

THE ARMY IN REVOLT.

Another Mutiny among the Boasted Redcoats of Great Britain.

DISCONTENT SEEMS WIDESPREAD.

The Independence of Bulgaria is to be Claimed August 16.

A WILD REPORT OF CHOLERA IN PARIS

Causes Great Consternation and Paralyzes Business for a Time.

Another English army corps has mutinied. The disaffection is believed to be of a serious nature. Emperor William has persuaded Lord Salisbury to form a new alliance. A report of cholera in Paris proves to be without foundation.

THE MEDICAL CONGRESS

Finishes the Preliminary and is Thoroughly at Work.

Berlin, August 8.—The medical congress is now thoroughly at work in every section. To-day's discussions included typhoid fever, military hygiene, obstetrics, neurology, psychiatry and diseases of the larynx.

A CONCERT AT THE PALACE.

Entertainment in Honor of the Medical Congress at Berlin.

Berlin, August 8.—Chancellor von Caprivi and several other Ministers attended an open air concert given at the new palace in honor of the medical congress. The music was furnished by the bands of the Guards and Hussars.

NO CHOLERA IN PARIS.

But a Rumor to That Effect Creates a Dangerous Panic.

Paris, August 8.—Startling rumors are current on the boulevards to-day that a violent outbreak of cholera had taken place in this city. The rumors were spread by a man who had been in the city for a few days.

NEW SOCIALISTIC SCHEME

Programme for the Reorganization and Control of the Party.

Berlin, August 8.—The Berliner Volksblatt says that the scheme for the reorganization of the Socialistic Democratic party provides that anyone accepting the programme and subscribing funds will be entitled to membership in the party.

Wales Deserted by Tourists in Consequence of the Big Strike.

London, August 8.—The report that a provisional settlement of the railway strike in Wales had been effected, is not confirmed. It is said the railway men received the offer of the directors, fixing 240 hours a month as the time for labor and decided to adhere to their original demands.

INDEPENDENCE OF BULGARIA.

August 13 Expected to be an Important Day in the Country's History.

Sofia, August 8.—Great preparations are being made here on August 13, on which day it is confidently expected that the independence of Bulgaria will be proclaimed and Prince Ferdinand elected King.

EMBRACING THE GREEK RELIGION.

Fear of a Wholesale Secession of Armenians to Avoid Oppression.

London, August 9.—The News correspondent in Armenia says that a report that the villagers of Ardani are embracing the Greek religion, causes apprehension of a wholesale secession of Armenians in order to escape oppression.

BIDDING THEM FAREWELL.

The Queen Wishes the People of Heligoland Prosperity.

Berlin, August 8.—Copies of a message from Queen Victoria have been placed in Heligoland. In the message the Queen wishes the people of the former notable prosperity and contentment under German rule, and says she feels assured that the German Emperor will use all his power to guarantee their welfare.

BRISBANE N. S. W., AUGUST 8.

A new Cabinet has been formed by Mr. Griffiths. Mr. Griffiths is Prime Minister, Mr. McEwen, Minister of the Treasury, Mr. Hodgkinson, Minister of the Mines, and Mr. Cowley, Minister of Lands.

THE CROWN CROPPERS.

It is Thought the Crop Will Hardly Equal Last Year's.

Florida Times-Union.—According to the statement of the Bureau of Statistics for the year ending June 30, 1890, the exports of cotton exceeded those of any previous year, amounting to 2,471,800,000 pounds.

FROM THE CANNIBAL ISLANDS.

A Remarkable Young Woman Who is a Native of a Matea F. Mily.

There is in this city a young woman about 20 years of age whose history is even more remarkable than her appearance is unusual.

ST. CHARLES, MO., AUGUST 8.

Congressman Norton is to-day reannounced to succeed himself by the Democratic Convention of the Seventh district.

BUNCOED A PRIEST.

SWINDLED OUT OF THE SAVINGS OF YEARS BY SHARPER.

A Slight Variation of the Old Confidence Game—The Police Notified and in Search of the Operator—Detailed the Scheme, which was a Success.

