CHICAGO, June 7 .- When the Chicago and Pittsburg Piayers' League teams finished their game this afternoon they left behind them a bundle of malodorous recollections. Of all the wretched ball games played in this town the present season the one of to-day was pre-emi-nently the worst. It may have amused the crank, but as an exhibition of the sport by two professional clubs it was a nauseating failure. The playing was so poor that errors but faintly describe it. Barston was knocked out of the box. So was Maul. Then Galvin pitched into the grand stand and Dwyer, the Hobart College youngster, puffed and grunted as his curves were lined into pastorial regions, l'ittsburg won the game. They won it by slugging. But their fielding was wretched. Attendance, 2,800. 0 1 Carroll, c... 3 0 0 Heckley, 1... 2 0 0 Fields, 1.... 1 3 1 Kuehne, 3... 0

He says fields, Beckley, Visuer and Carroll are hitting the ball out of sight. In the opening game, Jim Gaivin will pitch for Pittsburg and Baldwin for the Chicagos. CINCINNATI, June 7 .- Once more the Reds lead the National League procession. Three rather hard decisions warmed the sharp con-test. Two of them were against the unfortunate tail enders and one in their favor. The latter cost the Reds a run. While young Baker was not freely hit, those made off his delivery were long, among them a home run, and two three-baggers. Nicol was driven home with the first run after his hit by Keenan's triple. McPhee's hit, by the grace of McDermott and two sacrifices, gave the second. Nicol made the third on a base on balls, a steal and Mullane's double, McPhee's homer, a base on balls, Relliy's single and Knight's triple were the cause of the last three runs. Nicol's muff of Sunday's line fly, a three runs. Nicol's must of Sunday's line fly, a steal, Hines' sacrifice and Berger's long hit broke the row of ciphers for Pittsburg, and Berger made the other on his hit, Baker's base on bails and Decker's second safe drive. The latter made a couple of errors in the field, but they did not cost his side anything. Boat made the star play of the game, on a marvelous stop of a hit from Mcl'hee's bat in the eighth. RACES ON THE FOURTH

Another Matinee Day to be Given at Homewood Driving Park.

LARGE PURSES AND GOOD SPORT.

The Programme Will Also Include a Number of Special Events.

PREPARING FOR THE SUMMER MEET

The Fromewood Driving Park Association is determined that Pittsburg will have her share of trotting races this season at least, and if they are properly encouraged the sport will be continued year after year. The members were greatly pleased at the result of their Decoration Day matinee races, and feel that the people are with them in their endeavors to drag the sport from the background to which it has been the second of the s been thrown of late years.

Satisfied that the Pittsburg public will support them, it has been decided to hold a series of matinee races on the Fourth of July. series of matinee races on the Fourth of July. Much the same programme as at the Decoration Day meeting will be observed, but the time may be made a little faster. Good purses will be offered and that will draw in many more entries than were withing to compete for the small purses at the initial meeting of the season. The fact is that local horsemen did not want large purses for the Decoration Day races. They elaimed that their horses were green and they did not care to compete against horses with records behind them. For this reason the association made the purses small, but for the Fourth of July meeting larger amounts will be offered in order to bring in record horses.

CAPTAIN KERR TALKS. Captain Thomas R. Kerr, President of the Homewood Driving Park Association, said yesterday afternoon:

"We were very well pleased at the crowd that attended our Decoration Day races, and that is the reason we are going to give a matinee on the reason we are going to give a matinee on the Fourth of July. We propose to give l'ittsburg pienty of good racing and hope to be uphield in our endeavors to furnish honest, healthful sport to the public. There is no reason why we should not be, and I believe we will.

"Secretary McCracken leaves on Monday to attend the meeting of the stewards of all the racing associations in the country, to be held in Rochester. He does not go especially to seek admission to the Grand Circuli. There is no need for us to be in the circuit. It is an organization in name only. We will offer big purses to be competed for and our dates for the regular summer meeting in July will be so arranged as to catch all the good horses, so that we will be just as well off as if we were in the circuit.

GOOD SPORT PROMISED. 'The Association proposes to give this city lots of good sport this summer. Our Fourth of July matinee programme has not yet been arranged, but it will be such as will draw the best horses of this section of the State to the track. The purses will be larger than those of the Decoration Day races, which will of course bring in the good horses. Then there will be special races that will add interest to the meeting. The owners of Green Horn say he was unfairly treated and should have beaten Harry Honias in the 2:29 pace on May 30. The owners of the latter horse expressed a willinguess to back him against Green Horn, and a stake race will be arranged between the two for the coming meeting. Two trotting horses will also be matched in such a race, and probably a third race of the kind will be had. These contests, together with the regular programme, will make an interesting day's sport, and will draw a large crowd to the grounds. ection of the State to the track. The purses will Tounds.

There are a number of good horses now in training at Homewood, and nearly every day the string is increased by new animals. Everything points to a most successful season, and the propects for good races never were brighter.

GOSSIP ON THE DERBY.

