

With Marie Wainwright, the Exposition, shopping tours, drives and little informal tens the week has been quite a gay one. Everything begins to look decidedly wintry, the promeundes are filled with ladies arrayed in the new plaids and wearing fur capes or coats and gentlemen walking briskly with topcoats buttoned up enugly, while the cheery grate fires that glimmer through the prettily-draped windows in the evenings invite the allegiance that has been paid so faithfully for some months past to the verandas and tennis courts.

The dawn of the new season pressages joy and mirth for the social world, and innumerable conquests for those on conquest intent. And to make doubly certain of her victory, what do you suppose the society belle is studying up? Nothing more or less than the dangerous science of hypnotism.

Preparing for the Campaign. Not content with the vantage ground she already possesses by reason of her own charming personality, her bright eyes, pearly teeth and wavy hair she will intensify her power by a more or less thorough knowledge of hypnotism. It is a fact that ever so many of the charming creatures are reading up on the new fad, and "practicing just a bit, you know," on whatever subject may come handy.

Some of them have thus early in the fray become quite expert with the serpent power of their pretty eyes, and the victim is powerless as long as the tair tyrant desires to hold him under the spell. He is an alject slave for the time being, carries packages, umbrelias and shopping bags, buys candles, soda water and peaches, orders theater tickets, flowers and carriages, regardless of his bank account-or absence of one.

It's Going to be Serious.

All this they are capable of compelling the gay gallants to do now, and when their power is more fully developed proposals will come at will. Think of it and weep, young man, at the fate in store for you, for necording to the old formula in the arithmetic if one maiden can accomplish so much by the use of her eyes, three maidens can accomplish three times as much. And just imagine three or even more of the tair ones laying siege to your pocketbook and heart at different times and places, and your being powerless to resist responding to all of them.

What a chaotic life you will lead, married men and all, though I understand the benedicts are to be exempt from the intense glance that is to result in a proposal on the snot, but not from the bonbon bitisek. THORNE BRANCH.

AMERICANS AT PARIS.

The Misses Lyal c. Pittsburg, Among These r Lending lict.le. 1EV DUNU...'S CABLE COMPANY.

Paris, September 20 - Among the names thi wedlers withed on the books of the American gister, are those of Miss Biddle, H. B. Coxe and family, T. Thompson and family, of Phila-delphia; Mrs. Buel, Miss Langdon, Mrs. May, Waterbury, Mrs. Whitney and family, of New York: William C. Nelson and Brooklyn, and the Misses Lysle, of Pittsburg,

WITH THE COLD WAVE.

Social Gatherings That Usher in the New reason of Galety. Seldem has the Southside a reception to which so much significance has been attached as the one tendered to Mrs. Mary Wheeler, one of the former school teachers in old Birmingham, at the residence of S. Hare, 13 Excelsion street, Alientown, last Tuesday evening. Many of her former pupils, whom she had not seen for over 20 years, were present, and many an old-time acquaintance was renewed and early experiences rehearsed. What hand-shakings and embracing there were! In some cases old acquaintances had to be introduced, when, with mingled surprise and joy, they would ex-claim as with one breath, "And is this you?" Mrs. Wheeler (nee Bullum) tanget in the old Sirmingham school, now the Bedford, from 1853 to 1862. She was counted one of the best reachers on this side at that time, and was cervisit among them as pleasant as possible. In return, Mrs. Wheeler described the beauties of friends departed at a later hour, after wishing their old Iricold and teacher a pleasant journey for the remainder of her life. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burtt and dangster Maggle, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hunter and daughter Adelaide, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Sacouel Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. N. Green, Mrs. Maggle Torrence, Mrs. Thomas McCov and son Jomes, Mrs. Maggle Stas, Robert D. Beck, Miss. Maggle E. Hare, Principal of the Twenty-Lighth ward school; W. E. Hare, Charles O. Hare, Mrs. Charles Schwarn and son Harry, Master Howard Hare, Master Lawrence Hare, Mester Robot Hare and Mrs. and Mrs. S. W. Hare. Ralph Hare and Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hare.

Among the pleasant events during the week was a dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. M. Assay, of Penn and Highland avenues, East End. The occasion certainly was delightfut and novel on account of an agreeable ce. Mrs. Addy mvited a number of young folks Friday evening in honor of her on, Mr. F. K. Addy, who leaves for Bethany was at its height a party of young Alleghengalety than ever. Mrs. Addy took in the situa-tion at once and many were the remarks of commendation from the nanner of her enter-taining qualities. Different amusements were given, when about midnight the party repaired to the dining room, where an excellent collinion awaited their discussion. Among the assembly were the Misses E. and L. Forrester, Misses F. and K. Suyder, J. A. Tyson, wife and daughter. Miss Nannie Blair, Edua Hemphill, Grace Miller, Millie Ahlers, Bessie Spangier, Annie Owens, Maud Armor, L. Coffin, E. Harbaugh, Messra. Dr. Boger Williams, L. C. Miller, J. K. Forrester, T. Blair, Ed F. Kredel, Ed R. Kopp, Sam Evans, H. Pinaut, John Boyd, L. Mellenry, W. H. Wilson, P. Langhans, R. H. Barker, C. K. Will, H. F. Layton, W. L. Watt. hen about midnight the party repaired

A very delightful surprise party was given in honor of Miss Jennie Martin, of New Brighton. Pa at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Jas. A. McPike, 4418 Penn avenue, Friday evening. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. McPike, Mr. and Mrs. Daly, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Hardwig, Ars. Martin and Misses Gertrade their cosy home, Market street, Aliegheny, Gertrude and Lydia Coll, Lennie and Sadie Callery, Kate and Mame Martin, Oneida and Bertha Crick, Bailey, Wright, Swain, McFike, Daly, Murphy, Reed, Driscoll, McKinley, Seri, Gross, Richards, and Campbell, also, Messrs, Harry and Paul McFike, William and James Murphy, Samuel and Charles Coll, Harry and Will Holding, Murtin, McGiart, Clark, Cramp, McKee, McKinley, Reed, Johnson, Haber, Conner, Roxbrough, Boals, Sheriff, Garling and McCrady. Dancheg and enclare the morning, when a dainty lunch was partaken of, after which all increases the residence, Kearsarge street, Aliegheny, Thursday evening last. After a bountiful support had been served the guests, numbering and over 100, spent the evening in dancing and other social amusements until the "wee smail hours" of the morning. Mr. and Mra. Dies were the recibients of many beautiful and costly presents. All joined in wishing the happy couple many returns of the day.

A very pleasant surprise party was given in honor of Miss Lydia Marland on her return home from Atlastic City, after an absence of three months, at her residence, Kearsarge street, allegheny. Thursday evening last. After a bountiful support had been served the guests, numbering and other social amusements until the "wee smail hours" of the morning. Mr. and Mra. Dies was an unusually interesting one, and judging from the interest shown by all, the season of 90.91 promises to be a successful one. The Executive Cummittee for the ensuing year is as follows: Mrs. L. Halsey Williams, Mrs. After a bountiful support had been sevening in dancing and other social amusements until the "wee smail business meeting of the "Sewick-levy Valley Club," held in Choral Hall last Tuesday evening, October 8, at 7:30 o'clock.