New York, August 8.—The Rev. Peter Saponara, of the Italian Roman Catholic Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, in North Eighth street, Williamsburg, is looking after three swindlers, two of whom captured $3,000 of his money very easily last Wednesday.

PUSHING THE COUNT.

First Enumeration of the Country to be Completed in a Week.

SOME OF THE LATEST FIGURES.

The Big Interior New York Towns Remain Almost Stationary.

A SECOND TRIAL ORDERED IN ST. PAUL.

Some of the Very Peculiar Features of the Case Work in That City.

Forty-seven million people have been counted by the Census Office, and it is expected to finish the entire country within a week. All estimates place the figures about 55,000,000. The second enumeration of St. Paul will be commenced Monday.

CHURCH AND COLLEGE.

A Significant Feature in the Recent Session of the Board of Trustees.

It is very significant of the waning tutelage of the country that two such colleges as the University of Chicago and the University of Wisconsin have elected laymen to the Presidency.

TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Ideal That Should be Studied by the Authors of America.

It is as natural for a young people to copy older ones as for an infant to imitate motions and sounds. In the course of nature the infant passes beyond the stage of imitation.

DELEGATES FILLED WITH WONDER.

An Ovation of Cheers and Whistles Given at Carnegie's Mills.

FIREWORKS ON THE RIVER AT NIGHT.

The Visitors Gratified Beyond Expectation With Their Visit to Pittsburg.

The convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union adjourned yesterday and the delegates were invited to a stambout on the river at Carnegie's Mills.

FOUND HIS DEAR ONE.

A Hungarian Family's Search for Its Prodigal Son.

There was a pretty scene enacted in the Central police station at 10 o'clock last evening. A little boy had found a family of outlandish appearance wandering aimlessly through the streets.

RECENT INVESTIGATION.

Shows that while perhaps the larger share of the irregularities were found in the nine specified enumeration districts, yet the gross errors in 25 districts render, in his opinion, the entire enumeration unreliable.

HELD FOR $4,500 DUTY.

Robert Garrett Unable to Get a Picture in as an Antiquary.

Barrett's picture was a fine one, though, agents, bought a painting in London, which he had shipped by the Allan Line steamship Carthagenian, and for which he is said to have paid $15,000.

TAILORS AND THE TARIFF.

The Senate Petitioned to Increase the Duty on Manufactured Clothing.

Boston, August 8.—In the Merchant Tailors' National Exchange to-day an interesting discussion on the McKinley bill took place, and a petition to the United States Senate was adopted, asking for the imposition of a duty of 120 per cent on all goods necessary to wearing apparel.

AN INTEREST IN $1,700,000.

Signed Away Before Marriage by a Wife Who is Now a Matea F. Mily.

Philadelphia, August 8.—When the will of Clayton French, senior member of the firm of French, Richards & Co., wholesale druggists, was admitted to probate it was noticeable that his wife, Margaret H. French, was bequeathed an annuity of $5,000 a year, her whole interest in the estate being far below her dower right.

TOOK TEN TO LIFT HER.

Had to Enlarge the Doorway to Get Mrs. McGier's Body to the Hearse.

New York, August 8.—Mrs. Jane McGier, the heaviest woman in Hudson county, if not in New Jersey, is dead. She was the mother of Cattie Ingersoll, Mrs. McGier, of New York street, Jersey City, and tipped the scales at 401 pounds.

KING KALAKAUA CELEBRATES.

The 47th Anniversary of Hawaii's Independence Appropriately Observed.

San Francisco, August 8.—The steaming ship Australis, which arrived from Honolulu to-day, says King Kalakaua gave a reception at the palace July 31, on the occasion of the forty-seventh anniversary of Hawaiian independence.

PUSHING THE COUNT.

First Enumeration of the Country to be Completed in a Week.

SOME OF THE LATEST FIGURES.

The Big Interior New York Towns Remain Almost Stationary.

A SECOND TRIAL ORDERED IN ST. PAUL.

Some of the Very Peculiar Features of the Case Work in That City.

