It is interesting to know that amid all the inducements toward other sports there are always lots of people to attend an honest ericket match. A contest of the good old kind and in the nice old style was played yesterday at Crafton.

There were 22 local cricket players there and a large crowd was present. Chartiers Valley has not been much known in cricket annals so far, but a team of that name, that is the Chartiers Valley eleven won a great match vesterday. There was some good playing. The batting was not heavy, because the bowling was too puzzling. Old ex perts present were of opinion that there is bet er cricket playing now in Pittsburg than there has been for many years, and probably at any Jeannette Turns Out With Other Towns to Hold a Labor Parade.

WORKINGMEN TO THE FRONT. General Observance of the Holiday in Neighboring Cities.

TELEGRAMS FROM THREE STATES

SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. JEANNETTE, PA., September 1 .- The lass city of Jeannette, just two years old, has had its first red-letter day. Thousands of people visited the town to witness its Labor Day demonstration, and the throng literally packed the streets.

The people of the town, made up principally of persons interested in glass making, had made every preparation for the event. The merchants, whose liberality has never been questioned, gave freely to the cause, and as a consequence, the entire town was magnificently decorated. Arches spanned the streets, and the national colors waved above the prominent buildings.

ON HAND EARLY.

The crowds began to arrive early, and at 9 o'clock the procession was formed on Third street. The line of march covered North and West Jeannette and the principal streets of the town proper. The visiting orders and unions were given the right of position, Among them the glass blowers and carpenters' unions and secret orders, and laborunions from Pittsburg, secret orders, and labor unions from Pittsburg, Greensburg, Braddock and other places were in line. Next in order came the glass industries' division, comprising the workers of the Chambers, McKee Glass Company, and the McKee Bros. Then the buildings' division, comprising the carreenters, bricklavers, plasterer painters and stonemasons. The flint glass workers' division was headed by the Select Knights' Band, of Pittsburg, and the McKee Bros. by the Jeanette Band. The Junion Order United American Mechanics made a most excellent showing. The Jeannette baseball team and lawn tennis club followed in the rear. Every industry in the neighborhood was well repreindustry in the neighborhood was well repre-sented, the industrial display being of the first order, and well merited the compliments of the

At 10 o'clock the procession halted on a beautifully shaded knoll above the railroad depot, where a platform had been erected. Here Chief Marshal W. H. Slicker ordered a halt, and the speakers of the day were introduced, among them being popular Controller Morrow, of Pittsburg; ex-Governor Latta, of Greensburg; Allen Hammet, Treasurer of L. A. 300, and George A. Cake, Secretary of the Window Glass Association.

LOTS OF ORATORY. Each speaker occupied a half hour of pleas ant talk, and, at the conclusion of the speaking, the Reception Committee conducted the speak-ers to the Hotel Marion, where they were ers to the Hotel Marion, where they were royally entertained. The members of the Reception Committee were Burgess Gase, G. E. Moore, Manager of the C. & M. Window Works; E. M. Seitz, General Manager of the Westmoreland Land Company; John Curran, W. J. Heintzman, Captain J. A. Seitz, C. W. Doty, H. B. Patten and M. Davis,
In the afternoon a grand concert was tendered by the Select Knights of Pittsburg Band from the balcony of the botel. A game of ball at a later hour between the local team and a club from Derry attracted hundreds of people. In the evening a piculic given by the Carpenters' Union and a display of fireworks ended one of the most successful demonstrations ever held in Westmoreland county. The Committee of Arrangements, among whom were the first business men of the town, spared neither time nor money to make the first celebration of this lively town a success, and this was the case to the most flattering extent. Good order prevalled everywhere.

CELEBRATIONS IN OTHER TOWNS. MCKEESPORT-Fully 4,000 people enjoyed the day away from this city. The largest part of the crowd went to Pittsburg, while at least of the crowd went to Pittsburg, while at least 1,200 went to Davis Island dam to attend the excursion of St. Peter's Catholic Church, while as many more went to Duquesne to attend the annual reunion of the First M. E. Church, of this city. The Federation of Labor, about 1,000 strong, went to Aliquippa to attend their picnic. Many of the business houses remained open, but numerous manufactories closed.

WABREN—Labor Day was appropriately observed in Warren to-day. D. M. Dewey, of Washington, was oratof. There was a large turnout in the parade, which was headed by hands. After the oration the crowd enjoyed a turnout in the parade, which was headed by hands. After the oration the crowd enjoyed a clambake. This was the first labor demonstration in Warren and it was a pronounced success. The town was elaborately decorated and business was generally suspended.

MANSFIELD VALLEY—Work was suspended to-day at all the factories in this vicinity, except the Pennsylvania Lead Works. The men were out celebrating Labor Day. Thousands went to Pittsburg, while many spent the day hunting in the woods. Game is plenty a few miles back in the country and the slaughter of squirrels to-day was something terrible.

