UNCLE SAM'S TRADE

Promises Larger Results This Year Than Ever Before.

FINE FEATHERS LAND FROM PARIS.

Scarcity of Pruits Makes Heavy Demand From California.

WESTERN ESTIMATES AS TO WHEAT

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, TUESDAY, August 18, 1890.

At Uncle Sam's warehouse on the corne of Garrison alley and Penn avenue, business appears to be lively. Among a great variety of imported goods received within a day or two were 13 cases of fine feathers consigned from Paris to one of our leading millinery jobbers who spent the month of July in that city gathering spoils for the fall and winter trade. The duty on the feathers is 50 per cent of their value. From interviews with our importers it appears that the volume of foreign goods handled which have been and are to be handled this year will show a heavy increase over last year. The Government officials are inclined to be reticent on this point.

Wholesple Clothing Trade.

A representative of one of our wholesale lothing houses said to-day: "Our trade for the summer season was never as good as it has summer season was never as good as it has been this summer. We have sold twice the amount of goods in July and August than we sold at the corresponding period last year. These are months that we always look for a quiet time. But this summer proves an exception to our experience in other seasons. Trade goes right along. We have had no dull week. Our trouble has been to get goods made up into clothing fast enough to fill orders. The outlook for a heavy fall trade was never better. Prices of staple goods are shout the same as a year ago, but such activity as we are having, is likely to bring an advance in time.

California Fruits. Dealers in tropical fruits are reaping big harvests by reason of the great scarcity of the mand for California fruits unusually active this season. The Pacific coast is the only fruit section of the United States to which heaven has been propitious this season. In California the yield and quality of the fruit crop are alike good this year, and, in view of the great scarcity in the Miodie and Eastern States, the fruit growers of the Pacific will have in their crops something as good as a gold mine.

Said one of our leading dealers in tropical fruits: "I have never seen such a rush for California fruits as this season. Prices are high and advancing, but still the demand coutinues active. Choice oranges are also moving up and readily brings outside prices. Bananas are very plenty, and are, in fact, the only article in tropical fruit lines that keeps down to the old mand for California fruits unusually active tropical fruit lines that keeps down to the old level of prices."

The first arrivals of the new crop of lemons and Jamaica oranges have appeared in Pittsand Jamaica oranges have appeared in Pi burg warehouses within the past few days. Wheat Prospects.

The current number of the Northwestern Miller, of Minneapolis, in its review of the wheat situation reports as follows: The winter wheat crop is short, and spring wheat estimates wheat crop is short, and spring wheat estimates show a reduction in yield and grade at a very critical period, caused by heat. The general sentiment favors an advance in prices. The crop of the Northwest is about equal to that of last year according to a fair measurement of reports. Grade, however, is lower and yet it is not certain that the wheat will average worse for milling purposes." The drought through the West during the latter part of July and early part of August very much lower the estimates for the yield of corn. A Pittsburger who has traveled extensively through Ohio, Michigan and Indiana the past two or three weeks, said to-day that the corn crop in those sections will fall 50 per cent below the average. This report indicates the poorest prospect for many years. "The only article in the farmers' line," said be, "that shops up first class is hay, benefit of the same of the light will be the same of the light will be and the same of the light will be said the same of the same of the light will be said the same of the same of the light will be said the same of the sa line." said he, "that shops up first class is hay. Fruits, vegetables and grain of all kind will be very short in the near West."

ANOTHER BIG DEAL.

Forty Broad Acres in the East End Gobbled by a Syndicate.

BIG MONEY IN THE TRANSACTION. Buckeye Oil Loses Some of the Pyrotechnic Features of the Opening.

THE NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE CITY

A real estate transaction of considerable magnitude came to the surface yesterday, notwithstanding strenuous efforts to keep i from the public. For a year or more the A. T. Rowand tract, comprising about 40 acres. situated between Edgewood and Swissvale, and better known as Swissvale Park, had been on the market in a quiet way at $125,-000. It is bounded by Ravine street, the Pennsylvania Railroad, Swissvale avenue and the property of the Union Switch and Signal Company, and originally formed part of the Swisshelm estate, but does not include the old homestead where Mrs. Swiss-helm passed some of the happiest years of her busy life.

