Company K, Second Regiment, at Philadelphia, Sent Home in Disgrace for NEGLIGENCE AND BAD CONDUCT.

A Sutler's Shed Wiped Out of Existence by One of Those Accidents Peculiar to National Guard Encampments.

DRILLING THE HOSPITAL CORPS.

Accidents, Personalities and General Happenings With the Soldier Lads.

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

CAMP HARTRANFT, MT. GRETNA, July 21.

The sensation of the day in military circles was the disbandment and ordering home of Company K, of the Second Regiment, of Philadelphia. It was inspected to-day and only had 39 men. It also fell below the average on general work, and this, with bad conduct on the grounds, caused Adjutant General Hastings to send them home. Captain Geppart was in charge of the company and keenly feels his position.

Colonel Smith, of the Third Philadelphia Regiment, received a letter from ex-Governor Pattison to-day, in which the latter says he will probably be unable to visit the camp. The other candidate for Governor, Senator Delamater, will be here Wednesday. It is now said President Harrison will not be here on Thursday.

DEATH TO HIGH PRICES.

Philip Fliun and his suiler's shed was almost wiped out of existence about 10 o'clock last night. For several days the members of the Guard, who have to patronize the tent on account of there being no other, have complained about the exorbitant prices charged for supplies. For instance, a stamped envelope and sheet of paper cost 10 cents; a glass of milk, 10 cents, and anything else in like proportion. The boys stood it as long as they could, and at 10 o'clock a fight started between a soldier and one of the clerks. The former began a bombardment upon the shed, which was wrecked slightly. Several people inside were struck with flying missiles, and two of them were cut about the head. The shed lies between the second and third brigades, and it is not known who did the rioting. The fight was only stopped when word was sent for a squad of soldiers to arrest them. Lieutenant Colonel Streator, of the Tenth Regiment, heard of it and, taking a squad of men with him, he hurried to the scene. When he arrived the vicinity was as quiet as a National League baseball game. It is expected that another attack will be made to-night.

HOSPITAL CORPS DRILL.

The hospital corps of the United States around camp gave a drill at noon for the benefit of the entire hospital corps of the Guard. The latter were drawn up in front of division headquarters and learned a great many things they did not know before about handling a wounded man. The drill consisted of lifting, carrying and placing in the ambulance wagon a soldier who was supposed to be injured. The drill was under the direction and command of Major White, of the United States Army. A part of the uniform of the corps is a heavy knife, to be used to cut away timber and twigs to make a litter for the purpose of carrying persons.

A reunion of all the State officers and newspaper correspondents in camp who were at Johnstown together last summer will be held to-morrow evening. It is proposed to have a banquet with informal speeches. Annanias will probably turn in his grave when the story telling begins.

PERSONALITIES.

Colonel S. W. Hill, of Pittsburg, Quartermaster General of the State, arrived in camp this morning.

Governor Beaver will arrive to-morrow at noon and will inspect the Guard on Wednesday.

Captain Degamo, of the Brazilian navy is in camp, the guest of Adjutant General Hastings. He is an intimate friend of Dom Pedro, ex-Emperor of Brazil, and retained his position after the Emperor had been deposed.

Ex-Quartermaster Charles Brown, of the Eighteenth Regiment, who has been here assisting his successor, Lieutenant Harry Davis, left to-night for Atlantic City.

Captain W. H. Horton, of Company H, Sixteenth Regiment, of Ridgeway, is likely to be elected Lieutenant Colonel or Major of the regiment, owing to the probable resignation of Lieutenant Colonel Parmlee.

Lieutenant Warren, of the United States regulars, was called home to-day on account of the death of a child. Secretary of War Proctor has appointed Clinton B. Ears, of West Point, to act in the absence of Lieutenant Warren.

Captain E. C. Gilbraith, of Company H, and Captain F. W. Mansfield, of Company I, Eleventh United States Infantry, returned at noon to-day from Gettysburg, where they went to visit the battlefield. Captain Gilbraith was Major of the Twentieth Indiana Regiment at the famous battle, and had no trouble locating the exact spot where his regiment stood, although he has not been on the field for years.

