PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR.1 LAKE CHAUTAUQUA, August 15 .-Chautauqua turned her attention this afterncon to athletics. Not only is this one of the most active, but the most popular of the departments here. During the present year a new gymnasium was erected, and new interest has been taken in the subject. The department for developing muscle has been as important as those for acquiring knowledge. Messrs. W. G. and "Hal" Anderson are in charge of the gymnasium, and are aided by a corps of able assistants, who will teach you any imaginable line of athletic

The annual exhibition was given this afternoon in the presence of a crowded amphitheater, the lower portion or the pit being occupied by the performers. At 4 o'clock the members of all of the classes came marching in to piano music, and then followed 18 different and separate numbers of athletic exercises, lasting over two hours.

REMARKABLY GOOD WORK. The numbers of each class were very large and the exercises perfect, and above those of the ordinary student of the gymnasium. They were nided by several college gympasts in the more difficult performances, and some of the tumbling compares very favorably with Barnum's most trained performers. One of the interesting features was a broadsword contest between Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Anderson. The Delsarte school also had its place, and several representations of the beautiful exercises were given in a charming manner by graceful young ladies. The Swedish system of gymnastics, which uses no appliances, was nicely illustrated by a large class of ladies and gentlemen. The best and prettiest of all were the movements performed by the children's class. The wee tots did themselves proud. Noticeable among all the classes were the large number of ladies and persons past the middle age, proving that gymnastics at Chautauqua are not for the few but for all.

CHURCH AND STATE UNION. Dr. Richard T. Ely continued his lec-tures on "Church and State." From the trend of Mr. Ely's talk it is easy to judge, despite his guarded statements, that he is in favor of the union of church and State. His ideas have met with no little opposition among the people here. After reviewing few conclusions and points of previous lec-tures, he contined: "What policy shall we advocate for Spain and Italy, where they have an established church? The disestablishment of the church in these countries, I would think, would result very dis-must recognize the church as a sovereign of individuality. Private churches should be allowed where disestablishment churches are, the same as private schools are allowed where we have public schools.

THE IDEAL STATE.

"The ideal is Church and State as one. To those who ask if we have not reached the proper place in the United States in the re-lations of Church and State, I very enthusiastically reply we have not. Our country originated at the time when atheism was prevalent and men considered all things We have the talse idea about the impression that we make on foreigners. Our methods are not favored by the Europeans. The dissatisfaction with the material conception is daily increasing among us; the National Reform Association is the result of this dissatisfaction.

"What growing democracy is going to do with Church and State we do not know. The growth of this democracy is unquestionably one of the greatest things of the century. Is it not possible that this democ-racy will not respect the majority, regardless of the few who favor disestablishment? It is manifestly impossible to establish a State Church in the United States. If possible, it is so far away that we need not concern

THE STATE'S SACRED DUTY.

"The nuity of the Church cannot be thought of, for every denomination is jeal-eus of the others. The State necessarily means all the people, and when it sets it must act in the interest of all, and for the brotherhood of man; there is no other organinstion that you can mention that stands for the interest of all of the people. There should be a profound sacredness about the State. Imagine an American President leading so bad a private life as some Catho-lie Popes have done. Yet Luther did not say, Abolish the Church, but "Reform the Church." We cannot convert a nation simply as a collection of individuals. Had there been nothing but this the Reformation would have been a failure. You are wrong when you say that the State has nothing to say concerning the Church. Such a declara-tion is nothing but heretic materialism. The State is religious in its essence, and its mission is the good life. We should not attempt to put dead matter above a living soul. Our Federal Constitution is theoretically changeable, but not practically so.

PROPERTY AND POVERTY. "Property is not put above person. One of the Justices of the Supreme Court has said that we must protect property to pro-tect persons. Why not say protect persons to protect property? The President has sent a message to Congress recommending the using of automatic couplers on all the rail-roads, subject to the interstate law, thus doing away the means of destroying many human lives. It is a question whether we shall common a live. shall consume a little property to save human lives. Congress will undoubtedly decide in favor of the property, as it cus-tomarily does. This is not religious, for it depends upon the destruction of human life. "The poverty of the pioneer is not un-tayorable or in any ways to be compared."

favorable, or in any way to be compared with poverty to be found in the slume of the You may hear it said that Christ has said that we shall always have poverty with us. He did not say it, but if He did, that does not deter us from our duty. We notice that those who criticise the work of Mr. Edward Bellamy are persons of wealth and luxury. The only way to purify politics is not to degrade the State. Citizens should co-operate in the endeavor to accomplish good. Wealthy men should not confine their gifts to private and sectarian, but make donations to public institutions. I think that the gentleman who recently gave $350,-000 to the University of Minnesota did much better than if he had founded a new

ON THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC. Charles F. Deems, of New York City, lec-tured in the afternoon on the drink traffic, showing first the greatness of the traffic in this country by comparisons of the amount of money spent for drink and for other articles of consumption, such as breadstuffs, clothing, etc. Then he raised the question: What shall we do with it? This he answered by considering the importance of dealing with the drunkard himself, by moral force; then showed the importance of political action, considering the various methods, such as high license and Prohibition, leading the sudience at length to the most effective method, in his judgment, Prohibition. This, he thought, could and ought to be carried out.

