Wood's Rus and East Liberty.

At Wood's Run yards there were 162 head of cattle on the market, 142 of which were from Chicago, Chicago cattle sold at $4 25 to $4 85 per cut, and Ohio from $4 50 to $5. Only one per cut, and Ohio from $4.50 to $5. Only one load, averaging 1,450 hs. and close to prime, brought the outside quotations. There were 432 head of sheep and lambson the market. The range for sheep was 43c to 53c per h. and lambs for 0.65c. There was some demand for hogs, but none were offered. Next week and from that time on there will be a full supply of hogs on the market. Wood's Island markets showed few sirms of activity. The general situation was in favor of buyers.

lavor of buyers. There are 150 loads of cattle on the market at There are 150 loads of cattle on the market at hast Liberty yards this morning, against 109 loads hast Monday, 80 loads the previous week. Asour local trace calls for not more than 80 car-loads, it is evident that with nearly double this number offered, markets would drag, and prices drop. In to-day's offerings there were no primes. The supply was mostly common to fair butcher cattle. Light, tidy buccher beeves, such as our market calls for, were very scarce. Supply was not up to demand. But the heavy run of other grades served to depress markets all along the line, and all grades of cattle were 10 to 20c lower than hast Monday's prices. The range for light butcher beeves was 51 to 4e per 1b. The best heavy cattle on the market sold at $4 25 to $4 40 per cm. The Buyers in Lock.

The Buyers in Luck.

The buyers had the advantage and prospects were good for heavy shipments east in first hands. There were about 300 head of calves on the market. Good light stock ranged from 5@ 6% c per B and heavy from 2%@8%c. The run of sheep and lambs was light, there being about 12 loads on the market. Average quality was below par. Markets opened slow, but last week's prices were maintained. There were 35 loads of bogs on the market and demand was good for all good stock, at a sharp advance on last week's prices. DOCTOR NEW YORK, August 25.—The demand for drygoods continues fair at first hands, orders being chiefly for moderate parcels at a time, but many wants also being supplied by the daily delivery of goods on orders placed ahead. The movement as a whole represents a good business in supplying the repleainshing needs of jobhers, with whom trade is now on its most active stage. The market continues in good shape and under a strong tone. The local jobhing trade was active with the promise of a heavy week, if business is not marked by serious railroad difficulties.