Forty-seven million people have been counted by the Census Office, and it is expected to finish the entire country within a week. All estimates place the figures about 55,000,000. The second enumeration of St. Paul will be commenced Monday.

CHURCH AND COLLEGE.

A Significant Feature in the Recent Session of the Board of Trustees.

It is very significant of the waning tutelage of the country that two such colleges as the University of Chicago and the University of Wisconsin have elected laymen to the Presidency.

TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Ideal That Should be Studied by the Authors of America.

It is as natural for a young people to copy older ones as for an infant to imitate motions and sounds. In the course of nature the infant passes beyond the stage of imitation.

DELEGATES FILLED WITH WONDER.

An Ovation of Cheers and Whistles Given at Carnegie's Mills.

FIREWORKS ON THE RIVER AT NIGHT.

The Visitors Gratified Beyond Expectation With Their Visit to Pittsburg.

The convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union adjourned yesterday and the delegates were invited to a stambout on the river at Carnegie's Mills.

FOUND HIS DEAR ONE.

A Hungarian Family's Search for Its Prodigal Son.

There was a pretty scene enacted in the Central police station at 10 o'clock last evening. A little boy had found a family of outlandish appearance wandering aimlessly through the streets.

RECENT INVESTIGATION.

Shows that while perhaps the larger share of the irregularities were found in the nine specified enumeration districts, yet the gross errors in 25 districts render, in his opinion, the entire enumeration unreliable.

HELD FOR $4,500 DUTY.

Robert Garrett Unable to Get a Picture in as an Antiquary.

Barrett's picture was a fine one, though, agents, bought a painting in London, which he had shipped by the Allan Line steamship Carthagenian, and for which he is said to have paid $15,000.

TAILORS AND THE TARIFF.

The Senate Petitioned to Increase the Duty on Manufactured Clothing.

Boston, August 8.—In the Merchant Tailors' National Exchange to-day an interesting discussion on the McKinley bill took place, and a petition to the United States Senate was adopted, asking for the imposition of a duty of 120 per cent on all goods necessary to wearing apparel.

AN INTEREST IN $1,700,000.

Signed Away Before Marriage by a Wife Who is Now a Matea F. Mily.

Philadelphia, August 8.—When the will of Clayton French, senior member of the firm of French, Richards & Co., wholesale druggists, was admitted to probate it was noticeable that his wife, Margaret H. French, was bequeathed an annuity of $5,000 a year, her whole interest in the estate being far below her dower right.

TOOK TEN TO LIFT HER.

Had to Enlarge the Doorway to Get Mrs. McGier's Body to the Hearse.

New York, August 8.—Mrs. Jane McGier, the heaviest woman in Hudson county, if not in New Jersey, is dead. She was the mother of Cattie Ingersoll, Mrs. McGier, of New York street, Jersey City, and tipped the scales at 401 pounds.

KING KALAKAUA CELEBRATES.

The 47th Anniversary of Hawaii's Independence Appropriately Observed.

San Francisco, August 8.—The steaming ship Australis, which arrived from Honolulu to-day, says King Kalakaua gave a reception at the palace July 31, on the occasion of the forty-seventh anniversary of Hawaiian independence.

PUSHING THE COUNT.

First Enumeration of the Country to be Completed in a Week.

SOME OF THE LATEST FIGURES.

The Big Interior New York Towns Remain Almost Stationary.

A SECOND TRIAL ORDERED IN ST. PAUL.

Some of the Very Peculiar Features of the Case Work in That City.

Forty-seven million people have been counted by the Census Office, and it is expected to finish the entire country within a week. All estimates place the figures about 55,000,000. The second enumeration of St. Paul will be commenced Monday.

CHURCH AND COLLEGE.

A Significant Feature in the Recent Session of the Board of Trustees.

It is very significant of the waning tutelage of the country that two such colleges as the University of Chicago and the University of Wisconsin have elected laymen to the Presidency.

TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Ideal That Should be Studied by the Authors of America.

It is as natural for a young people to copy older ones as for an infant to imitate motions and sounds. In the course of nature the infant passes beyond the stage of imitation.