NOTES AND ACCIDENTS OF THE DAY.

Sergeant Phillips, of Company F, Ninth Regiment, while witnessing a game of baseball to-day, was struck by the ball in the side and had one of his ribs broken. He is confined to the hospital, and is in a serious condition.

Charles Tettleman, the 10-year-old son of Private Tettleman, of Company E, of the Fourteenth Regiment, met with an accident this morning, and will probably lose his leg. He was playing on the turn-table of the Cornwall and Lebanon Railroad, and by some means his right leg got caught under a wheel. His knee was so badly fractured that Dr. Foster and the surgeon of the regiment ordered him home after attending him.

Inspector of Rifle Practice A. L. Pearson, Jr., is looking for an individual who threw a stone and struck his horse in the eye. The blow was so violent that the animal will lose the sight of the optic.

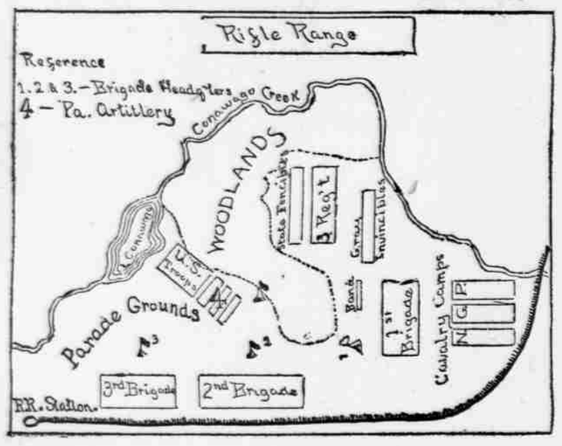
The Signal Corps line which was cut Sunday was replaced to-day by Lieutenant Reiber. The person who cut the line has not yet been apprehended.

Major Evans, officer of the day, had an experience last night with some tramps who had evidently been doing business at Camp Gall. They built a fire under a train of freight cars on the railroad to keep warm, and said they had to build it under the car in order to have a roof over them. The car was beginning to burn when the Major discovered them.

The 1,500 new model Springfield rifles to be issued to the Guard will be given out to-morrow. It is not known how many of the new guns will go to the Pittsburg regiments, but they will not be left in the push.

The mail facilities are poorer if not worse than the telegraph service. Only two mails are received daily. The Pittsburg pouch arrives at division headquarters at 11:05 A. M. and 6 P. M. Letters from the Second Brigade will be taken from headquarters at 6:30 A. M. and 2 P. M.

McSWIGAN.



PLAN OF CAMP AT MT. GRETNA.

VALUABLE COAL AND IRON LAND

Will be Placed on the Market by the Expiration of an Option.

MIDDLESBOROUGH, KY., July 21.—The famous and much talked of option of the James S. Churchill syndicate purchase of the Pine Mountain Coal and Iron Company, of Pineville, matures to-day, and the option will be allowed to expire without being closed or accepted. It is understood that Churchill represented the American Company, limited, which possesses such an enormous quantity of coal and iron lands in Southwestern Kentucky, and the stockholders of which are principally Englishmen. The Pineville Company's plant was offered to Churchill for $1,800,000.

This would have been accepted but for a conflict between the managers of the Pineville Company. The President of that company controls the majority of the stock; but the General Manager, Mr. Ray, has a majority in the Board of Directors. The former gave a lower option than the sum of $1,800,000, and the Churchill people hearing of it refused to pay that sum. It is very probable that negotiations will be again opened up. The East Tennessee and Virginia and Georgia people are after the Pineville property.

LADIES,

See to Your Furs.

Before leaving for the seashore or mountains, would it not be wise to take a sly peep at your seal garments? They possibly need repairing, changing or renovating after being packed away so long. It they do, now is the best time to have it done. We can do our work much better and cheaper than later in the season.
