MUCH MONEY INVOLVED.

A CASE WHERE THE COURT SHUT OFF THE TALK FOR AWHILE. The Acme Tannery Company's Troubles Once

More Being Aired-Two Men Found Gullty of Conspiracy-Some Homicide Cases Postponed Until September. Yesterday morning J. S. Ferguson, Esq., attorney for C. Mardorf, a stockholder in point a day for argument in the case of Mardorf against the officers of the Acme Tannery Company. Some time ago Marderf filed a bill in Common Pleas asking for the the appointment of a receiver for the company. While this bill was pending the officers of the company went into court and confessed judgment for $100,000 to Guckenhelmer & Co., who are also stockholders in the tanners. On this judgment an execution was issued and the Sheriff ordered a sale. Mardorf now claims that this proceeding was illegal, and he wants the sale stopped and the judgment opened, so that he can put in his claim. When Mr. Ferguson presented these points to the Court. Sol Schoyer, Esq., attorney for the Guckenheimers and the tannery, objected, and the two attorneys started to argue the matter. Judge Collier told them he did not have time to listen to an argument then, and appointed Friday morning as the time for making the argument. The case is an important one, involving a large amount of money. filed a bill in Common Pleas asking for the

GUILTY OF CONSPIRACY.

Two Men Convicted of a Scheme to Defraud Some Creditors. In the Criminal Court yesterday, Frederick Hufnagle and John Chapman were found guilty of conspiracy. Some time ago Buf-nagle was the proprietor of a large grocery store on Federal street, Allegheny. He became insolvent and among other debts he owed was one of $8 to H. C. Miller. Mr. Miller obtained judgment for this at the office of Alderman McKelvy, Allegheny, and an execution was placed in the hands of Constable Irwin to serve. When the constable went to the store, Hufnagle requested him to hold the writ for a day or two, and said he would go to Alderman McKelvy's office and pay it. Time passed, and as Hufnagle did not appear at the Alderman's office, Constable Irwin again went to the store to serve the writ, but was told by John Chapman, formerly Hufnagle's clerk, that he had purchased the store from Hufnagle. It afterward developed that Hufnagle added the word "agent" to his name on the sign at the store, and some time later he sold it for $500. This disclosed the fact that Chapman had never owned the store, and suit was brought against them for conspiracy to cheat Hufnagle's creditors, who are chiefly Liberty street whole salers. serve. When the constable went to the store,

R. Messenger was found not guilty of the larceny of two knee robes from the stable of L. Jennings, at Braddock. Andrew Schields was found not guilty of the larceny of $29 from the person of William Cahey. The case of Matteo J. Cbiara, charged by Leonardo Bellusei with felonious assault and pointing firearms, is on trial before Judge Collier. The parties live in the Italian settlement at Stoop's Ferry, and it is alleged that Chiara tried to shoot Bellusei in the same house in which the murder of Artoino Reffsa occurred. In defense, Chiara alleges Bellusei and a dozen others gave him a beating, and Bellusei tried to cut his throat with a razor.

WANTS PAY FOR HIS FOOT.

Gines Company. Albert H. Moeser, Esq., has prepared the papers in a suit in Common Pleas No. 1, in which John Key, by his next friend, Gotleib Key, claims $25,000 damages from the Pittsburg Plate Glass Company. Plaintiff alleges that on the 21st of April last he was employed by on the 21st of April last he was employed by the defendant in this case in the polishing de-partment of the works, it being his duty to bandie himself quite expeditionally and sprinkle sand upon the plates from time to time, as they were being polished.

He alleges that some machinery under the floor upon which he worked was not suffi-ciently enayided or covered, and on the day in question he slipped, and his foot catching in said machinery was so badly injured as to necessitate amputation, and he doesn't care about going lop-sided through life just for the fun of the thing.

FILED A VERBAL WILL.

Case Where the Testament is Usually

Hard to Sustnin. A "nuncupative" will was filed yesterday for probate. It was that of Lorenzo Lorenzini, of Beatty street, who died April 7, 1890. A nuncuduced to writing after his death, and duly wit-nessed. Wills of this nature are few and far between, and are difficult to sustain, not one having been sustained in this county for the last 20 years. A nuncpative will is only allowed where the testator has not had time during his sickness to make a will, or is unable to write or lift his hand to touch a pen and make his mark.

Decisions of the courts have drawn the restrictions so close that but few verbal wills hold. In this case Lorenzini gave to his wife, on his deathbed, all his property, including a store and some money. The paper filed is witnessed by Frederick and Mary Kate Beckett.

POSTPONED FOR AWHILE.

Two Homicide Cases That Won't Be Tried When They Were Expected.

Willie Stewart, of McKeesport, was to have been placed on trial for murder, in the Criminal Court yesterday, but his case was postponed until Monday, on account of the absence of several important witnesses for the defense. several important witnesses for the defense. Stewart is alleged to have administered poison to his brothers and sisters, and one of his brothers died from the effects of it. The case is a very peculiar one.

The trial of Alexander Killen, charged with the murder of Mrs. Rudert, at Tarentum, Christmus ere, 1889, was fixed for Monday next, but it also has been postsoned until the September term of Court.

Suit for False Arrest.

Frank Kohel yesterday entered suit against Police Officer Benjamin Rosenblatt for $2,000 damages for false arrest. Kohel states that he damages for laise arrest. Kohel states that he is a licensed street vendor of bananas. On December 12, 1889, while pushing his cart along Fifth, near Stevenson street, he was arrested by Officer Rosenblatt without a word of explanation or a warrant. He was lodged in the station house and discharged the next morning. He lost about $50 worth of fruit, in addition to the shame, etc., he experienced.
