county will be represented in the State Democratic Convention by four Pattison delegates. The County Democratic Committee met here to-day and fixed August 5 as the time for holding the County Convention, and eleced C. E. Fendrick, E. B. Diehl, August Duncan and P. M. Shoemaker as State delegates. There was a very hard fight made to elect Wallace delegates, but the Pattison candidates were elected by nearly two to one. A small crowd of Democrats who favored Wallace's candidacy had agents riding the country from end to end for a week, but secured only 14 votes out of 37 for the highest canidate against 25 for the highest Pattison delegate

One of the Wallace leaders is showing this evening a letter from the Clearfield candi-date thanking him for his efforts in his behalf and for his very hopeful reports, and saying that he expected to have, by last night, the influence of a leading railroad official, in this valley, at work in his behalf.

WRIGHT FORMALLY ENTERED.

Lehigh's Eight Democratic Delegates Instructed for Him for Governor

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

ALLENTOWN, June 7. - Robert F. Wright, the well-known lawyer, politician and banker of this city was to-day formally entered in the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor. The County Convention to elect 8 delegates to the State Convention met in the Court House this afternoon, and was presided over by A. H. Focht, a Sowden Democrat. The only element of interest was the contest for scats from the Sixth ward, Allentown, and the Second ward, Catasauqua. It took the committee over an hour to decide in favor of the sitting members. The resolutions adopted at the late meeting of the county standing committee that the delegates from Lehigh support Mr. Wright for Governor so long as Baker, of Li there is a possibility of his nomination, and for Congress.

LOOKING FOR A CANDIDATE

The Democrats in the Eric-Crawford Dis trict in Search of One.

TEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. ERTE, June 7 .- The Democrats are casting about for a suitable candidate for Congress. Mr. J. S. McKinney, of Titusville, and Hon. John C. Brady, of Erie, are talked of. An effort is being made to induce Mr. Joshua A. Thornton, of Avonia, to accept the Farmers' Alliance nomination. That is a Democratic scheme, and will not likely mature.

Hon. William Scott is taking no hand in ocal politics, being at home in ill health. The feeling of the Democracy here is in-tensely in favor of Pattison's nomination for Governor.

The clerk believed the negro to be guilty, and the negro was convicted on cir-cumstantial evidence. He always denied his guilt. Now the clerk comes forward and says he is convinced that Shields is innocent, and that the store was burned by its owner for the insurance money. The clerk was very anxious that a pardon should be granted, and the Board of Di-rectors immediately petitioned the Governor to set at liberty the wrongfully imprisoned man. Shields received the information last evening with joy. He begged that he be re-leased this morning and the Governor promised he should. While at his office this morning, about to sign the pardon, the Governor was informed that Shields was dead. His vindication had come too late.
