Another Decidedly Lively Session of the Pension Investigating Committee.

A FORMER CLERK ON THE STAND.

He Testifies Rather Directly Against Commissioner Eaum, Who Then Insinuates That

THE WITNESS ROBBED A POSTOFFICE.

A Retort That People Living in Glass Houses Should Not Throw Stones.

WASHINGTON, September 17 .- George B. Fleming was the first witness to-day before the committee investigating charges against Pension Commissioner Raum. When he was called to the stand both sides disclaimed having subposned him, and there was a little hitch about his examination, but finally Mr. Cooper consented to examine him at the request of the committee. Mr. Cooper asked if Butler Fitch had not told him that Bradley Tanner had given the names of six or seven pension office employes who held refrigerator stock. Witness replied that Fitch had said so, and he (witness) had told it to Mr. Cooper, as well as what Fitch had told him about a deal with the Chinese legation. Witness also heard Fitch tell Mr. Cooper that his cheek turned "pale" when he read Tanner's testimony.

CHARGES COULD BE PROVED. To Commissioner Raum, witness said he had brought Mr. Cooper where he could meet Fitch. Before the resolution of inquiry had been prepared, witness had assured Mr. Cooper that the charges could be proved, but had not mentioned Fitch's name. Witness had written the articles on the subject. Six or seven good men besides Fitch had supplied witness with information of the Worcester Steel, Coal and be proved, but had not mentioned Fitch's tion about the refrigerator company. Four Iron of them were pension office employes. The capital Commissioner sought to get their names, but Mr. Cooper and Mr. Lewis protested against the question, the former saying that go to creditors, leaving 25 per cent to pay the evident purpose was "to get even" with for the erection of a blast furnace and equip-

The Commissioner replied that he desired to bring these men before the committee.

Mr. Cooper said that the men had said that Bradley Tanner was a stockholder, and that was now proved. Continuing, witness said he had sent the men to Tanner to talk with him and bring the information to him (witness). He desired to use it in his news-paper business. He had been an employe of the office himself, and knew the men to be reliable. That was last spring.

TO GET AT THE TRUTH. His object was not particularly to "put up a case" on the Commissioner, but to get at the truth. Witness finally left the pension office January 28 last. Never had any personal feeling against the Commissioner, nor had he said that he was going after the Commissioner because of his discharge. Had said that he would get even with the man who got him out—Theodore Smith—and had done it. Had been Postmaster at Charlotte, Mich., and the postoffice had been robbed.

The Commissioner inquired whether witness had not been involved in some shady real estate transaction in Grand Rapids, but Mr. Cooper objected to going into these personal matters. The Commissioner replied that he wanted to prove that witness was a rascal. Mr. Cooper-1f you go into that, I want to show that it is true of you. Men who live in glass houses should not throw stones. The Commissioner-I think your house is as liable as anybody's.

Mr. Cooper-Well, I defy you.

Commissioner-I pressed the question. RAUM'S RECORD.

Mr. Cooper exclaimed: "If I can't show more rottenness in his (Raum's) record than in that of any man in Washington I will withdraw."

The witness said that if his record as postmaster was challenged he would refer to ex-Controller Lacey, who had been his bondsman. Reference having again been made by the Commissioner to the robbery of the postoffice, Mr.Cooper asked if the Commissioner expected to show that the witness had robbed it. The Commissioner replied that Mr. Cooper had in his pocket a letter from a gentleman who stated that the witness was suspected of the robbery.

At this point the committee insisted on cutting off the examination into this matter and also refused to hear testimony as to whether witness had been discharged be-cause he was a Democrat. The witness was then dismissed.

The Commissioner then denied that Mr.

Lemon had indorsed a note for him at the Second National Bank in addition to the notes held at the Bank of the Republic. The Chairman having ascertained that there were no more witnesses to be examined announced that the case was closed, and the committee will at once begin the preparaion of its report.

A wrinkle that is new in Pittsburg has been introduced into this city, and that is MEMBERS TESTIFY AGAINST THEM. a charge made in a restaurant for the use of combined called for 90 cents instead of 75 cents as usual.

When paying the bill to the cashier he asked how the 15 cents came to be added, there being no more cream and cake served than ordinarily. For a time the cashier was nonplussed, and the waiter had gone to another part of the house. Finally the cashier said: "Perhaps you had napkina" "Certainly," said the man, "but what of that?" "Oh," was the reply, "we charge five cents for a mapkin." The guest said he was more concerned to get into the racket than about the cost, but he seemed to regard the innovation as un-American and small.

