., 6,626 Totals...... 3,372 The Players' League people put up a villainous game of ball yesterday. In fact no worse could have been had if it bad been ordered ahead of time. Robinson at last convinced Manager Hanlon that he was unfit to play ball, and Fields was put in at second. He fielded the position well, but it was his absence from left that virtually lost the game. Maul was placed about the center of the left garden, and there he staved during the greater part of the brilliant contest, making very few attempts to work, and allowing everything to go by. It is true he did try a couple of times, but it was no go, and he gave it up and waited for the ball to stop rolling, and then he went after it. Sometimes he got back in good time, but he usually arrived with the speed of a messenger boy bringing the an-nouncement of the death of your mother-in-law.

Tener pitched a good game, and if he had been given the proper support would have won it, but it was like playing a game backed up by Egyptian mummies of a few generations'

A FEW OF THEM.

Pittsburg got a run in the first inning on Car. roll's life, putting out Visner at second, a passed ball and Beckley's double. Four were added in the second. Corcoran got a base on balls, went to third on Maul's double and scored on O'Rourke's muff, which gave Tener a Shape. Maul scored on errors by Whitney and Shappon. Tener stole second and went to third on Hanlen's single. Visner hit to Shappon, who put out Hanlon at second and three wild to first giving Visner two bases and allowing Tener to score. Visner scored on Carroll's ngle. Carroll got a double in the fourth, stole third carroll got a double in the fourth, stole third and scored on Beckley's triple. The latter scored on Fields' single and he scored on Kuchne's single and Corcoran's sacrifice, Kuchne made a home run in the sixth, after the New Yorks had tied the score in the fourth, but no more were added. STRIDES TO VICTORY.

The Giants got a couple of runs to their credit at the outset. Connor got a two-bagger. Richardson got a life on O'Rourke's out at second and both scored on Johnson's threebagger to left. In the third Connor got a base on balls and scored on Maul's muff of O'Rourk's fly, which also gave the latter third. O'Ronrke scored on Tener's wild throw to first, The following inning four runs were made. Whitney got a base on balls, went to second on Keefe's single and both scored on Connor's double. O'Rourke hit for a home run and drove Connor home.

drove Connot home.

The score stood tie at the end of the fourth and Kuchne's home run in the sixth gave Pittsburg the advantage. When the Giants came to bat in their half of the sixth, Whitney flew out, Keefe was hit by a pitched ball and disheled, O'Day taking his place and running for him. He went to accound on Gore's sacrifice. him. He went to second on Gore's sacrifice and scored on Councr's single. Connor went to second on the play and scored the winning run on O'Rourke's single. The Pittsburg National League club did not figure as a factor in the contest at Recreation Park yesterday. It was not that Bowman was hit so bard, but that he failed to get the ball across the plate in the early part of the game, so that the struggle was over before it had scarcely commenced. Clarkson pitched a mag-nificent game, but once or twice it was only a run of hard luck that kept the local aggrega tion from scoring.

In the first inning Long got to base on balls, and was advanced to second, when Tucker per-mitted himself to be hit by a pitched ball. Sul-livan knocked a long sacrifice fly, and the runners moved up. Then Brodle made a hit and two runs were scored. McGarr knocked a hit after Hines went out, and Brodle tallied. On an almost similar state of affairs two more runs were counted by the visitors in fifth, one being sandwiched in the third in two singles and a wild need in the counter of the sandwiched in the third in two singles and a wild need in the counter of the sandwiched in the third in two singles and a wild need in the counter of the sandwiched in the counter of the sandwiched in the sandwi wild putch.

In the second inning Sunday muffled a long fly from Clarkson's bat, but a little later redeemed the error by catching Long's fly in the same place, and making a double play at second. Apart from this the game was almost featureless, and grew decidedly monotonous, Attendance, 138. Score: PITTSBURG, R B F A K BOSTON, B B P A B

EVEN BETTING ON DIXON.

Speculation us to the Results of the Great Bantam Fight To-Night. IBY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.

LONDON, June 26 .- [Copyright.] -All the in dications are that the fight at the Pelican Club to-morrow night between Dixon and Wallace will be a memorable one. Both men are in the pink of condition, and the Pelicans believe that the bantam championsup of the world will not be established without a long and desperate contest. Wallace is a great Pelican favorite, and naturally the prejudice was in his favor in the betting when the £200 purse was first deposited. The sporting reporters who have visited Dixon at his training quarters on Lord ited Dixon at his training quarters on Lord Lonsdale's estate have given such glowing descriptions of the little colored American, however, that to-day the betting is even, and some few wagers are well in his favor, considering that Wallace holds the English championship at this weight, and that Dixon has never fought so much as an exhibition match here. The inference is that bitter experience has taught the English slugger cannot win simply on the strength of being an Englishman. Indeed, the Sportsman, the leading sporting paper of England, reflects in a paragraph in which rhetorical elegance is obviously overcome by grief thus:

thus:
"Poor old Engisud! She has had a rocky time of it lately, and during the last few years her sons have gone down before the stranger in nearly every branch of sport. Certainly ber last hope in the fistic line is Wallace, and if last hope in the fistic line is Wallace, and if Nunc succumbs, then may we take the knock entirely, go in for sackcloth and ashes, and wrap wet cloths round our heads and brood o'er the past."

Dixon has been training for six weeks under the anspices of Thomas O'Rourke, an eminent Bostonian who accompanied him here. His principal work has been punching the ball and using the dumbbells, and he skips about the room instead of using a jumping rope. He, as well as Wallace, is at the exact weight, eight stone.

Pennsylvania spurted to hold them, but couldn't, and the Ithaca boys shot by. At the navy yard Cornell had open water between the two shells.