THE LONGEST PARADE. Mr. PLEASANT-Labor Day was celebrated here to-day with the longest parade in the town's history. The displays of the merchant were the finest ever seen in this county, and were the finest ever seen in this county, and the laboring men turned out in full force. The town was gaily decorated with arches, flags, and bunting. In the afternoon addresses were made by Percy F. Smith, publisher of The Pennsylvania Grocer, of Pittsburg, Curtis H. Greec, Esq., of Greensburg, and others. The pleasant affair drew some 10,000 people to the town. ERIE—Labor Day was celebrated generally bere to-day, and was more of a boliday than the Fourth of July, owing to the fact that ther Fourth of July, owing to the fact that there is not a trade in the city that has not a thrifty union. President Samuel Gompers, of the Federation, addressed the ma-s meeting. The Farmers' Alliance and the Probibition candidates for Congress also addressed the meeting. Gompers urged the labor organiza-tions of Erie to make a movement for nine hours' labor per day. The celebration exceed-ed all former attempts as a whole in size and success. BEAVER FALLS,—At an early hour this morning one of the most important labor demonstra-tions ever held in the Beaver Valley took place. The different organizations paraded the prin-cipal streets of Beaver Falls and New Brighton and afterwards took the train for Rock Point to attend a picnic. It is estimated that 7,000 people were on the grounds. No accidents. UNVEILING A MONUMENT.

SCOTTDALE-At the Labor Day celebration here a beautiful monument to the memory of the late William Mullen was unveiled in the Catholic Cemetery, Rev. M. A. Lambing made Catholic Cemetery, Rev. M. A. Lambing made the address.
COLUMBUS—Labor Day was celebrated by a big parade, in which all trades were represented. All manufactories were closed down, Samuel Lutz, of Circleville, O., aged 102, a veteran of the war of 1812, died to-day.
FINDLAY—Organized labor made a grand demonstration here to-day. A large parade, picnic and mass meeting were the features.
LIMM—After a long procession, many different games were played incuding wheelbarrow races, foot races and other athletic sports.
ZANESVILLE—Labor day was celebrated here by an immense parade, Mayor Courade delivered an address of welcome which was responded to by W. H. Langhead, President of the Trades Council.

Pall Term Promises to Exceed All Forme Years. For the past three days all the faculty have been pressed into service to take care of the crowds of students and patrons who are looking up the school work for the coming year. The registration of new students already is more than three times the number ever registered before the opening day in the history of the school, while the class of students is more advanced and the terms of tuition run longer than usual many entering for the four years' classical or scientific, and the three years' mechanical The Shorthand Department, however, is far in the lead, demonstrating again how the thorough work done here is being appreciated. The members of the faculty of Curry University stand pre-eminently at the head of their special professions; hence the largely increased patronage which the institution enjoys. A prominent feature in the coming year's work is the through course of training in the common school English branches that has been arranged, including only such studies as may be selected for the boys and girls from 12 years old upward.

A three years' course here for a boy of 12 or 14 is made worth as much to him as five years in any ordinary common school work. This is why the English training school a Curry University is so liberally patronized by our best lamilies. The teachers give the students individual attention as well as the regular class work, enabling each one to make the most rapid progress possible.

The new catalogue, giving full outlines of all the departments, will be mailed free to intending patrons upon application.

THE PRESIDENT EXPECTED SOON

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CRESSON SPRINGS. September 1 .- To-day the weather, delightful and so moderate, compared with Sunday, enlivened things up a little at the Mountain House. Long walks were indulged in by many, and in the afternoon Mrs. Halford took Mrs. McKee in her phaeton. They went the beautiful road to the summit, and spent nearly the entire afternoon on the top of the mountain. In the meantime, the little ones from the Park cottage, were enjoying themselves too, for at the invitation of Mrs. Charles Donnelly, of Pittsburg, they also went driving. The children with their nurses, and little Nanna Donnelly, filled the drag, and with a good deal of shouting and laughter, they drove away from the hotel about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. This morning Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Dimmick spen the time in the partor, where Stahl was playing one of his most classical programmes, and they with the others enthusiastically applauded several exceedingly brilliant per formances by the orchestra. AMUSEMENT FOR THE CHILDREN.

AMUSEMENT FOR THE CHILDREN.

After awhile Mrs. McKee's little ichildren and Marthena Harrison were brought by themselves into the parlor, where they listened with as much pleasure as the elders. Baby McKee is very fond of the Cresson Springs, the famous cold water spring being only a few perches from the Park cottage, and when the little fellow is missing he is sure to be found there. It is only by careful watching that he is prevented from jumping into it, for he cannot imagine why, when he played in the water at Cape May, he shouldn't do the same at Cresson.

