

THE POT AND KETTLE

Parties Accused of the Boordling in the Beaver District Now Boldly THREATEN TO STRIKE BACK. Rich and Racy Revelations as to Former Campaigns Promised.

ATTITUDE TAKEN BY M'DOWELL

He Used No Money Himself and Will Never Agree to Withdraw.

THE FOUR COUNTIES ARE IN A FERMENT

The sensation in connection with the nomination for Congress in the Twenty-fifth district, first given to the public through the columns of THE DISPATCH, grows with each passing hour.

NOT A BIT WORRIED

"You do not seem to be scared about this affair?" "Not a bit," he replied.

M'DOWELL'S DENIAL

HE DECLARES THE MONEY DID NOT COME FROM HIM.

As the Daily-Nominated Candidate, He Will Remain in the Congressional Race Until a Final and a Rather Extended Contest.

IN BUTLER COUNTY

One of the Defeated Candidates Talks About the Money Used for his Campaign.

BUTLER, July 13.—The alleged bribery of the Beaver Congressional delegates is the chief topic of conversation among the Republicans. A number of these have expressed their indignation in the most forcible manner.

TOOTH TO BELIEVE IT

Merger County People Stick by Their Own Candidate.

PROSECUTIONS IN THE FUTURE

THE DISPATCH correspondent stopped at New Brighton on his way to-day. Dr. McConnell, the right-wing Congressman, Townsend, who was instrumental in procuring the appointment, said that no legal prosecutions will be commenced until the Beaver County Republican Committee meets next Saturday.

REED CALLS A HALT.

DIRECT TAX AND BORDER RAID BILLS LAID TO REST.

THE ILLUSTRIOUS PATHFINDER AND PATRIOT PASSES AWAY

A CAREER FAMOUS IN HISTORY.

How He Won His First Laurels as an Explorer in the West.

HIS MANY HEROIC UNDERTAKINGS.

The Part He Took in War and Peace, in Politics and in Public Affairs.

General John C. Fremont is no more. The aged pathfinder died in New York yesterday, after a brief illness of an interesting sketch of his career is appended.

AN UNLAWFUL SEIZURE

Vessels Detained at Onauksak and Stripped of their Operating Permits.

NINETEEN BODIES RECOVERED

Estimates Place the Number of Dead at 30 by the Tioga's Explosion.

A BOGUS BOND OPERATOR

Arrested on Suspicion at Columbus and Held for an Investigation.

KILLED IN THE STREET

A Brutal and Jealous Husband Stabs His Wife Five Times.

TOOTH TO BELIEVE IT

Merger County People Stick by Their Own Candidate.

PROSECUTIONS IN THE FUTURE

THE DISPATCH correspondent stopped at New Brighton on his way to-day. Dr. McConnell, the right-wing Congressman, Townsend, who was instrumental in procuring the appointment, said that no legal prosecutions will be commenced until the Beaver County Republican Committee meets next Saturday.

GEN. FREMONT DEAD.

The Illustrious Pathfinder and Patriot Passes Away After A Career Famous in History.

How He Won His First Laurels as an Explorer in the West.

HIS MANY HEROIC UNDERTAKINGS.

The Part He Took in War and Peace, in Politics and in Public Affairs.

General John C. Fremont is no more. The aged pathfinder died in New York yesterday, after a brief illness of an interesting sketch of his career is appended.

RIVALS OF STANLEY.

An Expedition, Headed by Seven Europeans, Has Started to Find the Source of the Congo.

One of the Great Explorer's Lieutenants With the Party.

GREAT DISCOVERIES ARE EXPECTED.

Canon of Gold and an Extensive Island Sea in the Unknown Region.

EXCOMMUNICATED A GOVERNMENT.

The Officials of the Little Republic of San Marino Were Under the Ban.

ROME, July 13.—The Pope has just issued a bull of excommunication against the Regency and Governing Council of the tiny republic of San Marino.

UNIVERSAL PEACE CONGRESS.

David Dudley Field Will Preside and Delegates Will Visit Windsor.

LONDON, July 14.—David Dudley Field will preside at the Universal Peace Congress, which opens in London to-day.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

WRECKED BY WIND.

Death and Disaster Follow in the Wake of a Terrible Cyclone.

FIVE KILLED AND TEN INJURED

At Lake Geneva, Minn., by the Fatal Funnel-shaped Cloud.

NARROW ESCAPE OF PASSENGERS

On a Retreating Excursion Train From White Bear and Bass Lake.