The annual business meeting of the "Sewick-levy Valley Club," held in Choral Hall last Tuesday evening had one weening in dancing and optically club," held in Choral Hall last Tuesday evening had one weening in dancing and optical will be weened to ween middl and Jennie Martin, Kate and Luzie Murphy, departed in high spirits over the pleasant time they had indulged it.

On Friday evening the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Lindsay gave them a delightful surprise party to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of their wedding. A number of presents were received, both useful and ornamental.

After a charming lunch the evening was de-After a charming lunch the evening was devoted to dancing. Among those present were: Misses Margaret Young. Margaret Knoderer, Jean Baker, Ida Abel. Katherine Abel, Lida Hershman, Edith Duncan, Agnes Orr and Mame Mainafley, Mrs. Lucy Hershman, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Buboup, Mr. and Mrs. William Knoderer, Mr. and Mrs. George Abel, Mr. and Mrs. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hilleman, M. and Mrs. E. S. Upstill, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lindsay, and Messra O. S. Hershman, W. R. Bell, Harry C. Daft, J. R. Bonney and W. B. Mabaffey.

On last Friday evening a very pleasant sur-prise was given Mr. and Mrs. William McKelvey at their residence, No. 74 Kirkpatrick avenue, Allegheny, by a few of their many friends. It took but a very short time for everybody present to make themselves at home. Singing dancing and rectations were the features of the evening's entertainment. Miss Jennie McKelvey, the popular young elocutionist, recited several very pretty pieces, and Mr. Martin Hech entertained the guests by a number of comic songs. Supper was served shortly after midnight, after which all departed to their homes well pleased with the entertainment. Among those who had the pleasure of being present were the Misses Dody and Aunic Hetnem, Mary Manchester, Jennie McKelvey, Birdie Ackley, Nellie Walton, and Messrs. Wm. Van Laew, Martin Hech, Ralph Goldsmith and Wm. Manchester. friends. It took but a very short time for Miss Lizzio Brown, organist of the Cratton M. E. Church, was agreeably surprised at her residence Monday evening, by the members of her church. The young lady has been constant in her attendance during the two years she has presided at the organ, and last Monday evening, as a token of esteem and friendship, the congregation presented her with a beautiful music cabinet. Rev. Mr. Robinson made the presentation speech, and Mr. Cramp replied for the young lady. A very enjoyable time was spent in music, and refreshments were served, etc. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Peek, Mr. and Mrs. N. Bishop, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Cramp, Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mrs. F. Heisley, Mrs. Add. S. Miller, ars. Kramer, the Misses Brown, Such, Leah, Hisbop, Mamie Downy, Kramer and the Messrs.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Slack celebrated their wooden wedding anniversary last Wednesday evening in a most charming manner, at their lovely home, Boulevard Place, East End. Progressive enchre was indulged in, after which an elegant repast was spread in the pretty dining rooms. The first prizes were carried off by Mrs. Winter and Mr. Charles Lang; the low prize by Miss Young and Mr. George Meyer. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lang, Mr. H. J. Young, father of the hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Fricke Winter, Mrs. Fendrich, Dr. and Mrs. Fricke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meyer, nee Kelly, Dr. and Mrs. Geatner, Mr and Mrs. Fred Young, Miss Emma, Millie and Carrie Meyer, id and Bonney Young, Miss Geliespie, and Messrs. J. E. Smith, George Meyer and Will G. Charles and Fred Lang. gressive enthre was indulged in, after which ac

A wedding in Homestead, Thursday morning, united two well-known and popular young peo-ple, Miss Sallie Bonner and Mr. Michael Maloney, Jr. The ceremony was performed in St. Mary Magdalen's Church, by Rev. Father Bailion, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. Miss Theresa O'Donnell and Mr. Frank Maloney officiated as brides-maid and groomsman. The bride was attired in a pretty toilet of light-colored silk and wore a beautiful necklace, the gift of the groom. a heartiful neckine, the grot of the probin-After the church services a reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Don-nel, the bride being a sister of Mrs. O'Donnel. Subsequently the bridal couple departed for a wedding trip, at the termination of which they will receive friends at their new home, on Earth avenue.

dered Miss Mollie Williams at her residence on Smallman street Wednesday evening. Danc-ing to the music of the Tycoon Orchestra made ing to the music of the Tycoon Orchestra made the evening a delightful one. An elaborate luncheon was served prior to the departure of the guests. Those present werer Misses Priscima Miller, Rose Kennedy, Dollie Stone, Lizzie Wilkinson, Ella Lawly, Lottie Williams, Mame and Carrie Metz, Emma and Lizzie
Cherry, Lillie Watson, Carrie White, Hannah
Neai, Lizzie and Ella Caskey, Carrie Shoup,
Maggie Sweeney, Meriam Williams, Messra,
Nick Coleman, Cliff Carlisle, Milton blone,
John Reed, Lou Drum, Bert and Tom Stone,
Ed Woodmansee, Guy and Ira Miller, Albert
Zahniser, Will Cherry, Will England and George Williams.

One of the pleasant social events of the weel was a surprise party given in the honor of the birthday of Mr. George Hibbs, Kearsarge street, Mt. Washington, on Friday evening September 19. Music and social games were September 19. Music and social games were the pastima. of the evening. At midnight an elaborate supper was served, after which the gnests departed, well pleased with the evening's pleasure. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Humphreys, Miss Ella Humphreys, Miss Ida Humphreys, Miss Ella Humphreys, Miss Ida Humphreys, Miss Ella Hu

A pleasant surprise party was tendered Miss Maggie Luman, of No. 78 Kenting street, on Wednesday evening, September 17. The following Masters and Misses were present: The Misses Jennie Luman, Lulu Luman, Ida Kober, Misses Jennie Luman, Lulu Luman, Ida Kober, Emma Knight, Mollie Kemmil, Ida Coyle, Emma Reager, Nettie Matihews and Masters Jos. Woods, Frank Bown, Henry Elum, George Barr, Charles Schuckman, Frank O'Brien, Louis Bentz, George Knight, Edward Kretz, William Hemingray, Harry Hinan, Harry Kober and others. An elegant supper was served by Mrs. Luman and was well appreciated by those present. The nids were Mrs. Hinan, Mrs. Kirk and Miss Kober. The music was furnished by Schubert & Kelsel's Orchestra, Inneine was kert up until a late hour when all Dancing was kept up until a late hour when all

Miss Natella Bradly, a promising young pupil reachers on this size at that the tank hosts tainly one of the most popular. She has hosts of friends, many of whom greated her on Tuesday evening and endeavored to make her thome, on Marquis street, on Thursday evening and endeavored to make her evening. Quite a number of popular selections were rendered with splendid effect. Miss return, Mrs. Wheeler described the beauties of California, her present home, talked about the Fraha and flowers, and kept the assembly in a good humor all evening. Excellent maste was rendered by James McCoy, Mrs. Thomas McCoy, Mrs. Schwarm a d William E. Hare. At 10 o'clock an elegant supper was served and the friends departed at a later hour, after wishing their old broad and teacher a pleasant journer. and 'Love's Dream;' Mr. A. Lenfield read-dered some delightful music on mandolin and guitar; Mr. Albert L Christy recited "The Death Bridge of the Tay." Among those pres-ent were Miss Jennie McKelvy, Miss Oora Way, Annie Smith, Mary McKelvy, the Misses Boyls, Mr. E. Neely, Mr. E. Bairpa, Mr. A.Len-field, David Evans, Albert Christy, Mr. Bradly and Mr. Cleveland.

