PHILADELPHIA, July 14 .- The happy but luckles tail-enders, O'Neill's Pittsburgs, put in an appearance at Captain Clements' stamping grounds this afternoon and were beaten by the generous score of 17 to 1. They drove into the grounds on the sixhorse Landsdowne Heights tally-ho and the little bugler did his toot. A very proper start, that. They went away with the same happy toot, thereby showing the 1,432 people present how good-natured they are. There was one young man who did not arrive on motion was good enough for him. His name is Heard, and his vocation twirler in its kind. Fame, to fair extent, has been his, and Delchanty, s 2 3 8 5 1 Ewing, c. . 1 1 3 1 it has been gained as pitcher of that strong up-town amateur nine, the Oxfords. With him came many friends, and when they left the grounds after the game was over they left the grounds after the game was over they of course were sorry his side had been beaten, but they were glad their favorite had done so well. Sixteen hits were made by the Phillies off his delivery, but many of them were the rankest kind of scratches. Only four runs were earned, and they were made in the sixth and ninth innings. His support was about as poor as it could have been. Despite all those hindrances to success he piched a most creditable game and Manager Hecker and his friends had only the best words for him after the game. "Calliope" Miller said to President O'Nelli in the Girard House this evening: "Now you got a pitcher that is a pitcher." Vickery for the Phillies pitched a great game. The score:

DEFEATED AT BROOKLYN Galvin Pounded Hard for One Janing, but After That Was All Right-A Brilliant Fielding Game Lost by Pittsburg.

PERCIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. BROOKLYN, July 14.—During the first inning of the game played on the Eastern Park grounds between the Brooklyn and Pittaburg Players' League teams to-day the home team jumped on to Pitcher Galvin and pounded his delivery all over the field. But this vanished delivery all over the field. But this vanished after the first inning. Then Galvin settled himself down and the home team could do nothing. Weyhing pitched a fine game throughout, holding his opponents down to five hits. The fielding was very sharp, and at times brilliant. The visitors made a few fielding blunders, but they did not amount to anything. Ward, Bauer, Corcoran and Robinson covered a vast amount of territory, each playing brilliantly. Ward started the game with a bunt hit, then he stole second and got third on Carroll's, wild throw, Joyce's two-bagger sent him home and Joyce scored on Andrews' single. The latter took third on Visner's wild throw to the plate. Bauer hit safe, Seery got his base on halls and Kinslow cleared the bases with a slashing two-bagger. In the third inning Bauer hit safe, McGeachy hit to Robinson but a wild throw saved Bauer on second, Seery forced Bauer out at the plate. Seery stole second and McGeachy came home. This ended the Brooklyns' scoring. The visitors' two runs were made in the sixth inning on Carroll's base hit, Beckley's three-bagger and a sacrifice by Long John Tener, Attendance about 250. Secre:

Spalding Denies the Report That He Wants to Buy New York.

INPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.I NEW YORK, July 14 .- A. G. Spalding denies the story sent out from Chicago that he came to New York for the purpose of buying out the controlling interest in the National League team. Mr. Spalding was seen at his New York team. Mr. Spalding was seen at his New York office to-day. He said he had not come for any such purpose and denied that he was or intended to become interested in the New York club. "I understand," said Mr. Spalding, "that some of Mr. Day's friends have persuaded him to increase the capital stock of the New York club to $100,000, and give them an opportunity to become associated with him in the enterpise. This confidence in the ultimats success of the National League in this fight with the Brotherhood, and the value of a League franchise in New York, is substantially shown by their eagerness to take all the stock they could get. Mr. Day tells me that he could increase it to $200,000 if necessary, and have all the stock taken.

that he could increase it to $200,000 if necessary, and have all the stock taken.

"Of course many clubs in the League and Brotherhood organizations will lose money on this season's business, and all hands will continue to lose money as long as this foolish war continues, inaugurated as it was by a few overenthusiastic but misguided players, urged on and assisted by plunging speculators, who saw millions in it. I see no reason to change the opinion I expressed early in the season that professional baseball had received a serious blow by the players' revolt. In fact, as the season continues it must have become apparent to the most enthusiastic supporters of the Brotherhood movement that such is the case."