Speaking of the subject, another lover of ice cream said the practice was not objectionable in Paris, where everything was served in restaurants a la carte, and where the charge for napkins was extremely small, but he remarked that if the custom is to be a feature here, he suggests that people carry their napkins with them. There are restaurants in the city where a full meal is served for 19 cents and a fraction and napkins served gratis. Were the proprietors of these places to charge a nickel for the use of a napkin, it would prove the most profitable end of their trade. The defendants, it is claimed, were agents and sub-agents of the National Capital Savings and Building and Loan Society, a corporation of the State of Illinois. They are charged with representing that they are empowered to loan to people who wish to build on unimproved property. District Attorney Johnston and Thomas M. Marshall, Jr., appeared for the prosecution. The defendants were represented by Attorney L. K. Porter, R. P. Wallace and A. C. Robertson

Mrs. Frank Newman, of De Haven, identified Sefton, Harrison and Phillips. She stated her husband and she paid Sefton She stated her husband and she paid Seiton $25 and were to get $1,000, which was to be repaid in $10 installments monthly for eight years. Phillips, she said, assured her that her money would be forthcoming, and to convince her, he said Mr. Dunn would call around. Mr. Dunn came a few days later and said that in ten days she would receive the $1,000. He told her, she said, that he would pay off the mortgage on her lot and give her the balance and she could pay the contractor to go ahead with the building. She did not get the $1,000, and was put off every time she called for it. She demanded her payment of $25 back, but her request was refused. She offered her receipt and certificate of the transaction in evidence. Frank Newman's testimony corroborated that of his wife.

Frank Newman's testimony corroborated that of his wife.

J. M. Brunton, of DeHaven, testified he had a contract to erect. Mrs. Newman's house, and that Selton and Dunn told him to go absed and they would give nim $250, which would be paid in a short time. The witness stated that he got nothing from the company. William Ahl corroborated this statement.

Julius F. Adams, of No. 30 Pike street, Allegheny, testified that Dunn came to him and induced him to join the society. Adams did so on condition that $1,800 he needed should be advanced. He was assured that it would be all right, and in consequence paid his initiation fee and $45. The $1,800 was to be paid in nine or ten days, but he failed to ret it. No appraisers were sent, he said, to adjudge the value of his property on which the $1,800 was to be loaned.

Rebecca Lapstey stated she paid Dunn $12.50, for which she was to receive a loan of $500. The payment of the latter was to be made in ten days. She took five shares of stock, and produced her receipts and certificates. The case will be continued this morning. Company, Limited, with a l of $1,000,000 under the laws of Massachusetts. A mortgage bond for $600,000 would be made, 75 per cent to ping the coal mine. The company also pro-poses to give the creditors 25 per cent in preferred stock, both mortgage bond and preferred stock to bear 6 per cent interest. Miss Jane Phillips Can Give the Supervisor Points on the Business.

While Robinson township and her townshi road supervisors are making the last condi-tion of the highways worse than the first, it might pay them to visit Miss Jane Phillips and study her system. She is improving the road in front of her residence, near Robb station, by paving it with cornfodder. The paving deadpaving it with cornfodder. The paving deadens the sound of passing vehicles, and is in every way superior to the mud poultice and plum pudding compounds concocted by the supervisors. 'Squire Herman Handel says that hay makes a better dressing for roads than either mud or rough sandstone, and thinks as it is very cheap and there is much inferior stuff on the market it might be used in the filling of mud holes.

It would probably be no greater ain than the burning of corn for fuel, in early days Pennsylvania supervisors often used brush for the filling of mud holes.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS A BLACKSMITH'S STORY.

He Relates His Experience and Tells What He Knows of a Subject in Which Many Are Interested.

"I am a blacksmith and my trouble began by my working in a draft," said Mr. E. H. "I caught a severe cold and from that time my catarrhal symptoms manifested themselves. My head and nose would be so filled with mucus that I was compelled to breathe through my mouth and my nose would often get sore. I had pain over my eyes, dizziness and noises in my ears. The mucus that dropped into my throat

Mr. E. H. Price. caused me to be almost continually spitting. The disease finally reached my lungs, I felt a weight in my chest as if my lungs were stopped up. My breath became short and finally a violent cough set in, which increased until coughed day and night. I had eructations of gas from my stomach, and I had a tired feeling, but more so on getting up in the morning As I read in the papers statements from patients who had been cured by the catarrh specialists at 223 Penn avenue of conditions similar to mine I took a course of their treatment and became completely cured.