> During the week a reception was held in benor of Mr. William N. McKelvey, cadet of the United States Navy. It was given by th Misses McElroy, at their residence, No. 249 Webster avenue. Favors were given in the shape of a turtle trimmed with Mr. McKelvey's Shape of a turtle trimmed with Mr. McKelvey's class colors, which were red and yellow, Among those present were Miss B. Magill, S. and C. Eyrich, M. Harrison, S. Coffey, J. Duncan, Eva Thompson, F. Stocker, Grace and Genevra McElroy, Nannie and Birdie Sanda, Messrs, W. McKelvey, E. E. Arison, W. and J. Magill, J. Dickerson, D. Crowley, W. Petre, F. Paden, J. Gillespie, R. Zummerman, A. Hopkins, H. Kennedy and C. McKelvey.

Last Thursday evening a reception was ten College, West Virginia. While the enjoyment | dered Miss Nellie McGrew at Lawson's Hall, Crafton, Pa. The young lady is about to move ians, under the chaperonage of Miss Nannie Blair, arrived upon the scene, causing more a social evening with her before her departure South, and her young friends wished to spend a social evening with her before her departure. The evening was spent in games, dancing, etc. Refreshments were served, and a most enjoyable time was spent by all. Those present were the Misses McGrew, Annie and Mamie Crum, Grace Bickell, Leah Bishop, Clare Mendenhall, and Messis. Lawson, Downey, Lyons, Cratty, Phillips, Slattenbeck Wood, Jordan, Davis, Ropper, Datt, Monigomery, Moore, Daniels, White, Tuft and McCloy.

One of the most pleasant events of the week was the surprise party tendered to the Misses Nellie and Sadie McFadden at their residence, Nellie and Sadie McFadden at their residence, 27 Webster avenue, on Monday evening, Among the guests present were the Misses Josie O'Donnell, Katte and Ella Bowney, Nel-lie Fawcett, Mary and Nellie Wilson, Rose Downey, Zenia Edmundson, Nellie and Sadie McFadien; Messrs. Henry and Alfred Her-man, William Spamer, Louis Shaefer, John Schmidt, M. F. Geis, John Sang, Edward Spamer, William Cogan and Will Alland.

One of the pleasing events of the week was the celebration of the fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dice, at marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dice, at sheir cosy home, Market street, Aliegheny, Thursday evening last. After a bountiful supper had been served the guests, numbering over 100, spent the evening in dancing and other social emusements until the "wee small hours" of the morning. Mr. and Mra. Dice were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents. All joined in wishing the happy couple many returns of the day.

Mt. Washington. Among those present were Miss Julia Hardman, Miss Hannah Bivins, Miss Aunie Croford, Miss Ella Hickie, Miss Katie Millar, Miss Barbara Hardiman, Mr. Harry Beatle, Mr. John Bugan, Mr. Willie Glosar, Mr. Robert Wisdom, Mr. Alfred Mar-land.

Mr. John C. Zwingler and Miss Carrie Har-meir, and Mr. Conrad Zwingler and Miss An nie Kopp were married Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mr. Samuel Botts, 1819 Carson street, the Rev. Weigand, of Zon Evangelical Church, officiating. None but relatives of the bride and groom were present. After partaking of an elegant supper the happy couple departed for Reynoldstown, where they will reside.

On Tuesday evening last a charming home wedding at the bride's parents' in the West End united Miss Cora J. Haughton and Mr. Fred R. Gildersieeve in happy wedlock. The officiating elergyman was Rev. Charles E. Locke, of the Smithfield M. E. Church. The bride was lovely in a steel gray gown and tea roses. Mr. Munt Gildersleeve and Mr. John Haughton, brothers of the bride and groom, Cards are out for the marriage of the Rev. J. A. Herold, pastor of Greenhill Presbyterian Church, of Philadelphia, and the son of the Rev. J. A. Heroid, of Lawrenceville, Pittsburg, to Miss Adelnide Read, daughter of Mrs. Fullerton A. Huston, of West Philadelphia, on the first of October, in St. Mary's Church, West Philadelphia.

Tuesday evening Miss Nettre Dicken, of 119 Center avenue, entertained a few friends in honor of Miss Sadie Ford, who left for school Wednesday, Among those present were Misses Grace Scott, Flo Winnett and Miss Christy, and Messrs. Gray, Dickson, Fred. Sackey and

The marriage of Miss Agnes Skelley, of this city, and Mr. C. A. L. Miller, of Denver, Col., will take place this coming winter.

Hosts and Gueste. Mrs. A. McD. Taylor writes that she will soon be home from Europe. James H. Hamilton and wife attended a wedding at Wheeling last week.

W. J. Hawdon bas returned from the East. He declares that Atlantic City had no charms for him. Miss Effie S. Campbell, of Louisville, Ky., is visiting her friends Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward, at Emsworth. Miss Lillie Baas, of Erie, is visiting her friend, Mrs. Joseph K. Smith, nee Miss Elia Tyson, of the East End. Miss Edith Knester, of Allegheny, who has been sojourning in the Rocky Mountains, has yesterday arrived home from an extended trip to Atlantic City and the seashore. Miss Martha Herold, daughter of the Rev. J. A. Herold, of Lawrenceville, Pittsburg, is visit-ing Mrs. Huston, of West Philadelphia.

Mrs. James Steen, the wife of the architect, and son have just returned from Atlantic City and the seashore. Mr. James Weir, the well-known resident of the East End, is recovering from a slight at-tack of typhoid fever. Miss Bessie Markle, of No. 249 Locust street.

Miss Nettie Roose, of Ridge avenue, Allegheny, who has been visiting in Boston and Bass Rocks, Mass., for the past two months, returned home yesterday morning.

Miss Josephine Mooney, of Sandusky street, Allegheny, who has been on a three weeks pleasure trip to Niagara Falls, Toronto, Monreal, Quebec and Thousand Islands, arrived home last week. The Misses Mary and Teresa Mooney, No. 120

Sandusky street, Allegheny, who have been traveling in Europe for the past three months, arrived home on last Thursday morning, both looking the picture of health. Mr. J. Cester and his mother, Mrs. A. D. Reifer, of the Southside, have returned home from an extended tour through Europe. Miss Kate Cester met them in New York, where they remained a week visiting friends.