BUTLER'S DECISIVE ACTION. CALL ISSUED BY THE CHAIRMAN OF

THE COUNTY COMMITTEE. ent Republican Leaders Hold an Indignation Meeting at Butler - Condemning the Methods Employed to Secure the Nomination-In the Hands of the Committee.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) BUTLER, July 14 .- An informal meeting of prominent Republican leaders was held here this morning to consider the charge of bribery in connection with the late Congressional Convention. After discussing the matter it was deemed advisable that some official action be taken. One of those present introduced the subject by saying that in reading the news of the morning, re-lating to the Congressional nomination in this district, facts were given, substantiated by affidavits, showing clearly that the comination was accomplished by fraud and by affidavits, showing clearly that the nomination was accomplished by fraud and bribery. He said:

I have no hesitation in saying that it is the duty of the Republicans of Butler county, through their County Committee, at the earliest possible date, to declare their condemnation of the methods through which that nomination is reported to have been reached. Butler county is in a position to do this. Here candidate and her conferees have so better candidate and her conferees have so better themselves throughout the long contest for the nomination as to command the respect and confidence of those with whom they were associated in conference, and the unanimous approval of their constituents in this, as in honesty and good faith they accepted the nomination as made. They are now sarried with the announcement that the nomination was fraudulently made, and it is due to them and the honest Republicans of this county that their confidence has been shamefully abused. Hence I think our County Committee should so speak at once. If this nomination is proven to have been made with fraud—fraud vittates everything it touches—no nomination binding on the Republicans of this district has been made. The canvention that made it has finished its work, and adjourned sine die. It will become the duty, therefore, of the several County Committees of this district to gravely consider the situation, and perhaps appoint committees of conference to decide what action shall be taken in the matter.

There was a general interchange of views on the subject, and all present were of the oplnion that the charges made were of such a nature as to call for the most scarching investigation. It was finally agreed a call should be issued at once for a meeting of vestigation. It was finally agreed a call should be issued at once for a meeting of the County Committee to take action in the matter. The Chairman of the County Committee:

Reports appearing in the daily papers to the effect that the recent nomination for Congress in this, the Twenty-fifth district, was obtained by bribery of delegates, and their affidavits in substantiation of the said allegations being given, it has been deemed best to call the County Committee together to consider the matter officially. The members of the Republican County Committee are therefore called to meet at Butler, Pa., on Wednesday, July 25, 1890, at 11 a. M., to take such action in the premises as may be thought best. A full attendance is desired.

n Farce. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH, I BEAVER FALLS, July 14.-The subject of bribery in the Congressional nomination for this district has been the subject of conversation at every place about town. John Tate, the delegate who gave the snap away, is very complacent over it, and has been at his work at the ax works all day, Edwin Shaffer, however, is not so quiet over help Captain Black, of Butler, if he could get enough votes to secure the nomination, and did in fact vote several times for him, and would have nominated him if he could have succeeded in getting the required votes from either Beaver or Mercer. He was, however, unable to do this. On the last day the convention was in session I think the impression was very general that I would be nominated, that I was the second choice of a majority of the delegates outside of Lawrence county. It was the expressed opinion of my delegates at more than one of their conferences that nothing could prevent my nomination, unless Beaver county would go to either Black or McDowell.

At the noon adjournment of the day the the affair, and, while he does not deny selling his man out, calls for an investigation of the whole matter. He has issued an address to the Chairman and members of the Beaver County Republican Committee and asks for the investigation. It reads as follows: for the investigation. It reads as follows:

Since the late 'Congressional Nominating Convention at New Castle there has been a great deal of talk concerning delegates, myself among the number, receiving a consideration for voting for Mr. McDowell, the candidate from Mercer. As to the course of others implicated I have nothing to say, and very little for myself. I consider that I, personally, have been basely bulldozed and maligned, which fact is calculated to injure me both in reputation and business. And I hope if your honorable body sees fit to open up an investigation of the matter you will do it most thoroughly. Do not stop with the supposed corruption at the late Congressional Convention, but thoroughly investigate the one two years ago, and then proceed to investigate the rottenness of the late primaries, where votes, both Republican and Democratic were purchased by the hundreds with whisky and money. Let all come out and give all a chance from the highest man in the party at Beaver to their pliant servants in the most remote parts of the county. Let them learn the facts concerning candidates who came to this town and held meetings at the houses of voters in different parts of the town, and dealt out money promiscuously. Let the open boast of those who claimed to have purchased the Congressional nomination two years ago be investigated. Let it all come out if the desire of day. It seems reasonable he should have be-lieved this, for Dr. McConnell, one of the Heaver delegates, says that Mr. Townsend him-self told his delegates he thought the best they could do would be to vote again for Major Mc-Dowell and let him have the nomination.

unch Friends Claim That He Did Not Receive the Alleged $250-Others Not so Charitable-Charges and Anti-Charges-Reverting to History.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 BEAVER, July 14 .- Interest in the Congressional delegate scandal continues unabated. It was intensified to-day by the publication of a sworn statement by 'Squire Fred Duerr, of Freedom, who denied complicity in the deal. Some people who know him well are disposed to give his denial the benefit of a large doubt. J. F. Weaver, Esq., of Beaver, who figures conspicuously in the recent Republican primaries fight, and as a delegate gave Townsend staunch Republican support at New Castle, in speaking of Duerr's affidavit to-day, said: "I believe that Duerr's honest in his statement. None of they delegates had any reason ment. None of the delagates had any reason to suspect him at New Castle, and we never dreamed of him turning traitor, nor do I now believe that he did."

