IRON TRADE REVIEW.

Just a Little Lull is Now Noticeable in the Local Market.

IT IS A REPETITION OF HISTORY.

Southern Stocks Are at the Lowest Point

During the Season. REPORTS PROM BOTH EAST AND WEST.

The active movement noted a couple of weeks ago has been arrested, but there has been no decline in prices. history repeats itself. We are having almost precisely the same experience as last fall when there was an active and upward movement of iron and steel for a few weeks, in which Bessemer had the lead. This active movement was tollowed by quiet markets. So now we are having a lull following the spurt of two weeks ago. Markets are not as active nor have transactions been so heavy the past week as they were in the early part of the month. On the other hand holders of standard brands show no disposition to concede, and while outside quotations are hardly obtainable except for special reasons, markets are firm at inside quotations. Consumers stocked up well at the beginning of the late advance, and their wants are now light. This, with the fact that In the hot season consumption ordinarily de-clines, will account for the present lull in the

For a few weeks past Bessemer has been the strong factor of markets. At present mill iron is the firm factor. The demand for steel rails is active at quotations. At the Edgar Thomis active at quotations. At the Edgar Thom-son works orders are already insufficient to make sure that the entire output for the balance of the year will find a ready market, but rails are in good demand at firmer rates. SOUTHERN STOCKS LOWER

Than They Have Been at Any Time During This Season.

SIEMINGHAM, ALA., June 20.-The iron trade is without special features this week. Prices continue unchanged, but there has been some falling off in orders this week. All the furnaces in the district are shipping iron as fast as the railroad can supply them with cars, and the end of the month will find stocks lower than they have ever been at this reason. The steady flow of small orders during the past 30 days exhausted all stocks on hand, and took almost the entire June output. Very little from has been sold for delivery next month, but furnace men are confident the small orders for immediate delivery will continue to come in all summer. all summer.

As matters now stand buyers of Southern plg will pay 25 to 50 cents per ton more next month. Only a big failing-off in orders or a reduction of price by Pennsylvania and Ohlo furnaces will prevent an advance on No. 1 and No. 2 foundry iron. On the lower grades there will probably be no advance.

Twenty-two of the 25 furnaces in this district are in blast. There will be no shutting-down this summer, except for repairs.

Beveral of the older charcoal furnaces in the State are to be changed to coke, the supply of timber for charcoal having been exhausted. All four of the Woodstock Iron Company's furnaces, it is said, will be so changed.

NO LOW PRICES EXPECTED.

The Consumptive Demand Equal to the Present Rate of Supply.

It is becoming position to cut schedule prices. It is becoming evident that the consumptive demand is at least equal to the present rate of production, and no midsummer low prices are to be expected. LITTLE CHANGE TO NOTE.

The Pig Iron Product is Kept Moving at the Same Old Prices. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

PHILADELPHIA, June 20.-There is little change to note in the tone or conditions of the local market. Furnace men say they are not local market. Furnace men say they are not piling any pig iron, the product being kept moving at $18 per ton for No. 1 foundry, $17 for No. 2 and $18 for gray forge with occasional sales of special brands at higher figures. Activity is reported in the West and South, but no higher prices are noted. Muck bare are firm at $28 00@28 50 per ton at the mill, and the tendency is upward. Bessemer pig is quietat $20 50 per ton at the furnace.

Steel rails are fairly active at $32, but this figure is shaved on large orders. Old rails are nominal at $24 50@25 50 per ton. Bar iron is quoted at former figures, 1.80@1.85c per pound. There are good orders for skeip at 1.75c for grooved and 1.80@1.85c sheared. Plates are a shade higher at the following prices for iron and steel respectively: Tank, 2.10@2.15 and 2.85c @2.45c; bridge, 2.15@2.20 and 2.00@2.50 and 2.60@2.70c; flange, 3@3.15c and 2.80 @3c. NO SIGN OF WEAKNESS

The Advance on Southern Coke Irons Has Been Firmly Maintained. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.1

CINCINNATI. June 20 .- Rogers, Brown & Co. say: The market closes this week in good form all along the line, with no indication of weakness anywhere. The recent advance of 50 cents in Southere coke from has been well maintained, and sales on this basis, at first lethargic are now made readily. One large furnace company to-day instructs its agents to advance another 50 cents. Whether this additional step upward will be secure and hold, the coming week will demonstrate.

Southern coke furnaces are so liberally sold up they feel a natural independence and disposition to wait for business. Trade in charcoal from North and South the past fortnight has probably been the largest in tennage ever known in the same period, though prices rule considerably lower. The advance in nails this week we believe is being sustained. The general uplift in Bessemer pig, steel, slabs, blooms and structural materials imparts full confidence to the strong pigiron market. all along the line, with no indication of weak-

PETECIAL TREEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.

