been paid. There is a clause in the by-laws which provides that any member who fails for three months to pay his dues shall be expelled. When the union was started a number of first-class musicians went into it, but when they saw that it was simply a scheme to cover poor musicians, so that they could command the same pay as the first-class men, they wished to withdraw. This was impossible, as according to the bylaws there is no such a thing as resignation. The only thing left for them to do was to refuse to pay their dues until alter the prescribed three months had expired and then they were expelled. That is why the names of so many first-class musicians appeared in print as being expelled from the union. The union was formed principally to get into the favor of the labor organizations, and very soon the competent musicians will present a paper to the Trades Council stating the facts and the collapse of the union."

The Musical Courier voices the sentiment of all thinking music lovers in the following comments upon a timely topic: "Thanks to Mr. Leo Tolstoi and Mr. John Wanamaker, the name of one of Beethoven's most beautiful, chaste and elevated compositions has become a byword for all that is obscene and loathsome. Shame on the whole matter!

"If Tolstoi thought it necessary to pillory music as an offender against decency, why didn't he use some other example in music? "There is more deviltry in one page of Offentuch than in Beethoven's complete WOLKS.

"The offense is rank and smells to heaven. "Beethoven and immorality! "Such a mismatched pair!

"The 'Kreutzer Sonata' now on a pro-gramme of chamber music is bound to raise a smile, and perhaps a protest from that delicate minded conservator of the public morals, Mr. Anthony Comstock."

••• The talk of organizing a permanent symphony orchestra in Chicago under the direction of Mr. Theodore Thomas waxes stronger and stronger. If this is accomplished it will be a gain to the cause of art. Chicago has learned to ap-preciste Mr. Thomas theroughly, and it much needs such a man as a resident and active factor in its musical progress. New York's allegiance to Mr. Thomas has not lately been what it used to be; and, anyhow, the metropolis has more resources without him than its Western rival pos-

Particularly in view of the musical pos bilities incident to the World's Fair in Chicago, will it be a great consideration to have on the ground a conductor who commands the respect of the musical world on both sides of the ocean.

Under all the circumstances, Theodore Thomas in Chicago at this time would be emphatically the right man in the right place.

mentary session now ended. He has arrived at the conclusion that the Government is doomed, thereby displaying an amount of political perspicacity quite refreshing and unexpected from such a quarter. The Manchester Ezaminer, one of the ablest of the provincial organs of Liberal Unionism, says ditto to Mr. Russell, and places all the blame for the ruined past and the black future upon Mr. Goschen. Finally the London Daily Telegraph, the most powerful of the Liberal Unionist newspapers, which for years has never wearied of denouncing the Irish members as criminals and traitors, now confesses that the game is no longer CHICAGO, August 16 .- Vice President Wisdom, of Pittsburg, of the Iron Molders' Union of North America, arrived in Chicago last evening in response to a summons sent him by the local union in Chicago to investigate the alleged receiving of nonunion patterns by iron foundries here. With the exception of one shop it was found that none of the foundries were getting patterns from San Francisco. Mr. Wisdom returns to Pittsburg Tuesday evening.
