Speculative Interest on Their Feet, With a Good Showing of Activity. THE NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE CITY.

Mr. C. T. Beckman, of Anderson & Beckman, Lim., who has just returned from a trip to the seaboard, stopped off at Philadelphia on his way home to see what the chances were in that city for obtaining cheap money.

Mr. Beckman remarked, in concluding his statement: "It is refreshing to get back to Pittsburgh, where everything shows life and activity, and where a strong contrast to the stagnation which prevails in the 'City of Brotherly Love'."

Business News and Gossip. Buildings erected in Pittsburgh last year cost about $3,000,000. This record will be beaten this year by at least $3,000,000.

John Thomas, of Pine township, was in the city yesterday to satisfy the mortgage on his farm of $2,000. He is a farmer in his neighborhood.

Several hundred cheap lots will soon be put on the market on the Southside and down the river. The speculation in the Fort Wayne Railroad. People of limited means do not fear that the supply will soon be exhausted.

A prominent member of the Cotton Exchange said yesterday that the crop this year will not fall short of 10,000,000 bales, which means that the supply will be equal to that of 1889-90.

Building is very active at Copeland and Mills station, adjoining Bradford. These places a year ago consisted of a brickyard and an orchard.

The course of the short-cut railroad to Homestead has not been definitely settled. It depends on the success or failure of one or two other lines, which will not come to a head for several weeks.

Druggist at Brit, Hancock county, Ia., relates his experience with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. It was taken during the summer of 1882 by a little girl, 2 years of age, was taken seriously ill with summer complaint, so common to children of that age, and after being treated by a physician and getting no better, I took from my shelves a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. She was relieved after the first dose, and in three days was entirely well.—ALEX. MORGAN.
