rested. After going to jail Shanley sent Mr. Schneider, with the hope of settling the matter up, but it was too late when Mr. Schneider appeared at the jail, and he failed to get an interview. It is claimed that at least 20 and probably 50 people were taken in on Snanley's scheme and he secured about $4,000 in Pittsburg and vicinity. His opperations took in Obio as well, and it is thought that he also secured large amounts there.

Mr. Schneider has the case of the Beigians who trusted their cash to Shaney in his care. Beside Alfred George, who s a Southside glassblower, there are Victor Vislett, of Jeannette; Julius Quertinmot, of Fostorin; Mrs. Cornell, of Jeannette, and many others. All those who had any deallogs with Shanley have been sent for and will appear against him. Shanley has em-ployed L. K. Porter as his attorney. The hearing is set for Wednesday.
