CLOSING THE DEAL.

Blind Institute Managers Will Have a House by To-Morrow.

WHY THEY ARE IN A HURRY.

News From Mrs. Schenley, About the Site,

Expected in a Few Days.

MANAGERS SAY THERE IS NO TROUBLE

The Executive Committee of the Western Pennsylvania Institute for the Blind will hold a meeting to-morrow afternoon for the purpose of closing up the negotiations for a house in which the blind school will be started. It will not be the Miller homesterd, on Center avenue, but will be a better house which the committee has secured much cheaper. There is no trouble at present in the board, it is positively affirmed, and the managers expect to get something definite about the site from Mrs. Schenley in a few

The statement that Dr. John Campbell, of London, was coming to Pittsburg, to act as peacemaker in the board, was denied yesterday by several of the managers, who claim that the report comes from a man outside the organization who is trying to cause trouble. Dr. Campbell wrote a letter to him stating that he would be in Pittsburg shortly, and it is stated the gentleman who received it misconstrued the object of the doctor's visit. Dr. Campbell has been a regular visitor to America every fall for a number of years, and comes to this country looking for new ideas and features for his school in London. He visits all the blind asylums in the Eastern and Middle States, and last year stopped over in Pittsburg. He will do the same this year to see how the Murphy out, got himself into trouble. He said

The managers spoken to yesterday would not say where the school building was to be located, as they have not closed the deal, and will not do so until to-morrow. The several houses offered have narrowed down to one, and the Executive Committee has concluded to take it. It will be about 25 minutes' ride from the postoffice, on the line of a street railway, and it is supposed the house is in the East End. The committee has desided to real way, and it is supposed the house is in the East End. The committee has desided to real way, and it is supposed the house is in the East End. The committee has desided to real way, and it is supposed the house is in the East End. The committee has desided to real way, and it is supposed the house is in the East End. The committee has desided to real way and it has well as the control of the was made by the County Detective, and Thompson was indicted. At the trial, yesterday, Thompson was not say where the school building was to be house is in the East End. The committee has decided to rent it only, and the work of fitting it up with the necessary furniture will begin on Monday or Tuesday.

It is certain that everything will be in shape and the school opened on October 1. A teacher has already been engaged, and the managers have six or seven pupils waiting to be enrolled. Anyone knowing of any blind children is requested to com-municate to the managers of the institute so as to enable them to have some idea how many they may expect.

Some of the managers wanted to delay doing anything until they heard from Mrs. Schenley about the site for the institute. A conference was held with Messrs. Scott and Schover, of the State Board of Charities, who informed the board that if the school expected any State appropriation it would better to begin doing business before the little show of getting any State aid. The Legislature will meet in January next, and if the school is on the list recommended by the Board of Charities, it will without a doubt get the appropriation of $300 for each blind pupil enrolled in the school. As stated in THE DISPATCH several months

FUNDS IN SIGHT.

The institute has about $70,000 now on hand. It received $40,000 from the Jane Holmes estate and $30,000 from private subscriptions. The managers say that when they get their site and are ready to build they will get all the money they need. Several of the directors who have contributed hundreds of dollars say they will double the amount when the money is needed. This shows, they assert that there is no friction of any kind, and there hasn't been any since one of the termer directors wanted to hold two positions at the same time, which was contrary to law.

The Board of Directors hoped that Chief Bigelow, of the Department of Public Works, has some good news about the site, but as yet they have heard nothing from Mr. Bigelow. There is no question at all but the ground to be given by Mrs. Schenley will be back of the Bellefield Church, on Bellefield avenue, Oakland. This is the site Chief Bigelow favored, and will not interfere in any way with the entrance to the park, as it will be on the other side of

He was after-ward heard to say that he had another wife and two children in New Orleans. The parties lived in the Ninth ward. Suits for divorce on the ground of desortion were entered yesterday by Anna Hunt against George E. Hunt and Mary Stevens against Alfred Stevens.

Suit Against a Policeman.

Thomas Quinn yesterday entered suit against Police Officer Edward Cross, for $2,000 damages, for false arrest. He stated that on August 27 he was at the house of Mary Water, his sister, in the rear of No. 79 Washington street. As he was leaving, Officer Cross, without warrant or cause, arrested him. He took Quinn to the Eleventh ward station, where, at the hearing, next morning he was fined $5 and costs by Magistrate Hyndman.