Prohibition. This, he thought, could and ought to be carried out.

In the morning Dr. Wayland lectured again to a very small audience. He said that he always knew when addressing a small audience that it represented solid grain, and no chaff, and if anyone went out his private opinion would be chaff. The subject of his talk was "Dr. Dobbs, an Antidote." Mr. Wayland is not a success as an orator. In the evening the Schubert Quartet and Madams Carrington gave a concert.

Willie Davis, aged 4 years, was run over and killed by a heavily laden sand wagon on Thirty-third street vesterday afternoon. There is a pathetic story in connection with the little boy's death. Fifty weeks ago his father, Samuel Davis, who had been a puddler in a Lawrenceville mill, was convicted of larceny, and was sentenced to jail for one year. The poor man was heartbroken when Warden Berlin told him of his sen's death last with the Warden Berlin told him of broken when Warden Berlin told him of his son's death last night. The Warden will request the Court to permit Davis to attend the funeral of his boy, which will probably be granted, as his term is nearly ended.

Mr. Zug's buggy was whirled around and thrown to one side of the street, frightening his horse. The horse ran into the paint works at that point and stopped.

Avoid exposure to the sun as far as possible; do as little cooking as you can, thereby keeping your house and yourself cool, and the best summer drink by all odds is buttermilk. Cover your floors with cool and clean matting, hang lace cur-tains to your windows, thereby letting in the air and keeping out the flies, and where curair and keeping out the flies, and where curtains are not used hang window shades that will exclude the light and heat. ## FEATURES OF TRADE

The Money Market Advancing and Business on the Increase.

IRON IN VERY ACTIVE DEMAND.

Breadstuffs Higher, Owing to Unfavorable Crop Reports.

NEW YORK, August 15 .- Special telegrams to Bradstreet's show few changes in either the agricultural, industrial or com-mercial situation. There have been extensive rains throughout large areas in Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska, but they came too late to repair the damage done the cereal crops, particularly that of Indian corn. Cotton crop estimates are not quite as large as a few weeks ago, while those of wheat, corn, oats and barley are as low as previously reported. Sugar and rice crops promise well.

Fruit yields, too, are short and prices higher. After suffering severe depression on account of the New York Central strike and the disturbed money market, share speculation is again strong and advancing, principally upon foreign buying, and expectations that the Treasury will in some manner relieve the money market. Bank clearings at 51 cities for the week ending August 14 are, $1,092,767,867, a gain over this week last year of 15 per cent. New York City's clearing, which constitutes 62.4 per cent of the grand total, are more than those for the period last year by 13.6 per cent, while at 50 other cities the gain is 17.5 per cent.

HIDES AND LEATHER RISING. The feature of the week is the continued advance in prices for hides and leather. As an outcome boot and shoemakers are actively employed. In Nebraska and some sections adjoining where the drought has been heavy, merchants have countermanded orders for goods, fearing the effect of short crops. Chicago and New Orleans apparcrops. Chicago and New Orleans apparently enjoying relatively the most active demand for staple goods.

Iron is growing steadily stronger. Quoted prices are no higher, but at this time they are no longer tests of the market. No considerable quantity of pig iron could be purchased at nominal quotations. The largest individual producers at the East can hardly fill contracts and stocks in first and second. fill contracts, and stocks in first and second hands are very light. It is evident that any considerable increase in the demand would result in an upward rush in quotations. Anthracite coal buyers, for some reason, appear anxious to delay purchases, and the trade languishes in consequence, with the prospect of a rush and inability to fill contracts promptly later in the season. Copper is quiet here and abroad, with a firmer per is quiet here and abroad, with a firmer tone. Hog products are a trifle weaker, iard having reacted a few points. Pork is practically unchanged. Live hogs at the West are 5@10c lower per 100 pounds, and cattle on declining receipts, 15c higher. Raw sugar is one-eighth and refined one-sixteenth of a cent higher on good demand, decreased stocks and higher foreign markets.

THE ADVANCE IN GRAIN. Wheat, corn and oats have been affected by unfavorable crop reports and heavy speculative demand, the first named advancing 5@6 cents, corn 11/2 cents and oats fully 6 cents per bushel. Available stocks have 6 cents per bushel. Available stocks have not begun to increase yet. Exports of wheat, both coasts (and flour as wheat), equal 1,983,189 bushels this week, against 1,914,000 bushels in the like week of 1889, and 2,166,263 bushels last week. The total exported, July 1 to date, is 12,917,228 bushels, against 11,250,000 bushels in a like share of 1889 and 13,663,980 in 1888.