At the mile flag both the crews were rowing 36 strokes to the minute with Cornell a couple of lengths ahead. For the remaining two miles it was not a race. At the two mile flag Cornell eased up according to instructions from Courtney, and the last mile was rowed almost as they pleased. The Pennsylvanians rowed in poor form, while the Cornell men worked superbly. Just before the finish was reached, Cornell ran into a steamer's swell, and Cole, the stroke, caught a crab which knocked his oar out of his hands. It didn't make any material difference, however, and tile shell shot across the line in 14 minutes and 43 seconds, beating the best previous three mile record by 42 seconds. The Pennsylvania boys pulled nine strokes after Cornell stopped. They crossed the line in 15-52 about six lengths behind,

I., and was wit-nessed by about 200. Kelly was the first to enter the ring. He was clad in flesh-colored tights, and, although his face had its usual palor, his muscles stood out in such a manner as to convince those who saw the spider that he was in the best possible condition. When Murphy entered the ring, clad in white tights, his flesh was so smooth and soft looking as to excite comment.

How-ard and H. Garman. At 5 o'clock an elegant lunch was served at flotel Marian, after which the sport was continued until a late hour, GENERAL NEWS OF THREE STATES

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] PHILADELPHIA, June 26.-Captain John Uniontown, June 26 .- This evening Brewer, the world-famed pigeon shot, has ar-rived home from Australia and is now in this the H. C. Frick Coke Company is minus $1.160 as the result of a most daring and city. He speaks in glowing terms of the antioity. He speaks in glowing terms of the anti-podes. "It is the finest country in the world," said Brewer. "There is more money flying around there in one week than there is here in two years. Everybody has money and they will spend it and gamble with it. I shot one match and only had to kill 42 birds to win. That match netted me $1,768. successful robbery, which was perpetrated six miles from here at noon to-day. Jacob Atkinson, paymaster of the H. C. Frick Company at the Wynn Coke Works, left this place on the 11:32 train with $1,600 in his pocket. He arrived at the works at 12:30. The men were congregated about the paymaster's office waiting for their two AT Canton-Hamptons 3, Carrolltons 4.

and did not notice a smooth-faced young man approaching the window, until the words "Hands up" were uttered, and a 38-bulldog re-volver confronted him.

Mr. Atkinson was on the point of calling for aid from the men near by when he was told that it would mean death. The cool young man at the window, taking advantage of the situation, with his revolver in his left hand, oved the other into the window and secured the pay envelopes containing the amount named above. With the revolver still in his hand be backed slowly from the window, and just as he was ready to rush into the bushes beyond, he saw that the paymaster was about to call for aid, and, without a moment's warn-ing, the robber pulled the trigger and sent a bullet through the office, breaking the front window. Another was sent after the first and ican Ax Company, of Franklin, was in the city yesterday, and left last evening for home. window. Another was sent after the first and Atkin son barely escaped death by dodging to the ground.

By this time the men near by hearing the sounds, rushed to the place, and, after learning the cause of so much excitement, started in pursuit. They thought that the man was in the bushes, but after making a thorough search they found that he had escaped, Sheriff McCormick and a posse at once left Uniontown on a hunt for the robber. He had been traced through the famous White rock section in the meanwhile. The course was toward Virginia, and the chase was kept up with vigor, but at 9 o'clock to-night no news had been received of his capture. Mr. Atkinson claims to know his name and says he news had been received of his capture. Mr. Atkinson claims to know his name and says he resides in Oliphant. The desperado is described as a smooth-faced man and 5 feet 6 inches in height. It is judged that his weight is in the neighborhood of 185 pounds. Chief of Police Pegg arrived from the scene at 8 o'cleck this evening and related the circumstances as narrated. He says that Sheriff McCormick has continued the chase into West Virginia, and that the man will be captured by morning.

The desperado's name, it is believed, is Perry Donaldson. 18 years of age. He has always resided in the neighborhood. He has always been a wayward youth, and has been implicated in many petty crimes heretofore.

Will Probably End the Long Suspense at Farm Bill. [FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

DUNBAR, June 27 .- At 2 o'clock this morning the men had not yet broken through into the Hill Farm mine. The end may be reached by 8 o'clock, but it will require several hours to test the air and put on doors before the men will enter. The indications now are that the imprisoned men will be recovered some time to-day, if the conditions are favorable, and the inspectors know what they are talking about. At midnight Inspector Kirom stopped all men in the Ferguson pit, pending the outcome in the Mahoning mine. The rescuing parties are now considered to be close, and the reporters expect to hear at any time that a hole has been drilled through.

AN OPENING AT LAST.

The Hill Parm Mine Penetrated by Workers In the Ferguson Tunnel. LBY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

DUNBAR, June 26 .- For two days 20 men have been cutting a tunnel from the Ferguson mine to the Hill Farm mine from another direction than those at work in the Mahoning mine. Their intentions have been kept very quiet, as their plan was very dangerous. At 10 o'clock to-night they reached within two feet of the Hill Farm mine, and were stopped by the authorities.

Testing machines were taken into the tunnel, a drill was forced through into the nine and a bag of air from the Hill Farm mine was taken out for testing. The hole was then plugged.

WITHIN 18 FEET OF THE MEN. A Thick Wall of Con! Still Separates the

Miners and Rescuers. FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT, 1

DUNBAR, June 27 .- At midnight Secretary Watchern and a newspaper man who went to the face came to the surface. There are 18 feet of coal yet to be cut, and as the law requires them to use a 12-foot drill as an extra precaution, Inspector Keighley didn't believe they would push through before morning. A bag full of the air will then have to be examined, and the two men who will knock out the balance of the coal will be then selected.

This will consume some time. Drilling through the coal is slow work, as it has to be done by hand. If it wasn't for this part of the operation the 18 feet would be taken out in short order.