Thousands of Americans See the Great English Horse Race-They Bet on the Wrong Horse and Lost-Other Gosslp.

[BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.] LONDON, June 7.—Although there was a storm of rain all day on the Derby day for the first time in Il years, the arder of the Americans in London who desired to see the great classic race was not at all dampened, and very few of our British cousins were kept away by the weather, if one of the greatest crowds that ever gathered on Epsom Downs may be considered a criterion to go by. The tops of most of the four-in-hands that left the Victoria Hote: were covered by Americans in Mackintoshe, and storm coats and long row- of coaches populated solely by Americans were drawn up on the hill opposite the finish. Colonel W. H. Reynolds had a party on his coach, in which were Consul General New, Senator Macdonald, of Arkansas, and Brent Good. Arthur Gillette, and L. D. Rondebush, of New York: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. King, Jr., Mrs. Alice Shaw, Felix Tone, Murphy and Faul Waterman, also of New York, occupied the next coach, and near them was Dr. Edward Webb and Mrs. Webb with a party comprising Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sloane, and Creighton and Louis Webb. There were 2000 or 3,000 other American son the covered by Americans in Mackintoshe, and storm

Webb with a party comprising Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sloane, and Ureighton and Louis Webb. There were 2,000 or 3,000 other Americans on the historic downs and a hundred and odd thousand others.

Unfortunately most of the Americans bet on Surefoot and LeNord; and there was great surprise and consternation when Sainfoin ied under the wire. Many of the heavy backers of the favorite insisted that the horse had been doctored; but his owners scouted the idea, and declared that Surefoot's savage temper lost him the race. The pace at the start was wretch-diy slow, and Surefoot amused himself by biting at the other horses and their lockeys, severely injuring Webb, who rode LeNord.

It was only in the last half mile that the real race began, and then Surefoot sprawied around Tattenham corner like a cart horse entirely out of the control of his rider, and still biting and striking at the other horses as they went down the straight to the finish. There is little doubt that if Webb had made his effort earlier on Le Nord he would have won, for at the close he was gaining on the leader at every stride.

Sir James Miller, the owner of Sainfoin, won the Derby at the first attempt, is the youngest owner who has ever won. He is 23 years of age, and its a Lieutenant in the Fourteenth Hussars. He purchased Sainfoin for 7.500 guineas.

The Duke of Portland has had another lucky racing week. He won the Oaks with his mare Memoir, and the Ebson grand prize with St. Serf:

The Duke of Portland has had another lucky racing week. He won the Oaks with his mare Memoir, and the Epson grand prize with St. Serf; and as though this was not enough, he drew the lierby winner in the richest English sweepstake. Horsemen consider it curious that the Duke's mare Semoline always beats Memoir in their private rials, and yet Memoir has always the best of it in the public racing.

ST LOUIS DERRY The Race Easily Won by Bill Letcher-The

Other Events. Sr. Louis, June 7.—A more ideal day for racing could not be conceived than favored the patrons of the St. Louis Jockey Club for the opening of the regular summer meeting. The grand stand was packed, with fully 2,000 ladles occupying the private boxes and reserved sections of the stand. The entire attendance was estimated at 10,000. The Derby was, of course, the big event of the day, but it was a great disappointment. There was but one horse in it, so far as qualities for first-class performance is concerned—Bill Letcher, He had a cluch on the result. In the betting he was a but favorite at 12 to 1. Queer Toy had been backed heavily for the place, but was scratched early in the day, leaving only Letcher, The Bishop and Grayson in the race. Farguson sent them off at the first attempt, The Bishop in the lead, Letcher half a length back and Grayson a full length behind. At the first quarter Grayson attempted to bolt, and his jockey had all he could do to keep him out of the fence. He was not in the race after that, Passing the stand the positions were the same as the start. They ran unchanged until the mile was reached, when Bill Letcher, with the greatest case, passed The Bishop and bad the race won. He traveled easily into the stretch. Here The Bishop was given the whip, but he could not catch the leader. Letcher finished dirst under a puil, The Bishop was second, four lengths back and two lengths in front of Grayson. Time, 2:19%. TO GO AS A BATTALION.

Uniformed Rank of the U. A. M. Ready for the Chicago Trip-An Important Natieral Convention-Mayor Gourley on the Public Schools.

The First Regiment, United American Mechanics, met last night and made final arrangements for the trip to Chicago to attend the national convention. They determined to go as a battalion and put up at the Grand Pacific Hotel. The members intending to go are expected to meet next Sunday, the 15th, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, at Union Veteran Legion Hall, No. 77 Sixth avenue, in full uniform. The First Regiment U. A. M. Band will escort them to the station.

The Select Knights, A. O. U. W., have accepted an invitation to go along to Chi-cago, and it is expected they will turn out nearly 400 men.