Mr. H. McGrath, accompanied by his coustn, Misk Irene Daily, of Main street, Lawrence-ville, left last week for a visit to Niagara Falls and other places of interest, after which they will pay a visit to Mr. McGrath's home in Kingston, Canada. Mrs. Fred Ruch and daughter, Semone Pearl, of San Semone, Ariz, who have been visiting friends and relatives in this city for the past two months, will leave Monday for Pueblo, Col., for a couple of weeks after which they will return to their home in Arizona.

H. F. Woodward, formerly connected with the superintendent's office of the Panhandle in this city, has recently been appointed chief clerk of the accounting department of the Great Northern Railway, with headquarters at St. Paul, Minn. The Great Northern is one of the largest lines in the West, there being over 3,300 miles in the system. A thousand miles of new miles in the system. A thousand miles of new tracks will be built this year, including an ex-tension reaching to the Pacific coast. The many friends of Mr Woodward in this city and this part of the country will be glad to learn of Wilkinsburg Social Chatter. Miss Mazie Scott, of Rebecca street, is home rom a visit to Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kiner have returned from Mrs. Harry Carpenter, of North street, left on Tuesday for New York,

Mr. Frank Houston, of Hampton Place, left last week to attend school at Saltsburg. Miss Maggie Burgess, of Alfred street, Park Place, is visiting friends at Turtle Creek. Rev. M. M. Patterson, of the U. P. church, is home from a short visit to Washington, Pa. Mr. Ed Starr, manager of Harris' Theater, Pittsburg, has taken a residence in Hollan.'. Mr. Charles Carothers has returned from

Hon. J. Mutzig, of Spring Garden borough, will occupy a residence in Wilkinsburg next Mr. William Sangree, of North Dakota, is visiting his cousin, Mrs. F. K. Bowers, of Penn avenue. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Barnett, of Ross street, attended a family reunion last Tuesday, at Colonel E. J. Allen has returned from a month's sojourn at the headwaters of the Cheat river. Mr. Sherwick and family, of Scottdale, are guests at the residence of Mr. J. W. Thomas, of Swissvale avenue.

Mrs. J. B. Duff Hebron visited at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. A. A. Jack, of Penn avenue, last week. Mr. Ira Fix, of Ross street, leaves to-morrow for Philadelphia to attend a course of lectures at the Jefferson Medical College.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ringwalt and Mr. and Mrs. George Peebles, of Park place, returned from a trip to Montreal on Tuesday. Miss Alida Raiston, daughter of Dr. W. Ralston of Beulah Church, will leave to morrow to enter Wilson College, Chambersburg. Mrs. H. Speyber, of Westmoreland county, has returned home after a pleasant visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. Spear, of Swissvale avenue.

Mr. David Morris left yesterday for New York to meet Mrs. Morris, who will arrive from England, where she has been on a visit for the past three months. The East End Dramatic Club held their first meeting of the season, last Monday evening, at the home of Mr. F. D. Keller, of Peun avenue, Park place, for the purpose of organizing for the winter.

Sewickley Society Notes. Miss Elsie Chew is home after a long visit to Fredericksburg, Va.

Miss Donehue, of White Plains, N. Y., is the guest of Mrs. Joseph Craig. Mr. J. B. Oliver and daughter, Miss Amelia, and Miss Martha Fleming are home from Europe. Mr. A. B. Starr, Mr. Clarence Reisinger and M. D. S. Wolcott are enjoying hunting and fishing in Canada.

Mishing in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Standish and daughter Ethel are home from Michigan, where they spent most of the summer.

The Misses Anderson are visiting friends in Covington, Ky., having gone on to attend the wedding of Miss Clendening, of that place. Messrs Frank Hutchinson, Wilson Porter. Marshall Christy and Judson Brooks left dur-ing the week to resume their college duties. their college duties. Mra Robert Franks has for guests her sis-ters, Misses Pryce and Katherine Quay, of Morganza, and a cousin, Miss Mamie Quay, daughter of Senator Quay,

A very pretty and pleasant reception was given last Tuursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Osburn in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Osburn nee Miss Howell, of Philadel-

Mr. and Mrs. John Jones have issued cards for the marriage of their daughter Emma to Mr. Alex. Robinson, the ceremony to take place at the home of the bride Wednesday evening, October 8, at 7:30 o'clock.

"An Irish Arab." BIJOU TŘEATER. . OPERA HOUSE. 'The Editor,' HARRIS' THEATER... 'Guilty Without Crime." ACADEMY OF MUSIC Tony Pastor's Company CLIPPER THEATER Sun's New Phantasma DAVIS' FIFTH AVENUE MUSEUM.

MUSEUM....Japanese Village, Etc. The above are the theatrical attractions for this week.

It is not likely that we shall see a more thoroughly artistic performance than that of "Twelfth Night" this season. The whole production from Miss Wainwright herself down to small details, which lent verisimilitude to scene and occasion, spoke of a sincere desire to make it worthy of the play. Miss Wainwright has won a host of new admirers during this engagement, and it is gratifying to know that Pittsburg's appreciation of Shakespearean drama properly presented was expressed warmly in dollars and cents. Nothing can very well be added to the praise which THE DISPATCH has already bestowel upon the entire company. Miss Wainwright's plans for next season look to the production of a historical drama, the name of which her managers are not ready to reveal. It will be set upon the stage in the magnificent style which characterizes Twelfth Night." it worthy of the play. Miss Wainwright has Dion Boucicault's death, old man as he was, is a big blow to the drama. He stood head and shoulders above his cotemporaries on both sides of the Atlantic as a practical play-maker. His knowledge of the technique of his art was most profound. Several of his plays will live most profound. Several of his plays will live beyond all question for a long time, if not forever. "London Assurance," written when he was but 18, and "The Shanghraun," are, I think, the most likely to enjoy a very long life. Boucicault played at the Bijou Theater the season before last in "The Shanghraun" and "The Flirt," the latter a clever comedy and one of his latest works. Pittsburg andlences were surprised at his juvenility and histrionic fire. Although he was 66 he played the boyish characters in both places with wonderful dash. That was about his last appearance upon the stage. Since then he has written two or three plays, many magazine articles, and taught regularly in the Madison Square Theater Dramatic School, which was a pet hobby of his. The last play which was a pet hobby of his. The last play which was produced was "The Tale of a Coat," which Soi Smith Russell presented at Daly's Theater for the first time only a few weeks ago, and it has been announced that he was engaged with Bret Harte in writing another, to be called "The Luck of Roaring Camp," founded on the familiar story of the same name by Mr. Harte. Camp," founded on the familiar story of the same name by Mr. Harte. The life of Dion Boucleault is not all pretty reading, but there is much that is edifying and interesting in a gimpse of his life which he gave in his own words once, as follows: "My first piece was 'Napoleon's Old Guard,' my secyou need to learn that God helps those who Mathews was then in power, and to him I sub mitted the farce, which he promised to read. I called on him several times, but of course did not succeed in getting an audience. Finally I caught him dming and was admitted to his presence. 'Ah, young man,' he said, 'you wish to know my verdict on your farce? It is promisto know my verdict on your farce? It is promising, in fact, clever, but I cannot produce it at present, for my time is filled up. However, if you care to leave it, I'll see what can be done hereafter. There are good points in Harry Lawless. If I had a part like that in a five-act play, I'd jump at it.' Well, I knew that Mathews had not the remotest idea of bringing out my farce, bu I saw light in his remark regarding a five-act play. I wenthome and began 'London A-surance,' and in six weeks completed it. This was in March, 1841, at the age of 18. Again I went to Mathews and showed him the comedy. 'But I ordered no comedy,' he exclaimed. 'I am aware of that,' I replied. 'You did say, however, that if you had a part like Harry Lawless in a five-act comedy you'd jump at it. I've written such a character for you.' 'What!' he cried, 'do you mean to say you've written a five-act comedy in six weeks, on my suggrestion?' Yes.' My perseverance so astounded Mathews that his midiference turned to interest. He read 'London Assurance,' accepted it, and when I read it don assurance, accepted it, and when I read it to the actors of Convent Garden, Madam Nestris was so pleased that she came to me, saying: 'Whatever may be the public verdict, we feel sure that you have written a great comedy?"