While all who examined the land admitted its value and adaptability to residence pur-purposes, the price at which it was held was considered too high, and every attempt to sell it proved abortive. Finally the owner was induced to lop off $25,000. This placed the property on the active list, and two syndicates at erty on the active list, and two syndicates at once made overtures for its purchase, one of which, largely composed of members of an East End corporation, secured the plum yesterday, paying $100,000 therefor. The sale was made by the owner.

The property was subdivided and streets laid out several months ago, but some changes in the shape and size of lots will be made, after which it will be made after which it will be made after.

the shape and size of lots will be made, after which it will be put on the market. The price is considered well up for that locality, but as the land lies well, and is almost central between Braddock and the city, making it available to residents of either place, the purchasers will no doubt make a handsome profit out of it.

Business News and Gossip. The Hubly property, in Wilkinsburg, has been sub-divided and put on the market. It is being handled by the Fidelity Title and Trust yesterday was for $5,000. There were two for this amount. Seven were for purchase money.

Movements is Real Estate.

The cool weather of the past few days has had a stimulating effect on business. Nearly all branches are more active. Real estate is picking up, and progress is reported in a number of deeds that have been in a state of suspended state of animation for a month or two. The most of them will be consummated as soon as the principals can be brought together.

In most cases differences are so slight as to be easily bridged over by mutual concessions. There has not at any time teen an insurmountable hitch. Brokers have so managed as to keep sellers and buyers on speaking terms, even though they refused to get down to business while the temperature was too high to be touched with a ten-foot pole, if such a thing had been possible. thing had been possible.

A Banker Talks Hopefully of the Situation

Tnesday is the off day of the week in banking Thesday is the off day of the week in banking circles, due to the comparatively light trade on Monday. This rule held good yesterday, when the clearing dropped to $2,422,817 69 against $2,780,710 25 the previous day, which represented Saturday's business. But while a strong position above the $2,000,000 line is maintained, no further evidence need be sought of an encouraging degree of activity for the dullest season of the year. PRICES GQING DOWN.

The Bears Remain on Top-Money Stringency and Fear of Strikes the Cause of the Downward Tendency-Trading in Silver.

NEW YORK, August 19,-There was no material change in the stock market to-day, but the bears remained on top and a slow but steady melting away of quotations throughout the greater portion of the day resulted in some material declines as the outcome of the day's operations. The continued stringency in operations. The continued stringency in money, notwithstanding the afforts of the Secretary to mitigate its severity, is still the great factor in the downward tendency of prices and and the fear of strikes, which is persistently harped on by the bears, gives efficient aid. Silver continues to be the feature of the trading and to-day after touching 121 a drop of 2 cents followed. The bears to-day made a specialty of the strikes and in the downward movement, the Vanderbilts natuarily took the lead, although their final losses are not more than the average of the active list. The rise in silver has carried Mexican Central up, and to-day's reaction was followed by that stock. Lead Trust was strong. The downward movement made steady progress until toward 2 P. M., when there was a fractional reaction. The close was dull and weak at something better than the lowest prices; but the final losses of note include Lake Shore 1%, Sugar 1½, and Lackawanna 1 per cent. The others were confined to fractions. Big Four losing ½, and Atchison, Canada Southern, St. Paul and Northwestern & each.

Ballroad bonds were dull, the total transaononey, notwithstanding the efforts of the Sec-fractions, Big Four losing \(\frac{1}{2} \), and Atchison, Canada Southern, St. Paul and Northwestern \(\mathbb{R} \) acch.

Railroad bonds were dull, the total transactions reaching only \(\frac{4}{2} \), 500, and while there was no feature to the dealings, a few issues scored material declines from their last recorded sales. There could, however, scarcely be said to be any real tone to the market.

Government bonds have been dull and steady. State bonds have been entirely neglected.

