

Pittsburgh, but it is not the last. I hope to see the anniversary of the Independence Day celebrated every year in some such manner.

A HAUNT OF ELOQUENCE.

Panther Hollow Resounds with the strains of oratory.

Speechmaking in a beautiful Amphitheater designed by Nature—Mayor Gourley's Welcoming Address to Schenley Park—Reading the Declaration—Major A. M. Brown's Able Effort.

A thorough search through Uncle Sam's broad domains would not bring to light a more picturesque spot than that chosen by Mayor Gourley for the location of the speaker's stand at the mouth of Panther Hollow in Schenley Park.

Decorated with American flags, ran back to a steep hill, and was held by an immense oak tree. Facing the stand stretched a large level plateau. On three sides rose steep hills, apparently designed by nature in battle for this flag which we all love. The whole South and our countrymen are dotted with the green grass of hundreds of thousands of brave men who willingly gave up their lives for the maintenance of our Union, and who made the experience a success.

PROUD OF OUR COUNTRY.

CLARENCE BURLINGHAM MAKES A STIRRING PATRIOTIC APPEAL.

Colonel J. W. Echols, Spokes of the Question of the Future of the Future of the Nation, Dr. W. H. Keenan, Assistant Postmaster A. G. Edwards.

Clarence Burlingham, Esq., the Assistant City Attorney, was next introduced to the thousands of people who were assembled by Mayor Gourley.

A great question confronted our forefathers of the Revolution at that famous meeting in the hall of the Continental Congress.

Dr. W. D. Keenan, as the representative of the Central Board of Education, was the next speaker introduced to the thousands of people who were assembled by Mayor Gourley.

GLORIOUS OLD TOM

TALKS FEELINGLY OF LOVE OF HOME AND COUNTRY.

Too Much Legislation for Wealth—The Necessity for Self-Government—Restrictive Immigration—Dr. W. H. Keenan, Esq., Wins Applause for Speech-Making.

A LOUISIANA FLAG.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN—I feel good to be here today. My heart is stirred up and overflowing with patriotism from listening to those patriotic songs and the reading of the Declaration of Independence.

THE DEFENSE OF MAN

and perpetuate such a glorious Government as blessed as today. It must have been organized by the great God and He must have put it into the hearts of the nation to bring harmony, peace and order out of the chaos of that time.

love for home: teach them this and soon crime will almost disappear from the land. Our jails will be empty and our penitentiaries can be used for Sunday schools.

SPORTS AND MUSIC.

How the People Enjoyed Themselves, Notwithstanding the Great Downpour of Rain.

MALARKY AND KEER BIG WINNERS

The Former Also Gets the Gucky Gold Medal for Leading in the Largest Number of Contests.

FINE SELECTIONS BY BRASS BANDS.

Thousands Crowded Around the Musicians Entrenched With the National Air.

The rain deluged the sports about two hours, and it was after 7 o'clock when the sun came out and the wind-up was announced.

AT THE ZOO.

SCHENLEY PARK'S AVAILABILITY AS A TRAMPING GROUND.

The Bird-Headed Eagle is Turned Loose for the Day, Mr. McKeligh Disappoints a Large Crowd.

One has no idea of the extent of the park, until a trip from one end to the other is made. Over in Allegheny, when a person walks from one end of the park to the other, it is made a subject of comment.

THE FINEST EVER SEEN HERE.

Universal Verdict on the Daylight Fireworks at the Park.

The fireworks display at Schenley Park was held in a large field back of Mt. Bigelow, and was without doubt the finest collection of daylight pyrotechnics ever seen in this city.

OTHER RACES AND WINNERS.

Two mile amateur race, won by John McGrew. The other entries were W. H. Hastings, S. Middleton and Joseph Edwards.

PAYING FOR THEIR FUN.

Some of Those Who Celebrated Get Into the Law's Meshes.

THE FINEST EVER SEEN HERE.

Universal Verdict on the Daylight Fireworks at the Park.

OTHER RACES AND WINNERS.

Two mile amateur race, won by John McGrew. The other entries were W. H. Hastings, S. Middleton and Joseph Edwards.

Edwards and C. W. Order. Prize, pair of silver bottle holders.

NO SERIOUS MISHAPS.

A Fourth of July Singularity Free From Fatalities and Fires.

ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS BROKEN.

Slight Accidents and Burns From Exploding Firecrackers.

A BOY BADLY HURT BY A DYNAMITE CAP.

The Glorious Fourth, unlike the day in former years, was singularly free from fatalities and fires in the two cities.

THE MEN WHO DRANK FREELY.

Union Station Officers Kept Ejecting Them From the Depot.

The persons who celebrated the Fourth with hilarious "jags" were numerous. The saloon men, fair business, though not as such as to the days of Judge White's famous 33.