Evans & Hoey seem to have a gold mine still in "A Parloc Match," It is now being played for the first time at a Broadway Theater in New York. With its new furnishment of songs and specialties the veteran farce-comedy i drawing so well that it will stay at the Park Theater till late in October at least. Clara Thropp is the new Innocent Kidd, and the New York papers say she is good. There is also a new trio of English dancers and other new features. When Charles Evans and William Hoey, forsaking the vaudevilles, came forth as dramatic stars in "A Parlor Match" at Tony Pastor's, somewhere in the vicinity of 1884, there was at first some doubt who her they had chosen wisely. Their play was absurdity itself. It had Hoyt's name, but there was another claimant for its authorship in Frank Dumont, the minstrel, who vowed that it was only an elongation of bis old sketch, "The Book Agent," which Evans and Hoey used to play in their humble days. Hoyt and Damont long ago ceased to quarrel, but "A Parlor Match" has never since failed to profit its pair of stars. There was a month or so of suspense, and after that all was serenity and profit.

This season's shore is already strewn with wrecks. Frank McNish, the old minstrel, had started a starting in a farcical play called "Out new trio of English dancers and other new features. When Charles Evans and William started a-starring in a farcical play called "Out of Sight," It was his white-faced debut, and be had been led to expect a triumph. He played a sort of protean role, impersona English ford, a French valet, a negro, and an American traveling salesman. Oddly enough, those who had flocked to see him do acrobatic marvels in barnt cork didn't respond to his new appeal. The company returned to New York. There is a hint that they will reorganize and go There is a hint that they will reorganize and go ont again, however. Another troupe returned to New York is headed by George Edgar in "The Banker." Their Pittsburg experience was sad enough, but Buffalo finished them. They, too, talk of resuming travel after the play has been revised. A "Michael Strogoff" company, erganized by G. W. Mitchell, is stranded at St. Louis, owing to too light receipts. Francis Leon's effort to establish a permanent ministrel band at Chicago has come to grief, as have all similar attempts in recent years. Leon has now made the theater a combination house. He is wealthy, and the failure will not hurt him financially.

The truth about Edwin Booth's health is not easy to obtain. His representative in New sary to obtain. His representative in New York writes me that the reports of Mr. Booth's ilness are entrue. This week's Mirror says: illness are entrue. This week's Mirror says:

Edwin Booth is troubled with a form of selatica. He has frequent vertigo, and often when he rises to waik his legs are unsteady and he is obliged to lean on a chair for temporary support. Mr. Booth is recovering from the attack that caused anxiety to his friends a week ago, but there is grave reason to think that he will never again play with the old fire and energy.
Every sincere admirer of the drams hopes that these reports are exaggerated, but it is to be feared that Mr. Booth has not enjoyed good health since his seizure about a year and a half ago.

The dramatization of that extremely disa-greeable novel "The Clemenceau Case," has not achieved a success in New York, where it was produced last week. At first Miss Pearl Eytinge essayed the heroine's role, but competent actress as she is, she could not realize the character at all. Miss Eytinge has not acted for some time, and her clever work in prose and verse, some of which has appeared in THE DISPATCH, alone has kept her name belore the public. She must be more than 35—though to mention this is not very gallant—seeing that she was already an actress of some years' experience when she appeared in the original production by Mr. Florence, of "The Mighty Dollar," at Abbey's Park Theater in 1876. "The Clemenceau Case" was her first in several years, and it is unfortunate that she should have essayed a part so totally unfitted for her. On Wednesday night Miss Sybil Johnstone Eytinge essayed the heroine's role, but compe-appeared in Miss Eytinge's place. She is a clever actress, but the means by which she created a sensation had very little to do with histrionics. The critic of the New York Times describes what happened thus: "Miss Johnstone's figure has all the slenderness and littreness of youth, and she did not heshate to dress—perhaps undress is a better term—in a manner that was startling to say the least. Her first costume was well enough. It was that of a student, and was neat, pretty and tasteful. The second was a negligee in no seuse remarkable, but the third produced a sensation. It consisted of a pair of tights and a closely-fitting upper garment that clung without a crease to every curve. It was in these light and airy nothings that Miss Johnstone took the center of the stage and posed as a model in the studie scene. There was not a trace of drapery, and when the posing was finished Mr. Lackaye carefully eniolded her in a loosply-flowing wrap that only emphasized the makedness of her neck and ankles.

"To say the spectators were surprised but the beautiful and a constant of the starters were surprised but the later was not a trace of the starters."

neck and ankles.

"To say the spectators were surprised but feebly expresses the sensation caused by the exposure. They fairly gasped for breath. In the fourth act diss Johnstone wore a light slik wrapper of such flimsy material that it clung persistently to her and disclosed the fact that she still had on her 'model' costume. Her performance historically was highly suc-It is not probable that Pittsburg will be shocked with a view of this unpleasant play and its peculiar concemitants.