Cape May, he shouldn't do the same at Cresson.

It is usual to have a dance every evening in the parlor, in which the smaller children are allowed to participate until 9 o'clock, when they give way to the young girls and ladies. This evening, as Mrs. harrison was expected in the parlor, the ladies appeared in smarter frocks than usual. Ordinarily the parlor is left to the cottagers, and now with the hotel almost empty it is given over to them entirely, while the few guests remaining stop in their promenades, gather round the window and watch the gayety within. The parlor is a large room, 150 by 50 feet, and to-night the floor was covered with little children, a few young girls, fewer young ladies and a gentleman or two. Mrs. Harrison sat at the southern end of the hall, with Mrs. Halford on one side and Mrs. Russell Harrison on the other. Mrs. McKee, with a child at each hand, moved in and out among the guests and chatted with all, while her two children soon had an admiring little court around them.

DANCING IN THE PARLOR. DANCING IN THE PARLOR. Several dances were arranged, in which th ladies took part with the children, and it was amusing to see a woman of quite a dowager appearance whirling some littletmite of a child. Mrs. Park Painter, who gets up more delightful Germans than any woman in Pittsburg, and who consequently is adored for it, took turns with half a dozen little onea. Mrs. James Chambers, looking extremely pretty, danced a gay schottische with a tiny child, and Mrs. Harry Darlingtop and Mrs. Hyron Painter were partners in a waltz. Other dancers were Mrs. J. O. Horne, Miss Ruth Bally, Miss Twilla Forsythe, Miss Ricketson, Mrs. Laughlin, beside numerous little ones of the Painters, Chambers and Carnegie households. When the dance was over the Presidental party returned to the Park cottage, where they spent a couple of hours with George W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and Mrs. Boyd. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd leave this evening at midnight for the East.

The President is expected some time this week and Mr. Russell Harrison may be here any day now. There is every likelihood that the President and his family will remain all of this month at Cresson and perhaps part of October. According to Mr. Boyd, Cresson will be quite convenient for the transaction of the President's official business. The United States

DEMOCRATIC TRATORY The Grover Cleveland Society Holds

Meeting in Lawrenceville, The Grover Cleveland Society of Allegheny county met last evening in Lawrenceville. President Bellman stated he had received 5,000 copies of a New York paper containing an interview with ex-Governor Pattison on the State issues, which would be distributed among the mill men.

The delegates elected to attend the meeting of Democratic societies in Reading, Sep-tember 18, were 'Squire Handel, ex-Postmaster J. B. Larkin, S. L. Bellman, M. F. Burke and S. M. Houston. J. C. Miller, Esq., was present and delivered an interesting address on "State Is-

RELIEVING THE POOR.

What Private Contributors and Willing Hands Are Doing. The semi-monthly report of the Society for the Improvement of the Poor shows there were ten new applicants, 446 families visited and 684 visits made for the poor Situations were obtained for 13, days' work for 29. There were distributed 420 loaves of bread, 173 pounds of rice, 134 pounds of ost-meal, 234 bars of soap, 81 pints of beef tea, 28 pints of mutten broth, 299 pints of milk, 45 nounds of tea, 150 pounds of sugar, 203 grocery orders, 250 bushels of coal, 150 gar-ments, eight pairs of shoes and four hats. The association received through Mrs. D. A. Stewart for the fresh air fund $189, $76 being the proceeds of a fair held at Cresson. The managers of the society wish to return thanks for the generous contribution.

WINDOW MEN MAKE DENIALS.

Another Meeting of Manufacturers to be Held in Chicago. James A. Chambers, William Loeffler and other local window glass men went to Chicago last evening, to attend the meeting of manufacturers there to-day. Messrs. Chambers and Loeffler again emphatically denied the story that the window glass makers were forming a company to sell the output of all the factories in the deal at a uniform price.

However, part of the proceedings at the coming meeting, it is stated, is to receive the report of the committee that met a week ago at the Monongahela House to formulate the plans. It is understood prices will be put up 10 per cent if the company is formed.

A LIVELY WAR OF WORDS.

The Merry-Go-Round Hotly Discussed the Allegheny Police Committee. The Allegheny Police Committee last night approved of the pay roll and the Mayor's report. Then Chairman Speer asked to have the merny-go-round at the loot of Federal street removed, on the ground that it was a nuisance. A lively fight between Chairman Speer and James Hunter resulted, and the matter was turned over to the Whart Committee. Mr. Jackson, the proprietor, stoutly protests that his machine esn't draw tough crowds. Charges were pref rred against Lieuten-ant Alexander and the matter was referred to the Mayor. The Mayor will also investigate the charges against Lieutenant Buck-ley. The hearing will come off next week. Committles to Meet. The Committee on Public Works and the committee on the Neeb-Rutan Senatorial contest will meet this afternoon at City Hall, the former at 3 and the latter at 3:30

NOT ALL PEACE IN THE RANKS.

