Ten Thousand Members of Catholic Societies Parade Through the Streets of Pittsburg

ON A GLORIOUS FOURTH OF JULY.

A VERY RIGHLY CREDITABLE TURN-OUT.

All the Bands of the Neighborhood Seeded to Furnish Music for the Occasion.

To the stirring strains of 19 brass bands, yesterday morning, the American Federation of Catholic Societies paraded over the streets of Pittsburg in bright uniforms and shining armer. Towns in Pennsylvania within 50 miles turned out societies to swell the ranks, and to make the demonstration the largest that the Catholic societies ever participated in. No recent event of the kind has excited the interest inspired by the monster parade, in which 10,000 men publiely displayed their patriotism. The display was a model one from every point of view, except the one of promptness in starting. A slight unavoidable delay took place that prevented the start at the hour named. Ten thousand men in bright, showy uniforms, and the striking equipments of the Hibernian Rifles, made up a display that is numbered with the leading local events of that character.

The clear, warm day, tempered agreeably by a refreshing breeze, drew thousands to the streets along the appointed route. The uniformed societies, the Knights of St. John and the Knights of St. George, by their elegant marching and handsome uni-forms, were the distinctive features of the parade. The Hibernian Rifles turned out in strong force, having the highest number of any one organization in the demonstra-

SOMETHING OF THE COLUMN.

At the head of the column following the Chief Marshal came the Knights of St. John, Uniformed Rank, of Cleveland, in lines that stretched from curb to curb as they passed down Fifth avenue. Their handsome appearance, finished with military gracefulness, was rece vol with applicate. With them were a Knights of St. John, of this city, in fur dress uniforms of black, trimmed with silv & braid. The Chief Marshal's escort carried at the head of the parade a beautiful new flag, with 43 stars, the last one being added in anticipa-tion of the admission of Idaho as a State, which occurred the day before. The management of the big demonstration handled the vast number of people that participated to the satisfaction of all. The committee had worked diligently for the past few months to make the parade a success, and its efforts were rewarded by the turning out of more men than they had counted upon. It was stated last year, when the Catholic societies paraded on the Fourth of July, that their parade was a be obtained from the United States statistics mere bluff to make the people think they were as patriotic as any other denomination. committee, and this stimulated them to make a larger demonstration this year, and tion is intensified by the fact that the Remake a larger demonstration this year, and prove that they were willing to show their patriotism in the same way as others, by

The procession moved over the following route: Smithfield and Third avenue to Grant street, to Diamond street, to Old avenue, to Fifth avenue, to Dinwiddie street, to Center avenue, to Fulton street, to Wylie avenue, to Fifth avenue, to Market street, to Sixth street, to Liberty street, to New Grant street, o Seventh avenue, to Grant street, to Cathedral, where they passed in review before the clergy of the city and were dismissed. KANSAS FARMERS' DEBTS. GLOOMY STATE OF AFFAIRS REPORTED BY ALLIANCES.

Discontent Growing Among Prairie Agriculturists-Mortgage Indebtedness on

45,000 Farms Over $146,000,000--A Political Issue. TOPEKA, KAN., July 4.-The discontent among the Kansas farmers has been growing instead of diminishing. To ascertain the cause of this feeling to a certainty the State officials of the Farmers' Alliance caused to be asked a series of questions of secretaries of the sub-Alliances, of which there are about 2,500. The principal questions were: How many members are renters? How many have unmortgaged farms? How many have mortgaged farms? The answers reveal a gloomy state of af-fairs, from which no relief can be obtained except by political change. The mortgage indebtedness is found to be on farms alone $145,563,134. This indebtedness is on some 45,000 farms. The majority of these mortgagors have detaulted their interest, and foreclosures are soure to follow. The remaining ones will get through only after a great hardship.

Another startling fact, for a new State, is revealed. According to the reports received by the Alliance officers, there are 21,700 renters, a large proportion of whom with people in eager expectancy, as the lost their homes through foreclosure suits, various societies were on their way to places having been unable to pay the interest on loans made when they were the owners of the land. This was caused first by successive years of bad crops, and finally by the low prices last year, when large crops had rewarded their efforts.

Of the membership of over 73,000 farmers,

7,500 have tarms unincumbered, and the majority of these are the victims of chattel mortgages at high rates of interest, which means they are, if possible, in worse condition than those who have their farms mortgaged.

There are 270,000 farms in Kansas, according to Judge Peffer, a most care ul statisti-73,000 The evil reaches beyond that organization. The Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association, while not nearly so large, will show about 17,000 farmers in relatively the same condition, and the agricultural section of the Union Labor Party a similar state of affairs, making an aggregate of 110,000. These organizations are the only ones that have made any effort to gather statistics, and nothing but guess work remains as to the condition of the Democratic and Republican farmers until the grand aggregate can now being compiled.