Manager W. A. Brady under whose fostering care Bobby Gaylor and "The Irish Arab" are traveling, is a remarkable man. Not physically perhaps, for he is small in stature, but in the brain department. Five years ago he was a property man, to-day he owns four dramatic companies, all of which are on a paying basis, and as he is not yet 30 years old he has plenty of time to make a bigger mark. Those who are familiar with his career attribute his success to his good business qualities, his knowledge of stage craft and judgment of human nature. His dramatic policy has been to take old plays and by dint of new talent and general retouching galvanize them into success. Mr. Erady is plainly a factor to be counted in the managerial world. companies, all of which are on a paying basis

Ture Riion Theater will this week present to ts patrons as a star that funny man Bobby Gaylor, in William A. Brady's production of "An Irish Arab." Heretofore Mr. Gaylor has only been seen in variety companies, where he has been a very bright light. He has humor of the spontaneous kind, and never fails to elleit roars of laughter from his auditors. Reports from the East and West where the play has been done, however, indicate that both the star and the company have made an unqualified hit. "An Irish Arab" is Lester Wallack's fied hit. "An Irish Arab" is Lester Wallack's old comedy, "The Veteran," rewritten to fit Mr. Gaylor, who has the low comedy role of O'Flanagan. The production will be given under the personal supervision of Mr. Brady, and will be a pretentious one, that celebrated artist, Mr. Harley Merry, having painted the five-act sets of scenery used. The cast is a strong one and as follows:

ARABS.

O'Fi-an-ag-an, Grand Visier of Myra.

Bobby Gaylor
Sultan of Myra.

Bobby Gaylor
Sultan of Myra.

D. C. Deal
John S. Marble
Fred Maye.

Joe O'

Bog O'

CHRISTIANS. CHRISTIANS.

Colonel Branscombe, of the English army....

James M. Ward

Jack Branscombe, his son...Clarence Handysides

Edward, his nephew.....James M. Brophy
Colonel Denton.....Frank Thompson

Blanche Wilson, the Colonel's protege...

Miss Jessie Story

Mrs. McShake.....Miss Carrie Clark Ward

During the third act a magnificent acrobatic act is presented by the famous three brothers La Martine. This performance has created a perfect furor in every city. Their feats are said to be reality astonishing. Mr. Gaylor and his company of players will surely be greeted by a very large house, for the advance sale of seats is the biggest that the Bijou has had this season, and there is no doubt, if all the reports we have heard of the merits of "Au Irish Arab" prove correct, that many nights during the enprove correct, that many nights during the en gagement that standing room will be at a pre Grand Opera House for one week with his new play called "The Editor." The reputation Mr. Aldrich has established is pretty generally understood. As an impersonator of the manly, straight-forward, faithful heroes of the "West ern Drama" he has won considerable fame, His performance of Bartley Campbell's hero in "My Partner" played an important part in bringing to public notice the dead dramatist's great power as a playwright. On the coming occasion he will present a new character to the stage, a far Western editor. He is "go-aheadative," emphatic, irrepressible and somewhat rough, but manly and earnest. The play itself is a comedy. "The Editor" was first produced last spring at Palmer's Theater, New York, again at Philadelphia and Boston, in each of which cities Mr. Aldrich's impersonation of the Arizona editor, Colonel John Hauking, was received with many signs of benniar favor received with many signs of popular favor. The engagement is for one week, with Wednes-day and Saturday matinees.

THE Clipper Theater offers Sun's New Phantasma and Burlesque Company this week. The Louisville Post, September 2, 1890, said: A crowded house witnessed the first performance of Sun's New Phantasma and Burham Theater. The show is one of the best of ham Theater. The show is one of the best of the variety order that has been seen here this year. George Sun's fine feats of juggling ex-cited the admiration and wonder of the andi-ence, and John Coburn's black-face turn was another excellens feature. Alice Kingsley made a very clever male impersonator, and J. H. Murtha and Jessie Lake gave a very inter-esting musical sketch. The remainder of the company is up to the standard.

WHEN it is said that Tony Pastor's company is the attraction at Harry Williams' this week the public knows pretty definitely that the best in the vaudeville line is to be seen at the Academy, The great English music hall singer. sie Bonehill, who made such a hit io Miss isessie Bohenii, who make such a hit is New York last year, is the star of the company, but there is a great deal of talent in the pro-gramme besides her. Mile. Beatrice is a mar-velos contortionist: Miss Maggie Cline has not a superior as a character singer, and the com-pany is strong in comedians. Mr. Tony Pastor himself will sing at every performance.

DORE DA VIDSON and Ramie Austen will make their appearance before a Pittsburg audience to-morrow at Harris' Theater in the highly emotional drama of "Guilty Without

Other Amusements.

HARRY DAVIS' pretty Fifth Avenue Museum will certainly present a unique entertainment for the coming week. A genuine Japanese village is indeed a novelty. Dai Nippon and his troupe are termed "Oriental art missionaries," They transform the house into a semblance of a Japanese village. A street is shown and on either side are booths at which Japanese artisans are at work. Some paint on silk and satin; others work with bamboo, making easels, tables and chairs. Another paints on china; one makes toys and tops, one embroiders, and the entire show is not only amusing but instructive. Kanoska, a real Japanese maiden, holds high tea, and after making the tea in true Oriental style dispenses it to lady visitors. All the work is done under the eye of the visitor, and those style dispenses it to lady visitors. All the work is done under the eye of the visitor, and those who have looked at the village say that it is the most novel exhibition of the kind ever witnessed. It is undoubtedly an entertainment that will be of special interest to ladies and children. Several souvenr days are to be introduced by Manager Davis, and every one will have an opportunity to obtain some of the articles that are brought into existence under their eyes. Mr. Davis evidently believes in giving his patrons plenty for their money, and in addition to the proposed Village will have a meritorrous musical attraction on the Roof Garden in addition to the many manimate features that can be seen there. On the parlor stage of the theatorium there will be an exceptionally strong performance. Howe and Dayle hend the bill in their latest novelty entitled the "Power of Music," and the Gleason children, two very young comedians, are said to be clever. The Welches, Drew's Black Art, and many other features complete a full bour's entertainment. The manager of this house said he would present entertainment for ladies and children, and the diversity of the features he is giving clearly indicases that he is conscientiously keeping his word.

The World's Museum offers an entire change THE World's Museum offers an entire change of bill, and among the new attractions are Sylivester Croolee, who hangs himself by the neck as often as desired: Prof. Wallace, who can linitate the songsters of the grove so well that he s called the "Man-bird;" the Martin Sisters s called the "Man-bris," the Martin Sisters, Albinos of great personal charms: Edward and Lonise Lorrett, who produce wonderful pictures, and Prof. Barbour, who will introduce the public, through his stereoptican, to views of interesting places, and portrains of famous men and women in the Old and New World. Besides these curiosities, which are well fitted to please Indies and children, there will be a performance in the theater, lasting for an hour or more, by the All-Star World's Specialty Company.

Stage Whispers RICHARD MANSFIELD has advertised to sell all his antiquities and articles du vertu at auction next month. THE Duquesne Theater is rising surely and not very slowly now. The contractors think they can have it finished by November. MANAGER HARRY DAVIS his upon a nove scheme to advertise his Japanese village by giving away genuine Japanese handkerchiefs. HARRY WILLIAMS' new theater, which will be built by this time next year, will be called the Gasety. It will be one of the handsomest in the country. WE are to have Emms Abbott at the Bijou October 6. The Bijou folks then have De Wolf Hopper, "The Sea King" and "The Merry Monarch" to follow before January.

