THE DUQUESNE.

Although but a few weeks before the public, this superb Derby has already secured a prodigious hold on the public, and one which by virtue of its manifold merits, it certainly deserves. This week we have added a large shape of this popular hat, the dimensions of which are specially adapted for portly people, or those having large and prominent features. Notwithstanding the extra cost of production of the Duquesne, we are still selling them at our famous and unrivaled factory prices, which means a saving of fully 30 per cent on every purchase.

Three rigs are being erected on the Stewart and there will be as many new wells drilling there PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

BUTLEE, September 9 .- Hope and interinside of a week.

Hanna brothers' well on Shawnee Run, has a show of oil at a cepth of 1,400 feet, and is still drilling. It is thought they are not deep enough for the Eureka sand. It is reported that operations will be resumed at once on the Bills place above here, and that there will be one or more wells drilled to the Eureka sand, in horses of finding something there. est have again been revived in the old pool, and are apparently well founded. The glory of this once famous pool has long since been relegated almost to oblivion, but the advent of Christie & Crosby's well on the Absalom Monks farm is but history repeating itself. It also goes a good way in confirming the theory of or more wells drilled to the Eureka sand, in hopes of finding something there.

The Kelly Farm Oil Company will begin drilling in a few days. There is a rig upon the land of J. Reynolds, on Freuch creek, near the end of Laurel Point. This is three miles southwest of Belmont.

Barnesdale & Doyle have brought in two good wells below Belmont, one on the County farm and the other on the Corbitt. The County farm well has been shot, and will make 150 barrels. The Corbitt has not been drilled through the sand, but is making 180 to 200 barrels natural. These wells extend the field to within a short distance of the town of Eureka, on the rivet. some practical operators that there is a connection between the old Gould pool and the Saxonburg field. Of this theory Christie & Crosby have always been stanch adherents, and have spent their money drilling on this line. The well is located on the northwest corner of the Monks farm, Various Ventures. Mellon & Co., on the Cassidy farm, are down 1,400 feet. This well is located between Coraopolis developments and Finegan & Downing's well on the Cooper farm. Phillips & Co. are also starting a well 1½ miles southwest from the Cooper farm well. The Orion Oil Company, on the Mrs. Logan farm, are building a rig located 40 rods west from Cooper No. 1.

BRUSH CREEK—Ackerly & Sammell are criterion, deeper drilling will most likely make a great improvement in its production, as the Dr. Ackerman, Prof. Arbenz, Charles Menke the sand. Should this fact hold good in the meller, J. E. Ratcliffe, of Wellsburg; Dr. present new strike it will not be surprising to see a well of no small proportions.

The strike has stimulated considerable new work, and a repetition of the palmy days of the Gould excitement is not at all impossible. Millison & Co., in the immediate locality of the new venture, have located two wells, one on the Martin alonks farm, 300 feet northwest from the recent strike, and the other on the Absalom Monks farm, 800 feet east of the well. The Chartiers Oil Company will also begin operations immediately, on the Robert Jack farm, about 2,000 feet southeast from the Christie & Crosby well. present new strike it will not be surprising to Caldwell, Joseph Mills, of Belmont; William Galdwell, Joseph Mills, of Belmont, William Koehnline, of Bridgeport, and Dr. Gasmire, met at the latter's office and organized the Gasmire Oil and Gas Company. Paid up stock $4,000, with privilege of increasing it to $200,000. A charter will be applied for at once. This company has 1,000 acres in the extension of the Mackburg field. It is good territory.

DISCRIMINATION IS CHARGED.

