CURRY UNIVERSITY, SIXTH STREET.

You can get no idea of the number of peo-ple, not Grand Army men, who took advantage of the low rates to see the East un-less you saw the crowds. On Sunday the Baltimore and Ohio road at Washington sold 1,300 tickets for Boston and 2,100 for Atlantic City. At Coney Island on the same day there were 100,000 people."

Another of the regular excursions over the Baltimore and Ohio to Atlantic City will leave this morning. In the morning and evening trains there will be ten Pullman sleepers and ten coaches.

TICKLED THE COPPER.

A Pretty Miss Thanked Him for Helping Her

Across Smithfield. The Pittsburg coppers are noted for their gallantry, and those along Smithfield street now have a chance to exercise it. This thoroughfare is badly torn up near the Monongahela House at present to receive the Birmingham electric road. Men are able to jump the big ditches, but the ladies, alas, can't do it, and if they wish to cross over must seek the nearest crossing.

A determined miss was in such a predica ment yesterday, but she essayed valiantly to cross the Rubicon, but failed. Just then one of Chief Brown's finest came to her rescue, and taking her arm, helped her over the obstruction.

the obstruction. "Ah, thank you," she said sweetly as she turned and walked away. "That is a mighty purty Miss," remarked the tickled copper as he rubbed his hands. "I must take care of them while this street is torn up," and he was immensely pleased at the prospects of his new role for the next few weeks.

DICK WAS SILENT.

Mr. Quay's Damping of the Force Bill Regarded as a Shrewd Move.

Dick Quay went East last evening. He was accompanied to the depot by United States District Attorney Lyon. He had nothing to say about the action of his father in dumping the force bill to push through the tariff measure. This latest move of the Senator is regarded as a shrewd one by local politicians Should the tariff bill be passed it will make the Republican party. solid with the manu-facturers, and Delamater's calling and elec-tion will be assured.

STILL IN ITS INFANCY.

But the Telephone Has Not Been Improved Much of Late.

S. W. Leedom, of Boston, who is con nected with the Bell Telephone Company, is at the Duquesne. Mr. Leedom said that no marked improvements had been made in the instrument of late, but it was still in its infancy. They are having some good results in long distance talking in the East. The wires between New York and Philadelphia, and the same city and Boston, are working remarkably well.

HE FAVORS THE TWO C'S.

Mr. Little Hopes the Next Ticket Will Be Cullom and Cameron,

D. F. Little, of Illinois, an ex-Commissioner of the Union Pacific Railroad and an ex-member of the Republican National Committee, passed through the city last evening bound to his home from the East. Mr. Little states that Senator Cullom will be a states that Senster Cultom will be a strong man in the next national convention. The Illinois delegation will be solid for him and there is a strong feeling in the West in his favor. Mr. Little thinks that the Sena-tor will make a capable President, and he is anxious to see him nominated. He says that Mr. Cultom would con-cultate the farmers and other heavy shippers

The pressed ware and iron mole scales conference was continued yesterday in the offices of the Flint Glass Association, in the Stevenson building. The session was a long one, lasting until 7:30 o'clock, and then the business was not concluded. An adjournment was taken to meet again at the same place on next Tuesday week. same place on next luesday week. As a result of the day's work a number of items hitherto treated as extras were added to both lists. Beyond this, and that the prices were equalized, nothing more apper-taining to the business of the session could be obtained.
