Charming wife, Shrah, and with a bright-eyed 2.year-old boy made up a happy household. "One day in the early spring the Indians sur-prisedum." said Mr. Lancturst. "Many of the settlers were puit o flight. I got an arrow killed before his wife's eyes. She was taken a captive, but escaped the same night. I had lain 1, don't know how long, when it was Sarah Trimble who, with tubs and water, dressed my wounds. For weeks she nursed me, and to tell the truth, two years latter she took my uame as her own. The gold exclument of '49 took us further West. Our residence was at the mining camps in California, Nevada, New Mexico and Utah. Though I ddi now havo a stock ranch in Utah, about 40 miles from said finally took the trip. I don't know anyone and finally took the trip.
