INPECTAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. CWICAGO June 16 -Chicago and Pittsburg game on the errors of their opponents and opportune batting. Hutchinson was quite a puzzle to the visitors who played a listless and tiresome game. Nearly 100 theatrical people, including James O'Neill and Eddie Foy, witnessed the contest. At the conclusion of the first game Captain Anson put in a brand new battery in the points. The youngsters were Luby and Stauxell, of the Galveston team. Al though suffering from intense nervousness both played splendidly and were loudly cheered by the crowd. They are heavy batters and work together like veterans. Hecker won the work together like veterans. Hecker won the second game for his team by his clever pitch-ing and the single he knocked out in the ninth, when Miller was on base and two men were out, sending in the winning run. Roat, Pitts-burg's young third baseman, distinguished himself by a home run in each game. Attend-ance, 2300. The score:

LOCAL LEAGUE GOSSIP.

No Change in Management Probable-Bill; Sowders in Danger of Release. At a late hour last night a telegram was received from Director E. B. Converse of the local National League team stating that he would be in the city to-day. There will, therefore, be a base ball conference and the condition of af-fairs will be freely discussed. The probabili-ties are that all of the stockholders will remain in the company with the possible ex-ception of Henry Brown. Mr. Brown is at present in bad health and does not feel like continuing in baseball under the circumstances Mr. O'Neill said last night that his option of the team would continue for the present, but the team would continue for the present, but whatever is done, the team will remain in Pittsburg. All are perfectly satisfied with Hecker's management and there is no possibility of a change. Mr. O'Neill is new negotiating through Randall, of Philadelphia, for several good players. He has an option on the services of two infielders and one pitcher. The weakest part of the team is in the box and yesterday's second game with Hecker pitching shows that the team can win if they have a pitcher to help them.

the team can win if they have a pitcher to help them.

The team will go to Philadelphia on Friday and play the series with the Phillies scheduled for this city. However, 70 games must be played in Pittsburg and those with Philadelphia will be played later in the season. The team will play no more games in Cincinnati or Chicago as they have played their full quoto in these cities. All the games to be played with them must be played in Pittsburg. Mr. O'Neill gives as his reason for changing the dates that he wants to bring his team here when they are playing iwinning ball. He expects to secure enough pitchers by the Fourth of July to put the team in proper shape. He will retain Eaker and Gray, but unless Billy Sowders does better work from now on he will will retain Baker and Gray, but unless Birly Sowders does better work from now on he will be released. Baker will probably pitch to-day. Fitzgerald the new second baseman, law of the Philadelphia Athletics, will play second base and Crane may be put in short field.

THEY WIN AT BUFFALO.

The Pittsburg Players' League Team Take the Third Game From the Crippled Blacus-Both Clubs Will Come to This [SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] BUFFALO, N. Y., June 16 .- Free batting and ose fielding characterized to-day's Buffalo-Pittsburg game, which was witnessed by 200 addes besides the paid admissions. Rowe and lWhite failed to distinguish themselves, and the former's errors at short contributed four runs to the Pittsbugers' score. The visitors hit Person opportunely and scored freely in conse-quence, while Buffalo was less fortunate, although Pittsburg's errors helped to keep up the run-getting, otherwise the Buffalos would not have scored a single run. Umpire Gaffuey was slightly cut on the head by a foul tip during not have scored a single run. Umpire Gamey was slightly cut on the head by a roul tip during the game. Ferson pitched a very wild game. Pittsburg got two runs in the second inning—Corcorna and Robinson went to first on balls, stole second and Quinn saved their lives by a fine fiy. In the third, two men were out, but Rowe muffed Kuehne's fiy. Corcorna and Robinson followed with a single and a double, driving in two runs. Pittsburg scored three more in the fourth. Maul, Hanian and Visner knocked out a series of singles and were forced in by Carroll's and Field's safe hits.

