had been given up, which was very gratifying to the bulls. London was a factor in the early rise, but turned seller on the improvement and aided in bringing about a reaction, but the selling orders were soon filled and the upward movement again made headway. St. Paul and Northern Pacific preferred were prominent in the early dealings, but later New England, the trusts, Lackawanna and the Grangers in general were the leading features. Just before the close, however, Messrs, Kildler, Peabody & Co, en-grarde 31,000,000 for export and precipitated a selling movement which reached all portions of the list and a large proportion of the material gains were lost, the market closing weak at the concension.
