POMP AND SOLEMNITY

Attend the Troy Hill Celebration of the Corons Christi Feast.

A LARGE CROWD IN ATTENDANCE.

Beautiful and Elegant Decorations Along the Line of March.

THE COMING PEAST OF ST. ANTHONY

A continuous throng of people went up the I roy Hill road yesterday morning from very early until 10 o'clock. They were bent upon witnessing the celebration of the feast of Corpus Christi at Father Mollinger's Church, on the summit of the hill, which was celebrated with great solemnity and pomp. For the past few days the people living in the neighborhood of the church have been making elaborate preparations for the ecremony. Houses were gaily decorated, and presented a beautiful appearance, as the decorations consisted of some very costly laces, suspended from the tops of the houses down to the ground. The American fing was displayed conspicuously and fluttered side by side with the papal colors of yellow and white. Nearly every house on Clark, Hazel, Forest and Hamilton streets, the route over which the procession marched, was decorated profusely. The decorations were not confined to the Ger-man Catholic residents of the Hill, but those whose religious views conflicted with the Catholics also entered into the spirit of the occasion, and contributed to make the colebration as grand as their neighbors.

As the hour drew nigh for the procession to start, the people were still busily engaged in decorating their houses. Pictures of saints were displayed, and miniature altars had been erected on which the benediction was given. Arches, covered with evergreen and laurel, with the American flux covering the frame. with the American flag covering the frame work, and large floral crosses on top, spanned the street at every turn. The streets which the procession traversed had been covered with tanbark, and a line of shrubbery had been placed on either side of the roadway, and small trees planted on the sidewalk added to the beauty of the

THE CEREMONY OF OLD.

The manner in which the feast was celebrated yesterday was as it was done of yore in Germany, but few of the German Catho-lic churches observe the feast in this country in the old way, with the exception of the congregation of St. Anthony, over which Rev. Father Mollinger presides. By 10 o'clock the little edifice on Clark street had been crowded to its utmost capacity. People filled the galleries and lined the nisles, and at least four times as many were on the outside endeavoring to secure admission. Within the church the decorations were as extensive as on the streets The national fing was displayed on all sides. Half way up the center aisle stood the elegant silk canopy under which the sacra-ment was carried through the streets, at the conclusion of the mass, by the Rev. Father Murphy, of the Holy Ghost College, who was celebrant at the mass, assisted by Father Alphonse, O. S. B., as deacon, and Father

Alphonse, U. S. B., as deacon, and Father Laignst, C. S. B., as sub-deacon.

Mr. McDermott, of the Holy Ghost College, officiated as Master of Ceremonies.

Some special music had been arranged for the occasion, and was well rendered by a chorus of 15 female and 10 male voices. The celebrant of the mass was robed in costly vestments, which were made for this special service. At the conclusion of the mass the procession filed out of the church, headed by a member of the Holy Name Society, bearing a beautiful American flag; then came about 200 small boys, who presented a nest appearance in white waists. St. Anthony's Literary Society came next, followed by the Holy Name Society, about 100 small girls, arrayed in dresses of white, carrying flowers in silver baskets. At a signal the girls faced about and threw flowers in the path of Father Murphy, the celebrant.

A VALUABLE CASKET.

Two acolytes preceded the four members of the Holy Name Society who bore the canopy under which Rev. Father Murphy carried a citorium profusely studded diamonds and precious stones, in which the Host was carried. This citorium was re-cently imported from Germany by Father Mollinger. After the celebrant came the congregation.

The procession proceeded along Hazel street to Mrs. Buck's residence, where bene-diction was given. The altar at the door-way was elaborately decorated, and the walk from the pavement to the house was covered with white cloth, and flowers were scattered over the ground on the approach to the altar. The church choir chanted hymns appropriate to the feast. At the elevation of the bost, the vast concourse of people knelt in prayer. The scene was a very impressive one. After benediction had been given, the procession moved on to the residence of Henry Terheyden, where similar exercises were held. The altar erected at this place was marked for its magnificence and aplendor. The procession stopped at the residence of John Guyer, on Clark Street, and the formality was repeated. August Snyder's house was the last place at which benediction was given. These four altars represented the four apostles. The procession then entered the country of the Te Deum" was chanted, after which the services concluded.

The Feast of St. Anthony will be celebrated Friday next. It was hoped that the services could be held in the new church, but it will not likely be completed by that time, and they will be held in the Hazel Street Church. It is confidently expected that at least 10,000 people, from all parts of the world, will be present at the feast. Already many have arrived and taken up quarters near the church in order to make

DR. NORCROSS' BACCALAUREATE

On the Duties of Life and the Infinences of True Character. Dr. A. H. Norcross preached the annual baccalaureate yesterday morning in Christ Church for the Pittsburg College, The senior class of 15 young ladies was present, together with a large congregation. Th Doctor selected Romans, zii., 21, as his text, and spoke of all attainments in school life and work as preparation to go forth on a mission to replace the evil of this world with good. The discourse abounded with advice as to the influences of a true character and the good all may do to relieve the disorder, suffering and sinful conditions about them. To replace the evil with the good is the mission of every-one. If the evil is disorder, the good is order. If the evil is suffering, the good is happiness. If the evil is sin, the good is duty. To promote order, to relieve suffer-ing, to follow after duty—these are the ways of a true and truly inspired life.

The discourse was concluded by showing that no one could miss the goal of a happy li'e following these inspired dictates of duty and religion.

A baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Pennsylvania College was preached at the East Liberty Presbyterian Church in the afterneon by Rev. Charles E.

Children's Day Remembered. In a number of churches yesterday, "Chil-oren's Day" and "Flower Day" special services were held, among them the Second Presbyterian, Merrill M. E. Church, Point Breeze Presbyterian and the First M. P.

Services in the Jall. THE services in the jail yesterday were conducted by Mr. W. Marshall, associated by the choir of the Second M. P. Church. There were present also half a dozen young men who furnished excellent string music.

PREPARING FOR THE FOURTH.

Catholic Societies Expect to Make a Magnificent Patriotic Showing. A meeting of the Pioneer Diocesan Council, American Federation of Catholic societies, was held yesterday afternoon in the Knights of St. George's Hall, on Penn avenue, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets. Vice President J. A. Skelley presided, and W. A. Golden, Esq., acted as secretary. Word was received from the Catholic Knighthood of Cleveland that they would accept the invitation to participat would accept the invitation to participate in the Fourth of July demonstration. A communication was received from Captain J. M. Wilhelm, of St. George Commandery, Knights of St. George, Cleveland, that his commandery would participate in the parade. Captain Wilhelm suggested that an exhibition drill be a part of the programme for the afternoon. The com-munication was adopted, and a committee was appointed to carry out the suggestion in reference to the drill. Chief Marshal Skelley, of the parade, announced that his headquarters would be opened on Friday, on the first floor at the rear of the Cathedral, No. 135 Fifth avenue, and that all suggestions and advice would be there acted on. A small flag, surmounted by an eagle pin, was adopted as the decora-tion for those participating in the celebra-

Cheerful reports were received from varions Catholic congregations in regard to their intention of turning out large deputa-tions for the event. St. Michael's, of the Southside, will be represented by nearly 1,500 persons, and the Holy Cross parish, of the same locality, by a number not much smaller. The next meeting will be held

TO SAVE HER LIFE.

A Lawrenceville Woman's Leg Amputated

as a Result of Rheumatism. Mrs. Voles, daughter of Mrs. Fausnaught, of Forty-third street, was attacked with rheumatism nearly six months ago. Eventually it seemed to settle in one of her legs. It attacked the knee, and led to a swelling there. This so wasted the lady in her general health that a consultation of several of the best physicians in the city resulted in a decision that the leg must be amputated. Mrs. Voles fought for her life without this alternative as long as it was possible. But late Saturday night she gave up all hope, the doctors saying she could only live 24 hours. If the limb came off they said she had still a slight chance to recover. So she consented. Dr. Hamilton, assisted by Dr. Cam-eron and other doctors, performed the oper-ntion Sunday morning. The lady was still living at last accounts.

DEAN WILL BE HER CHAMPION.

He Will Investigate the Commitment of May Sallivan to Morganza.

A petition is being circulated in Scottdale o secure the pardon of J. A. Bobbs and Walter Herrington, prominent citizens of that town, who were sent to the penitentiary for three and five years respectively for their connection with the May Sullivan scandal. Since their conviction the girl has been sent to Morganza, and this will be used as the main argument for the men's release. Superintendent Dean, of the Anti-Cruelty Society, stated last night that he proposed to investigate the case. He thought there was a possibility that the commitment of May Sullivan to the Reform School had been secured for the purpose of impeaching the veracity of her testimony against Bobbs

CHAPTER OF SABBATH DAY ACCIDENTS

John McConville, 11 years old, living on Murphy street, Soho, went swimming in the Monongahels river near the Copper Works yesterday fafternoon. He was sensed with cramp and drowned before assistance could reach him. The body was recovered. Henry McAfee, 22 years old, employed as baker at Morganza, was run down by a train on the Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston Railroad some time after 12 o'clock on Sunday morning, and died five hours later at the West Penn Hospital. The deceased and evidently been at the Amalgamated Association picnic, as a return ticket from Rock Point was found on his person. How he got into the Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston yards on the Southside is not known, but some of the employes of the company found him lying beside the track, with both legs cut off at the knees. The body of the man is at the morgue.

A PICNIC PARTY URSET. A picnic party met with a very serious accident while riding home from spending Saturday in the woods near Etna. There were 28 persons on the wagon, including several ladies. They were driving at a lively pace along the Butler plank road and the night being dark the driver was unable to see much ahead of him. The wagon was precipitated over an embankment about 12 teet high into Pine creek. Several of the party received painful but not serious injuries. The wagon was pretty badly broken up. 'Squire McNeirney, of the Eighteenth ward, was with the party and was injured somewhat. The party procured another conveyance and reached the city, where the injured received surgical attention.

James Stewart, a brakeman on the Penn-sylvania Railroad, had his right arm very severely crushed last evening while coupling cars near Roup station. He was brought to the West Penn Hospital, where his arm will likely be amputated.

Henri Moselli, a Pole living in the Eighteenth ward, fell from the Junction Railroad bridge, Thirty-third street, yesterday afternoon. He suffered a compound fracture of the skull.

Edward Finner, aged 70 years, of Char-tiers, was driving along Alexander street, West End, Saturday night, when his horses ran off. The buggy collided with a tele-graph pole, throwing the old gentleman out and badly injuring his head and back. He was removed to the residence of his son-in-law, Edward Sellers CABLE CAR COLLISIONS. W. C. Brady & Son, while driving along Penn avenue yesterday morning, were run into by cable car No. 32, which swung rapidly around the corner from Shady lane. The buggy was upset and smashed, while the occupants received alight injuries.

A buggy in which were Drs. Murdock and T. W. Shaw was overturned on Fifth avenue by a cable car last evening. The buggy was thrown against another one occupied by Letter Carrier McCabe. The latter was thrown out and had his face cut. Yesterday afternoon a horse attached to barouche, which contained a Bloomfield tamily, ran off on Iten street, Allegheny. The barouche struck a fence and the tamily, consisting of husband, wile and three children, were spilled out, but suffered no serious injury. The barouche was wrecked.