Despite this strong testimony for the 'Squire, the concensus of opinion appears dead against him. The general idea was low conspirators, who found that they could get along without him, but apon second thought, considered it prudent to buy his silence with $250. There is much specula-tion here as to what will be done in the way of investigation by the Republican County Committee, next Saturday. "I can County Committee, next Saturday. "I can give you the entire proceedings in advance," said one skeptic to-day. "The committee will met and—do nothing."

Additional reasons urged by others that no radical action will be taken are found in the more than intimations made by anti-Townsend people that they will lend variety to any real investigation by searching inquiries into methods alleged to have been pursued in the nomination of Townsend two years ago. Others claim that such an inyears ago. Others claim that such an in-vestigation as demanded would result disastrously to the party in the State if made now, on the threshold of the fall campaign.

SHARON, July 14. - Major McDowell took occasion early to deny the rumor that he contemplated resigning in order to have a new conference called, and reiterated his intention of remaining in the field until election day. They say the only explanation that can be given of the proceedings is the bad blood existing between the Jackson-Wallace factions in Lawrence county, and Townsend in Beaver county. Lywrence united on Mc-Dowell to defeat Townsend and Quay, and this, more than any vote buying, caused the

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. PHILADELPHIA, July 14 .- Congressman James Kerr, of Clearfield county, will be elected Chairman of the Democratic State Committee in Harrisburg on Wednesday, after the State Committee has met and accepted the resignation of the present Chairman, William F. Harrity, Mr. Kerr arrived in this city to-day from Washington, and at once called upon candidate Pattison and Chairman Harrity. The trio discussed the situation thoroughly and at the close of the conference it was quietly announced to those on the inside "that Kerr will be the next Chairman." To-night Chairman Harrity called upon Mr. Kerr, and several of the other local leaders were met by them. During all of the evening the party leaders were busy stirring about consulting regarding the outcome, and the verdict is that Mr. Kerr, who is one of the nine division chairmen of the State, is well fitted to lead the party in the great fight which is now getting under way. There will be no opposition to Mr. Kerr's election, at least such is the intention of the party leaders at this end of the line. WALLACE MEN WILL SUPPORT KERR. The friends of Candidate Pattison will solidly support Kerr, and as he is known as one of the strongest Wallace leaders in the State, it is not expected there will be any opposition from that side of the house. Congressman Mutchler is quoted as saving that the Wallace forces will stand by Kerr, because they will have after his election control of the State machinery. front of the Continental Hotel to-night when he was asked if it were true that he was to succeed State Chairman Harrity. "I cannot tell," he replied, "for the reason that I don't know whether the members of the State Committee will vote for me or not. I have been asked by a number of my friends to allow the use of my name for the place. You know that the duties of the position will command nearly all the

Another matter of extreme importance to me is my seat Congress at this time, when it is clearly the duty of every Democratic member of that body to be on hand ready to meet our op-ponents. I feel that we can in our district roll up a larger Democratic majority this year than we have ever given any candidate Mr. Kerr left to-night for Clearfield, and as Chairman he will resign his divisio

SKIPPED WITH ANOTHER. Woman Elopes With a Lover While Her Husband is in Jati. Alderman Beinhauer, of the Southside, has an interesting suit on his hands. On July Mrs. Veronica Visnack, living on the Brownsivile road, entered sult against her husband for assault and battery. He was placed in jail pending the action of the grand jury. As it now appears, when he was in jail, his wife skipped to West View with Martin Kaptinske. John Blotney, a friend of Visnack, now sues Mrs. Visnack for immoral conduct.

Mrs. Visnack came to Pittsburg Sunday, with Kaptinske, and was arrested. She was very indignant, and said she thought this was a free country and she could do as she wished. She said her religion did not allow her to ob-

I can't stand too much. I will give some information that will react on the present rumpus that is being kicked up. The whole drift of this discussion in the papers appears to be directed at me, and I believe that it originated with New Castle politicians. It doesn't bother me in the least. I expect to go on my vacation in a day or so and if I am wanted to appear at any investigation that may be held, a note or telegram will catch me and I'll respond on the next train. I want to say that I deny that I paid any money to any delegate and I do not know that any was paid. This is my first denial and it is conclusive. I do know, however, that a press correspondent of New Castle was offered $100 if he would publish certain articles in favor of Townsend. I dislike this controversy, and if I must engage in it there will be a record from this district of 20 years' standing that will make somebody stand up." The affidavit which appears below places a new phase on the bribery cases. The tollowing is the affidavit:

"I, Archy Thompson, one of the conferrees from Lawrence county in the late Congressional conference, do make the following statement of my own free will:

"I was elected a delegate from Hickory township to the Twenty-fifth Congressional Delegate Convention. I was elected a delegate in the interests of Colonel Jackson, of this county. On or about July 2, 1890, a personal friend of Mr. Townsend and a prominent politician came to me and told me that there was some mency in this thing and that I might as well have some of it. I told him I was not in it for money. The party told me Jackson had no show, and if I would vote for Mr. Townsend on a certain ballot there was $300 in it for me, and I told him that I was for Jackson as long as his name was before the convention and could not be bought. I signed J. Personally appeared before me, an Alderman in and for the city of New Castle, Lawrence county, Pa., Archy Thompson, who being duly sworn by me according to law, deposes and says that the facts set forth in the foregoing statement are true and correct to the best of his knowledge and belief. Sworn to and subscribed before me this lith day of July, A. D. 1890. Charles Haus, Alderman.

Colonel Oscar L. Jackson was seen and lowing is the affidavit:

Colonel Oscar L. Jackson was seen and authorized the following: I have read the following:

I have read the statements in this morning's papers in regard to the Beaver county delegates voting for Major McDowell, I have no knowledge or information in regard to their being given money and do not know whether knowledge or information in regard to their being given money and do not know whether these statements are true or not. I was present at all the sessions of the late convention, and was I supposed pretty well informed as to the general surroundings. But of course, it is possible that all the things charged may have been done without my knowing or hearing of it. One thing is certain, that no friend of mine, who wanted me nominated would have aided in any of these things. As there never was a session of the convention when it was not plain that it was to my interest to have the Beaver delegates stand firm to their own candidate. It was no secret that the Lawrence county delegation was very much opposed to the nomination of Mr. Townsend, and that if I could not be nominated they preferred either McDowell or Black. There are very few facts to support a statement I see made in the papers that Townsend had a claim for a second term by a rule of the district. It is true I served two consecutive torms in the district composed of the counties of Washington, Beaver and Lawrence; but that was rather an exception, for of the four members who immediately preceded me in that district three, Messrs. Lawrence, Wallace and Moore, although all candidates for re-election, each had but one term. Mr. Shallenberger had three terms in that district, but they were not even conceded to him by Beaver county, his own county, for he had to contest to a I least one of them with another citizen of the county. Butler and Mercer counties, which were added to make the new district, had no such rule, for their last Republican member. Captain Fleeger, although a candidate for re-election, got but one term. Beaver had already had the only term for which an election had been held in the new district. An apportionment under the new census makes it doubtful whether the in the new district. An apportionment under the new census makes it doubtful whether the same counties will be together again after this election, so that for the present term the claims of Butler, Mercer and Lawrence are about equal. Under these circumstances, I thought that McDuwell, Black and myself should act friendly and let the nomination go to whichever could unite the most strength in the convention. In this view the Lawrence county delegations very generally concurred.

On the second day of the convention Beaver voted il votes for McDowell. This gave an opportunity to make a nomination, and the Lawrence delegation, with my consent, gave McDowell 12 votes, which, with his own county, nominated him. Beaver had voted for McDowell, as I understand, with Mr. Townsend's consent, and the nomination was fairly made, but the Beaver men, when they found what was done, withdrew their votes and left the matter open again. This was a great mistake on the part of Mr. Townsend's supporters, and from that on no one outside of his own county, so far as I could hear, considered that he stood any show whatever of being nominated. Later on McDowell reported that the Eaever county men had concluded that they had made a mistake in withdrawing their votes and were willing to give them to him again. He asked if Lawrence county was willing to do as they had done before and nominate him in case he could get the Beaver vote.

The Lawrence county delegation after considering the matter concluded that consistency required them to do this, and so informed Mr. McDowell and gave him votes several times, but he got none from Beaver. There appearing at this time to be no prospect of Beaver again helping McDowell, Lawrence county effered to help Capitain Black, of Butler, if he could get enough votes to secure the nomination, and did in fact vote several times for him, and would have nominated him if he could lawe suc-

to either Black or McDowell.

At the noon adjournment of the day the nomination was made McDowell stated that he had another promise from Beaver to again vote for him, and bring Lawrence county to give him one more vote. This was agreed to be done and resulted in his nomination. It is due to Major McDowell to bear in mind that he and his friends always claimed the Beaver county votes were coming to him to make good the vote they had withdrawn from him on the previous day. It seems reasonable he should have be-

At Beaver, District Attorney Mechlin, when asked if he proposed to will, if he can get through with some busiprosecute the two men who bribed conferees, said he knew nothing definite about the metter; and besides, as the bribery was matter; and besides, as the bribery was not a public prosecutor; no one had spoken to him of prosecutions, and it would not be his duty to prosecute until the matter came