The Pennsylvania Wins a Partial Victory n Suit Brought by Refiners. The Fisher Oil Company's well, which struck PREDICTAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR.1
BRADFORD, September 9.—In 1887 Logan, the sand Saturday on the John Jack farm, is now making 100 barrels a day, and is only five or six feet in the sand. The boiler was Emery & Weaver, partners, owning and operating an oil refinery near Philadelphia, brought suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to recover alleged overcharges in shipping crude oil from the Pennsylvania oil regions to the refinery mentioned. They also claimed damages for discriminations against them, alleging they were charged more than others were for shipping crude oil the same distance. The declaration filed by the plaintiffs contained two counts, the first claiming damages in the sum of $167,120 70, the amount they paid more than favored shippers from the year 1881 to 1887, inclusive. The second count claims a penalty of $221,262 10 under the act of June 4, 1883, which provides that any carrier discriminating in freight rates shall pay treble the amount of damages incurred. moved yesterday, drilling was resumed to-day, and by the time this report is spread before and by the time this report is spread before THE DISPATCH readers the well will be doing its best, providing no backset occurs in drilling in. This well is located between the old Millison & Co. wells, on the William Jack farm, and Christie & Crosby's No. 1, Monk well, and is 2,000 feet from the first named and 1,500 feet from the latter. To-day the Chartlers Oil Company also brought in a new well on the Cramer farm, located in the old Gould pool. The farm, located in the old Gould pool. The sand was tapped about 11 o'clock, and when THE DISPATCH men left the well, shortly after, it had filled up 100 feet with oil. The well is how being drilled in, and by to-morrow its cali-ber will be pretty fully determined. On the Macher farm, one-half mile east from the old Gould wells, Dickson, Millison & Co. are drill-ing a well at 1,100 feet. The venture is regarded as important and the result will be watched From the time the suit was instituted the case has attracted unusual interest, from the fact that it is the first case tried under this presiding. On the defendant's motion, requesting that the plaintiffs specify the count on which they were to proceed, the Court's decision was in favor of the railroad company, and $214,000 was thereby chopped off. The claim for treble damages was made by Emery, Lozan and Weaver. This limits the claim for damages on account of discriminations by the railroad company to $107,000, and this was further reduced by the evidence of Mr. Arnold, that the plaintiffs had received 7 cents a barrel rebate on $38,811 barrels of oil shipped over the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Three important witnesses—President Roberts, of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. C. Downing, Coutroller, and an efficial named Greencourt were absent, and attachments were issued for them. A deputy sheriff repaired to Philadelphia to bring them before the court. Owing to the illness of one of the jurors a new jury was impaneled and sworn in this morning. The case was ther opened for the plaintiffs by Roger Sherman, and the hearing of evidence began. Haslett, Reed & Co, tapped the first pay SHANNOPIN—Last night lightning struck two tunks, containing about 150 barrels of oil, at well No. 24, on the Morrow farm, belonging to James Amm & Co.; loss about $550. P. M. Shannon, on the Thompson farm, has No. 11 rig ready to start drilling, and will start the drill in No. 13, J. P. McConnell, to-morrow. Mr. Shannon is also building No. 10 rig, Purdy farm, and No. 11, J. P. McConnell, is down 1,200 feet. Last week he finished a good gas well on the Robb farm, and is now piping the gas to Chiswell for fuel. This was a lucky strike and greatly increases the value of his Shannopin property. THE EVERETT PIANO At the Exposition One of the most attractive displays at the Exposition is located at the lower end of the main building, where the Everett painos, in a great variety of styles and fancy woods, are displayed. The stand is handsomely decorated with plants and evergreens, and some of the most beautiful pinnos ever shown in this city make up the display. It is a revelation to lovers of the beautiful in art. These magnificent instruments, some in rosewood, in mahogony, fancy walnut, antique oak and ebony cases in richly carved designs. It is worth the price of admission to see these pianos and listen to the rich musical quality of tone produced by them. The exhibit is in charge of Prof. W.

S. Weeden, and visitors will receive a cor-dial welcome and find a delightful place to rest a few moments.

The Everett Club piano this week goes to little Harry Markley, 112 Pennsylvania avenue, Allegheny, on payments of $1 per week. The list for second club is almost complete. Man Who "Knows How to Keep Hotel," and What He Has to Say-A Timely Suggestion for the Ladies. The Astor House, New York, has been noted America; indeed it was the pride of John Jacob Astor, who personally superintended its erection. That it is conducted in the finest manner there can be no doubt. The chief steward, Mr. Thomas L. Allen, recently made the following utspoken statement: "As chief steward of the Astor House, New York, I have had used in our hotel Thepure' Baking Powder. It makes lighter, sweeter and more palatable bread and cakes than anything

I have ever tried, and it is superior to anything in the market that I know of. I can't be

Such a statement, and from such a source, shows beyond question the great value to all housekeepers of "Thepure" Baking Powder, which, although a new powder, has become so popular. If it is indispensable in a hotel where the most delicate pastry and choicest dishes are produced, does it not stand to reason that the same results can be secured in the home by the use of the same pure powder? Would it not be well to try it? The household cook will fully appreciate its greater value the first time she makes use of it. The chefs of the prominent hotels all speak in the highest terms of it and use it in preference to any other. Ladies prominent in society have indorsed its excellence with their names. If you are in doubt as to which is the best Baking Powder, or if what you are using now does not give entire satisfaction, try "Thepure."

Developments in Forest County. FOREST COUNTY-P. M. Shannon, of Pitts burg, and A. B. Kelly, banker, of Tionesta, are the fortunate owners of 11,000 acres of the Collins lands in Forest county. These gentlemen have always had great faith in this territory, for both oil and gas, and have expended considerable money in its development. They have drilled three fair gas wells, which show a pressure of from 200 to 20 nounds, which comes from the Clarion sand. Unknown parties hast week completed a 46-baarrel well on the Beck farm, Whig Hill district, which joins their land on the east, and is located only 80 rods from this line. They feel much elated over this unexpected strike and the prospect it gives them in future developments. They will soon begin operations again, and lelisurely test their immense possessions. A SCROFULOUS BOY Running Seres Covered His Body and Head. Bones Affected. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

When six months old, the left hand of our little grandchild began to swell, and had every appearance of a large boil. We poulticed it, but all to no purpose. About five months after it became a running sore. Soon other sores formed. He then had two of them on each hand, and as his blood became more and more impure, it took less time for them to break out. A sore came on the chin, beneath the under lin, which was very offensive. His head was one solid scab, discharging a great deal. This was his condition at twenty-two months old, when I un-

Hils head was one soint scan, discharging a great deal. This was his condition at twenty-two months old, when I undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was a little more than a vear old of consumption (scrofula of course.) He could waik a little, but could not ret up if he fell down, and could not move when in bed, having no use of his hands. I immediately commenced with the Curcura Remapias, using all freely. One sore after another heated, a bony matter forming in each one of these five deep ones just before healing, which would finally grow loose and were taken out; then they would heat rapidly. One of these ugly bone formations I preserved. After taking, a dozen and a half bottles he was completely cured, and is now, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child.