Madison street, was the hero of the first experiment of the Chicago Pasteur Institute yesterday. His name is John Webber, he is 16 years old, and he lives at home at No. 106 Orchard street, A mad little cur dog bit him on the run on the calf of the leg June 21 on Jefferson street. He went to a druggist, and had the bite cautetized, and then he visited Dr. Lagorio, who invited' him to be the pioneer victim of the institute. John was on band promptly at 9 o'clock, He had expected a large and appreciative throng of spectators, and he was disap-Thousands of Renters Who Lost Homes | pointed because only Dr. Lagorio, the head of the institute; Dr. Moyer, who was once County Physician; Dr. Maxwell, and three or four students of Rush Medical College were present in the little ante-room where the fun began. Still John was reasonably proud of his distinction, and he cast a scornful glance at Henry Schumacher, the boy who was to take second place in the list of victims. This pride was somewhat softened with awe, for the room was full of the odor of iodoform and other weird smells, and Dr. Lagorio's face wore an unpromising expression. The doctor held in one hand a vial containing a liquid that looked like water, but was really a solution of one-sixteenth of a dead rabbit's spinal cord dissolved in 12 minims of sterilized water. The rabbit died June 18 of rabies. It was inoculated with virus in order that John Webber might be saved. boy who was to take second place in the list Webber might be saved.

John obeyed and Dr. Moyer rubbed a palm wet with alcohol over the left side of the boy's abdomen.

"Are you ready?" said the head doctor. "Y-yes," replied John Webber, whose courage was cozing before the hypoderm ic syringe which the physician had dexterously poised before his eyes. The needle was driven into the white flesh. "Ouch!" cried John Webber. The doctor laughed. "You spoke too late," he said. "You have been inoculated already.

Put in your shirt!"

Henry Schumacher, the second patient, had been made brave by the sight of John Webber's luxurious martyrdom, and hesuftered the same treatment with patience. Henry was bitten by his own water spaniel, which he was shearing at his home, No. 372 Johnston street. The spaniel bit him seven times on the hands and was then shot. There was no proof that the water spaniel was mad when he bit Henry, but the doctor thought it best to take no chances, and he gave the boy the dose assigned to plain cases—six minims of the solution squirted into the ab-work. It was while in this condition that he began treatment with the phy-icians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute. He says: "My disease was of six or seven years' standing, and the above history of my case is true. At first I noticed that my nose and throat would clog up in the evening, and I thought I was taking cold. As I treated with several doctors, and got no better, I became disgusted with doctoring, for it seemed as if I never could be cured. Finally a friend advised me to try the physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute, at $23 Penn avenue, as his wife had been cured by these doctors. This gave me some hope, and I decided to take a course of their treatment. I improved from the first. I now feel well and strong, and shall be glad to further describe my case and permanent cure by these specialists.

The buildings are entirely new, wide halls, open fireplaces, best of ventilation and drainage, elegantly furnished, lighted with electric light, etc. Good livery, fine drives and beautiful mountain scenery. Terms, $2 per day. Discount per month or season. House open June 1.

WATKINS, N. Y. Institution, under the medical man-This new Institution, under the medical management of experienced physicians, will open for guests JUNE 15, 1890.

Located on a biuff, overlooking 30 miles of Seneca Lake surrounded by pine forests and near the famous Watkins Glen.

Will be equipped with the most approved therapeutic appliances, including Turkish, Russian, Roman, Electric, Electro-thermal, Moliere Saline and Iron Baths. Also Massage, Swedish Movements, Calisthenics and all forms of Electricity.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

July 5, 1890.

IG heads and small pocketbooks-there always are plenty after the Fourth. Well, we're after the people with the small pocketbooks. The few dollars that didn't go up in fun and fireworks—don't you think you had better invest them in clothing? This is the day to do it, and Kaufmanns' the place. The reduced prices that'll be named to-day will keep up the enthusiasm.

Yesterday it was the political enthusiasm of a free born people-today it'll be the purchasing enthusiasm of a thrifty public.

THE MAN WITH A $10 BILL

Can perform a miracle to-day. He can get a $20 suit for it. You know the Men's Fine Dress Suits we sold the early part of this week at the reduced price of $12. Well, what's left (there are probably 350) will be closed out to-day at $10. Now, then, bring in your Suits-Cheviots, Cassimeres, Worsteds and Serges.

THE MAN WITH A $5 BILL

Has equal cause for rejoicing. He can waltz right into our Men's Suit Department to-day and take at $5 any one of the first-class Business Suits we sold at the reduced figure of $6 50 since last Monday. Their intrinsic, sterling value is $10, but your little will take any one to-day. Hurry up, then, if you don't want to miss this chance.

THE MAN WITH A $2 BILL

Will have no cause for complaint, either. Here's how we'll regale him. The fine tailor-made Dress Pantaloons reduced by us last Monday to $3, will be offered to close to-day at TWO DOLLARS. Just reflect! Fine All-Wool Trousers for $21 Truly, the equal of this bargain was never known.
