Two Sharpsburg Men Held as Accessories to the McCauley Murder.

GENERAL NEWS OF THERE STATES

REPECTAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. JOHNSTOWN, June 29 .- S. S. Myers who represents the Bauerlein Brewing Com pany in this place, and has been carrying on an "original package" house in the Fif-teenth ward, was arrested last evening for selling malt liquor without license. He entered bail in the sum of $600 for his appearance at court. Myers started his place about three weeks ago, and has been doing quite a good business. He runs two teams in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth wards. He takes his arrest coolly and says he anticipates no trouble when his case comes to

Two Men Arrested for Complicity in th

McCauley Murder. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BEAVER, June 29 .- Philip Faust and Wash ington Potter, of Phillipsburg, who were ar rested on the charge of being accessories to the murder of John McCauley, were released yesterday on $2,000 bail each. At the prelim the murdered man, testified that on the night of the killing he was sitting near the place where the murder occurred, which was on Phoenix street, of Main. While there Smith, who is charged with doing the killing, and who is charged what doing the kining, and Faust, ran past him, and turned the corner into Phoenix street, and in less than ten min-utes after he heard a sound as if some one was getting the wind knocked out of him. Mc-Cauley at once ran around the corner and saw Catiley at once ran around the corner and saw his brother lying on the ground.

Witness further claimed that he threw off his coat and started to aid his brother, when he was caught and held by Potter. Breaking away from him, he tried to tear a paling from the fence but failed. Faust at the same time secured one and stood between him and his brother. At this instant, as the witness testified, Angua Smith ran up behind nim and struck him on the ear, then returning to his brother kicked him, the prostrate man making no eattry and being unable to resist. Then a friend named Edward Huff came by, and assisted McCauley to carry his brother to the office off a physician, who found his neck office of a physician, who found his neck broken, apparently by the kicks of Smith, Witness further testified that Faust placed his arms about Smith, and drew him awa the prostrate man, who was frequently kicked in the head by Smith.

JOHNSTOWN CHURCH TROUBLES.

Dr. Benie Considers Himself Vindicated and Offers to Resign.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] JOHNSTOWN, June 29.-Rev. Dr. Beale occupied his pulpit as usual in the Presbyterian Church here to-day. In an interview concerning the report that Elders John Fulton and D. J. Jones had been requested to resign their offices as eiders of the church, Dr. Beale said he preferred to say nothing about it, but as the matter had already been published in the pa-pers he was free to confirm the statement. Upon being interrogated as to his own resig-nation, the Doctor replied that Mr. Fullon hav-ing offered a full and satisfactory apology for his charge that Mr. Beale did not pay his debts, he considered his way now clear to renew his effer of resignation.

To the question, "Did you not resign at the last meeting of the Presbytery?" Dr. Besie replied that he did not, but that he had notified that body that having been fully vindicated from the charges made by Mr. Fulton, he intended asking the congregation to concur with him in requesting the Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relations at the fall meeting.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.I ELIZABETH, June 29.—Another big coal sale is reported here to-day. For some time a gentleman, supposed to represent Andrew Carne-gic, the iron king, has been negotiating with Mr. William Wycoff. It is now said that these negotiations have been brought to an end, and as a result 60 acres of the handsome Wycoff as a result 60 acres of the handsome Wycoff farm, just below town, has been purchased by the Carnegie representative. The land lies on the bill between the old Speer homestead and the Elizabeth cemetery, and is reported to have sold for $250 an acre, or $15.000.

William Wycoff was interviewed by your correspondent, and denied that the sale had yet taken place, but admitted that the land probably would soon be sold. He said also, that he was not certain what use was to be made of the ground by the great fron king. He hinted, however, that one thing this town needed was a great ind astrial establishment.

MAHONING REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Nominations for County Officers Made at the Primaries.

PERCHAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. Youngsrows, June 29 .- The Republicans held their primaries last night in the city and county under the Crawford county plan to nominate a county ticket and elect delegates to the State Convention, Samual O. Ewing, for Sheriff, and Z. P. Curry, for Clerk, each serving his first term, were renominated without op-position. John W. Brown was nominated for Treasurer, and the returns received indicate the nomination of L. D. Woodworth for Pro-bate Judge, and James B. Kennedy for Prosecuting Attorney.

It will probably require the official canvass to decide the nominees for Commissioner and Infirmary Director. An active canvass of candidates brought out a large vote.

DISEASE AMONG HORSES,

A Strange Epidemic Brenks Out Among the Animals at Braddock.

INPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BRADDOCK, June 28.—A strange disease has broken out among the horses here. It starts with a cough, and before proving fatal a large lump gathers in the throat, for which no cure has as yet been found.

Robert Scott, who has a big stable at the steel works has lost three fine work horses, James McCready has three that are seriously sick and several other teamsters are complaining of the disease among their horses.

Pindlay's Great Growth. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR.] FINDLAY, June 29 .- General Kirby, census enumerator of this district, has appounced an estimate of this district, has announced an estimate of the population of Findlay, giving the city 19,270 people. This is an in-crease of over 300 per cent over the population at the last census, and this place is now the largest city in Northwestern Ohio outside of Toledo. Her new growth has been almost entirely during the last three years.

Talk of Arbitration Denied. PAPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCEL 1 BRADDOCK, June 29.—A representative of the miners of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Company mines, at Turtle Creek, denies that the men have appointed a committee with a view to arbitration. He east they are as firm in their demands for the district price as when they left the pit on May 1, and that there is not even talk of arbitration.

we Boys Drowned While Swimming in the Rivers-A Southside Woman Brenks Her Neck Falling Down Stairs-Sad Pilght of An Old Man With a Broken Leg.

The body of Charles Robinger, 7 years old, was found in the Monongahela river yesterday. The day before the boy, with his 11vear-old brother and another companion, went down to the wharf at the foot of Smithfield street to take a bath in shallow water. Charles climbed over a wharf log lying in the river and fell into deep water. His brother caught him by the hand, but could not hold him, and the boy was drowned. The brother took the dead boy's clothing, hid them, and then went to his home, No. 32 Ferry sfreet. His mother, who is a widow, asked the boy where his brother was. He was afraid to tell, and said he did not know, and although the mother spent the night in searching for Charlie, the brother professed ignorance until the body was found, when he told how the accident occurred.

At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon George Grant, 15 years old, was drowned in the Allegheny river at Herr's Island. Grant, with some companions, went to the island to take a bath. While in the water he was seized with cramps, and disappeared before his comrades could offer any assistance. The body was recovered a short time after by a ferryman named Christian, and there was yet some signs of life, but instead of attempting instant resuscitation the crowd started to take the body to an undertaker's, and on the way the little spark of life left in the body fied. Her husband says that he and his wife had had a few glasses of beer during Saturday night, and had retired about 1 o'clock. He was awakened by a noise, and discovered that his wire was not in bed. He took a lamp and went down stairs, where he discovered the dead body of his wife. It was then between 2 and 3 of his wife. It was then between 2 and 3 o'clock, and he supposed that his wife had got up in the dark and started down stairs. She probably made a misstep and fell to the John Stewart, 60 years old, was discovered by Officer Frank Chase lying in a pile of boxes at the rear of Jackman's livery stable. One of his legs was broken, and the officer had him removed to the Homeopathic Hospital. Stewart said that he had tried to crawl over the boxes at 8 o'clock in the morning, but fell down between two of them, and had been lying there ever since with the broken leg.

Nicholas Becaro, a 17-year-old Italian, had his foot crushed by a Lake Erie train at New Brighton yesterday. He was brought to the West Penn Hospital and the foot amputated.

