

one sees at night, sitting around on benches placed against the walls of the stable, from which all stalls have been removed, and also upon store boxes, highly delighted groups of drunkards principally of the bottles, as the glasses have all been broken long ago. There they sit and drink and talk and sing, but never light up the hour for closing comes. That hour is generally when they quit ordering beer, be it 10 or 12 o'clock. In the yard adjoining the same scenes are enacted.

THE ODDER OF ALL. George Wurzel's saloon is the oddest of all these odd drinking saloons. Originally it was a tinshop and for that matter Mr. Wurzel still carries on that business and has a big stock of tinware on hand. A customer wanting a bottle of beer enters the tinshop proper, passes through, as he does so orders his beer, after which he goes into the workshop in the rear, where he takes a seat on the workbench, stool, box or whatever he can find for sit on, and is enveloped by tin tinning machines, solder pots, coils of iron, rolls of tin and all the paraphernalia of the work room of a tin-ware establishment. He gazes at the beer until he is satisfied at 15 cents a bottle. It is very odd and at the same time has a peculiar fascination that makes many men visit the place who would sooner to enter a legitimate saloon.

So far no one has been prosecuted except Wagner and his case is now pending in the Beaver Court, yet he is selling all the same and the same process will be brought against him to the bitter end. The places are conducted quietly, the workmen like them as they can get more liquor and as good for their money as at a hotel, and the saloons have come to stay until an act of Congress does away with them.

FOUR MILLIONS EACH. A Family Notified That They Will Soon be in Possession of a Fortune. LAWRENCE TOWN, Ind., August 1.—It is not often that one who has worked for all his life on a farm comes into possession of $4,000,000 in a day, and yet such an event is soon to happen to a family living at Summit, in this State. In 1776 Mary Bentley, of New York City, leased a tract of land there to the late George W. Bentley, who was a partner in the firm of Bentley & Co., of New York City. The late George W. Bentley, who was a partner in the firm of Bentley & Co., of New York City, leased a tract of land there to the late George W. BEST NIGHT AND DAY. Four original package houses are now kept busy night and day dishing out beer and other liquors to the thirsty residents of Beaver Falls. Lewis Wagner, an unsuccessful applicant for a brewer's license, has an original package house going in full blast at the extreme southern limit of the town in his brewery. At the extreme north end of town, Bingle & Patterson are running an original package house in a lively stable, while in the center of the town George Wurzel is dishing out beer in his shop, on Scotch street, to all those who have the price of a bottle, and Berger & Taylor are dishing out the same in a vacant store-room on Fifth avenue.

THE PRIZE FATER. A Man With a Stupendous Appetite Who Challenges the World. ST. LOUIS, August 1.—In the trial of a case here today, a man who is known as "The Prize Fater" has challenged the world. He is a man of enormous appetite and has been known to eat 100 pounds of food in a single day. He has been known to eat 100 pounds of food in a single day. He has been known to eat 100 pounds of food in a single day.

THE BEST OF ORDER. is preserved, and though at times, the inmates get a little noisy, yet at no time has any police been called in to quell the lawlessness, nor have there any fights, so far, occurred. The liquor drunk does not seem to be of the fighting kind, so everybody is in good order and the atmosphere is pleasant. The motus operandi to start an original package house is this: One must first secure his building, then get an agency from some brewer or liquor dealer outside the State. The next step is to go to Pittsburgh and take out a United States license at the revenue office. This costs one $22.83, and then one is ready for business as soon as the liquor arrives at all arrives at the agency.

THE NEWS OF OILDOM.

Ventures of Experienced Producers in the New Territory. RECORD OF A WONDERFUL WELL. Developments in the Vicinity of Montour and Coraopolis.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. MONTOUR, August 1.—Developments in the Montour field are meager. There are only 9 wells drilling and 4 or 5 are up and building. The aggregate production of the pool for the past month is about 50,000 barrels, or nearly 1,700 barrels per day. The average production of the pool for the past month is about 50,000 barrels, or nearly 1,700 barrels per day.

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE VICINITY OF MONTOUR AND CORAOPOLIS. A peculiar characteristic of Montour is that all the big wells are found in the second pay, while the small producers are obtained in the other. The old Young well is denominated as a phenomenal producer, and so to speak, has but few, if any, peers. The well was struck April 4, and during the four months of its existence has approximately produced 80,000 barrels of oil, an average of 662 1/2 barrels per day.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF. Germany has agreed with England that there shall be free trade with her East African colonies. A famine prevails in the Sudan. In some parts of the country the deaths from starvation average 100 daily.

SOME OF THE OPERATIONS. "Mystery Mike" Murphy is drilling a well one mile ahead of developments to the southwest on the Phillips farm. The veteran operator located this well on a north-east and southwest line, and hopes to find an extension of the prolific territory on which the Young and McKown wells are located.

AN UNSUCCESSFUL VENTURE. The Fort Pitt Natural Gas Company has finished their No. 1 on the Thompson, and it is a well of the first class. The well is located only 300 feet north from McKown No. 2, and the result is a surprise. Falling to get oil they drilled the well to the gas sand, which was also a failure. Determined not to give the venture up as had John Knabb & Co. on the west end of the Schuler farm, are getting ready to drill their well deeper and treat it to a 200 quart shot.

WALKER'S WAS SOAP is the best. HER SECRET OF SUCCESS. Why the Tens and Diners of a Host Charm. What women in America do not know the bright, vivacious and charming Jenny June? The name she so aptly adopted, seems to be in harmony with her writings, and she has done a great deal of her permanent cure by the physical means of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute, at 323 Penn avenue, they decided to take a course of treatment, and after becoming cured, they are now well and happy.
