LOUISIANA'S GREAT DEVILFISH.

Pulpit Must Denounce It.

DR. SUTHERLAND ON OUR NEW BODIES.

Notwithstanding the warm weather, the Smithfield Street M. E. Church was crowded, last evening, by people to hear Rev. Charles Edward Locke, the pastor, preach on "The Louisiana Devil Fish." He made an eloquent attack against the lettery and showed why the people should take up the matter and do everything possible in their power to abolish the business. He took for his text: "The fires shall consume the tabernacle of bribery," etc. In his sermon

"This nation is victimized and outraged by the Louisiana State Lottery. It was organized in 1868, and chartered by the State for a period of 25 years. During the early of those who attend the meetings. Most of days of its existence the lottery came into competition with the lotteries of other States. To-day it is the only one in existence, and Louisiana is the only State in the Union that would permit this nefarious business to go on. The reason for this is because of the seeming liberality. In 1868, The Kluds of People Who Make the Clerks when the yellow fever was raging in the South, it contributed $100 .-000 to the fund for the relief of times in as many minutes, and wants to the sufferers. It built two churches and en- | know if there isn't a letter for him is a great dowed the Howard Memorial, a city library. | nuisance," remarked a hotel clerk yester-When the floods inundated the country, a day. "Such people are hard up, and ex-

end of the year 1893, and the ministers of the country are organizing against it. They have been stirred up to the enormity of the crime being carried on under the protection of the law and are organizing a crusade against it.

The present session of the Legislature has been considering the matter o renewing the charter for 25 years more. For this privilege the lottery company will pay the State in cash $1,500,000. The bill passed the lower house, and to the honor of the Governor, it may be stated, he vetoed it. So strong is the grip of this hydra-headed, lood-sucking, entrail-eating monster that it went from the lower house to the Senate with a recommendation for passage. While on its way to the Senate, a member died, thereby making one short of a two-third vote to pass the bit over the Governor's veto. It will eventual come before the judiciary, and afterward may be put to a vote of the people. If it is there is no question but the people will vote overwhelmingly for the lottery. "The robbery is a national blotch and disgrace. If it only affected the people of Louisiana it would not be our fight. Only three per cent of the tickets sold are taken by the people of the State. Ninety-seven per cent of the receipts of the concern are sold in other States and foreign countries. For this reason I claim it is a national issue. The grand old State of Pennsylvania makes it criminal, and yet the Louisiana Lottery reaches into the State regardless of our wishes. One-third of the nail sent into the city of New Orleans is for the lottery company, and two-thirds of the concern. A few years ago they had offices in the principal cities of the country. In one office on Broadway, New York, the daily receipts for a month were $5,176, and the number of letters received was 1,760.

ITS GRIP ON PITTSBURG. "Our own city has felt the grip of the monster, and many boys in the Western Penitentiary can attribute their downfall to Many citizens who have been poor are made poorer. Many wealthy men have been fascinated and ruined. I would like to show you how much of the hardearned earnings of the poor people of this city have gone to swell the purses of the duty of the pulpit to speak out against it. It is not honest. It is a high-handed, unscrupulous, unmitigated swindle. The earnings of the concern have been $10,000,000 per year, the proceeds $52,000,000, and what does it pay for all this? It contributes $40,000 per year to a city hospital, and the other thousands I have referred to are a mere pittance to the proceeds awim, but had presence of mind sufficient to cling to the bottom of the boat. They drifted in this manner without being observed until Forty-eighth street was recolor. have rejerred to are a mere pittance to the millions of dollars gone to the avaricious owners of the vulture. It leads to lying, laseiviousness, corruption, profligacy, drunk-enness and murder. It creeps in until it fastens its long arms on the vitals of the public, and then fattens on them. Generals Besuregard and Early are piling up the tinder that will, after while, topple and consume the tabernacle of bribery. These men fought like tigers against the descerating tread of Yankees from the North during the war. They won laurels by their efforts on the field of battle. They have since then been utterly sold out | People Rushing to Get Out of Town to Enjoy

"You have read of the devil-fish. It possesses the power of discharging a black, inky fluid that surrounds the fish and enables it to make its escape in the water. This savage devil-fish of Louisiana, with its ong arms, reaches out, clutches, feeds and fattens on ruined souls. It throws out a fluid of seeming charity and blinds the citi-

OUR RESURRECTION BODIES

The Subject of Dr. Sutherland's Interesting Sermon Last Evening.

But a sparse congregation, owing without doubt to the oppressiveness of the evening, was present at the 8 o'clock services in the Second Presbyterian Church to hear the Railroad trains and the excursion boats on Becond Presbyterian Church to hear the Rev. Dr. Sutherland's interesting address on "Our New or Resurrection Bodies." Having alluded to Paul's desire to impress on the Philippians the necessity of paying New Street Paving and Sidewalks Seen or fealty to the Heavenly Ruler rather than to him of Imperial Rome, for the beavenly citizenship was the more important of the two, the reverend gentleman quoted Paul as saying "That all would not sleep," "that is, that all would not die." That is, that there would come a time when all things would cease, and when those who were then living should assume another form. "We may be passing through changes now," continued the speaker, "which may be preparatory for the next life. All of us lead double lives, the temporal and the spiritual; as the apostle says, 'all would not sleep,' and when the time comes we shall diseard the temporal to assume the spiritual life. We are citizens of the kingdom of Heaven, through loyalty to Jesus Christ. We believe He will change our vile bodies, perhaps like unto His own. If sin had not entered into the world paradise would not have a world peopled with sin-less beings. What God intended, He will have. When the time comes He will change our corrupt bodies and make them fit for the new world. We are inclined to limit God according to our present idea of Him. But think of Him who made the world, or the duration of time, and doubt, if you can, that he will change to be some bodies into spiritual that he will change to be some bodies into spiritual that he will change to be some bodies into spiritual that he will change to be some bodies into spiritual that he will change to be some bodies into spiritual that he will change the sermon to a large number of people.

and doubt, if you can, that he will change our bodies into spiritual beings.

"Death has nothing terrible that life has not made it so. Let us, my friends, prepare ourselves for that day, and be ready to say, "Oh, death, where is thy sting, oh, grave, where is thy victory?" Let us be thankful for all our liberties, above all, the privilege and glory of this heavenly citizenship."

ectings Near Pittsburg Draw Thousands From the City-Singing and Praying -Regular Meetings Every Night-The Wilkinsburg Comp a Success.

In the shadowy stillness of the Marshall Grove last night over 1,000 spectators congregated in groups around a large platform to hear the devotional exercises of the campmeeting held by the Merrill M. E. Church, He Says It is a National Issue, and the colored. The services began at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and crowds filled the electric cars that traveled the Perrysville

After an earnest prayer meeting, beautiful hymns were sung by a skilled choir, Rev. Dr. Hinton followed with an interesting sermon. In the evening Rev. G. W. W. Jenkins, paster of the Merrill Church, preached on the "Return of the Prodigal."
The meetings will be continued during the week at 7:45 P. M. in Hon. T. M. Marshall's woods. Fine preparations will be made for next Sunday's meeting.

The camp meetings of colored people now being held in Wilkinsburg every Sunday are drawing large crowds of people, both white and colored, to the camp grounds. There was a larger assemblage yesterday than at any time last summer, and the ex-ercises were of a very interesting character. There is a strong feeling that the Penn-sylvania Railroad should put an extra car on its accommodation trains for the benefit the visitors come from Pittsburg or East Liberty, and the cars, especially at night, are so crowded that there is necessarily more or less disorder.

I was paralized the other day when one of these fellows came to me and said he was going to "The charter of the concern expires at the and of the year 1893, and the ministers of the country are organizing against if he had any fault to find with the house.

'Oh no,' he replied, 'that is the trouble, I can't find anything in the hotel to conscientiously kick about, and I must seek new pastures." "Another nuisance is the man who waits until the last minute to catch a train, and then insists on having several heavy trunks sent to the depot. He is mad because we didn't hold the bus for him, forgetting that there are other people whose interests must be cared for as well as his own, and because he is late he must delay everybody else. ## NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING

Exciting Experience of Two Boys on the Harry Boone and James Carroll, aged and 10 years respectively, had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday. About 5 o'clock in the atternoon both put out in the river from the foot of Fifty-first street to leeches who control this smothering octopus.

It is also a moral issue, and it is the row in a little boat. They had been rowing around for some time, and then commenced playing. The boat capsized and both were precipitated into the river. Neither could At that point a couple of mill men who were sitting on the river bank saw them, the Country Air.

Yesterday was one of those not-too-warm and not-too-cool Schenley Park Sundays, when the people in the city like to get out into the suburbs and take a breath of fresh air. The air was balmy, with a good breeze blowing from the north all atternoon, and thousands took advantage of the opportunity to get out. Hundreds visited the park in Oakland and enjoyed the privilege of paving 10 cents to get into Mrs. Schenley's former possessions, via the Pittsburg Traction road and its electric feeder, and being dumped by the latter a quarter of a mile from the park. river also did a rushing business.

IMPROVEMENTS IN WILKINSBURG.

Every Hand.

There is no suburb of Pittsburg in which more public improvements are being carried on than in the borough of Wilkinsburg. There is hardly a street in which either grading, paving or sewer, gas or water-pipe laying is not going on. South street, one of the main thoroughfares of Wilkinsburg, was until this summer impassable, on account of the big hollow. This has been completely filled up, and for the first time in the history of the borough vehicles can be driven from one end of the street to the other. The sidewalks on South Franklin and Re-

The sidewalks on South Franklin and Re-becca streets have been thoroughly recon-structed, and how badly they needed it every Wilkinsburger knows.

For a week petitions have been circulated for the grading of Ross street. Wilkins-burg expects, in the course of a year or two, to be indeed a town of beautiful highways.

The sufferers from the dread disease of rime, which in most cases reaches a crisis on Saturday night, were on hand yesterday morning to take their medicine. Some of the patients required change of air, and were ordered to Claremont Springs, others received light doses, for which they paid fees ranging from $4 40 upward, while a few needed nothing but a little advice. The physicians in attendance diagnosed the cases rapidly, and all the prescriptions were

Dr. John Gripp hung out his shingle at the Central station yesterday morning, and in a few moments 30 patients filed in. Thomas Kirk was suffering from emotional insanity Saturday night, caused by the juxtaposition of the Yellow Row and a wagon load of watermelons. During his fit of abstraction he abstracted a watermelon from the wagon, and when Officer Roach arrested him he was seized with a paroxysm which led him to assault the officer. He was sent to the sanitarium at Claremont for 30 days.

CURE OF A QUARTET. Annie Sullivan, Louisa Morgan, Wallace Curry and John Crosby were enjoying themselves in a shanty boat near the Baltimore and Ohio depot, when the women became hysterical and screamed so loudly that the whole party were taken in for treatment.