Despite Victories in South Carolina Alliance Men Continue Fighting. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CHARLESTON, S. C., September 1 .- The

anexpected de:eat of the Alliance candidate for Congress in the Third district has greatly delighted the straightout Democrats who have been so heavily set down upon thus far by the Alliance, headed by Moses Tillman, D. K. Norris was a prominent official of the State Alliance and had its indorsement. He pledged him self to stand by the sub-treasury bill and answered all the other questions of the catechism. There were, however, a half-dozen straightouts in the race and the first primary left Norris in the lead, with George D. Johnstone next, neither having a majority of the voters in the district. The straightouts have all along asserted that Tillman got the lead in the race for Governor by capturing the Democratic party machinery and still say that with a primary election they can beat him for Governor. They say the election in the Third district proves that they were right.

Although the alliance have virtually got the Governor and the Legislature, things the Governor and the Legislature, things are not very peaceful in the ranks. There are several Gongressional fights on hand. In the Second W. J. Tolbert, State Secretary of the Alliance, is opposing Congressman Tillman, while in the Fifth there is a regular family fight between three alliance candidates and several straightouts, which may result as did the fight in the Third. In the Fourth district, Hemphill, the incumbent, will probably be re-elected, while in the Sixth. E. T. Stackhouse, of the while in the Sixth, E. T. Stackhouse, of the Alliance, has no opposition. It is a curious fact that, although their white brethren are head over ears in politics, the colored Alli-ance has taken absolutely no part in the Congress fight.

KREPING THE NATIVES QUIET.

An English Ship Arrests a Chief and French Vessel Shells a Town. PRPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SAN FRANCISCO, September 1 .- Her Majesty's ship Royalist returned on July 22 to Sydney from a cruise to the islands of the New Hebrides group, after an eventful voy age. On May 18 she struck upon as unknown reef off the east coast of Malli collo Island. Divers were sent down, and found that a portion of her false keel had been knocked off. Calling at Aure Island, the Royalist captured a chief named Tappea, who had kidnaped a woman and has endeavored to incite a friendly chief to join him and kill and rol an English trader in that island. Tappea was the man who caused the murder of the boats's crew of the French trading schooner Idaho some two years ago. He was handed over to French authorities and the commission sentenced him to 15 years' imprisonment. Seven years ago this man Tappea killed and ate the mate of a At Aoba the French war ship Sacene, af At Aoba the French war ship Sacene, after inquiring into the murder of the trader, Mr. Mercier, shelled the village. The man was a well established store-keeper at Aoba, and was tomahawked while purchasing copera from natives. The Royalist proceeded to the west coast of Santo Island. The natives there were found to be fairly quiet.

CORONER M'DOWELL LABORED. Joseph Brittain's Death Resulted From at

Overdose of Morphine. In the case of Joseph Brittain, who was found dead in bed at the Hotel Boyer Sunday, the Coroner's jury yesterday rendered a verdict to the effect that death resulted from an overdose of morphine. Death from natural causes was the verdict in Violet Grant's case. Accidental drowning it was found caused Charles Meyers' death. Conductor Campbell and Engineer Gerber, of the Pittsburg and Western Railroad, were found guilty of gross criminal negligence for disobeying orders, which caused the wreck on that road near Junction, August 26, resulting in the death of Henry Anchor. The District Attorney has charge of this case now and will look for Campbell and Gerber.

TO CONTINUE THE INQUEST. Coronor McDowell Will Further Investigate the Baltimore and Ohio Wreck. Coroner McDowell will continue the 'inquest at 2 o'clock this afternoon on the bodies of "Yank" Sullivan, H. W. Hersha and Mr. Goodwin, killed in the Baltimore and Ohio wreck, near Osceola station several weeks ago.

The Coroner is of the opinion that the crossties were placed on the track by some persons for the purpose of wrecking the train and robbing the passengers they supposed would be injured. As the latter part of the arrangement missed fire, he thinks the wreckers abandoned the job, when they saw there were no injured persons to assist

THOMAS MORGAN'S BODY FOUND.

His Wife Walting for Him, and His Remains Lying at the Morgue. The efficiency and necessity of a public norgue was shown again yesterday. The unknown man found on the Allegheny Valley Railroad Sunday morning was identified as Thomas E. Morgan, who has been missing from his home on Penn avenue since Friday last.

The body was identified by Morgan's wi e, who notified the police bureau o her husband's disappearance. She had been lamenting his sudden separture, and yesterday was advised to visit the morgue. She did so and was surprised to fine the only body there that of her husband. If the morgue was not in existence the man would have been buried as an unknown and nothng ever known of Morgan's sad death.