THERE is a limit beyond which the seeker of free advertising cannot decently go. Lillian Lewis transgressed it when she had herself photographed in a coffin in Washington last week. STUART ROBSON still partness his love of rare old books. The other day he bought a copy of Doran's "Annals of the Stage" that once belonged to George P. Elder. It was an extra illustrated copy and cost $300.

NAT GOODWIN is in New York, looking the picture of health. He begins his season in the Northwest, October 6, and will produce Leander Richardson's play, "The Nominee," at Hooley's Theater, October 20.

THE New York Sun said on Thursday last:
At the People's Bobby Gaylor is repeating in "An Irish Arab," the popular success he wen at the Grand a fortnight ago. Everybody in the Bowery became Gaylor's admirer long ago.
THE Rev. Virgil Maxey, an Evangelist, well known in the South, is actually going to correct the intention of ing to carry out his intention of combining act ing with preaching. The tour will begin next week in "The New Magdalen," Mr. Maxey ap-pearing as the stage elergyman, Jutian Grey.

OLIVER BYRON, the Plunger, Kate Byron,

the Widow Clover, and a carefully selected company will present Byron's latest and great est success, "fine Plungor," at the Bijon week of September 29. The latter part of the week, however, he will present "Across the Conti-nent," JEROME K. JEROME is 80 years of age. He was an actor for a couple of years before attaining his majority, and then he became a reporter, author and playwright. bara," "Sunset," "Fennel" and "The Ma of Woodbarrow" constitute his list of a

THE name "Alhambra" ought to be regarded with distrust by fire insurance companies, say the New York Tabune. There is no end to the theaters and concert halfs so-called that have been burned within the last few years. The partial destruction of the old palace itself completes a long run of ill-luck.

WILLIAM FLEURON was pleased with the cast of the "Clemenceau Case," and on Monday he ingenuously applauded their efforts from one of the boxes. Some of the spectators were cruel enough to think that he was bestowing approbation on his own work, and one cynical observer remarked: "See! The adapter is try-ing to call himself out."

A. M. PALMER and Augustin Daly are the only metropolitan managers who have costly libraries of books on the stage. Lester Wallack never had even a big Shakespeare in his library. Francis Wilson has a lot of standard books in plain bindings. "They're plain, just Quaker books," said he the other day. "But I'm a Quaker by birth myself."

ROBERT MUNROE, the energetic manager of "My Aunt Bridget," which is now playing to crowded houses at the Bijou Theater, New York City, is to be congratulated on the strength of his company. Nellie Rosebud, the new soubtrette, is said to be better than anyone who has ever played the role before. Charles Fostelle is a new addition to the company, and he is said to have made a wonderful hit. JAMES HARRISON MEADE'S quiet marriage was a surprise to the army of theatrical people who knew him as a veteran of veterans, a dar who know him as a veteran of veterans, a dar-ing speculator and a wise manager. Thirty years ago he was the husband of the lamented Lucille Western, then a pretty girl of only I?, but aiready a dashing actress in "The Three Fast Men." Meade managed her tours for many years. Of late he has been associated with David Henderson, of Chicago, in various spectacular productions. DAVID CHRISTIE MURBAY, the novelist recently appeared on the stage at Dunedin, New Zealand. An actor had failed to come to the Leatand. An actor had raised to come to the theater in time, and the brilliant story teller took his place on the spur of the moment, extemporizing most of his "lines." The Sydney critics say he is so delighted with his success that he will hereafter seek fame as an actor, in addition to that which he has attained as a writer. Altogether, Murray's recent deligs have savored of the eccentric.

An idea of the magnitude of the production which Messrs. Looke & Davis are to give their spectacular drama, "Claudius Nero," at Niblo's, in October, may be gleaned from the fact that the stages of three city theaters are now being used in preparing for the presenta another for the rehearsals of the cast proper and a third for the use of carpenters, scene painters and property men. In addition to this the projectors of "Nero" have secured a build-ing to be given over to the manufacture of cos-tumes and other incidental accessories to the elaborate production.

Good soubrettes are not overplentiful There are many who call themselves soubrettes, but who are so only in name. They can't sing, dance or act, Good soubrettes, can't sing, dance or act, Good soubrettes, with voices and neat hosiery, command from $75 to $100 a week. Some of our prominent soubrettes are well off. Lena Merville has a country house at Yonkers. Mollie Thompson owns a horse, a dog and Il diamond rings. Katie Hart has a collection of banjos, Nellie McHenry owns a villa. Annie Meyers has a hunband and a neat brick house in Philadelphia. Kate Castleton has large estates in California. Madeline Lusette and Marie Jansen have country houses at New Rochelle. have country houses at New Rochel THE plans of Edwin Booth and Lawrence

Barrett for the present season are officially announced as follows: On September 29 at the new Davidson Theater in Milwaukee, Mr. Lawrence Barrett is to begin a preliminary season, filling engagements in Chicago, Indianapolis, Cleveland, Detroit and other cities, reaching Baltimore Monday, November 3, when he will be joined by Mr. Edwin Booth. The two tragedians will then begin a joint starring tour, which calls for their appearance in Baltimore, Philadelphia, Beston, Providence, New York, and several of the large Western cities. Their supporting company will include John A. Lane, Ben G. Royers, James Taylor, Wilfred Clarke, Lawrence Hanley, Frederick Vroom, Edward Vroom, Albert Bruning, Beaumont Smith, Rankin Duvail, Herbert Pattee, W. R. 8. Morris, George U. Hazeiton, Frank Lodge, Robert M. Eberle, Garry Davidson, William Ingines, Lonis Frank, Stephen Horn, George McCulla, Minna K. Gale, Anna Proctor, Mrs. Beaumont Smith and Mattie Davis. During Mr. Barrett's preliminary season he will be seen in "Hamlet," "Othello," "Julius Cessar," "The Merchant of Venice," "Richelieu," "Yorick's Love," "Francesca da Rimini," "Rienzi," "Ganelon," "The King's Pleasure," "The Biot in the Scutcheom" and "David Garrick," The repertory for the joint tour of Messrs. Booth and Barrett will include "Hamlet," "King Lear," "Macbeth," "Othello," "Julius Cessar," and "The Merchant of Venice," All of the plays are to be given special and elaborate productions, and five cars will be used in transporting the scenery, costumes and accessories. Recent rumors in regard to the health of Mr. Booth are without foundation. Both tragedians are in the best of health and spirits. Their tour will be under and several of the large Western cities. foundation. Both tragedians are in the best of health and spirits. Their tour will be under the direction of Mr. Theodore Bromley, with Mr. Joseph Levy as the bosiness manager.

MISS O'REILLY, of 407 Market, has returned from New York, where she visited and inspected the leading millinery establishments.

