SMALL WAGES FOR BRAIN WORK. Clerks and Reporters are Underpaid and Badly Snubbed.

DIFFICULTIES OF GATHERING NEWS. LONDON, July 19.—There is no place in all the world where brains receive less money by way of wages than in London.

WORKMEN FROM ARAHIA. To Employ Them One Must Have an Abundance of Patience.

THANKFUL FOR SMALL FAVORS. I recognized Mr. George Augustus Sala, Mr. Sala seemed to be contented with the accommodation accorded to him, and as I was not a reporter, I did not feel it necessary to say anything.

RATHER EASILY SATISFIED. On other occasions I have seen the English reporters perfectly willing to share the leaving with the waiters at a banquet, and to be contented with the food.
