RETURN HOME RELIEVED OF TROUBLE,

People of All Creeds Are Present, From All Parts of the United States.

And His fame went throughut all Syria, and they presented to Him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and such as were possessed by the devil, and that has a such as were possessed by the devil, and that has a such as were possessed by the devil, and that has a such as were possessed by the devil, and the first such as the cared them. And many people followed Him from Galliee, Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea and beyond the Jordau, and running through the country they began to carry about in beds those that were sick where they heard He was.

These words uttered by St. Luke were recalled yesterday at Father Mollinger's church on Troy Hill, the occasion being the celebration of St. Anthony's Day. As early as Monday last people began to arrive from abroad. All sections of the United States were well represented by people who came to be cured of every known malady that man

A family of four from Texas, whose eldest son was afflicted with the terrible St. Vitus' dance, and who had done everything that medical science could do to cure the boy of his malady, but to no avail, as a last resort brought the boy all the way to Troy Hill to have Father Mollinger treat him. From San Diego, Cal., came a woman who had been blind for a period of ten years, and had been under the treatment of specialists, who were unable to restore her sight. In a conversation she said: "I have implicit faith in Father Mollinger, and I think he will eventually cure me."

CROWDS AT THE CHURCH.

From 4 o'clock yesterday morning until late in the afternoon people crowded the street cars going to the church. On the hill the scene was an animated one. People and carriages were going to and fro, jostling each other in vain efforts to get inside the church, which had been packed to suffocation by the mithful long before 6 o'clock in the morning. By 7 o'clock the yard outside of the church held twice as many as were on the inside, and about five times as many more were clamoring for admission to the yard. At least 15,000 people were present, of whom at least 5,000 came from various parts of the United States.

Wednesday night people began to arrive and take up quarters in the boarding houses on the hill. Miller's, Hack's, Beck's, and all the boarding houses were filled to their utmost capacity by such people who came to have medicine and blessing administered to them. Weak and puny babies who had been afflicted from birth were there in the arms of their mothers, howling and crying in a way that almost drove some of the other invalids to destruction. The facilities for quartering so many people are not of the best on Troy Hill, but the visitors can not be induced to take up their quarters any where but in the immediate vicinity of the church, where they could be first upon the scene and get within the church and get a ligious views, threw wide their doors and nvited the visitors to take up with them. This generous hospitality was more than the strangers expected, and the poor creatures overwhelmed with thanks and blessings the people who were so kind to them.

By 7 o'clock people began to arrive by all sorts of conveyances, in carriages, wagons, stretchers, on mattresses, and on crutches; there were the maimed and deformed in every possible way. People who visited the church last year, and who were benefited by the treatment of Father Mollinger, were there, and with them they brought their celebrated at 6, 7:30, 9 and 10 o'clock; the blessing was given the people at all these masses, and at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, as the day grew warmer, Father Mollinger took up his position in the doorway of the chapel. When he appeared at the entrance of the church the crowd had all assembled on the ontside. He carried in his hand the citorium, with which he administered the blessing, by a slight touch on the head. This citorium is a casket or case in which the Host is exposed to view. It is made of gold, and studded with diamonds and precious stones. IMPLICIT CONFIDENCE EXPRESSED.

For three long, weary hours the crowd continued to pass before Father Mollinger in a stendy stream, and at 7 o'clock in the evening the crowd was still coming up and kneeling before him to receive his blessing. He did not officiate at the mass, but gave up all his time in going among the sick and lame that patiently waited for him under the boiling sun. When he appeared the multitude of people knelt down on the ground, it did not matter in what position multitude of people knelt down on the ground, it did not matter in what position they were. Many filled the road, and for a hall square it was unapproachable during the time Father Mollinger was well-inthe time Father Mollinger was walking about among the supplicants for his blessing and treatment. When he raised the blessed sacrament, encased in the entorium, the people knelt in the dust and B. & B. dirt of the road, demonstrating their im-plicit faith in the divine power of healing of the venerable priest, He continued to minister to the wants of the unfortunate people, ceasing only for a short interval, which he took for refreshment, after which he again reappeared and once more blessed the assemblage. The people received the blessing with bowed heads, kneeling on the ground, and with profound reverence.

