

Animated Discussion Between Two Well-Known Local Priests at the C. T. A. U. Convention.

Father McTighe Charged Father Sheedy With Casting a Slur on the Catholic Clergy and Laymen.

REPORT OF THE FATHER MATHEW FUND

The Mass Meeting in the Evening Was Attended by Thensands of People.

When the delegates to the convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union assembled vesterday morning they did not know what a picnic was in store for them. Had they known what was coming they certainly would have glued themselves to their seats, and the few who went off to see the ball game would not have missed the fun at the convention for a dozen ball games. The proceedings of the morning meeting were lively enough, but the afternoon session was a battle of gigantic intellects, interspersed with cries of "order," hisses and groans. Rev. Fathers Sheedy and McTighe, of this city, hurled shafts of criticism and sarcasm at each other until they got tired. Each had his friends in the convention, and the latter backed up the principals. It was hot work for the reverend gentlemen, but it was fun for the spectators.

The afternoon session was called to order at 2:30 o'clock sharp, by President Father Cleary. Dr. O'Hara, of Philadelphia, Chairman of the Father Mathew Chair Fund, reported that the total amount of, money raised to date was $17,615 65. To this should be added $192 interest from the investment of the money. Since the opening of the convention he had collected $8,-457 90. The total expense for two years in connection with the fund was $210. The total amount to be raised for the endowment of the chair is $50,000. A special vote of thanks was tendered J. A. Kirby, of Washington, D. C., for a contribution of $1,000.

ABOUT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Delegate Gallagher, of this city, made a motion that the union be represented at the World's Fair, according to the suggestion of Dr. Conaty. Mr. McCarthy, of Scranton, objected, saying the union had enough irons in the fire, and the Father Mathew fund was taking up all its time and money. Dr. Consty urged that action be taken about the Chicago representation. A'ter considerable discussion and good humored cross-firing, the matter was referred to the Executive Committee.

Bishop Cotter, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, reported for the committee. Among the resolutions which were adopted was a recommendation that the Board of Government communicate with the Catholic book publishers, and urge them to select for publication in the Catholic readers the utterances of the leaders of the union, and thus familiarize the Catholic youth with the best thoughts of the day on the question of total abstinence.

After the adoption of the resolutions the report of First Vice President Sheedy, which had been laid on the table, was taken up. In the forenoon Rev. Father McTighe. up. In the forenoon Rev. Father McTighe, pastor of St. Malachi's Church, on the cised' any one not in line with us. We Southside, and who is a delegate by virtue

We want to lay out one demon, and this is all we can attend to now. I deplore criticism in that sharp and pungent manner, when the critic had it in for an individual, and not for the convention." THE LADIES INTERESTED. A delegation of ladies from the W. C. T. U., headed by Mrs. Bryce, occupied a box and was much interested in the proceedings of the convention. The ladies presented a handsome floral bouquet to Miss. S. A. Moore, of Philadelphia, President of the Philadelphia ladies' branch. A spontaneous outburst of cheering gravited the discharged to the tub. A delegation of ladies from the W. C. T. outburst of cheering greeted the display of non-partisan teeling in the work of total abstinence. Rev. E. R. Donehoo was also an interested spectator. The following are the names of the members of the Father Mathew Committee: Dr. M. O'Hara, of Philadelphia, Chairman; Dr. M. O'Hara, of Philadelphia, Chairman; F. P. Cummings. Williamsport, Pa., Sec-retary; John O'Brien, Stillwater, Minn., Treasurer; Thomas McSheehy, of Fremout, O.; Rev. Joseph P. Egan, of Tarrytown, N. Y.; B. E. Lynch, New Haven, Conn.; Rev. P. J. McManus, of Scranton, Pa.; W. I. Chinema of Chinema Educi. J. Gibbons, of Chicago; Edwin Mulready, of Boston, Mass. The amount now in the hands of the committee will be turned over Father McTighe continued: "I say again, to the university October 10, the anniversary possible, is it not probable, isn't it certain that this great demon can't be driven out by fasting and prayer? Prayer and fasting is the only way of expelling the demon, and you should put away such words as 'I am holier than thou,' and adopt it in the constitution." As Father McTigbe sat down, Father Sheedy, to whom most of this sally had been directed, arose and tried to speak. His face showed what he wanted to say, but the deafening applause of welcome prevented him from speaking for several minutes. When he got a chance, he said:

deafening applause of welcome prevented him from speaking for several minutes. When he got a chance, he said: "I am glad to ascertain the posi-tion my reverend friend, Father Mo-Tighe, occupies. I trust since he has taken the neits to set himself view on the Gorman movement to its glorious consummation. I almost said to its bitter end, but it can have no bitter end for anybody; neither for the saloon keepers nor the most bitter trafficker in human souls. Our aim is to save them the pains to set himself right on the German the pains to set himself right on the German saloons and my report, that I will also be given an opportunity of defending myself. (Cries of "Go on." "Go on..") I deny that the First Vice President of this union tried to cast a slur on the clergy of the United States, and I need not assure asyone who knows me, as a priest and a man, that noth-ing could be further from my thoughts at the time I compiled the report. My friend should understand that when I did refer to the clergy I thought it was my duty to sub-mit to the union that the priests are every-where with us. When I said that many of them were too busy with their parish duties o become good organizers I did not intend to convey the impression that they did not take any interest in our work. A WAY TO SETTLE IT.

"I want to protest, as Father McTighe protested, and in order to refute the charge made against we I desire that the report be read over again. I think that will be suf-ficient denial to the charge that I cast a slur on that noble body of men, the Catholic clergy. If this is not done I demand that Father McTighe withdraw his statement or the report be read again." Secretary Nolan then read the report, and when he got down to the part, "The differ-ence is that our clergy hasn't time to attend to the duties-" Father McTighe said: That only proves what I said-" Secretary Nolan went on reading regard-less of the interruption, and when Father McTighe tried to break in he could not do so. The Secretary finished the report, and a motion for its adoption was then made. The gall was rubbed in when a delegate moved that the convention indorse everything said by Father Sheedy. A kick was made by Father McTighe's friends, but arose, and in a humorous speech de ended Father McTighe A number of Eastern delegates tried to use him as a football, but the Pittsburg citizen held his ground and the Pittsourg citizen neid nis ground and had his say on the question before the house. He had no sconer sat down, and an attempt to put the question was made, than Father McTighe started to do business again. He said, in a lond voice:

Father Conaty, ex-President of the organization, had been trying to make himself board above the din, and after shaking out his white locks, said: "This union is not responsible for the individual utterances of any person. We have emphasized this fact

Bishop Cotter continued to speak on the objects of the union, the spirit of his re-marks being that the object of the union was to be reached only through educating the masses to a loftier conception of life. Father Canevin read letters of regret from Ficher Gilmare Bishon of Clavaland and Richard Gilmore, Bishop of Cleveland, and William H. Elder, Archbishop of Cleveland, and nati. fra. Eilen J. Foster's Husband on an Official Tour of Inspection - He Compliments Warden Wright on the Appearance of the Riverside Institution.

An inspection of the Western Penitenlary was made yesterday by Hon. E. C. Foster, general agent of the Department of Justice of the United States, who spent the greater part of the day in the institution, where 44 United States prisoners are confined. Mr. Foster is the husband of Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, who is now traveling in Europe. He was appointed to his present position by President Harrison, and is now on his first annual tour of visit-ing the United States prisoners in the vari-ous State prisons throughout the country. Mr. Foster left for Buff.lo last night, and from there he will go to Albany and Boston. He was greatly pleased with Warden Wright's prison system, discipline and methods, and was charmed by the astange-The new wing is almost completed. Mr. Foster is deeply interested in a bill that has passed the House of Representa-tives and is now in the Senate, appropriating $1,500,000 for the erection of three prisons for the use avaluation of the grainst the the use, exclusively, of offenders against the laws of the United States. At the present time 1,375 United States prisoners are confined in the various State penal institutions. Most of these are in the Northern States, because the prisons in the Southern States, are of a variation of the states and Southern States are of a very inferior and insecure order. Most of the United States prisoners are confined in the prisons at Lansing, Kansas, Columbus, O., Albany, Buffalo and Detroit. The others are distributed through 16 other prisons. Most of these convicts are victims of the postal and coinage laws The bill now in the Senate provides for one prison in the vicinity of Washingten, D. C., a second west of the Mississippi river, and a third in Oregon. Mr. Foster will probably be one of the three commis-sioners to be appointed by the President to ocate and construct these prisons.