A cyclone passed over the lake region near St. Paul and caused loss of life and great damage to property. The path of the cyclone by the multiple wire one-half mile long and a third of a mile wide, a passenger train of excursionists had a narrow escape from death.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

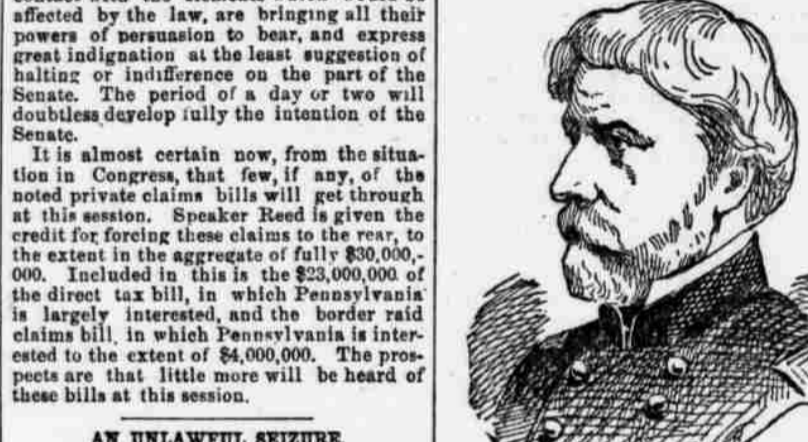

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

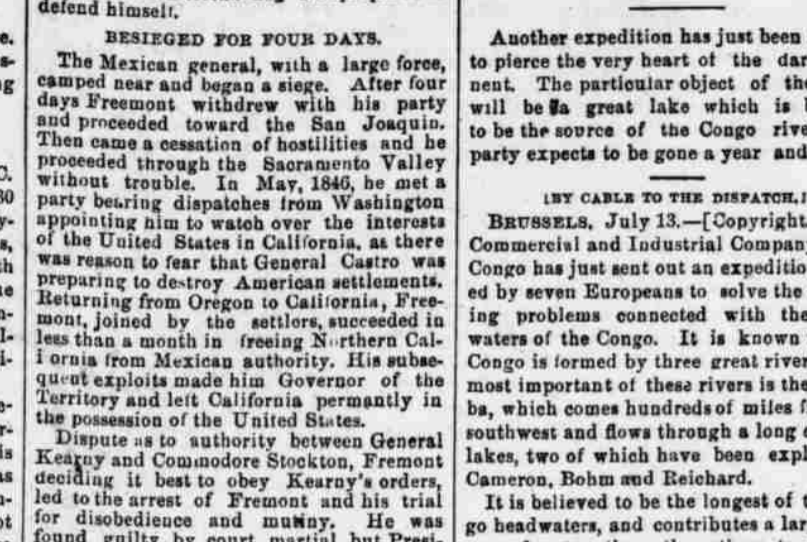

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL THE GIRL WHO REFUSED HIM AND SUICIDE.

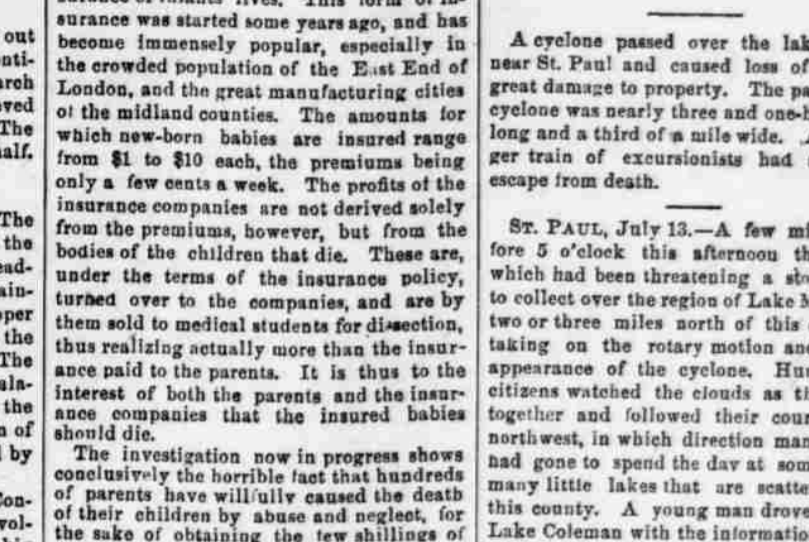

ABURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—Abury, aged 20 years, attempted to shoot Miss Addie Vacker, and commit suicide to-night. He went to Mrs. Vacker, at the Strattons, and asked her to be his wife. She refused, whereupon he pulled out a 38-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her and one at himself. None took effect.

Major General John Charles Fremont.

Map showing the Congo river basin and the expedition route.

Map showing the location of the cyclone strike at Lake Geneva.