so long had become so severe that at times he was unable to follow his usual business. The tough tenacious mucus that dropped from his head caused a soreness in his throat. Although he was almost constantly trying to clear his throat, the disease extended to his lungs. His breath became short, and he felt path in his chest. There was scarcely a day he did not feel great path over his eyes. He took cold easily, and every cold would cause such a stuffed-up condition in his nose he could scarcely breathe through it. His appetite was poor, and he had belehing of gas from the stoffmeth. cured. It is now five months since I became cured. I feel splendid, and no symptoms of the disease has since appeared. W. H. WISE."

Miss Ehrhardt had for years been a great sufferer from catarrh. She was almost con-stantly hawking and spitting had sore throat, and there was scarcely a day that she was not hourse and there was scarcely a day that she was not hoarse. As some of this entarrhal poison extended to the bronchial tubes of her lungs she felt a tightness and weight in her chest. She coughed hadly, and as her disease further advanced she felt very weak and tired all the time. She could get but little sleep and felt tired and worn out in the morning. In her weak condition every chaoge of weather would give her a cold. Her appeites falled, and she had beiching of gas and a nauseons, sick feeling at her stomach after eating, and she had a bad taste in her mouth every morning.

earing, and she had a bad taste in her mouth every morning. Her brother, Mr. Henry L. Ehrhardt, also suffered from catarrh. While he had many of the above symptoms, the disease so affected his head that he became quite deaf. He had a dropping of catarrhal miccus from his head into his throat, where it became very tenacious and hard to expectorate. After becoming cured by the catarrh specialists, at 323 Penn ave., they add:
