constantly increasing. They buy all their goods direct from the importer, and handle only the finest quality of gems. One advantage they have over the other dealers is, they mount all their gems in their own factory on the premises. This, with the fact that they buy their goods in large quantities at close prices, enables them to offer diamonds and precious stones at lower prices than they are generally sold.

If you know nothing about diamonds go to E. P. Roberts & Sons and they will sell you the best possible goods for the money, with an absolute guarantee as to quality.

SHOT IN THE BREAST

Death of Mrs. Maggie Connelly Under Peculiar Circumstances.

KILLED BY A FLOBERT RIFLE BALL.

Her Husband Claims it Was the Result of an Accident, but is

PLACED UNDER ARREST FOR MURDER

The Flobert rifle got in its deadly work again yesterday, and Arthur Connelly is now under arrest awaiting the result of an inquiry into his young wife's death.

Connelly, who is employed at Moorhead, McCleane & Co.'s mill, lived with his wife in two rooms on the third floor of a house on Soston street, near the Soho schoolhouse. Shortly after 7 vesterday morning neighbors heard a shrick, and rushing into Connelly's kitchen, found Mrs. Connelly, in her night dress, lying dead on the floor, while her husband was bending over her and implor-ing her to speak to him. Connelly stated that the shooting was accidental.

THE HUSBAND ARRESTED. Officer Sullivan was called, and arrested Connelly. The Flobert rifle which fired the fatal shot was found in the room. The bullet had entered the woman's breast and caused an internal hemorrhage. The neighbors state that Connelly and his wife, who had been married about seven months, appeared to be on very affectionate terms, and had never been heard to quarrel.

Mrs. Connelly, whose maiden name was Maggie Daly, her parents living at Sharpsburg, was 23 years. Connelly married Mag-gie to obtain his freedom from jail. Connelly, after being placed in the Fourteenth ward station, made the follow-ing statement for publication.

CONNELLY'S STORY.

I have been at home for the past two weeks suffering with a burned leg. Last evening I told Steve Griffen, the son of my landlord, that cats were killing his pigeons, and if he would loan his rifle to me I would try and shoot the cats. He prought the rifle to my rooms last night and one cartridge. The rifle is a small one, known as the "Flobert." The cartridge was in the gun at the time, and I left it on the dining room table over night. In the morning I started out in the back yard with the rifle, and after a time returned to the house, and in passing my wife who was preparing kindling in the yard for the breakfast fire, I playfully struck her with the butt of the gun on the thigh. She reached up and caught the barrel of the gun and pulled it toward her. The gun at the time was at half cock, and I had no thought it would go off in that condition. The bullet entered her right breast. I nelped her into our rooms and placed her in a rocking chair and then called Mrs. Griffen, who resides in the same house with me. When Mrs. Griffen came we placed my wife on the floor with a pillow under her head, and she only lived a few minutes after she received the wound. She was unable to speak, only in a mumbling way.

A HAPPY COUPLE. told Steve Griffen, the son of my landlord, tha

When asked it he had had any dispute with his wife, Connelly said: "She was as good a wife to me as any man would want, and from the day we were married, seven months ago, there has not been a cross word assed between us,"

Coroner McDowell impaneled a jury and viewed the body and then adjourned the in-quest until to-morrow morning. Dr. J. Guy McCandless made a post mortem examination and then the remains were removed to the home of the dead woman's parents at

PICKERING'S MAMMOTH ARCADE

UNSURPASSED.

IT MAY SEEM singular, it is nevertheless true, that nothing can check our rapid and progressive strides. We don't know what dull trade is. The people appreciate first-class goods at low prices. We are always busy, while others with their high prices and inferior goods shudder at the ides, with their hands in their pockets, as it were, amszed at our unprecedented success. Our ambition is not satisfied since we have surpassed all competitors-we mean to distance all;

and 'ere long they'll realize that "they are not in it." If you need anything this