Buffalo made a solitaire in the fourth—Wise going to first on balls, then coming in on Rainey's hit and a passed ball. The score was 7 to I when Buffalo woke up in the sixth inning. Wise sent a long hit into Hanlan's territory and it was muffed. White sacrificed and Robinson missed Ferson's grounder. Then Hoy smashed the sphere for a base, and Mack followed with a three-bagger, which yielded four runs, while Mack himself was put out at the plate. Attendance, 678. The score:

EVENTS ON THE TURF. SALVATOR THE FAVORITE.

His Great Trial on the Suburban Course on Sunday Overtops Tenny's Popularity -Who Will Win the Great Race To-Day? NEW YORK, June 16.—The greatest race this country has ever seen will undoubtedly be that for the Suburban of 1890, which will be run at the Coney Island Jockey Club track at Sheepshead Bay to-morrow afternoon, the starters for that event being the fastest horses in training. The quality of the horses engaged is higher than on any previous year, and if there were no other starters but Salvator, Tenny, Raceland, Prince Royal, Firenzi and Longstreet the meeting of these tip-toppers alone would draw an enormous crowd. But not only these flyers, but Proctor Knott, Losantaka, Strideaway, Tea Tray, Cassius, Montague and others will go to tray, Cassius, Montague and others will go to the post.

The track is bound to be a lightning foot and a new record at mile and a quarter will undoubtedly be established. There was little discussed in racing circles to-day and last night but the Suburban. For the past two weeks Tenny has been the hottest kind of a favorite and he was expected to be the post favorite. Salvator's trial at Sheepshead Bay on Sunday, when he ran the suburban distance with full weight up, in 207%, timed by half a dozen reliable men, has changed the aspect of affairs, and Salvator will now be the favorite and, in the opinion of those who saw him work, he cannot be beaten. Trainer Matt Byrnes was so surprised at Salvator's speed that he shouted to the boy who rode him to pull up and the colt finished with something up his sleeve. Isaac Murphy will ride the great chestnut colt, and he should win. When just right Salvator is as good a race horse as the American turf can boast of, and there is every indication that he is now on edge.

Tenny's splendid form in all his races so far this year must not be overlooked. He has a world of speed, and will be ridden by Garrison, and in the estimation of Mr. Pulisfer the horse capable of beating Tenny does not live. Tenny may be expected to run all the way and he certainly will not be worse than second—no matter what wins.

Raceland galloped an easy mile on Sunday in what wins.

Raceland galloped an easy mile on Sunday in 1:45, but the public has all the time they require on him through his public trial in the walkover at Morris Park last week when he ran a mile and three-sixteenths in 2:04%. This was something wonderful, and within 3% seconds of the record.

THE CIRCUIT'S PROSPECTS.

Frank Herdic Says They Nover Were Brighter-Wilkes Borses Coming. Frank Herdic, the pool seller, was in the city yesterday. He says the betting on races in the East has been greater this season than ever be-fore. Bookmakers and poolsellers are kept full of business. Herdic says the Grand Circuit will be better herdic says the Grand Circuit will be better this season than last. The Homewood meeting, he says, will catch all the Eastern horses, while the Westerners will probably go to Detroit. However, the racing will be first-class, as there are pleuty of good stables in the East. Several representatives of the Wilkes family will come to Homewood, and Goldsmith will be here with his string.

DALY AN EASY MARK The Mill Between Smith and Daly Won by

Smith in Seven Rounds.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 16 .- Ed Smith, o

Denver, and Jim Daly, of Philadelphia, fought seven reunds here to-night before the Arlington Club. Daly was seconded by Tom Manning, of St. Paul, and Steve Brodie, of New York, of St. Paul, and Steve Brodie, of New York, Smith was backed by Mike Cleary and William Muldoon. Daly weighed 185 pounds, and Smith 178. Prof. James Connors, of the Buffalo Athletic Club, was referee. The match was for a purse of $1,500, and $500 on the side.

