THE BANKRUPT.

It is estimated that of the number who embark on the stormy sea of commerce, nine out ten become bankrupt. Many things conspire to effect this result. Among them is "living beyond your means," exhausting your fluancial strength. So it is in the physical mart; possessed of strength and anticipations of a long life, we launch out in the quest of pleasure.

We undermine our constitution by extravagance in eating and drinking; by disregarding the laws of heaith, and ere we are aware of it we are bankrupts in body—dyspepsia or liver complaint, or shattered nerves, or kidney disease exhausts our physical capital, and we are unable to meet the drafts upon our constitution. But you may resume. Check your extravagance, and by the aid of Tutt's Pills, your broken constitution will be restored and the drafts on the exchequer of health will never be dishonered. he was given a hearty cheer as he walked from the field with the stride of a conqueror. Philips was very wild in the first inning. In fact, it looked as though he had no command of the ball at all. In the next inning but three men faced bim. In the third they went out in one, two, three order, and good work in the fourth prevented a two-bagger doing any material damage. In the fifth it was easy thing to get rid of them, and so on through the game, except in the seventh, when Glenalvin led off with a double and a single followed. This did no harm, as the next three men could not find the ball.

SUNDAY INJURED. The team is nothing if not unlucky, and now Sunday is laid up, perhaps for two weeks. In sliding to third in the first inning the little cen-ter fielder injured his knee cap, and though he tried to continue in the game, was compelled to retire, and Wilson took his place in center. Wilson played a good game, and made one beautiful catch of a low fly ball, but he can't be expected to fill Sunday's place. He is a good hitter, but not so speedy a fielder as Sun-day.

Chicago's first time at bat produced all their Chicago's first time at bat produced all their runs. After Cooney flew out, Carroll got a base on balls. Lytle hit to Hecker, who fumbled it, giving the batter a base. The bases were filled on Anson getting first on balls. Burns hit for a single, and two men scored, and he got to second Anson going to third. Glenalvin followed with a single, Anson and Burns scoring. Glenalvin got to second on the play, to third on a wild putch, and went outtrying to score on the drop of Nagle's third strike. Stein retired at first and their fun ended.

HOW THE LOCALS FARED. Pittsburg got two runs at their first try Sunday and Miller cot bases on balls. Sunday stole third and Miller went to second. After Hecker flew out, Sunday scored on Nagle's Hecker flew out, Sunday scored on Nagle's drop of a thrown hall, which also gave Obsorne a life and Miller third. Berger singled and Miller scored. La Roque was hit by a pitched ball. Berger was caught at second, and Sales flew out. The second produced a run. After Decker went out at first, Philips got first and second on Cooney's had throw. Wilson's hit and Miller's sacrifice scored him. Hecker flew out. The third was blank, but in the fourth, after two men were out, Wilson got a base on balls, went to third on Miller's single, was caught off third and scored on Burns' wild throw.

This fied the score, and it so remained up to the ninth inning. Then Miller took first on balls, went to third on a sacrifice and scored on Osborne's two-baser. The latter went out try-te take third, Berger singled, and scored on La Roque's two-baser. Sales quit at first, Attendance 1,12a. Score:

PITCHER VIAU SIGNED.

He May be Pitted Against the Chicagos at Recreation Park To-Day. Pitcher Leon Viau's terms have been accepted by the Pittsburg National League team, and Mr. O'Neill telegraphed him to report to day. If Viau arrives in time he will pitch against the Chicagos this afternoon. Viau is a fine pitcher and the fact that he was released by Cincinnati is nothing against him. That team had too many pitchers, two of whom have three-year contracts. It was hard to decide who would be released but it at last fell to Viau. He will add a tower of strength to the team and may be expected to help win a few games.

It was found impossible to sign Nichol, the fielder released by Cincinnati without using coercive methods, and Mr. O'Neill refused to do so. He says if a man does not want to play on his team he will not compel him. He has a fielder in view and he will probably arrive today. Roat will join the team in Chicago and Miller can play in the field if necessary. If Viau does not arrive in time for to-day's game Osborne will pitch.

