NEW YORK, July 11 .- The New Yorks had all the sport they wanted with the Pittsburgs at the Polo grounds this afternoon, and, although the score was fearfully one-sided, yet the 603 spectators got their money's worth. Of course they did not get it by seeing a close game, but they took it out on Umpire Powers and the Pittsburg players. It was all done good naturedly and kept everybody in a happy humor. It was pleasing to see the New Yorks play as they did. They had no compassion on their conterees from the Iron City, and rubbed it in till they made a couple of the visitors so sick that they did not try to play. Welch pitched good ball, and but four scattering hits were made off him. The game was featureless as far as brilliant plays are concerned. Sunday and Burkett were obliged to lay off on account of the injuries to their arms, sustained yesterday in sliding to second base.

THE TEAM DISHEARTEND. Most of the Pittsburg men worked hard to win, but they seemed disheartened over their many defeats. There is good material in the many defeats. There is good material in the team, but there seems to be no one to bring it out. Decker is an old League man, and it would naturally seem as if he would try to encourage the men and steady them. Most of all, being a catcher, it is his business to get the best pessable work out of his pitchers. But he does not. He principally walks around behind the bat like a preacher about to deliver a highly effusial sermon. He seems to feel that he is an old Leaguer. Not a word does he over say to his pitcher. But go into the man in the box if he nappens to pitch a wrong curve or fails to back up. Decker's chin goes down and he wants to know why he (the pitcher) doesn't do so and so. The pitchers are not experienced and they have a great deal to learn, but so long as Decker carries things in so high-hanted a way behind the hat, just so long will the pitchers be haited all over the lot. They seem to be a fraid of Decker, and the spectators at the game have commented on it.

the game have commented on it. DON'T TRY TO PLAY. Kelty made an inglorious failure in left field to-day. He couldn't have judged a football rightly had it been tossed to him. This man could be released and never be missed. The New Yorks are credited with several long hits in his territory that would have been outs with a good fielder. Hecker and Wilson did the best fielding, although that was nothing exbest fielding, although that was nothing ex-traordinary, Millor made a couple of nice plays, and the rest of the infield played well at these, but it was spoiled by bad errors. Miller is the life of the whole team. No matter how far ahead the other team is he plays the same game all through and is as chipper as a canary. The New Yorks got 18 stolen bases. Decker did not try to catch, and would throw to second base only occasionally to each a una. However did not try to catch, and would throw to second base only occasionally to catch a man. Bowinan caught the spirit and did not half try to plich, as Decker seemed to be disgusted with his work. The Pittsburgs couldn't hit Welch with the exception of Miller. Not a bit did they get until the fifth laning. The visitors are gen-erally heavy nitters and with more team work would win games. The score:

Chicago, 3-Boston, 2. BOSTON, July 12.-It was again a battle between National League pitchers to-day, and Hutchinson was as good as Clarkson, but the latter threw to bases like an aunateur, and, with Sullivan's muff, allowed two men to score with Sullivan's muff, allowed two men to score in the fourth inning. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. BOSTON, July 12.-Hanlon's men left Boston to-night whipped out of their boots. The day's game was even more one-sided than the two preceding. The Pittsburgs simply could not bat and the Bostons mauled Maul in a most distressing manner. A glance at the base hit column shows that the Pittsburg twirler was "pudding" for the Bean Eaters, and they sent the ball flying all over the lot, fattening their batting averages in great style. The Pittsburgs played long fielding game, but could not defend themselves against the bombardment which Maul permitted. In the series just ended the Bostons made 39 runs and 45 hits, with a total of 75 bases, against 14 runs and 17 hits for the Pittsburgs. The latter, under the circumstances, were glad to shake the dust of Boston from their shoes.

In to-day's game Kuehne was unable to play with the Pittsburga as he is suffering from a boil, and Tener took his place and did well. He can be credited as the tallest man who ever played in the pesition. He made a superb left-handed stop in the second inning off Hatfield, and captured a hot liner of Joe Quinn in the seventh linning. Quinn caught cleverly and did not make an error, being behind the bat almost all the time. Robinson, as usual, caught the crowd by his quick way of catching and fielding the ball.

The visitors began scoring in the very first inning. Quinn invaded Stovey's territory and tried for a fly ball that belonged to the right-fielder. Stovey should have called for the ball earlier than he did, but he got a little tangled up by having Quinn to bother him and muffed the ball. Hanlon taking two bases and advancing on a fly ball off Beckley, caught by Stovey. Fields hit hotly to short and Hatfield made a wonderful stop, but Brouthers muffed the ball which was thrown a triffe low, Hanlon scoring.

MARING THE FEW. TENER AT THIRD.

MARING THE PEW.

MARING THE FEW.