The sharp crack of a whip, a stentorian whoal" from the driver, and a handsome carriage came to a stop at the corner of Smithfield street and Fifth avenue yesterday afternoon. It was a bridal party that alighted, and it was not many hours since the honeysuckles had flung their fragrance after the twain. Passing pedestrians held their breath as the young bride stepped ou the sidewalk, rejoicing in a glorious white veil and full wedding costume exposed in all its Hymeneal loveliness to the thunder-1877 he was elected President of the Catholic He was consecrated the first Bishop of Winstruck natives.

lachi's societies, spoke adversely on the re port. When it was taken up in the afternoon for adoption, Father McTighe took the floor and, with fire in his eye and an afternoon paper in his hand, he said: "In my remarks of this forenoon, I see I have been quoted as saying that the actions of the convention would turn the Germans away from the church. Before going any further I wish to state right here that I made no such remark. What I did say, however, was that the Germans would be turned away from the temperance movement. I object to the adoption of the report, for the reason that it reflects on the Catholic clergy of America and this convention ought not to adopt a slur on such a hard-working body of men. As Father Elliott stated in his paper yesterday, it is due to the inactivity of the Cathlie clergy.

CALLED DOWN AT ONCE.

At this point he was called down by Father Elliott, whose giant form loomed up in the rear of the hall, and after a sharp discussion, ended it by saying: "I will say I did nothing of the kind, either in substance or in words."

it is a slur on the clergy. A great many temperance people seem to labor under the mistake that the only one demon that takes possession of the Catholic soul is whisky. There are six other demons, as bad as whisky, that must be expelled from the Because these same temperance peoheart. nle are not possessed of the demon whisky it does not follow that they are not possess of any of the other demons, and it will require the closest attention on the part of the clergy to drive the demons out of the hearts of minds of these same temperance people. "Then there seems to be a holier and pharinsical sentiment among some of the dele-gates. They want to go to Chicago to make themselves known. They want the world to look at them and wonder in amazement, They want the people to say they are not like the rest of mankind, and no report covering such impressions should be adopted by this convention."

A murmur of dissent ran through the house, and several of the delegates wanted President Cleary to choke the speaker off. Father McTighe's friends insisted that the rules be suspended and an extension of time granted, which was done, and the speaker continued: "I heard it stated in the conven tion here, that intemperance has possession of the field. This is not true, and shows the temperance people have been hypnotized and allowed themselves to be deceived by the lying, prejudicial reports of jailers, who make it a point to exhibit the Catholics in the worst light possible. They are the peo ple who do not want any popery in the coun-try, and this plan of lying prison statistics is a systematic effort on their part to rob Catholics of their manhood. It is done to convey the idea that the Catholic Church raises men not fit to be citizens of the coun-try. I am surprised to find a clergyman here who will admit that Catholics are worse than any other denomination, when they know such statements are not true. DOES NOT BELIEVE IT.

"I have been told that one-half of the criminals are Catholics. This is not true. Ninety-eight per cent of all the Catholics are honest, upright, true citizens. Business men know how seldom their trust has been betrayed by Catholics. The roaring lion who goes about from house to house seeking whom he may devour knows how impreg nable is the Catholic maiden's virtue. We know these things, and why should we stand fdly by and accept such statistics and repested in this convention? It brings back the hereditary doctrine of belief that the saloon must go, but it cannot go. [Hisses and groans.] "Instead of losing so much power, saying that the soloon must go, and then witness it not going," continued the speaker, "we should direct our efforts into suitable chanmels that yan out other results. It is not