PEOPLE OF ALL CREEDS. Catholics were not the only ones there to receive aid, but every denomination and religious sect was represented, and all went through the formula in the same manner as the Catholics. All seemed to have un-bounded faith in the healing powers of Father Mollinger, the rich and the poor, the educated and the ignorant, all were on hand to be healed and give testimony to the won-derful power exercised by the priest. At 5 o'clock the reverend father took up his position in the center of the altar, inside the church. The crowd then poured into the church and up the side aisle, and came along in front of Father Mollinger, and knelt in front of him to receive the blessing. knelt in front of him to receive the blessing. He went through the ordeal with great patience, and after the afflicted were blessed they passed on to an image under the pulpit, which is called a communion punch. This figure is said to possess a charm for healing, and the believers would come up and kneel before this image and offer up prayers. They then devoutly kissed the image, and rubbed their hands on it, and then applied their hands to the afflicted parts of their bodies.

It was very pathetic to see the blind wend their way along, stretching out their hands to lay them upon this image. This punch has a remarkable charm, the people believe, and it is said miracles have been brought about by the influence attending the

Indeed, a woman sorely afflicted with rheumatism was seen to hobble up to the image and rub her hands on it. She carried crutches, without which she was unable to walk. A REMARKABLE STATEMENT.

A Mrs. Howard, of Brooklyn, N. Y., made this remarkable statement: "I lost made this remarkable statement: "I lost my sight three years ago; I have tried the best eye specialists in the world, without success; I heard of the wonderful cures of Father Mollinger, and concluded to come here. I arrived three days ago, and I could not see the light of day, Father Mollinger prescribed for me, and to-day I can read." The lady was given a newspaper, and read from it. Several other people who saw Mrs. Howard said that when she came here she had to be led around. other people who saw Mrs. Howard said that when she came here she had to be led around. She was willing to make an affidavit to the effect that she had been blind and had her sight restored through Father Mollinger. A voung lady by the name of Harrison living in Lawrenceville said: "I have been troubled with a disease of the hip for several years. I have had many doctors attend me without avail. I could not stand the touch of any one on my hip, it caused me such ex-cruciating pain. Four days ago I came here on crutches, and could not dispense with them. Now, you see, I can walk around without them, and I never expect to have to resort to them again."

Mr. J. J. Dolan, of the Savannah News, said: "I had been troubled with indiges-tion, and had been under the treatment of many doctors, who did me no good. I learned of Father Mollinger's power of healing, and I came all the way from Georgia to be cured. After spending three days here, I do not experience any of my former trouble, and my appetite has been restored." W. H. McGill, an engineer from Corning, N. Y., said: "I came here four days ago, troubled with rheumatism so badly that I could not get around without the assistance of crutches. You see me now, and I have not got them," Mr. McGill was able to navigate apparently as well as a person never afflicted with the dread disease. SOME OTHER CASES.

A young girl named Mamie Crane, of Sharon, was affected with poor eyesight. She said: "For a long time I have been unable to read or distinguish anything. My eyes are all right now and I can read." A newspaper was given ber and she read it like a person who had good sight.
Mrs. B. Hackman, of Teutopolis, Ill.,

Mrs. B. Hackman, of Teutopolis, Ill., made the extraordinary assertion that for ten years she was entirely deaf. She said: "I am not of the same religious belief as Father Mollinger, but I had every faith in him. My friends persuaded me to come here as they were cured by him. I came four days ago and now my hearing is very good." It did not require any loud talking to make Mrs. Hackman hear; ordinary conversation was perfectly audible to her.

John Thompson, of Louisville, came here

John Thompson, of Louisville, came here and had to be carried on a stretcher. He said: "Up until to-day I have not put a foot on the ground for five years. Now I can walk about some. I am not entirely cured, but before I leave I expect to be all right." Hon. John O'Neill said: "Two years ago my daughter suffered from rheumatism of the heart. Under the advice of Dr. Mc-Kelvy I took her from school. Yesterday I took her to Father Mollinger, and now she is entirely cured."