Richard Frazier, a 3-year-old boy whose some is at No. 12 Ninth street, was struck by a Pleasant Valley car on Ninth street yesterday morning near his home. He had an arm broken and his head was severely out. He was taken to his home.

George Pierre, a colored boy 9 years old, was seriously injured on Hemlock street, Allegheny, yesterday. He was riding a bicycle, which broke under him, and an iron screw caught him in the calf of the leg, tearing a tearful hole and penetrating an artery. AN AMERICAN SWINDLER, Who Was Living Like a Lord, Sent to a London Prison.

IBY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH. LONDON, June 29 .- A New Yorker named Parker was last week sentenced to 2 P. M. one year's imprisonment for obtaining $2,500 worth of diamonds under false pretenses. It is said that he is wellknown in New York. He has been cutting a great swell in London hotels for four months. He left New York without a penny. On the steamer over he fleeced travelers at eard playing, and upon his arrival in London represented himself as a wealthy American. He dressed in the height of fashion and spent money freely.

His gentlemanly appearance deceived everyone. He soon found his way into sporting circles, where lucky betting won him considerable money. This he disbursed lavishly among his acquaintances in seeking to es-tablish credit with bookmakers, whom he

The Evidences of the Great Lumber Flood Have Practically Disappeared.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. HARRISBURG, June 29 .- The work of removing the logs which lodged on Me-Cormick's Island, a few miles west of this city, during the great flood last June, is about being finished. There were deposited on the island about 500,000 logs, or 29,000,-000 feet. The present contractor began the first of last September, and has been work-ing from 25 to 30 men and from 12 to 15 horses ever since.

A railroad track nearly a mile long was built on the island. Rapid work has been done, everything having been shipped to Highspire, seven miles distant, where 100,-000 feet of lumber was sawed daily. A portable sawmill is now at work on the island sawing the debris into kindling wood.

And the story it will tell will be as unconven tional as the title of the work. "Stand Fast, Craig-Royston," is the family motto of one of the characters introduced by the author-and a very interesting, original and breezy sort of individual he proves himself to be. But his greatest claim upon the reader lies in the fact that his daughter is the heroine of the story. William Black's heroines are among the most delightful creations in our literature, and the heroine of the present story is equal to the best of her charming predecessors. "Stand Fast,

Mr. WILLIAM BLACK, the author of "A successful representative. He located himseli in London in 1864. As a newspaper representa and ran through many editions. Next came "The Strange Adventures of a Phaeton," which literally described a driving excursion the author made from London to Edinburgh, with a thread of fiction interwoven. It is said that a good many people, Americans chiefly, have adopted this plan of exploring the English counties, and have taken these "Adventures" as a sort of guide book. A glance through the author's list of published works reveals that his later stories appeared in the following sequence "A Princess of Thule," "The Maid of Kileena," "Three Feathers," "Madcap Violet," "Greet Pastures and Piccadilly," "Macleod of Dare," "White Wings: A Yachting Romance," "Sunrise: A Story of the Times," "That Beautiful Wretch," "Shandon Bells," "White Heather," "The Wise Women of Iverness," "Sabina Zembra," "In Far Lochaber."

The story is full of interest and the move ment is steady and continuous. The perusal of the opening chapters gives promise of some surprising situations in the near future. The hero is a young fellow of means, with brilliant prospects in the political world; his father is a ire with socialistic theories. The love story which the author has to tell is of a most original kind, and requires for its elaboration several interesting personages, in-cluding a family of Americans and several fashionable notabilities in London.

The political characters introduced can almost be recognized as counterparts of people now hving. We have copious references in the mouth of an old Scotch poet to the claims of Scotland in song and story, and as a background we have fashionable life in Mayfair, a Henley and Brighton, labor and co-operative ongresses in various parts of the country, and characteristic leader of the masses in a North Country man named Ogden. "Stand Fast, Craig-Royston" possesses a powerful and exciting plot, and will appeal strongly to all classes of readers.
