But that is not all. The real beauties of Panteer hollow can only now be seen at the risk of one's neck. The new road will have platforms crected at short distances along the coute, where people can get off and wander through the dark places of the gorge, and for their accommodation steps leading up to the brow of the bluff will be erected. The cost of the road proper, by either the Boquet or Boundary street entrance, it is calculated, will be about $150,000. If the bridge is crected from Oakland avenue the cost will be increased $25,000. The latter is the shortest route, and undeniably the most picturesque. At present it is looked upon as the most favorable one by the persons interested in the scheme. Beyond this addition to its wonders, the park is to be made the greatest in America. Conservatories are to be built, fountains and lakes will be constructed, the zoological gardens will soon cease to be a joke, and will assume the proportions of a wonder.

A SCENE OF BEAUTY.

The place will be made one scene of beauty, and with its fairylike underground entrance it will be the greatest park in the world.

There is also just now great activity on the part of the Squirrel Hill Electric Street Railway Company. An army of men is at of the neighborhood against the place for work on the grading. The bridges are several days, being constructed, and one span of the iron work is almost completed. Contractor Me-Kibben was out looking over the work himself yesterday. He thinks the road has a bright future. He said: "We have our rights clear now, and the road will be built as fast as possible. The Pittsburg Traction Company does not own this road. At least at noon to-day it did not. The road has not been offered to that corporation, but, of course, it can be bought. Already $90,000 have been expended on it, and if I had the money, I would like to buy it in at twice that figure. Our line runs through one corner of Schenley Park, and therefore the route has a greater value. It would be impossible to menre such franchise as we hold now. Our line runs right under the Carnegie Library site, which adds another feature of value t Yes, the road would be a bargain at $180,000.

THREE-CENT FARES SOON.

In this connection it should be stated that the prospect for 3-cent fares is brighter now than ever before. The directors of the Pittsburg Traction road met at the Washington street power house yesterday and passed a resolution empowering Presi-dent George W. Elkius to reduce the fare to 3 cents when he thought it was necessary. Mr. P. A. B. Widener left a ter under the impression last evening s would be done as soon as the Due Traction begins operations. He took ane opportunity to deny that his road would be sold out to the Duquespe, and that there was no truth in the report that the Pittsburg Traction was in a scheme to consolidate all the street roads in the city. They had inspected the road, and would leave for Chicago this

The names of those in the party appeared in THE DISPATCH of yesterday. Ex-Sec retary Whitney was expected, but he in ill, and without him the faithful Dan Lajoint would not put in appearance. The gentlemen in the syndicate are thinking of cutting the fares in Chicago to three cents.

At the second sale of lots at Charleroi, yesterday, $35,000 worth were sold, and about $15,000 changed hands on the outside. The company has decided to build 200 houses on the Lill for their workmen. The building operations will soon be commenced.

Jennie, it seems, goes to every colored picnic, and has the good fortune to get into a row at every one. W. T. Stinson, one of the managers of the

A MIDNIGHT RAID.

Officers Break Up a Quiet Game of Poker on Berron Avenue. About midnight last night Inspector Mc-Aleese and Detective Coulson raided a poker room at 86 Herron avenue, kept by James Irwin and James H. Walker, two gripmen on the Central traction road. The proprietors and one visitor were arrested and locked up in the Central station. A game was in progress when the officers entered the place and the entire paraphernalia was confiscated.