In the second inning with two men out Robinson got his base on balls, went to second on a passed ball, and scored on a three-bagger to right field, the ball bounding over stovey's head just as he was about to field it. This stopped the scoring of the Pittsburgs until the very last inning and but two hits were made up to that point. In the sixth inning Visner hit for two bases and took third on a sacrifice. Fields went out on an easy fly, but Tener was clearly safe on a grounder to second, but to the astonishment of everybody Gaffney called the runner out. In the last inning, with one man out, Fields got a base on balls and Tener and Corcoran batted for bases, filling the bases. With three balls on him and no strikes, Robinson was called out on strikes. Maul hit a long fly that Brown muffed after a good run, Fields scoring. Quien ended the inning by an easy fly ball to Hatfield. That was all the Pittsburgs could do toward winning the game. The Bostons struck a winning gait in the second and kept it up. It rained singles and doubles when they were at the bat. That tells how the game was won. The score:

Novice and Special Sculling Races Las Night-Coming Events. The Columbia Boat Club gave a novice mile and a half scull race on the Allegheny last evening for a gold medal. Only two starters appeared. They were Ed Cavitt and James

Cox. The course was from the Seventh street bridge to the Union bridge and return. Just selow the Sixth street bridge Cavitt's boat apset, but he managed to right her and pulled after his opponent. He was unable to overtake him, however, Cox winning by about 30 seconds. Time, 10:10. Time, 10:10.

After this race was finished, a special race was arranged between Alex Mulien and Wm. Cavitt, over the same course. This was a hot race, and was not won until the finish was made, Cavitt winning by half a length in 9:20. In both races Charles Painter acted as referee, Lee Cavitt held the time and Messrs. Conley and Broddock acted as buoy judges. Next Saturday night the Columbias will give a junior medal race, and the following Saturday the senior medal race will be given. On the evening of August 2 a novice race in working boats will be given. A series of cup races ng boats will be given. A ser es of cup races will be rowed in September by members of the Surefoot Won the Wales Stakes. IBT CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.

LONDON, July 12,-The race for the Prince Wales stakes at Leicester was won, this week, by that disappointing horse Surefoot, who defeated Memoir, the Duke of Portland's horse, by a couple of lengths. The course is only a few yards over a mile, which seems to be only a few yards over a mile, which seems to be about the distance suited to the winner. Directly after his victory Surefoot was backed for the St. Leger at II to 2 against him, Sainfoin being also backed for the race at a similar price. The St. Leger course is, however, three quarters of a mile longer, and unless Surefoot improves much in both temper and staying power, he can never win it. The jockey on this occasion sent Surefoot to the front after the first 500 yards and he was never headed.

The Chartlers Valley Athletes, PEPEULAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. INGRAM, July 12.—The Chartiers Valley Ath-INGRAM, July 12.—The Chartiers Valley Athlethic Association was organized July 11 and the following officers were elected: Walter Morris, President; Dr. D. G. Foster, Vice President; J. J. Jordan. Treasurer; A. J. Peake, Secretary; George Pearson, Jr.. Corresponding Secretary. The association has leased teu acres of the Walsh Brothers at Crafton Station. It already has a membership of 150. They expect to erect suitable buildings on the ground and will devote their time to all kinds of athletic sports. The association, from all reports, has a bright future in store for it, as the gentlemen composing it are all residents of Ingram, Crafton and Idlewood.

Probabilities of a Fight. IBT CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.1 LONDON, July 12.—Slavin has been doing a lot of wrangling again this week about the ar-rangements for the McAuliffe fight, the pros-pect of which the Australian certainly does pect of which the Australian certainly does not seem to relish. It appeared again as thought there would be no match at all, Slavin showing an unyielding attitude about the appointment of the referee, but finally it was agreed that Messrs. Angle and Viz could both referee, and provided they accept the men will sign the articles on Monday and the fight will take place at the Ormonde Club in about two months' time.

The Damage to the Muskingum Dam Considered slight. APRCIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. ZANESVILLE, July 12.-Lieutenant E. C. Gillette, in charge of the Muskingum improvement, states that the damage done by the washing away of 230 feet of the dam scross the river at Marietta is very slight. It was the intention to rebuild the dam this season, and labor saved by the washing sway of dam more than compensates for the oss of material. That part of the dam which was taken away consists of a brush cofferdam, which was built by the State of Ohio, and which lasted just eight years to a day, from the time it was first used.

John Jones-I think it is time for you to come home. Here, I've been walking the floor come home. Here, I've been walking the floor all evening.

Mrs. Jones—John Jones, not a word out of you. Give me the baby. I am ashamed of you. Why don't you buy a new suit of clothes from DICKSON, the well-known and popular tailor, 65 Fifth avenue, second floor, telephone 1558, and the next time I go out I'll take you along. John Jones—I'll just go over to the drugstore, if you'll let me, and telephone at once that I'll be down in the morning and order one of his fashionable new suits.