Robert McCleare, of Lloydsville, was yes-terday led into the church, blind. He was led to the communion rail and laid his hands upon it. He then rubbed his eyes. To the astonishment of all the bystanders his eyes opened and he beheld the light. He jumped around in an ecstacy of delight; his joy unbounded. He is 26 years of age, and for 14 years has been blind.

The blessing of the people will continue for three days yet, when they expect to conclude the exercises.

A GRAND EXHIBITION That Will Interest the Ladies.

When reading this, ladies, look upon it WAJTING FOR THE SERVICES.

This spirit seemed to take possession of everybody, for at 4:30 yesterday morning a crowd that the church could not begin to becommodate had gathered around the display. Your special attention is called to doors to wait the rising of the sun, when the services would begin. the services would begin. Every house contained some of the pilgrims; wagon sheds and barns were utilized for sleeping places. Not only the Catholics in the neighborhood, but those of other re Cashi, etc. One line just received by us from Paris was bought by Mr. I. Kaufmann immediately on his arrival at the gay capital. They're too pretty for description. Prices, did you say? Well, here's an example: 250 ladies' gingham and satine trimmings, at only $4 98. Any dressmaker in the city would charge more for the mak-ing alone. But why continue? Come and see for yourself and be convinced.

BABY M'KEE'S WONDERFUL FEAT. So Named Gets Praise From the

Famous Child's Mother. PLAINFIELD, N. J., June 18 .- "Baby McKee," a homing pigeon, belonging to the news service of the Daily Press, of this city, accomplished a wonderful feat in an inter-State federation race on Memorial Day, and Master Benjamin Harrison McKee, of Washington, was notified. The boy McKee was also told that the bird McKee was the proud father of twin youngsters, and the desire that the boy should name them was expressed. In response, Editor Demarest has received the following letter:

Your note inclosing cuttings about the news bird "Baby McKee" is received, and as you request an exchange of photographs between the bird and the baby—or rather, bird and boy—lsend one taken about a year ago. We were interested to hear of the success of the bird's flight, and as you desire Benjamin to name the two young pigeons, he thinks it would be nice to call them Jack and Jill.

Catarrh Specialists at 323

Mr. M. McLean

Mr. M. McLean, a well-known gentleman of Allegheny, residing at Wood's Run, had suffered from catarrh for many years. The mattery secretion that gathered in his throat was very tenacious and hard to raise, and as some of it dropned down into the bronchial tubes of his luncs he began to cough. He had pain over his eyes, and his head would often feel dizzy. He took cold very easily, and as his disease further advanced he coughed day and night, and worse during the night. In fact, his cough was so severe that he would spit up blood. After receiving a course of treatment from the Catarrh specialists at $23 Penn avenue, he gave the following statement for publication, with his named signed to it, as positive proof of his complete cure: "My disease was of long standing and continued to grow worse until I became afraid of consumption. Cured by Cuticura

I used two bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, three boxes of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and am cured of a terrible skin and scaip disease known as psoriasis. I had it for eight years. It would get better and worse at times. Sometimes my head would be a solid scab, and was at the time I began the use of the CUTICURA REMADIES. My arms were covered with scabs from my elbows to shoulders, my breast was almost one solid scab, and my back covered with sores varying in size from a penny to a dollar. I had does not solid scab, and my back covered with sores varying in size from a penny to a dollar. I had does to do the size of the scap with all the best doctors with no relief, and used many different medicines without effect. My case was hereditary, and, I began to think, incurable, but it began to heal from the first application.

AECHER RUSSELL, Deshier, O.

A Grateful Mother

I thank you for your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and feel that in doing so I might be able to save some person from a heavy doctor's bill, which I know it has done for me. My baby was seven weeks old when I began to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES for a disease which had spread itself all over its bead and face. I was nearly distracted; had been to the doctor's, but got no satisfaction. Before two days' use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES the scab began to loosen, and in three weeks I could hardly believe that it was the baby I used to dread people seeing. He is perfectly cured, and has a beautiful growth of hair coming. I am very grateful to you.