In the first round Smith led and Daly tried for the wind, but did not reach. After good infighting, Smith got the best of 1t, and scored a pushdown before the round closed.

The second round was give and take. Smith struck the harder blows and seemed to have Daly at his mercy. He planted a right-hander on Daly's mug that dased him.

In the third round it was clearly apparent tha Daly was overmatched. Daly clinched to avoid punishment. He was knocked down and lay several moments before his seconds could get him on his feet again.

In the fourth round Smith forced Daly at the outset into his chair, where he sat powerless. Then Smith let him get up and walk to the center so that he could knock him down. He repeated this before Daly was fairly on his feet. Smith cored a third knock-down and would have got knother if Daly had got up in time.

In the fifth round Smith sent Daly to ground five times. Hanlon and Company to Defeat the Buffalos be foul.

In the sixth round Daly was again knocked down and pasted until the close of the round. Smith struck more blows which were alleged to be foul.

In the seventh Daly was knocked down repeatedly, and finally on a clinch, when Smith refused to break away at the referee's order, Daly's seconds tried to claim the fight on a foul for their man, but the referee disallowed it, and Daly failing to come to the center gave the fight and purse to Smith. Time of fight, 25 minutes.

THE SWIMMING RACE.

R. T. Charles Won the Prize, With Joseph Eteler Second.

About 500 people were at the Natatorium las evening to witness the race for the Gusky chalenge gold medal, emblematic of the amateur championship of the city. The distance was 120 yards—six lengths of the bath. Four heats were had and the winners of the heats contested in the final race for the medal. The first heat was won easily by John Taylor

The first heat was won easily by John Taylor in 2:18. Allan Dougherty was second. The second heat was made in 2:17, James P. Fox first, August Wendt second. Joseph Eisler won the third heat in 2:13, with W. H. Burke second. The fourth neaft was won easily by R. T. Charles, Joseph Brigel second. The final heat was a magnificent race from start to finish. For four lengths of the bath there was not two yards between first and fourth man, with Taylor in the lead. Taylor began to tire in the fifth lap and Charles pulled out ahead, with Eisler following close. The last lap was a good race, Charles winning by about a yard from Eisler. Taylor was eight yards behind Eisler and about a yard ahead of Fox. Time, 1574.

Jones, on behalt of the Board of Trade lescribed the construction of the vessel, the accident and the events that followed. He said that it would be shown that at 8:40 o'clock on the morning of the accident the starboard engine was stopped to pack the high pressure cylinders, and started again at 10 A. M. At 5:30 P. M. all was going well, the screw making 81 to 82 revolutions. The engineer, on passing near the portengine, heard the starboard screw racing. He stopped it but it soon began again. The accident was then described and the story told now the big ship had drifted till Saturday, when she was towed into Queenstown.
Mr. Jones concluded by paying a splendid compliment to the officers for their admirable conduct, and suggested that the assessors should visit the ship. The hoard adopted the suggestion and adjourned for that purpose. The investigation will be concluded to-morrow.

ANOTHER MAN DISAPPEARS. amuel Coates, Night Roller at Carnegie's Thirty-Third Street Mill, Missing. A vigorous search is being made to ascertain the whereabouts of Samuel Coates, a roller in Carnegie's Thirty-third Street mill. He has not been seen since Saturday week, when he attended the Amalgamated Association picnic at Rock Point. His friends did not see him at the picnic, but knew that he started for it. He was last seen at the corner of Thirty-second street and Penn avenue. At the time of his disappearance he had considerable money about his person, and his relatives and friends believe that he has met with foul play. His disappearance has caused much talk in Lawrenceville, as he was very popular.

He had just received his pay the day he disappeared, and for this reason his friends believe that he was assaulted and robbed. His wife searched all over Lawrenceville for him, but was unable to learn anything about him. Coates is a brother-in-law of John Mills, a day roller at Carnegie's.
