WASHINGTON, July 24 .- The question of Catholic schools among the Indians caused quite a lively debate in the Senate to-day. The amendment which provoked discussion was increasing an appropriation of $100,000 for the support of Indian schools to $150,000, including the construction of a school building at Black Feet Agency, Montana-

Mr. Vest opposed the amendment as the Introduction of a system intended to abolish denominational education among the Indians. He spoke of an official visit which he had made to an Indian sgency seven or eight years ago, and of his observation of the work of the Catholic Church in educating the Indians. A school building which had been erected there by the Catholic Church was then standing unoccupied because the agent would not permit the Jesuits to teach any of the Indian children. 175 pers His opinions on the subject were fixed. The Jesu its had succeeded better than any other people living in the education of Indians. Whatever prejudice (if that was the proper word) he might have against the Society of Jesus, he had to say that much as an edneated Protestant.

FOR AND AGAINST.

The discussion was continued by Mr. Teller, who also spoke of the Catholies as the most successful educators of the In-dians; and by Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, who gave figures to show the great difference in expense between the Government schools for Indians and those carried on by the religious denominations. He ridiculed the idea put forward by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs as to the necessity of high education for Indian children so as to make them "leaders of thought" and said that it was much more important for them to learn how to earry on farms, build houses and raise cattle. The cheap contract schools, Mr. Jones argued, ought to be maintained; and no feeling of sectarian prejudice ought to be allowed to operate against the church simply because i had shown a disposition to go forward and spend more money and exercise more thought and labor and diligence in the good work than other churches or denomination had done.

The next amendments were to strike out two items, one of $8,330 for the support and education of 60 Indian pupils at St. Joseph's Normal School, at Rensselaer, Ind., and one of $12,500 for 100 Indian children at the ommunity. Holy Family Indian School, at Blackfoot Agency, Montauz. Mr. Dawes spoke of the relatively large appropriations made for Catholic Indian chools, the amount for 1889 being $356,000. schools, the amount for 1889 being $350,000, ns against $204,000 for schools of all other denominations. The Indian Bureau had adopted the policy of not enlarging the con-nection of the Government with denominational schools.

THE PROPER POLICY.

That policy had been supposed to have allayed the agitation of the question on all sides. But there was a very efficient and urgent and active Catholic bureau of missions in Washington City which was very earnest in pushing Catholic Indian schools on the Government. The Indian Bureau having declined to enter into a controct for the three new schools in Indiana, California and Montana, this mission bureau had gone to the House of Representatives and had obtained the insertion of those three items. The Senate Committee on Appropriations had thought that it would allow the Item for the California school because it belonged to the Mission which had been at work in Sonthern California for 125 years. If he wished to discuss the differences between Catholic and other schools, he would want no better object lessen than the difference between the Mission in Indians in Southern California and the aggressive Cheyennes and Arapahoes. The Mission Indians had seen under the influence of the Catholic Church for 125 years, and were to-day as incapable of self-support as so many babies. Mr. Reagan declared himself opposed to any connection between church and State and to all denominational schools. He would have all the Indian schools carried on under the control of the United States Government.

ALL DENOMINATIONS WELCOME. Mr. Davis said Indian children were wards of the nation; and if the Government chose to educate them in Catholic schools lethodist schools or Baptist schools it ha a right to do so. The Government had a right to take advantage of the facilities which the pioneers of Christianity offered to it. As to the connection between church and State, Mr. Davis said that from the beginning of time it was only when the influences of Christianity had been brought to bear on the minds of the Indiana, that they had mude the heat two Indians that they had made the least step toward civilization. When he saw a man stooping down to raise up that degraded race, it did not matter to him (Mr. Davis) whether that man wore the surplice of the Catholic priest or the simpler garb of a Protestant minister.

Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, argued that the Indians should be allowed to select the schools to which their children should be sent, and if they chose to send them to denominational schools, the Government chald contribute to their support should contribute to their support. Mr. Turple argued against striking out the item for the school in Indiana, and Mr. Power against striking out the item of Montana.

VICTORY FOR THE SCHOOLS.

Finally the vote was taken and the amend-ments were rejected-Yeas, 19; navs, 27. So the items for Rennselaer, Ind.; Banning, Cal., and Black Feet Agency, Mon., are retained in the bill. There being no further amendments reported by the Committee on Appropriations, the reading of the bill was continued to its close without any discussion or interruption.

Mr. Pettigrew offered an amendment ap-propriating $45,000 for the Santee tribe of the Sioux Indians, located at Flandreau, S. D., being an allowance of $1 an acre for the land to which they are entitled in the Sions reservation. Agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Pettigrew an item of $30,000 was inserted for 30 school buildings for the Sioux Indians; also an item to pay the Indians of the Standing Rock and Cheyenue River Agencies for ponies taken from them in 1876. On motion of Mr. Power the item for a school building at Biack Feet Agency, Montana, was amended by fixing the limit at $25,000. The bill was then reported to the Senate and all the amenuments agreed to by the committee of the whole were concurred in and the bill passed.