Foreign trade for the fiscal year 1889-90 was the largest on record, aggregating $1,647,047,062, a gain over 1888-89 of 10.8 per cent. Imports, which aggregated $789,322.

cent. Imports, which aggregated $789,322,-228, exceeded those of 1888-89 by 5.9 per cent, also the largest on record. Exports cent more than the total the year before, and excepting 1881 were the heaviest ever recorded. July was a more of a moderate gain in railway carnings when the large in-creases last spring are considered. The per-centage of gain is slightly larger than that

INCREASED RAILROAD EARNINGS. Earnings of 135 railroads for July aggre-rate $36.752,786, an increase over July, 1889, 18.69 per cent, that mouth in turn gaining 8.34 per cent over July, 1888. The Southern, Southwestern and Pacific groups con tinue to make the best relative showings Earnings of 80 railroads for the first sever months of this year aggregate $238,702,766, a gain over 1889 of 11.71 per cent, which year, in turn, showed a gain of 6.9 per cent

Drygoods continue in satisfactory demand, particularly from jobbers. Southern and Southwestern buyers are more numerous at the Eastern markets. Orders for fall goods are reported good by agents. Strikes have delayed the movement of drygoods on orders somewhat. Prices for cotton goods continue firm. Print cloths are firmer on reduced production by Fall Biver Mills. Some makes of blesched cottons are higher. Woolens are in better request, but unchanged in price. Wool is steady and nuchanged. The loss of sheep last winter and the increased demand for mutton has shortened the California fall wool clip. Cotton is 8-16e lower on weak Liverpool advices, slack demand and increasing receipts of new crop.

Business failures reported to Bradstreet's number 148 in the United States this week, against 155 last week and 177 this week last year. Canada had 29 this week, against 25 last week. The total number of failures in the United States, January 1 to date, is 6,503, against 7,209 in a like portion of 1880.

THE SITUATION BRIEFLY STATED. R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

The industries are doing rather less, and the speculators are doing more. That is the week's history in brief. The general average of prices of commodities is rapidly rising, and has advanced more than 25 per cant during the past week.

Weest has advanced 45 cents, with sales of 30,000,000 bushels here; oats, I cent, and corn, having been pushed quite high, has declined 15 cents, on sales of 8,00,000 bushels. Pork is half a dollar per barrel lower, but hogs are coming forward in great number and do not advance. The exports of grain are already affected by prices, and of flour and corn shipments are less than half these of the same week last year. Cotton has fallen three-sixteenths, but is still so high that purchases are limited. Coffee has has not changed, and considerable domand for the cheaper grades is reported. Oil has risen 25 cents.

A heavy decline appears in the weekly outly to pig iron, which was 164,795 tons August 1, against 175,727 July 1 and 180,791 June 1. The decrease is attributed mainly to the close of furnances for repairs, but last year the production increased 8,000 tons from June 1 to August 1, and it is noticed that some Southern works, which were to have begun operating two months ago, are still waiting. Prices show little change, though one large Southern concern is reported to be cutting liberally. The demand for finished products is fell and well sustained, and some forms of plate iron are a little higher.

The wool manufacture shows no improve-sustained, and some forms of plate iron are a little higher.

The wool manufacture shows no improvement, and many makers express growing disgust at the scantiness of purchases, except for the cheaper grades. Wool does not advance, and the heavy imports of goods continue. Coal is very dull, and the output still falls below last year's. Drygoods jobbers note that Southern and Western buyers are more numerous in this market than usual, but while cotton goods are well sold up, the demand for woolens is only fair.

crease in dressed beef, but a large increase in cured meats. Lard, hides, wool and eatile and receipts of hegs are about double last year's. The dry goods and clearing sales exceed last year's, and collections were never better. St. Louis notes a fair volume of trade, though less strength than last week; at Milwaukee rains are held to have improved crop prospects; St. Paul reports the crops equal to anticipations, and Minneapolis notes a good lumber trade and satisfactory building, though low water restricts the flour output. At Omaha trade is good, at Kansas City about average, at Detroit excellent, with manufacturing works fully employed, and at Pittsburg and Cleveland no especial change is seen. Philadeiphis reports active demand for drygoods, a stronger market for groceries and a strong and healthy market for leather; shoes and paper money is saug and firm at Chicago, brighter at 768 per cent at St. Louis, and in fair demand at usual rates elsewhere. About $1,000,000 has been sent West from this city during the week. The exports of merchandise from New York fail below last year's by 29 per cent for half of August, while the imports continue very heavy and those conditions, with the advance in speculative markets, are not entirely tavorable.

The business fallures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number 197, as compared with 208 last week. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 213. BIGGER PRICES FOR MOST STAPLES but interesting sight. It's beyond the comprehension of some dealers how we manage to attract customers. Well, we're not in the business of giving pointers to competitors. The secret of our brisk trade is well known to every person who has purchased at these counters during the past two weeks.

We started out not long since with a determination to rid these shelves of summer goods. To do this quickly prices were not only cut in half—in many cases the cut was much deeper. Our object will soon be accomplished, and to every reader of this ad. we say: "Come at once before the goods are all gone." Room is the one thing we are after just now. The advance guard of our fall and winter goods has arrived, and space is at a premium. It's true we are closing out what remained of our summer stock at a loss, but it pays us to do so. Our regular patrons are earnestly invited to make a tour of every department. We are anxious that they above all others should share in this great sacrifice sale. Of course, those who come first will have a larger variety to select from.
