The testimony of Philipena Derasa, wife of Antonio Di Pauli, was not important. She pointed, out Carnonia and Natali as being in the apolicit of the time Ruffsa was hurt. "Mike" Mealh saw the crowd of Calabrians knock fliffsa down and beat hum. He did not know who were in the crowd. "At this point the Commonwealth rested, and, after some consultation between council, it was agreed that there was not sufficient evi-dence to convict Citeno and Greco. They were not discharged, however, as District Attorney Joinston thought more evidence might be brought out against them. The friends of the Italian principals would not submit to a com-promise, court adjourned until this morning to give them an opportunity to do so. The case will be continued this morning.

SORRY HE SPOKE

Hyman Browarsky Fined $500 and Sentenced Six Months for Contempt. A scene that created a sensation was enacted in Criminal Court at its opening yesterday morning. Hyman Browarsky, convicted on two charges of assault and battery last week, was called up for sentence by Judge Slagle. He was fixed $50 and sent six months to jail on each charge, making a fine of $100 and a year's each charge, making a fine of $100 and a year's imprisonment. He at once blurted out the vilest kind of a name at the Judge and anid the greatest confusion was hustled out of the room and over to the jail. Judge Collier was also on the bench at the time and the two Judges held a consultation, the result of which caused Browarsky to be again brought into court on a charge of contempt. An additional fine of $500 and six months' im-prisonment was put on blue and he was jured. An additional fine of $500 and six months' im-prisonment was put on usim, and again he was about to speak out when a hand was placed over his month and he was hurried out of the controom. Browarsky is a liquor dealer on Fifth avenue, and is thought by many to be in-mane, having once been confined in Dixmont. Themas Keegan, charged with assault and intery on William Sprecht and August Bloom, put in a plea of culity and he was held for sea-tence. Edward Eulger was found guilty of as-sault and battery on W. H Hart. In the case of Oscar Soffel, Jacob Zimmer and Abe Cohen, for assault and battery, the jury is out, and the case of Jacob Beets and John Gilney, entering a building with felonious intent, was given to the jury.
