TWO CITIES, OR ONE.

A Vote on the Consolidation of Pittsburg and Allegheny

AT THE EXPOSITION LAST NIGHT.

The Result Would Indicate a Sentiment for Closer Relations.

COMING PEATURES AT THE POINT SHOW

The voting at THE DISPATCH headquarters yesterday forcibly illustrated the divergence of opinion in regard to the consolidation of the cities of Pittsburg and Allegheny, However, if the result of the balloting is a trrue criterion of the drift of public opinion-and from the way it was conducted such would seem to be case—the masses are in favor of the two cities joining hands and fortunes.

The wording of the question was, "Are you in favor of the consolidation of the cities of Pittsburg and Allegheny?" Comparatively few visitors were in attendance at the Exposition in the afternoon, and the evening crowd was not as large as usual, so that the vote in numbers was not large, but represented all classes. To glance at the poll-books after the voting was over, or even count the ayes and noes would not give a true result. There were 133 votes cast in all, 78 ayes and 55 ALLEGRENIANS FAVOR CONSOLIDATION. Of the Allegheny residents whose names were on the poll-books, 26 voted aye and 10 From these figures it will be seen that the ayes

totals would show the drift of opinion in Pittsburg, Allegbeny and outside cities to be in fa-Among the affirmative reasons given were, "It would make it a more business center and more popular." "Centralize the population under one management." "The two would make one city which would represent the population better." "Because in union there is strength." "Yes, as soon as Pittsburg reduces

"There would not be enough naps to be distributed—therefore the boys valid not be kept so well in harness:" "The foration of such large cities invariably leads to struption in the city government. Witness he government of our large cities."

He Has Passed His 93d Year, and Remem bers the War of 1812.

Another brother, Benjamin, died a year or two ago near Coraopolis, near 90 years of James hadn't time to look up the members of the Historical Society yesterday, but he left a request that they communicate with him, and be will give them some reminiscences dating beyond the War of 1812,

Chief of Police Hamilton Bannon, of Beave Fails, arrived in the city yesterday, having in custody a deserter from the United State Army. The man was Frank Myers, and be had been stationed in this city. He was a member of Company I, Second Infantry, and skipped of Company I, Second Infantry, and skipped out for parts unknown on May 22, last. VISITORS TO PITTSBURG EXPOSITION

Can Make $50 Clear. Last year it cost us upward of $2,000 to exhibit at the opening Exposition. We have been kept so terribly busy this summer, however, selling our pianos and organs and banjos and mandolins and guitars and brass horns and sheet music, that we no. The Pittsburg vote was: Ayes, 53; ally found no time to get up an exhibit for noes, 16. Of the residents of other cities this year's show. However, we propose to who voted, 15 registered aye and 10 no. saving, so that anyone who will buy a piane saving, so that anyone who will buy a piano or organ, or any other instrument, during the continuance of the fair will get the benefit of an extra reduction in price of goods of 5 and 10 per cent. Visitor to the show can therefore make some $50 by calling on H. Kleber & Bro.'s music store, 506 Wood street, and buying one of their instruments. In each have a large majority, and the separate

Kleber's is the oldest music store west of the mountains, and the most reliable one, too. They give a full warrantee for eight and ten years, and sell on easy time payments. Ninety persons out of a hundred would rather trust to Mr. Kleber's choice than to run the risk of the sharp tricks practiced by so many music dealers. Kleber & Bro. have kept a music store for firty years, and they had the first choice of all the pianos and organs in the country, leav-ing the indifferent and poor ones to be picked up by the other music dealers. They are the sole agents for the famous Steinway, Conover, Gabler, Opera and Emerson pianos, also for the wonderful Vocation church orparlor organs. Anything in the music line which you cannot get at Kleber's is not worth having. Don't fail to call at Kle-ber's, then, 506 Wood street, three doors