DELEGATES FILLED WITH WONDER.

An Ovation of Cheers and Whistles Given at Carnegie's Mills.

FIREWORKS ON THE RIVER AT NIGHT.

The Visitors Gratified Beyond Expectation With Their Visit to Pittsburg.

The convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union adjourned yesterday and the delegates were invited to a stambout on the river at Carnegie's Mills.

FOUND HIS DEAR ONE.

A Hungarian Family's Search for Its Prodigal Son.

There was a pretty scene enacted in the Central police station at 10 o'clock last evening. A little boy had found a family of outlandish appearance wandering aimlessly through the streets.

RECENT INVESTIGATION.

Shows that while perhaps the larger share of the irregularities were found in the nine specified enumeration districts, yet the gross errors in 25 districts render, in his opinion, the entire enumeration unreliable.

HELD FOR $4,500 DUTY.

Robert Garrett Unable to Get a Picture in as an Antiquary.

Barrett's picture was a fine one, though, agents, bought a painting in London, which he had shipped by the Allan Line steamship Carthagenian, and for which he is said to have paid $15,000.

TAILORS AND THE TARIFF.

The Senate Petitioned to Increase the Duty on Manufactured Clothing.

Boston, August 8.—In the Merchant Tailors' National Exchange to-day an interesting discussion on the McKinley bill took place, and a petition to the United States Senate was adopted, asking for the imposition of a duty of 120 per cent on all goods necessary to wearing apparel.

AN INTEREST IN $1,700,000.

Signed Away Before Marriage by a Wife Who is Now a Matea F. Mily.

Philadelphia, August 8.—When the will of Clayton French, senior member of the firm of French, Richards & Co., wholesale druggists, was admitted to probate it was noticeable that his wife, Margaret H. French, was bequeathed an annuity of $5,000 a year, her whole interest in the estate being far below her dower right.

TOOK TEN TO LIFT HER.

Had to Enlarge the Doorway to Get Mrs. McGier's Body to the Hearse.

New York, August 8.—Mrs. Jane McGier, the heaviest woman in Hudson county, if not in New Jersey, is dead. She was the mother of Cattie Ingersoll, Mrs. McGier, of New York street, Jersey City, and tipped the scales at 401 pounds.

KING KALAKAUA CELEBRATES.

The 47th Anniversary of Hawaii's Independence Appropriately Observed.

San Francisco, August 8.—The steaming ship Australis, which arrived from Honolulu to-day, says King Kalakaua gave a reception at the palace July 31, on the occasion of the forty-seventh anniversary of Hawaiian independence.

PUSHING THE COUNT.

First Enumeration of the Country to be Completed in a Week.

SOME OF THE LATEST FIGURES.

The Big Interior New York Towns Remain Almost Stationary.

A SECOND TRIAL ORDERED IN ST. PAUL.

Some of the Very Peculiar Features of the Case Work in That City.

Forty-seven million people have been counted by the Census Office, and it is expected to finish the entire country within a week. All estimates place the figures about 55,000,000. The second enumeration of St. Paul will be commenced Monday.

CHURCH AND COLLEGE.

A Significant Feature in the Recent Session of the Board of Trustees.

It is very significant of the waning tutelage of the country that two such colleges as the University of Chicago and the University of Wisconsin have elected laymen to the Presidency.

TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Ideal That Should be Studied by the Authors of America.

It is as natural for a young people to copy older ones as for an infant to imitate motions and sounds. In the course of nature the infant passes beyond the stage of imitation.

DELEGATES FILLED WITH WONDER.

An Ovation of Cheers and Whistles Given at Carnegie's Mills.

FIREWORKS ON THE RIVER AT NIGHT.

The Visitors Gratified Beyond Expectation With Their Visit to Pittsburg.

The convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union adjourned yesterday and the delegates were invited to a stambout on the river at Carnegie's Mills.

FOUND HIS DEAR ONE.

A Hungarian Family's Search for Its Prodigal Son.

There was a pretty scene enacted in the Central police station at 10 o'clock last evening. A little boy had found a family of outlandish appearance wandering aimlessly through the streets.