EXPLODED IN HIS HAND.

Last night while a number of men, boys and police officers were gathered in front of the Central station, Frank Spireno, a watchman, was holding a dynamite cap in his hand when it exploded.

AN UNPATRIOTIC TRIFLE.

He Stole a Hammer Used in the Schenley Park Sports.

Last night Superintendent James McKnight, of Schenley Park, found a young man named Louis Bart, walking off with one of the hammers used in yesterday's sporting events.

NOT TO BE FORGOTTEN.

Minor Happenings of One of the Greatest Feasts in Pittsburgh's History.

The flag pole on Mt. Bigelow was put in position at 1 o'clock Thursday night. The flag was hoisted at 10 o'clock.

SHOT IN THE CHEEK.

About 5 o'clock last night Benjamin Alder, a butcher, who lives at Creighton station, went into Market alley on Fifth avenue, where a crowd of boys was playing a game of football.

COULDN'T PICK UP THE DIME.

One Young Man Who Will Regret His Fourth of July Experience.

A gay young fellow, anchored so heavily with the crowd on the street last yesterday and laying down a quarter asked for a glass of whisky.

THE FINEST EVER SEEN HERE.

Universal Verdict on the Daylight Fireworks at the Park.

The fireworks display at Schenley Park was held in a large field back of Mt. Bigelow, and was without doubt the finest collection of daylight pyrotechnics ever seen in this city.

OTHER RACES AND WINNERS.

Two mile amateur race, won by John McGrew. The other entries were W. H. Hastings, S. Middleton and Joseph Edwards.

PAYING FOR THEIR FUN.

Some of Those Who Celebrated Get Into the Law's Meshes.

THE FINEST EVER SEEN HERE.

Universal Verdict on the Daylight Fireworks at the Park.

OTHER RACES AND WINNERS.

Two mile amateur race, won by John McGrew. The other entries were W. H. Hastings, S. Middleton and Joseph Edwards.

Edwards and C. W. Order. Prize, pair of silver bottle holders.

NO SERIOUS MISHAPS.

A Fourth of July Singularity Free From Fatalities and Fires.

ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS BROKEN.

Slight Accidents and Burns From Exploding Firecrackers.

A BOY BADLY HURT BY A DYNAMITE CAP.

The Glorious Fourth, unlike the day in former years, was singularly free from fatalities and fires in the two cities.

THE MEN WHO DRANK FREELY.

Union Station Officers Kept Ejecting Them From the Depot.

The persons who celebrated the Fourth with hilarious "jags" were numerous. The saloon men, fair business, though not as such as to the days of Judge White's famous 33.

EXPLODED IN HIS HAND.

Last night while a number of men, boys and police officers were gathered in front of the Central station, Frank Spireno, a watchman, was holding a dynamite cap in his hand when it exploded.

AN UNPATRIOTIC TRIFLE.

He Stole a Hammer Used in the Schenley Park Sports.

Last night Superintendent James McKnight, of Schenley Park, found a young man named Louis Bart, walking off with one of the hammers used in yesterday's sporting events.

NOT TO BE FORGOTTEN.

Minor Happenings of One of the Greatest Feasts in Pittsburgh's History.

The flag pole on Mt. Bigelow was put in position at 1 o'clock Thursday night. The flag was hoisted at 10 o'clock.

SHOT IN THE CHEEK.

About 5 o'clock last night Benjamin Alder, a butcher, who lives at Creighton station, went into Market alley on Fifth avenue, where a crowd of boys was playing a game of football.

COULDN'T PICK UP THE DIME.

One Young Man Who Will Regret His Fourth of July Experience.

A gay young fellow, anchored so heavily with the crowd on the street last yesterday and laying down a quarter asked for a glass of whisky.

THE FINEST EVER SEEN HERE.

Universal Verdict on the Daylight Fireworks at the Park.

The fireworks display at Schenley Park was held in a large field back of Mt. Bigelow, and was without doubt the finest collection of daylight pyrotechnics ever seen in this city.

OTHER RACES AND WINNERS.

Two mile amateur race, won by John McGrew. The other entries were W. H. Hastings, S. Middleton and Joseph Edwards.

PAYING FOR THEIR FUN.

Some of Those Who Celebrated Get Into the Law's Meshes.

THE FINEST EVER SEEN HERE.

Universal Verdict on the Daylight Fireworks at the Park.

OTHER RACES AND WINNERS.

Two mile amateur race, won by John McGrew. The other entries were W. H. Hastings, S. Middleton and Joseph Edwards.

Edwards and C. W. Order. Prize, pair of silver bottle holders.

NO SERIOUS MISHAPS.

A Fourth of July Singularity Free From Fatalities and Fires.

ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS BROKEN.

