NOTES OF EVENTS IN THREE STATES ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCEL1

YOUNGSTOWN, August 7 .- Mrs. Sophia Bonacker received a message this afternoon from Birmingham, Ala., stating that her husband, Philip Bonacker, had committed suicide by taking morphine, and stating that the body would be placed in a vault, awaiting her orders. Bonacker left his wife and two children here five years ago and went South and has not since supported them.

A few days ago Mrs. Bonacker received a letter from him asking forgiveness for his conduct, and stating that he intended to commit snicide. Mrs. Bonacker paid no attention to it, as he had made similar threats before. In the letter he stated that he had sent her his trunk containing clothing and $200 in money, but no trace of it has been obtained. Bonacker has four brothers residing in Sharon, Pa.

MOVEMENTS OF CAPITAL

Organization of Companies for Pushing Industrial Enterprises.

PECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 McKeesport, August 7.—The Enterprise here this wook, will capitalize at $100,000, and will build a brick plant at Reynoldton. Their charter will be applied for at once. The offi-Reynolds, Treasurer; L. G. Reiber, Secretary; H. H. Swaney, Solicitor.

Another company, to be organized to build street roads from here to Reynoldton and on the main streets of both places, is a company composed of Pittsburg and McKeesport capi-tal. The capital stock will be $120,000, and a charter will be asked for. William Flinn, I. W. Patterson, and Mr. Manar, of Pittsburg, are deeply interested, and will hold a bulk of the stock. W. C. Soles, of this place, a wealthy real estate owner, is President of the company: Mr. Patterson, Secretary and Treasurer: while the above, with Mr. Manar, of Pittsburg, and R. T. Carothers and Alonzo Insiseep, compose the directory of the company. The company will build three miles at once, to be known as the Walnut Street Railway Company. There will also be the Riverton Street Railway Company and the Evans Avenue Line. McKeesport will be well fixed if all of the roads that have asked for the right of way will build their lines. As the above is a very strong company, and has asked the right of way through the same streets as the other companies, there will be some clashing. W. Patterson, and Mr. Manar, of Pittsburg,

Another large coal works is to be built on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad at Robbins station, nine miles from this city. The company has just been formed and will go to work at once. The promoters are W. N. Robbins, of this city, and John Blytbe, of West Newton, who recently sold large coal interests to W. L. Scott.

DEDICATING THE PARK.

A Big Day at the Grand Army Encampment nt Scottdale.

SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH. SCOTTDALE, August 7.-The park was alive with visitors this afternoon and evening, and the encampment was enjoyed by all. The park is now owned by a corporation known as the Elisworth Park Association. Members of the association are nearly all members of G. A. R. association are nearly all members of G. A. R. Post 200, of this place. This afternoon the principal speech was made by Judge James Hanter, of Greensburg, who talked elequently. Colonel J. A. Danks, of Pittsburg, presented the association with a fine Bible, and J. C. Morrow of this place, on behalf of the citizens of Scottdale, also presented the encampment with the tents that now make the ground look so warlike. They cost $1,000 and are neat and serviceable. Miss Lillian Burckhardt, of Pittsburg, recited "Why We Wear the Badge," to the delight of all present.

burg, recited "Why We Wear the Badge," to the delight of all present.

This evening the dedication speech was made by General Koontz, of Somerset. Major Bris-ton, of Martinsburg, told of some interesting war reminiscences, and Mr-s Burckhardt again favored the audience with several fine selec-tions. It was considered by far, the most successful day of the encampment. To-morrow is children's day.

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE.

A Young Man Shot After Receiving Warnin to Leave Town.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. LEECHBURG, August 7.—About a month ago J. H. Long disposed of his stock and good will to Erb & Cramer, of Pine Grove, Pa., who took charge of the business. With them came Henry Moore as clerk. In a few days young Moore received a letter giving him notice to leave town within ten days or he would be shot. In a few days Mr. Erb, his employer, received notice to send Moore away or his store would be burned.

Last evening at 10 o'clock Moore was shot through the left arm, just over the beart. The ball is a 32 caliber and passed through the arm and lodged in some boards, where it was found. The shooter was so close at the time that Mr. Moore's coat was burned. The cause of the outrage is a mystery, as the boy does not have a known enemy in the country and has only been here about 30 days.

BEAVER FALLS, August 7.—The annual out-ing under the auspices of the merchants of this place to-day at Sandy Lake was a grand suc cess. All of the towns in the Beaver Valley were represented. It took three trains of 10, II and I2 cars each to transport them, and for all that many were left behind, as coaches enough could not be secured. Fully 5,000 people were on the ground, with three brass bands, Everything was lovely, and no accidents occurred.