CHICAGO, June 20.-Rogers, Brown & Co. say: Business of the week aggregates a very large tonnage. There has been activity in every description of iron. Southern coke irons every description of iron. Southern coke irons and Southern charcoal irons, because of their general excellence in mixture with our our Lake Superior ore products, continue to maintain their desirability and have had a good share of the business during the week. The market closes strong with indications of an advance in prices, which will certainly be realized if the consumption continues on the present bodies of three of the five men who lost their Reed B. Coyle & Co. sold to Wm. Perkins for November have been found. The men were miners, and the names of the three are Edward Dolan, Jerry Sullivan and Harry Page. The bodies of Sullivan and Dolan were found lying side by side on the 800-foot station, while the body of Page was found in the main cross-cut, 110 feet from the shaft. When the body of Dolan was discovered it was lying across the bottom of an ore car. From the position of the body it is thought From the position of the body it is thought he died leaning against the side of the car and had afterward tallen forward after the iron and rivets were eaten away by the action of the copper water and the car had dropped over.

Singular as it may appear, the copper acid in the water which flooded the mine, while strong enough to eat all the hardes steel and iron out of the mine had no particular effect upon the bodies, Huge iron and bars of steel in the machinery of the mines were entirely destroyed. The over-alls and other elothing and the boots and shoes worn by the men at the time they met shoes worn by the men at the time they met death were intact, showing that the fire in the mine had not touched them. The flesh, however, of the faces and arms was soft, but otherwise well preserved, and the laces could be easily recognized. Considering the length of time—six months and 20 days—the bodies lay in the mines, their preservation is remarkable.

SAVING TO

Proof of Prosperity Deduced From Figures of a Local Bank.

MORE AND LARGER DEPOSITS. An Eventless Day in Home Securities and a Successful Raid on Oil. THE NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE CITY

The annual meeting of directors of the Dollar Savings Bank was held in the bank building yesterday evening, and the seventieth semi-annual report presented. It shows that the institution was never in a more prosperous condition or had a firmer hold upon the confidence of the public.

A comparison of the report presented yesterday with that of December last discloses several points worthy of particular notice. The assets have increased $580,-50 37, the amount of deposits almost as much, and there are 1,200 more depositors. The number of depositors is 33,325, averaging $408 83 each. These facts carry their own comment. The growth of this institution is on a line with that of the city.

It is not difficult to draw an optomistic conclusion from such a presentment. It shows that more people are saving and that deposits that more people are saving and that deposits are larger. This, in turn, establishes the claim that Pittsburg is enjoying a period of great prosperity; for if the working people were not steadily employed at good wages they would have nothing to lay by.

Points From the Inside.

One of the most experienced stock brokers One of the most experienced stock brokers in the city yesterday gave his opinion of the market, its condition and outlook. He said: "I do not expect an immediate improvement for several reasons. A good many investors will soon go away on their summer vacations, and they will not assume financial responsibilities to worry them during their absence. I tried to sell a man a block of Philadelphia Gas vesterday. He would hardly talk to me. To yesterday. He would hardly talk to me. To encourage me a little he said he would see me when he got back from the country. Another reason is, many of our speculators are carrying pretty heavy loads at much higher prices than are now quoted. They would like to sell, but hold on rather than let go at a sacrifice. These men are practically out of the market. Rail-is seldom heard of. A man wanted a big lot of it at $5. I told him the last sale of it, so far as I remembered, about a year ago, was at $8. That made no difference to him: he wanted it cheap or not at all. It is the same with the natural gassers, the tractions and other securities. They can be marketed at any time at a shave, but holders, unless hard pressed for

The Park National Bank of Chicago has stopped payment, but it is a small bank and is not a member of the Chicago Clearing House. In regard to gold shipments, Mr. D. O. Mills remarkee: "The same thing takes place every summer, and should occasion no alarm. We Pittsburgers who have recently invested in Chicago realty propose to realize on it as soon as they receive a satisfactory offer. They say the city will soon be oversold. Then the deluge. It is stated that the dividend on Chicago Gas will be paid in a few days. The matter is not entirely settled as to detail, but it is far enough advanced, according to report, to warrant the above appouncement. Real estate brokers visited yesterday were as busy as ever, showing that the market is active. The only material difference between June and April is that deals are harder to close now, owing to the absence from the city of many of the principals. The mortgage record yesterday contained only 20 names. The largest amount was $5,000 and the smallest $150. A specialist stated that mortgages were being paid off faster than they

This has been the biggest produce week of the year, everything going off like hot cakes. It has been found impossible to supply the demand for berries and potatoes.

Movements in Real Estate.

There was a good, quiet movement in real estate yesterday, but nothing big came to the surface. Brokers reported an active inquiry for supurban building sites. Considerable new territory down the Fort Wayne road will soon be put on the market. The prospect of rapid transit is causing quite a stir in that locality.