Slight Accidents and Burns From Exploding Firecrackers.

A BOY BADLY HURT BY A DYNAMITE CAP.

The Glorious Fourth, unlike the day in former years, was singularly free from fatalities and fires in the two cities.

THE MEN WHO DRANK FREELY.

Union Station Officers Kept Ejecting Them From the Depot.

The persons who celebrated the Fourth with hilarious "jags" were numerous. The saloon men, fair business, though not as such as to the days of Judge White's famous 33.

EXPLODED IN HIS HAND.

Last night while a number of men, boys and police officers were gathered in front of the Central station, Frank Spireno, a watchman, was holding a dynamite cap in his hand when it exploded.

AN UNPATRIOTIC TRIFLE.

He Stole a Hammer Used in the Schenley Park Sports.

Last night Superintendent James McKnight, of Schenley Park, found a young man named Louis Bart, walking off with one of the hammers used in yesterday's sporting events.

NOT TO BE FORGOTTEN.

Minor Happenings of One of the Greatest Feasts in Pittsburgh's History.

The flag pole on Mt. Bigelow was put in position at 1 o'clock Thursday night. The flag was hoisted at 10 o'clock.

SHOT IN THE CHEEK.

About 5 o'clock last night Benjamin Alder, a butcher, who lives at Creighton station, went into Market alley on Fifth avenue, where a crowd of boys was playing a game of football.

COULDN'T PICK UP THE DIME.

One Young Man Who Will Regret His Fourth of July Experience.

A gay young fellow, anchored so heavily with the crowd on the street last yesterday and laying down a quarter asked for a glass of whisky.

THE FINEST EVER SEEN HERE.

Universal Verdict on the Daylight Fireworks at the Park.

The fireworks display at Schenley Park was held in a large field back of Mt. Bigelow, and was without doubt the finest collection of daylight pyrotechnics ever seen in this city.

OTHER RACES AND WINNERS.

Two mile amateur race, won by John McGrew. The other entries were W. H. Hastings, S. Middleton and Joseph Edwards.

PAYING FOR THEIR FUN.

Some of Those Who Celebrated Get Into the Law's Meshes.

THE FINEST EVER SEEN HERE.

Universal Verdict on the Daylight Fireworks at the Park.

OTHER RACES AND WINNERS.

Two mile amateur race, won by John McGrew. The other entries were W. H. Hastings, S. Middleton and Joseph Edwards.

Edwards and C. W. Order. Prize, pair of silver bottle holders.

NO SERIOUS MISHAPS.

A Fourth of July Singularity Free From Fatalities and Fires.

ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS BROKEN.

Slight Accidents and Burns From Exploding Firecrackers.

A BOY BADLY HURT BY A DYNAMITE CAP.

The Glorious Fourth, unlike the day in former years, was singularly free from fatalities and fires in the two cities.

THE MEN WHO DRANK FREELY.

Union Station Officers Kept Ejecting Them From the Depot.

The persons who celebrated the Fourth with hilarious "jags" were numerous. The saloon men, fair business, though not as such as to the days of Judge White's famous 33.

EXPLODED IN HIS HAND.

Last night while a number of men, boys and police officers were gathered in front of the Central station, Frank Spireno, a watchman, was holding a dynamite cap in his hand when it exploded.

AN UNPATRIOTIC TRIFLE.

He Stole a Hammer Used in the Schenley Park Sports.

Last night Superintendent James McKnight, of Schenley Park, found a young man named Louis Bart, walking off with one of the hammers used in yesterday's sporting events.

NOT TO BE FORGOTTEN.

Minor Happenings of One of the Greatest Feasts in Pittsburgh's History.

The flag pole on Mt. Bigelow was put in position at 1 o'clock Thursday night. The flag was hoisted at 10 o'clock.

SHOT IN THE CHEEK.

About 5 o'clock last night Benjamin Alder, a butcher, who lives at Creighton station, went into Market alley on Fifth avenue, where a crowd of boys was playing a game of football.

COULDN'T PICK UP THE DIME.

One Young Man Who Will Regret His Fourth of July Experience.

A gay young fellow, anchored so heavily with the crowd on the street last yesterday and laying down a quarter asked for a glass of whisky.

THE FINEST EVER SEEN HERE.

Universal Verdict on the Daylight Fireworks at the Park.

The fireworks display at Schenley Park was held in a large field back of Mt. Bigelow, and was without doubt the finest collection of daylight pyrotechnics ever seen in this city.

OTHER RACES AND WINNERS.

Two mile amateur race, won by John McGrew. The other entries were W. H. Hastings, S. Middleton and Joseph Edwards.

PAYING FOR THEIR FUN.

Some of Those Who Celebrated Get Into the Law's Meshes.