Expect Republican Indorsement.

INDLAY, August 7.—The Farmers' Alliance of the Fourth Congressional District of Ohio, will meet at Ottawa on the 13th inst. to nomihate a candidate for Congress. It is expected by the Alliance that the Bepublicans will en-dorse their nominee, as the district has a nat-ural Democratic majority of over 5,000. Hon. F. C. Layton is the Democratic candidate. A Democratic Editor as Candidate. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BELLEFONTE, August 7 .- P. Gray Meek, again as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Senator for the Democratic nomi-nation for Senator for this district, comprising Center, Clearfield and Clinton countles, and the probabilities show a fair chance for it, which means a sure election. He has served in the Legislature several times and was once Chief Clek.

Marvin, on Sandusky street, during the absence of the family except the 14-year-old daughter, Jessie, whom he seized before she could scream, and tying a cloth over her mouth carried her into a room, where he locked her while he ransacked the house for valuables.

Before he secured anything worth while other children came into the yard, scaring him away. They found and released their sister, who was unharmed beyond being frightened almost to death.

SONS OF ST. GEORGE.

Section of Officers at the Meeting of the Grand Lodge at Scranton. REPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. SCRANTON, August 7.—The Grand Lodge, Sons of St. George, closed to-night. This after-noon there was a grand parade, which was fol-lowed by a picnic at Fairview.

The officers chosen for the ensuing year are as follows: W. G. P., John Kenworthy, of No. 31, of Pittsburg; W. G. V. P., Joshua Golightly, of No. 88, Plymouth: W. G. S. J., Henry Williams, of No. 57, Philadelphia; W. G. T., Joseph Langford, of No. 4, Pittston; W. G. M., William Pooler, of No. 80, Shenandoah; W. G. I. S., William Maylin, of No. 1, Scranton.

Events in Three States.

A. K. CRAIG, of Claysville, has accepted his nomination for Congress. FOOTPADS beat Peter Strahm insensible at Canton and robbed him of $100. A Young Italian was drowned while bathing in the Conoquenessing at Butler. ZED BOLING, a farmer of Calhoun, was killed by a falling tree while cutting timber. JOSEPH MCKINNEY was overcome by foul air in digging a well at Ravenswood and died. An unknown man was killed by a switching engine on the trestle between Braddock and Port Perry.

A VERDICT of accidental death was rendered in the case of John Bowers, killed by machinery at Braddock.

ALL crops in the region of Mansfield valley have been destroyed by drought, except the ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS has been subscribed for the people made destitute by the late fire at Braddock.

An agreement has been signed by puddlers and managers of the Reading Rolling Mill and the strike is considered practically ended.

THREE piers for the McKeesport and Du quesne Traction Bridge have been finished. The bridge will be completed by October 5. THE McKeesport branch of the Master Painters' Association of Allegheny county has been formed with every contracting painter in

THE Erie conference of the M. E. Church will convene in Oil City September 10. Bishop Mallalieu, of New Orleans, will be present, and Bishop Thoburn, of India, is expected. MRS. LIZZIE RODGERS, of Youngstown, has sued the Pittsburg and Lake Erie Railway Company for $30,000 for the death of her husband, an engineer, from receiving wrong orders.

MARSHAL SPINDLER, a merchant of Terra Cotta, W. Va., was arrested for burning the stores of his rivals, Fox Brothers and D. B. Dewitt. The information was made by Spindler's sisters, who quarreled with his wife. THOMAS HUDKINS, who struck Conductor John Devers, of Parkersburg, with a slungshot while the conductor was putting him off a Bal-timore and Ohio train for not paying his fare three years ago, has been arrested in Nebraska. Captain Devers has never recovered from the blow.

Accused of Witchery.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 7.—Captain William Brown, of the United States Army, has arrived here with a 7-year-old Indian boy whom he recently rescaled from torture and death in the heart of Alaska. Captain Brown went out to explore the Stickien mine region, and while there heard of the escape of an Indian called "Little Tom," who was being tortured for witcheraft. The boy was a member of the Tal-Kan tribe and nephew of the chief. Last winter the grip killed off many Indiana, and in some way the child was beld responsible for the prevalence of the disease. After preliminary torture he was to have been burned at the stake, when a doughty miner named McGinnis, defying the whole tribe, freed the lad. Aftera terrible march of hundreds of miles "Lattle Tom" alone reached a white station, where he was found by Captain Brown and brought here. The Captain will educate his protege, who is very bright, and intends to make a lawyer or a missionary of him.
