NO LITTLE THOUGHT

Being Given by Employer and Employe to the Subject of

TOILET ROOMS IN THE MILLS.

Many Manufacturers Disposed to Give Their Workmen Facilities

TO APPEAR NEAT WHILE ON THE STREET

The opinions of a score of workingmen in vesterday's DISPATCH on increased conveniences for cleansing purposes in the mills and shops of the city, were read with J. W. WALLACE, SIM Penn avenue. deep interest by both owners of shops and their employes. In many of the mills on the Southside and along the river front copies of THE DISPATCH were found everywhere. When an opportunity was had for a short rest, the men would gather in groups and listen while one of their number would read aloud the statements made by their fellow-workers.

On the desks in many of the mill offices, THE DISPATCH was lying, with the pages turned over to the article containing the whys and the wherefores for the supreme virtue of cleauliness among employes.

The subject was discussed among the men and their employers, and what the latter had to say on the matter showed they had given it no little thought and consideration. Many of the mill and shop owners were out of the city and their opinions could not be learned; others were too busy to talk on the subject when reporters called and others still were around somewhere but could not be found. Of those who were seen, but two said they did not wish to talk on the subject. They were Messrs. Chess, of the Chess, Cook & Co. Iron Works, on the Southside, and Zug, of the Zug & C. Sable Iron Works, on Etna

ALL THINKING IT OVER.

Where the owners themselves could not be seen, several managers and bosses were found, and while they generally did not be seen, several managers and bosses were found, and while they generally did not wish to express an opinion either way on the matter, they all said they had read the articles and had thought the subject over.

The employers, who would talk, nearly all expressed themselves in favor of the advocacy of the plan by The Disparch, but under certain conditions. They were willing that the men who got dirty in their employ should get clean in their employ also. One mill owner made the remark that he wished the workmen in his mill to go out of his mill as clean as the clerks in his office, and that he was willing to provide the necessary facilities to every workman who would declare such an inclination, and that he had always done so. Another manufacturer said he was already putting in lockers and better washing facilities for the men in his employ. Another thought that there could not very well be much better accommodations than there were now, but he could not say what he would do about it, if the men requested such things.

The conditions on which one mill owner said he would construct some kind of lockers in his mill were that the workmen should appreciate the introvements and not destroy them.

Mr. Frauk Nimick, one of the owners of the Sligo Mill, on the Southside, talked like this: "The whole thing depends upon the men themselves. The trouble is that they might abuse a privilege of that kind, I can hardly say what we would be disposed to do. We must necessarily go slow. There are so many men who would just take special delight in smashing leckers and closets. Even now we cannot put up a cupboard of any kind in the works but that someone will take a crowbar and smash off the lock and carry it home. We have some lockers now, where soap, towels and tools may be kept, and we would put in a good many others if they were requested, but very few workmen ask us for them. Consequently we don't put them up. Most of our workmen live around in the near vicinity of the mill, or up on Mt. Washington, and can reach their homes

HAVE PLENTY OF WATER. . W. Friend, one of the proprietors of the Clinton blast furnce, on the Southside, was seen in his office, on Water street, and said: "I don't think we can do much better than is now found in the mill. The men don't use what they have got. I don't know what we would decide upon if the men should petition us for decide upon if the men should petition us for what THE DISPATCH has suggested. There is plenty of water to wash in. The puddiers all wash in the 'boshes,' and it is as good a place as could be wanted."

The manufacturing firm of Riter & Conley, on First avenue, is building new works on Preble avenue, Allegheny. Mr. Riter was strongly in favor of lockers in all the shops and mills of the city. "It is a good idea, and one we have been advocating for some time," he said. "We have now new works in course of construction, over in Allegheny, and we are fitting them up in just that way. If I were a workman I would want them, and I think every man should feel the same way."

Mr. Zug, of Zug & Co., on Etna street, had nothing to say on the subject. He did wish to say what would be done if the men should request such conveniences from the firm.

Mr. Anderson, of Anderson & Co., machinists, on First avenue, said: "All manufacturing establishments should have those facilities for their workmen. We have them here, although all our men do not use them, because they live nearby."

hough all our men do not use them, because by live nearby."
Mr. Chess, of Chess, Cook & Co.'s mill, on Mr. Chess, of Chess, Cook & Co.'s mill, on the Southside, hadn't given the matter any consideration, and he did not want to talk or to be reported on the subject at all.

Mr. Hemphill, of the firm of McIntosh, Hemphill & Co., said: "As far as we are concerned we want every man in our employ to have the same privileges as another. But if the men want to go bome dirty they can do so, and if they want to go clean they have the opportunity to do so also. We would like to have them leave our mill as clean as the clerks in our office. No man has ever asked us for a locker or a closet that he didn't get it. We can't furnish the men with scap or towels. If we did we would have to start a scap-and-towel factory. The scap and the towels would be carried away almost as soon as they were put up. If the men ask us for lockers they can have them."

Nothing Without Its Sting.

And that, too, in the shape of the heartburn (most abominable of acidities!) after eating, if indigestion, in its chronic form, has you in its clutches. Neither if it has, can you long expect immunity from bilinosness and constipation, its pleasing colleagues, the hideous tric vieing each with each to render your life more misorable. Got Hostetter's Stomach Bitters at once—insist upon the genuine in glass—and us it with rational persistence.