THE FINEST EVER SEEN HERE.

Universal Verdict on the Daylight Fireworks at the Park.

OTHER RACES AND WINNERS.

Two mile amateur race, won by John McGrew. The other entries were W. H. Hastings, S. Middleton and Joseph Edwards.

Edwards and C. W. Order. Prize, pair of silver bottle holders.

NO SERIOUS MISHAPS.

A Fourth of July Singularity Free From Fatalities and Fires.

ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS BROKEN.

Slight Accidents and Burns From Exploding Firecrackers.

A BOY BADLY HURT BY A DYNAMITE CAP.

The Glorious Fourth, unlike the day in former years, was singularly free from fatalities and fires in the two cities.

THE MEN WHO DRANK FREELY.

Union Station Officers Kept Ejecting Them From the Depot.

The persons who celebrated the Fourth with hilarious "jags" were numerous. The saloon men, fair business, though not as such as to the days of Judge White's famous 33.

EXPLODED IN HIS HAND.

Last night while a number of men, boys and police officers were gathered in front of the Central station, Frank Spireno, a watchman, was holding a dynamite cap in his hand when it exploded.

AN UNPATRIOTIC TRIFLE.

He Stole a Hammer Used in the Schenley Park Sports.

Last night Superintendent James McKnight, of Schenley Park, found a young man named Louis Bart, walking off with one of the hammers used in yesterday's sporting events.

NOT TO BE FORGOTTEN.

Minor Happenings of One of the Greatest Feasts in Pittsburgh's History.

The flag pole on Mt. Bigelow was put in position at 1 o'clock Thursday night. The flag was hoisted at 10 o'clock.

SHOT IN THE CHEEK.

About 5 o'clock last night Benjamin Alder, a butcher, who lives at Creighton station, went into Market alley on Fifth avenue, where a crowd of boys was playing a game of football.

COULDN'T PICK UP THE DIME.

One Young Man Who Will Regret His Fourth of July Experience.

A gay young fellow, anchored so heavily with the crowd on the street last yesterday and laying down a quarter asked for a glass of whisky.

THE FINEST EVER SEEN HERE.

Universal Verdict on the Daylight Fireworks at the Park.

The fireworks display at Schenley Park was held in a large field back of Mt. Bigelow, and was without doubt the finest collection of daylight pyrotechnics ever seen in this city.

OTHER RACES AND WINNERS.

Two mile amateur race, won by John McGrew. The other entries were W. H. Hastings, S. Middleton and Joseph Edwards.

PAYING FOR THEIR FUN.

Some of Those Who Celebrated Get Into the Law's Meshes.

THE FINEST EVER SEEN HERE.

Universal Verdict on the Daylight Fireworks at the Park.

OTHER RACES AND WINNERS.

Two mile amateur race, won by John McGrew. The other entries were W. H. Hastings, S. Middleton and Joseph Edwards.

Edwards and C. W. Order. Prize, pair of silver bottle holders.

NO SERIOUS MISHAPS.

A Fourth of July Singularity Free From Fatalities and Fires.

ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS BROKEN.

Slight Accidents and Burns From Exploding Firecrackers.

A BOY BADLY HURT BY A DYNAMITE CAP.

The Glorious Fourth, unlike the day in former years, was singularly free from fatalities and fires in the two cities.

THE MEN WHO DRANK FREELY.

Union Station Officers Kept Ejecting Them From the Depot.

The persons who celebrated the Fourth with hilarious "jags" were numerous. The saloon men, fair business, though not as such as to the days of Judge White's famous 33.

EXPLODED IN HIS HAND.

Last night while a number of men, boys and police officers were gathered in front of the Central station, Frank Spireno, a watchman, was holding a dynamite cap in his hand when it exploded.

AN UNPATRIOTIC TRIFLE.

He Stole a Hammer Used in the Schenley Park Sports.

Last night Superintendent James McKnight, of Schenley Park, found a young man named Louis Bart, walking off with one of the hammers used in yesterday's sporting events.

NOT TO BE FORGOTTEN.

Minor Happenings of One of the Greatest Feasts in Pittsburgh's History.

The flag pole on Mt. Bigelow was put in position at 1 o'clock Thursday night. The flag was hoisted at 10 o'clock.

SHOT IN THE CHEEK.

About 5 o'clock last night Benjamin Alder, a butcher, who lives at Creighton station, went into Market alley on Fifth avenue, where a crowd of boys was playing a game of football.

COULDN'T PICK UP THE DIME.

One Young Man Who Will Regret His Fourth of July Experience.

A gay young fellow, anchored so heavily with the crowd on the street last yesterday and laying down a quarter asked for a glass of whisky.

THE FINEST EVER SEEN HERE.

Universal Verdict on the Daylight Fireworks at the Park.

</