The Post says: The volume of speculation in silver bullion certificates continues to be about equal to that in any one of the most active railroad stocks, but the movement of its prices has been steadily upward, while railroad stocks have gone down. It is apparent that the Secretary of the Treasury must continue to buy at the average rate of 160,000 cunces per day, and, as the total stock of silver bullion in this market is probably not above $,000,000 cunces it seems pretty certain that the entire present stock of bullion must go into the Treasury within the next two months. The question is whether the excess of supply over the present stock will be sufficient to meet the constant foreign demand. The experience of the next six weeks, to say October 1, will, however, settle that question and also the question of whether the declared purpose of the new silver law to maintain silver at a parity with gold is practicable.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

Not So Much Doing on the Wharf as There Rivermen's offices were deserted yesterday, and only in exceptional cases could one of them Hivermen's offices were descred yesterday, and only in exceptional cases could one of them be found who was not interested in the moving of the Ohio connecting bridge span, and remained uptown rather than breast the rains to witness the unparalleled engineering feat, and as a result, everything was practically dead in river matters. The excursion boats were on hand and succeeded in drawing a fair-sized crowd in so short a period in which they had to advertise the excursion to Brunot's Island. Indeed towboats were actively engaged in bringing coal out from the upper pool during the day.

A tleast 200,000 bushels were towed down and landed to await a favorable opportunity to continue on to points below. Packet business was pretty lively on the Monongehala river lines during the day.

The river has not risen perceptibly, but it is expected that the heavy rains at the headwaters will swell the streams somewhat. The mark registered 5:11 at 6 P. M., about one inch higher than on the previous day. The Ohio has had more of a rise, on account of rains at Oil City and Parker, the mark showing 210 bellow Davis Island Dam at 6 p. m.

THE Voyager came down with three barges of coal yesterday and laid up at Brown's Landing.

THE Charley Jutte came out from Pool No. 2 yesterday after building material for the Mc-keesport bridge. THE Mayflower, City of Pittsburg, Nellie Hudson and Dart ran excursions to the Ohio connecting bridge yesterday.

THE Nellie Hudson was chartered by the Pennsylvania Ballroad officials to carry them down to witness the bridge span placed in position at Brunot's Island.

THERE is no indication of work being resumed on the Baltimore and Ohlo bridge at Coal Center. The piers have been finished for some time, but after they were completed the project was aban-doned.

The plers have been finished for some time, but after they were completed the project was abandoned.

The new boat to replace the Thomas W. Means will be 150 feet long, 29 feet beam and 5 feet hold. She will have 4 bollers and 18-inch cylinders, with 15 feet stroke. She is now being constructed on the Madison Marine ways.

A BIG JUMP IN WHEAT.

Speculators Predict It Will Go to $1 50 for This Season's Crop.

New York, August 19.—An advance of 4c a bushel was made in wheat to-day. The trading was wild and excited, and the wheat ring was full of rumors of damage to crops both here and abroad. The bulls were confident of their position. and now predict $1 50 a bushel for this crop. Foreign houses covered shorts heavily, and contributed largely to the advance. Local houses were all smitten with the bull fever, and those who were bearish turned to the bull side bulled. TO MEET PROPERTY HOLDERS. lowers Will Hear the Objections About the Haight's Run Sewer. The Board of Viewers will meet to-morrow morning with a committee of five property holders, representing a large number, who are assessed for the big sewer being constructed in Haight's Run. The contract price for the sewer is $53,251 88, A. J. Dunn & Co. having the contract.

The sewer is calculated to drain the principal part of the Nineteenth ward and a part of the Eighteenth, and there are a great part of the Eighteenth, and there are a great many parties assessed. Some think the assessments made by the viewers are too high, and at a meeting of the interested parties a few evenings ago a committee of five members was selected to meet the viewers and endeavor to secure a reduction in the amounts assessed. The board has agreed to meet the committee to-morrow.

The viewers held a meeting yesterday to receive claims for damages by the opening of Lowell street.

There was scarcely a day he did not feel great pain over his eyes. He took cold easily, and every cold would cause such a stuffed-up condition in his nose he could scarcely breathe through it. His appetite was poor, and he had belching of gas from the stomach.

Night sweats weakened him terribly and he lost flesh. In this condition he began treatment with the catarrh specialists on the 9th day of last December; on May 28 he gave the following statement:
