A QUERY FOR THE EXAMINING BOARD

The semi-annual convention of all the Catholic priests of the Western Pittsburg diocese will be held to-day at the Episcopal residence on Grant street. After the conference, a meeting of the clergy interested in the Pittsburg Priests' Mutual Aid Society will be held, and a permanent organization formed. About 50 or 60 priests will be present at the meeting. The East-ern conference will be held at Altoona, on Thursday, and will be attended by the priests at the eastern end of the diocese.

At the conference to be held in the Episcopal residence to-day, a number of important matters pertaining to the diocese will come up for discussion. Among them will be several cases of parents sending their children to the public schools. Some priests now refuse to give absolution to parents at is the cultivation of music. The officers are : President, August Roehuer; librarian, Albert Richter; trustees, F. Roehuer, Albivin Schulz and John Willi. confession for refusing to take their children from the public schools and send them to the parochial schools. Many are the THE testimony taken in the divorce case of Mathuas Barbus against Maggie Barbus was filed yesterday. It was alleged that Mrs. Barreasons given for the action, and in some cases there seems to be a special reason for allowing the children to continue their studies at the ward schools.

ONE OF THE REASONS.

Some time ago one of the Pittsburg priests THE testimony in the divorce case of Hattie had a case where a young Catholic girl was preparing herself to become a teacher in a H. Grove against G. W. Grove was filed by the preparing herself to become a teacher in a public school. The priest had a rule on the matter, and at first refused to give the girl's mother absolution. The circumstances of the case were such, however, that he waived the rule and absolved the parents. The case came up so frequently of late in different churches that some of the priests want to hear what the conference has to say about it. It is likely that some general rule about the matter will be adopted.

likely that some general rule about the matter will be adopted. Rev. Father F. L. Tobin, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Lawrenceville, will be master of the conference. Another matter likely to come up will be a discussion about the whereabouts of the synod, appointed several years ago to rega-iate parochial school matter. At the council of Baltimore, it was recommended that an ex-amulag board to be composed of members of the olergy, be appointed in each diocese, for the purpose of examining parochial school teachers. In certain sections of the country a claim has been made by parents who refused to send their children to the parochial schools, that the youngsters had received all the in-structions the nuns could give them, and they thought it necessary to send the children to schools where the teachers take up the higher branches.

ARE NOT PROFICIENT.

If was also claimed in this city that some of the Sisters did not possess the same standard of proficiency in teaching that teachers in public schools did. To prevent this claim from arising again, it was decided to create an ex-amining board, and before a nun could teach in a parochial school, she would have to pass an examination before the board and sceners, if they could not pass the required examination and make a certificate to teach. The Pittsburg Synod was appointed, but no one can be founn who knows what became of it. If was also claimed in this city that some of

In a parochial school, she would have to pass an examination before the board and secure a certificate. Like the public school teachers, if they could not pass the required examination was appointed, but no one can be found who knows what became of it. After the discussions at the conference are ended the meeting of the Priests' Mutual Aid Society will be held. The Committee on Con-stitution and By-Laws will make its report, and who latter will be adopted. The object of the society is to assist needy priests, and when any of the citergy are sick they will be paid a certain sum of money each week. The examination of priests who have not served seven years as an ordained minister will be held this year on November 11, 12 and 13. The "retreat" will be held in July.

bell Suit-Inspector McKelvy on Top.

Judge Over handed down an opinion yes terday on the question relating to the distribution of funds of the estate of the late M. W. Beltzhoover, who died in 1879. The trustees, William A. Caldwell, James J. Donnell and John G. Holmes, asked directions as to whether they could pay the several annuities of the legatees if the income from the estate did not warrant it, and especially the annuity bequeathed to Melchlor S. Beltzhoover, the adopted son of the testator. To him had been left $3,000 a year until he became 21, $5,000 a year until he be-unsil he became 21, $5,000 a year until he be-came 25, and $7,000 a year until he be-be-he executors are directed to make to him arise from the income of the residuary estate, which vests in him absolutely when he becomes 30 years of age. These are not annuities, but an absolute appropriation of that much of income to him, and it is not reasonable to sup-pose that it was intended it should be taken from the collateral inheritance tax on the corpus of the estate. It alone is subject to tax and cannot be deducted from these pay-ments. There is no apparent reason why the general rule imposing the burden of collateral inheritance tax on amunities by legacies should not apply to the annuity given by the testator. It must be deducted from them."

FOUND & BILL THIS TIME.

The Grand Jury Comes to the Conclusio

That McKelvey Was Right.

The grand jury yesterday returned a true bill against John Ciark, of the Southside, charged by Inspector McKelvey with selling liquor without a license and on Sunday. The bill was ignored on Friday, but upon the matter being presented to Junge Collier, and the state-ment made that five witnesses had testified be-fore the grand jury to having bought and drank beer and whicky in Clark's place, the case was returned to the grand jury for fur-case was returned to the grand jury for fur-ther consideration. Yesterday the case was taken up again, and, it was stated, exactly the same witnesses and testimony heard. This time a true bill was returned. The other true bills returned were: Thomas Walters, Jamos Walters, Henry Rube, Homphrey Campbell, Aarou Mazersky, assault and baltery: F. K. Banker, assault; Dora Wilde, Frank Gibson, larceny; Nannie Camp-hell, larceny from the person; Robert Agnew, Harry Brown, W. Kraus, maintaining a nui-sance; Ann J. McMonarle, maincons mischief. The following bills were ignored: Henry Tur-ner, aggravated assault and battery; Maria bevin, selling liquor without a license and on Bunday.