The special excursion train, bearing the Pittsburg delegation, will leave next Sun-day, at 2:30 P. M., over the Fort Wayne road. It is likely the change of name disroad. It is likely the change of name dis-cussion will result in the name "Order United Americans" being submitted to a vote of the councils. The matter of consoli-dation with the Senior Order, and the question of employing a national organizer will also come up. The programme for the meeting has already been published in these columns. Mayor Gourley, of this city, will deliver an address in the Auditorium on Tuesday evening, June 17, on "Our Public Schools." The arrangements for the excur-sion have been attended to by State Vice Councillor, and any information regarding sleeping car accommodations can be had from him.

June 17, the date of the celebration, is Bunker Hill Day, and as the order is booming in Chicago at present, it is intended to make a favorable impression on the citizens of the Windy City.

UNDER THE HILLSIDE.

Agent O'Brien Unearths a Revolting Case on the Southside. Through the agency of General Agent O'Brien, of the Humane Society, Constable Langenbaches and Alderman Beinhauer, a portion of the population of the Southside was discovered vesterday that was probably not counted in the census enumeration.

Yssterday information was received from persons living near the corner of South Sixth street and Mint alley to the effect that a young girl was lying in a cellar, where she had been for some days. Inquiry was made of some of the people in the neighbor-hood, who directed the officers to the house of Mrs Stella Kratzga, a Polish woman, living in the rear of No. 616 Mint alley, just below the tracks of the Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston Railroad. One side of the house is built directly against the bank that supports the railroad tracks, leaving but one entrance, on the Mint alley side. As the two men entered the yard and passed quickly into a room that proved to be a basement kitchen, they were met by a woman who turned quickly toward a door on the opposite side of the room and called:
"Stella, get up." The officers hastened through the room. The absence of light was so complete that the men were unable to see if anyone were in the place or what kind of a room it was. The constable struck a match, throwing a very feeble light upon a room and scene that startled both. Lying on an improvised bed of posts about two feet high and some rough boards, lay a young girl, whose appearance was handsome and even striking amid the filth of her surroundings. On her breast was a mite of a girl baby, who was crying in a faint, plaintive voice. The girl, when questioned by Agent O'Brien, said her child was born on Wednesday. Since then she had received such care as her mother could supply, but until vesterday afternoon the child had not worn a stitch of clothing, and then the single garment was a dress furnished by a neighbor. In the cellar, where she has been for the last five days, light is admitted only through a small hole next to the railroad tracks.

The mother told the officer her daugher stayed in the cellar because there was no room for her in the other rooms of the house. The "other rooms" are two which are occu-pied by Mrs. Kratzga and some boarders. An information was made against the woman charging her with cruelty to her daughter. She gave bail for a hearing to-morrow. Frank Penas, a young ironworker was charged by the young girl, and entered bail for a hearing next Saturday. Fought Over a Dog. J. W. Shea will have a hearing before Alderman Warner, on Tuesday, for assault and battery. The plaintiff and he fought over a dog, and the former claims that Shea kicked him, and then rolled him over the hillside above Jones avenue.

Six Cars of Fine Horses. J. B. Haggin, the California turfman, passed through the city last evening with six carloads of trotters and runners. One of the animals was valued at $30,000. There were 96 horses, and all of them will be sold in the East.

THE body of Captain George Poor was found foating in the Mississippi river at Hickman Thursday. He left home early Tuesday morning, went directly to the river and jumped in. He had been the captain of several boats and lately was wharfmaster at this point. ABOUT 25,000,000 bushels of coal are at lower ports just now. Operators hope that no further

J. D. RISHER's failure does not excite the panic prophesied by cotemporary journals. The failure had not been by any means unexpected, and now that it has come, the creditors are not in the least will be paid in full, and that work will go on swimmingly. "All's well that ends well." THE competition by river for the business between St. Louis and Cairo the coming season will be quite lively and interesting, as there will be 12 departures a week from St. Louis, an average of 2 steamers per day leaving there over a territory of 200 miles. Shippers cannot complain of tonuage, and no doubt can be accommodated with rates in reporting.

THE turtles, tadpoles and terrapins are getting nneasy in the upper Ohio. The river is getting low, and while they don't mind "scratching gravel" to keep wet, it's the dust that blows off the bank and bars that fills their eyes and they can't see how to steer clear of each other and avoiding collision. The season has set in when the river becomes very low and confined to its bed.

It just occurs to me that economy is the road to wealth, and a great many people get rich on what others throw away. So never throw away your old clothes, gentlemen, but take them to Dickson, the Tailor, 65 Fifth avenue, corner Wood street, second floor, who, for a small sum of money, will make them look like new. Mr. Dickson makes a specialty of this kind of work. Try him. Telephone 1558.

PLAIN AND FANCY

OXFORDS

There's a heap of comfort in them. Did vou ever wear a pair in summer? In real hot weather? The wonder is that people wear anything else. As a matter of fact, we have sold more so far this season than ever before. On Saturday we could scarcely wait on the crowds who came to see and buy them. Perhaps it is our magnificent assortment; perhaps the prominence we have given them in the paper; perhaps the people in general are becoming more accustomed to them.