HAD THEIR LITTLE BATS. The Pittsburg Pinyers' League Team Had Great Sport With the Clevelands and

Knocked a Pitcher Out of the Box. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CLEVELAND, August 11.-The Pittsburg (P. Ted Sullivan arrived in the city yesterday, and had in tow a tall, handsome young fellow he declared was a pitcher, and his offensive Clevelands. The game began like a Clevelands are game began like a Cleveland slugging match. Cleveland took a vicious turn at the ball, knocking out a nice assortment of runs, and then Pittsburg, aided by O'Brien's wildness and timely hits, kept up the fun. It looked at one time as though Tener would be knocked completely out of the box. Five men in succession went up for Cleveland and hit "wonder" being a pitcher, as the Chicagos failed before him without the least effort, and the ball viciously. This was in the fourth inning, and after the home team had got their nice long lead no one imagined for a moment that the game was going to be lost. Still the Pittsburgs did not lose hope, and bung on like grim death until the seventh bung on like grim death until the seventh, when they opened on O'Brien after two men were out as though they were the members of a regiment of light artillery. Tebeau muffed a foul fly that would have been the third out in this inning. After that muff 10 of the 12 runs crossed the plate. O'Brien was hit fearfully hard, and at last split his finger trying to catch a high fly. Bakeley went into the box for Cleveland, but fared no better, and the Pittsburgs got four of their runs in the seventh off his casy straight delivery. Some damaging errors at this time helped on the score. Attendance, 808. The score:

the League or Brotherhood clubs can be induced to transfer a game here. Sullivan has relinquished all his efforts to keep up a club, although he managed to get a team together, but they gave such a sorry exhibition against the Columbia Athletic Club on Saturday that Sullivan thought it wiser not to have them pitted against any heavier clubs, and so, regretfully, gave up the ghost. Looking to next year, it seems probable that Washington will resume its position in the League. The way will be easily opened for it, and past experience has demonstrated that, with proper management and a fairly good team, it would be successful.

Mr. O'Neill said yesterday that there was no intention of making Sullivan manager, as Hecker suited everybody connected with the team. He said it was unreasonable to say that Hecker is not a good manager. The team is

There is considerable indignation here against C. J. Hamlin for his almost brutal treatment of his trainer, William Andrews, who has been doing such good work with the Village Farm trotters for more than a year. He started Wardwell in the 2:17 pace Saturday and won a heat in 2:16%, about ten seconds below the gelding's record. It seems that Mr. Hamlin had told him not to go to the front, and he abused the driver in his rough way after he won the second heat, telling him he would get somebody else to handle his horses. Andrews accepted the situation and left the stable at once. Count G. LOST IN BOSTON.

Thousands upon thousands have been landed at the different railroad stations, and a big percentage of them have immediately roceeded to get lost in Boston's winding cowpaths, which are called streets. It is a common occurrence to see people standing on street corners looking upon a strip of paper upon which an address is given, and thee at a familiar landmark which they had passed but a short time previous, and it was some time before they could realize that they had one in a circle. But those were only trifling incidents. To-day the vets are getting ready for the business of the Twenty-fourth Encampment

the encampment will be undertaken. The city is very lively to-night. Finishing touches in the decorating line are being made, and the buildings along the route of the procession looks as pretty as many flags and bunting can make them, but the decorations do not approach the elaborate details which characterized New York's celebration of the Washington Centeunial last year. The Atlanta, Yorktown, Kearsarge, Dol-phin, Petrel and the Cushing were already here, and when the flagship steamed up the Presidental salute was fired from all these gunboats and from the navy yard bettery and Fort Warren as well. Governor Brackett had met the President down the bay, and when the party disembarked the Lancers and Horse Guards were ready to escort them to the Hotel Vendome, which was to be the President's headquarters. The President had no time to rest. He hastily donned a dress suit, and in less than an hour he was the President, The President and his party were the only outsiders present. The murdered man was under 28 years of age, and was un-married, and there is no doubt that he was murdered.
