

PROTECTOR NEEDED

For the Industrious American Mechanic Who Secures a Patent on a Useful Invention.

OUR LAWS ARE FULL OF DEFECTS

And Patentees Who Should Make Fortunes are Robbed of the Fruits of Their Honest Toil.

A RECENT INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Which Made Important Recommendations Regarding Industrial Property.

THE RIGHTS OF PATENTEEES

This conference adjourned on Monday, August 3, 1900. The conference of that year was more formal, and culminated in the conference of March 1900.

INVENTORS AND MONOPOLISTS

"Will you kindly give an example of how this works?" Without the right to take out a patent, or, in other words, to obtain a monopoly the American inventor cannot hope to sell his invention abroad; the importance therefore of the patent is apparent.

"Business commenced late, as it had ended early. One of the noticeable features of the conference was the absence of the American inventor."

A GREAT DISADVANTAGE

"Our system of preliminary examination makes it impossible to determine how soon the patent will be issued. The period is varying, but about it is generally fixed, the application being contemporaneous with the date of the patent."

PROTECTION AGAINST COUNTERFEITS

"The language of the first article clearly indicates its scope: Article one. Every product bearing a false indication of origin in which one of the contracting States or place situated in one of them, shall be directly or indirectly indicated as country of origin, shall be deemed as an importation into any one of such States."

THE POOL ROOM WAR

Has Stopped All Gambling in Chicago For a Time at Least.

A PROTEST FROM THE RACE TRACK

Against the Town Establishments Leads to a General Crusade.

PROBABLY ONLY A SPASM OF VIRTUE

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) CHICAGO, August 3.—The short telegrams of the Associated Press have not given to outsiders any adequate idea of what a high tide there has been for the last few days in what might be termed in reportorial English, Chicago poolroom circles.

A PROTEST FROM THE RACE TRACK

Against the Town Establishments Leads to a General Crusade. The fight opened with the picturesque figure of a big, blustering Chicagoan, of the name of Corrihan, who is the lessee of the Northside race track and the season there is just at its height.