Money Holds Its Own and Rates Steady on the Old Basis. The money market was easy yesterday. Loans were made at 6 per cent as the rule. A small amount of country paper was taken at 7. There was some talk of 51/2, but very little, if any, business was transacted on this basis. Money business was transacted on this bask. Money is so well employed, and the demand for it is so good, that financiers think the 6 per cent rate will be maintained all season. Railread Shares Continue Their Upwar Movement-Gold Exports Make No Impression-The Rate War Not So Bad as Reported.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The stock market con tinued its reaction from the sharp and sudden depression, and while not active nor specially strong displayed a slow and steady apprecia-tion which lifted prices before the close to arge fractions above last evening's figures The market at present is most affected by the prospects of the silver legislation, the railroad atuation and the possibility of further gold ex-

The railroad situation, notwithstanding the The railroad situation, notwithstanding the reports of rate cutting and the disagreeable surprise when the Lake Shore took a hand in it, is not as bad as it is made to seem, and the earnings are a sure indication of this. In comparison with late years at this time, also there is less cutting reported, daily cuts being the rule in former years. The gold exports are undoubtedly special orders made at a loss, and have as yet had not the slightest influence upon the money market, as the rates on call are now lower than before the first announcement of an engagement of gold, the continued flow of funds to this center with the very limited demand for speculative purposes more than supplying the drain, which it is felt cannot continue long, and to-day one of the orders of yesterday was countermanded.

The covering of shorts was continuous but there were evidences of new buying for the long account, and the suspicion that a preparation for another rise is in progress gains believers. The demand was steady though slow, and the market after the first hour's trading showed no indication of pressure anywhere. There were, however, fow features of importance developed, the weakness in sugar refineries in the afternoon and the marked strength in Chicago gas at the same time being the only ones of prominence.

The favorable influences were the reports gas at the same time being the only ones of prominence.

The favorable influences were the reports that should the House and the Senate fail to agree on a silver bill, the administration itself would insist upon the coinage of $4,000,000 per month as authorized by the present law.

There were renewed rumors of a deal between the Atchison and the Missouri Facific, which is expected to result in a settlement of the railroad war in the Southwest. The close was quiet to dull and firm at about the best prices of the day, with most of the list fractionally better than last evening. The specially strong stocks were Wheeling and Lake Erie, Pacific Mail and Chicago Gas, the first named being 1½ per cent higher and the others I per cent cane.

The railroad bond market was still quiet today, and while the usual firm tone was displayed the movements were generally on a out of a total of $1.167,000. They failed to show any marked strength, however.

Government bonds nave been dull and steady. State bonds have been dull and firm.

The Post says: There was no news this foremon to affect the stock market or afford the bears a pretext for selling. So far as the prospects of silver legislation are concerned they have less influence in the minds of speculators than they had a few days ago. The conclusion has been logically reached that even if the House passes the Senate free coinage bill, the President will veto it, and that if the Senate should agree to the House bill, and it becomes a law, its effect on the currency will be comparatively small and would also be deferred several months. The only further developments in the railroad Altanton to-day were favorable in the respect that the Chicage east-bound reads had thus far declined to meet the cut in the dressed beef rates made by the Grand Trunk, which shows that they would prefer to settle the matter in some other way than by plunging into a rate war. A further amount of $250,000 of gold was taken for export this forenoon, but, as the order for $250,000 of that taken by another banking house yesterday was canceled to-day, it leaves the whole amount the same as yesterday.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

Very Dull Just Now-The Perverse Rivers Still Falling. Stagnation reigns along the wharves. No business worth speaking of was done yesterday, and all on account of the low water. The height in the Monongahela yesterday evening was but 4 feet and that of the Ohio at the dam 6 feet linch. Both streams were falling slowly but surely. The packet boats would seem to be the only craft that do any goings out or

THE SALE APPROVED.

Ordinances Recommended Changing the Location of the Poor Farm. The Committee on Public Charities to the number of 15 met in City Clerk Booth's office yesterday afternoon to consider the ordinances, the passage of which will insure a new Poor Farm to the city.

The ordinance for the sale of the present Poor Farm property was subjected to two amendments. One fixed the amount of property reserved for three years as that apon which the buildings stand and 10 acres surrounding together with the reservoir located on the hillside, and covering about 200 feet, and the approaches to the buildings. This will leave about 134 acres of land that can be sold for immediate posses-sion and 11 acres that will be subject to the three years' reserve. A clause authorizing the Department of Awards to reject any or all bids for the property was inserted al-though as, it was stated, that department has under the laws full discretionary powers in that respect.

The ordinance providing for the purchase of new poor farm property was not changed in any particular and both documents were referred to Councils with an affirmative

Mr. D. E. Springer, Leetsdale, Pd. In con-versation with a newspaper man recently about known to all the pairons of that train. In conversation with a newspaper man recently about his improved appearance, he said: "Yes, I feel 100 per cent better than I did several months ago, and now my work is a pleasure to me, where it used to be otherwise. My life as a brakeman brought with it that bane to all railroaders, catarth. I had it for several years before I really knew what was the matter with me. My nostrils would clog up, I had a dull aching pain over my eyes, roaring in the ears, and was continually hawking up mucus which dropped down into my throat. My stomach also became affected, making life miserable and my daily work a task. I was glad when the last run was over. Now all is changed. I never felt better in my life and haven't an ache or pain about me. Dr. Byers did it all. I had heard a great deal of the good work he was doing, and determined to consult him. As soon as he took hold of me I saw he understood his business, and told him to go abead. I have to thank him for the good health I now enjoy, and also for the courtesy of giving me prompt attention each week as railroad trains are like
