Dr. Patterson, of Eric, Preaches in the Third Presbyterian Church.

Rev. J. G. Patterson, formerly pastor of the Park Church of Erie, preached last evening in the Third Presbyterian Church, Sixth avenue. A union service of the First and Third churches was held to hear the noted divine, and there was a large crowd in attendance.

The subject of Dr. Patterson's sermon was, "Nicodemus and an Inquirer in His Times." He made three points in opening his address. He said the general inquiry of to-day among people is in regard to re-ligion. It is remarkable that a similar train of influences existed in the times of Nicodemus and to-day. There is a large reserve of favorable convictions, he said, to Christ and Christianity. It does not openly declare itself until compelled to do so by the same juncture of affairs; to recognize a solid hasis of established truth as the starting point to further inquiry. In his second point, he said people should morning.

deal with realities as if they were realities and third, to come direct to Jesus Christ. the light and life of all things. In conclu sion, he asked his hearers to accept the divine realities for what they are.
