THE SCORE TIED.

The local men secured three more in the third. Aster two men were out and Becklev had a life, Ward made a bad throw and he went to second. Joyce threw wild to first giving Fields two bases and scoring Knehne singled and Fields Beckley. Corcoran's first on balls drove Kuchne to second, and he scored on Robinson's single. The Brooklyns did not score in the third.

In the fourth the home team got a run on Visner's base on balls and Beckley's two baser. This left the score in favor of the Pittsburgers. In the sixth it was John Ward's turn to lead off for Brooklyn. He singled and Joyce and Andrews did the same, filling the bases. Ward scored on the doubly play of Robinson and Beckley, putting out Andrews and Bauer and the score was tied. Pittsburg scored the winning run in the eighth inning after two men were out. Hanlon singled and went to second on Seery's fumble. He scored on Visner's base hit, The score: Ward made a great attempt to tie the score in their half of the eighth. They are playing merely for their amusement and not with any view of matching American against English skill at the game. These gentlemen made their first appearance withe Kent county meeting, held last week at Blackheath, a fashionable suburb some half a dozen miles from London. In the firstclass handicap, Thomson, who received a start of three-quarters of 15, according to the new handicap regulations, was defeated in the opening round by Kingsley, two-quarters by six-three and six-two. Miller progressed all right until he reached the penultimate round, when he also met Kingsley, who beat him by six-two and six-two. Kingsley then won the event outright, Miller taking third prize. ) The next meeting was the championship, commencing on Monday last, and for this both entered, but Thomson scratched to the ex-champion, H. P. Lawford, probably thinking that no play would take place after the rain that had fallen. Miller, on the other hand, gaineda very creditable victory over a good Irish player, H. S. # Suil, of Baltimore. It is said that the price paid for the cock is one of the highest ever paid for a gamecock. The bird has won five catch-weight fights. The last fight was with Matt Allen's Lap for $1,000 a side, in New York City. It took the brown red 34 minutes to make the Jap cock jump the pit. This cock has a challenge in the Police Gazette to meet any bird in the world for $1,000 a side, New York enter.