RECENT INVESTIGATION.

Shows that while perhaps the larger share of the irregularities were found in the nine specified enumeration districts, yet the gross errors in 25 districts render, in his opinion, the entire enumeration unreliable.

HELD FOR $4,500 DUTY.

Robert Garrett Unable to Get a Picture in as an Antiquary.

Barrett's picture was a fine one, though, agents, bought a painting in London, which he had shipped by the Allan Line steamship Carthagenian, and for which he is said to have paid $15,000.

TAILORS AND THE TARIFF.

The Senate Petitioned to Increase the Duty on Manufactured Clothing.

Boston, August 8.—In the Merchant Tailors' National Exchange to-day an interesting discussion on the McKinley bill took place, and a petition to the United States Senate was adopted, asking for the imposition of a duty of 120 per cent on all goods necessary to wearing apparel.

AN INTEREST IN $1,700,000.

Signed Away Before Marriage by a Wife Who is Now a Matea F. Mily.

Philadelphia, August 8.—When the will of Clayton French, senior member of the firm of French, Richards & Co., wholesale druggists, was admitted to probate it was noticeable that his wife, Margaret H. French, was bequeathed an annuity of $5,000 a year, her whole interest in the estate being far below her dower right.

TOOK TEN TO LIFT HER.

Had to Enlarge the Doorway to Get Mrs. McGier's Body to the Hearse.

New York, August 8.—Mrs. Jane McGier, the heaviest woman in Hudson county, if not in New Jersey, is dead. She was the mother of Cattie Ingersoll, Mrs. McGier, of New York street, Jersey City, and tipped the scales at 401 pounds.

KING KALAKAUA CELEBRATES.

The 47th Anniversary of Hawaii's Independence Appropriately Observed.

San Francisco, August 8.—The steaming ship Australis, which arrived from Honolulu to-day, says King Kalakaua gave a reception at the palace July 31, on the occasion of the forty-seventh anniversary of Hawaiian independence.

PUSHING THE COUNT.

First Enumeration of the Country to be Completed in a Week.

SOME OF THE LATEST FIGURES.

The Big Interior New York Towns Remain Almost Stationary.

A SECOND TRIAL ORDERED IN ST. PAUL.

Some of the Very Peculiar Features of the Case Work in That City.

Forty-seven million people have been counted by the Census Office, and it is expected to finish the entire country within a week. All estimates place the figures about 55,000,000. The second enumeration of St. Paul will be commenced Monday.

CHURCH AND COLLEGE.

A Significant Feature in the Recent Session of the Board of Trustees.

It is very significant of the waning tutelage of the country that two such colleges as the University of Chicago and the University of Wisconsin have elected laymen to the Presidency.

TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Ideal That Should be Studied by the Authors of America.

It is as natural for a young people to copy older ones as for an infant to imitate motions and sounds. In the course of nature the infant passes beyond the stage of imitation.

DELEGATES FILLED WITH WONDER.

An Ovation of Cheers and Whistles Given at Carnegie's Mills.

FIREWORKS ON THE RIVER AT NIGHT.

The Visitors Gratified Beyond Expectation With Their Visit to Pittsburg.

The convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union adjourned yesterday and the delegates were invited to a stambout on the river at Carnegie's Mills.

FOUND HIS DEAR ONE.

A Hungarian Family's Search for Its Prodigal Son.

There was a pretty scene enacted in the Central police station at 10 o'clock last evening. A little boy had found a family of outlandish appearance wandering aimlessly through the streets.

RECENT INVESTIGATION.

Shows that while perhaps the larger share of the irregularities were found in the nine specified enumeration districts, yet the gross errors in 25 districts render, in his opinion, the entire enumeration unreliable.

HELD FOR $4,500 DUTY.

Robert Garrett Unable to Get a Picture in as an Antiquary.

Barrett's picture was a fine one, though, agents, bought a painting in London, which he had shipped by the Allan Line steamship Carthagenian, and for which he is said to have paid $15,000.

TAILORS AND THE TARIFF.