FOR LADIES ONLY.

attention to than their headwear. The dress may not be of the very latest puttern, but, as some one has truly said, there is no excuse for a back number Hat or Bonnet. We make a study of millinery styles, and there's absolutely nothing in this line that we don't show. Have you seen our Full display of Millinery? If not, you certainly should come here and be delighted. It will be money in your pocket, but, above all, you'll get correct styles. We are showing the most extensive and carefully selected lines of Milliner areas to Pitther and the second process. most extensive and thitsburg.

NOTHING LIKE IT.

Search the two cities over and you'll find nothing, that approaches our display. Pretty strong language, but no stronger than we stand prepared to substantiate to all comers. France, Germany, England and our own New York have contributed their share to make this department what it is—the most complete by all odds west of the mountains. Always on the lookout for novelties, nothing that is new or meritorious escapes our attention. Ladies are sure to find here just what they want. No running around from place to place to get suited. Ours is a complete Millinery Department, and what we haven't to place to get suited. Ours is a complete Millinery Department, and what we haven't rot isn't worth having.

Trimmed Hats and Bonnets in endless variety.

Birds, Wings, Aigrettes, Ornaments.
Velvets, Plushes and Silks for Trimming.
Velvet Ribbons, satin back, all widths and all colors, our own importation

NOW ABOUT HOSIERY

Our Fall stock of Hosiery has just been opened. Never before was this department so complete as now. Never before were prices so low. If you really appreciate rare values, come right to these counters, and you won't go away disappointed. Recollect the goods are fresh, and, further, that none but reliable makes are kept in stock.

Ladies' All-wool Hose, 19c, 24c, 35c, 38c.
Ladies' Imported Cashmere Hose, 38c, 45c, 48c, 65c and 75c.
Misses' All-wool Hose, 25c to 75c.
Fast Black Cotton Hose, 124c, 19c, 24c, 30c, 35c.
Real French Lisle Hose, 373/c, 45c, 48c and up.
Black Silk Hose from 50c to $3 50.
Infants' English Cashmers Hose, 18 styles, 25c to 50c.
Misses' Genuine C. G. Ribbed Hose, 22c to 30c, worth double.
Gents' Imported Haif Hose, 123/c, 15c, 18c and 25c.
Gents' Scotch Wool Hose, 25c, 35c, 48c.

AS TO UNDERWEAR. Whether in need of Underwear just now or not, it will pay you to take advantage of the special bargains offered in this department. Here are a lew of them:

Ladies' Ribbed Merino Vests, long sleeves, 45e.
Ladies' Medium Weight Vests, long sleeves, 50c.
Ladies' Ribbed Fine Wool Vests, 75c to 95c.
Ladies' Ribbed Extra Fine Wool Vests, 81 25.
Ladies' Scotch Gray Vests, worth 85c, at 62c.
Ladies' Scotch Gray Fine Wool Vests, worth 81 25, at 81.
Ladies' Imported Gray Wool Vests, short sleeves, worth 81, at 65c.
Ladies' Imported Gray Wool Vests, long sleeves, worth $1 25, at 90c.
Ladies' Fine White Merino Vests, worth 50c, at 38c.

NOVELTIES IN ART. No visitor to the city should leave without seeing our Art Department. It contains a ousand and one new things that cannot fail to interest the ladies. It would be im-

New Linen Bags, new Stocking Bags, new Laundry Bags, new Dust Bags, new Slipper Bags. Stamped Linen Dresser and Sideboard Scarfs.

Spiashers and Table Squares—a big assortment. Figured and Plain India Silks—a charming collection.

White and Colored Fancy Silk Fringes for Drapery, 15c to $2 a yard.
Chemile Table Covers, 92c to $5.
Tapestry Table Covers, 85c to $2 50.
Brocaded Sath Table Covers, $5 to $5.
150 styles Fancy Baskets, 19c to $1 50; Serap and Lunch Baskets, Infants' Baskets, etc. A tour of this department will be found both interesting and instructive. No trouble how you through the labyrinth of useful and beautiful things it contains.

Exposition visitors welcome at all hours of the day.

Rosenbaum& & 510 to 514 Market St.,

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR ON THE FEMALE FACE

Destroyed forever by the Electric Needle Operation by Dr. J. Van Dyck, Electro Surgeon, 502 Penn ave., Pittsburg.

Superfinous hair is an excessive growth of hair seen mostly on the upper lip, chin, cheeks, throat, nose, ears, forehead, between the eyel brows, arms, hands and breast, also grows in thick infits from moles and birthmarks. This growth of facial hair is surprisingly prevalent. We see it in the church, drawing room, on the sireet, and wherever ladies congregate. At least one-third of our ladies are troubled with this obnexious growth.

We see it in the church, drawing room, on the street, and wherever ladies congregate. At least one-third of our ladies are troubled with this obnoxious growth.

Can you conceive of any facial blemish that is more distressing, ansoring and humiliating to a sensitive, refined lady than a growth of facial hair, a noticeable dark line on the upper lip, or a tuft of coarse hairs on chin and throat?

Every lady with hair on her face knows that the use of depilatories, headed war, the tweezers, scissors and razor all make these hairs grow coarser, darker and more numerous. Remember this, depilatory powders or liquids only cut the hairs off at the surface and always stimulate the growth, so that a fady might just as well shave as to use them.

There is only one method in the world by which hair can be destroyed and that is by the ELECTRIC. NEEDLE OPERATION, as performed by Dr. J. Van Dyck, Electry Surgeon, 52! Poun avenue, Pitusburg.

This is a purely scientific operation and is indorsed by all physicians and surgeons of eminence as being the only method in the world by which the follicle can be destroyed so the hair can never grow again.

The electric needle is painlessly inserted into the hair follicle and destroys the little bulb or sack from which the hair grows.

Dr. Van Dyck is pleased to state to the ladies of Pittsburg and vicinity that he is permanently located in this city and devotes several hours daily to the permanent removal of superfluous hair by the electric needle, which is done without pain, sear, shock, trace or injury. Dr. Van Dyck was the first physician in the world to successfully perform this operation; has our result of its jears; has treated hundreds of cases, and has acquired the skill and national reputation as an expert in electro-surgery. He numbers among his patients many of our most prominent tadies. His pratice is extensive and wide-spread; ladies come to him from every part of the country to get rid or this unsightly growth of hair.

Remember this, ladies, no matter what the condition

RED NOSE—Dr. Van Dyck is pleased to say that he never fails to cure redness of the nose by a purely scientific and original method of treatment. A red nose on a woman or a man's face is often as humiliating as hair on the female face. Consult Dr. Van Dyck at once for this suggestive deformity. Make your engagements promptly, as only a limited number of new patients can be treated daily. Call or address DR. J. VAN DYCK, 522 Penn ave., Pittsburg. self-SSu

WHO WOULD THINK

That, owing to our unprecedented sales, we have been compelled to duplicate our That, owing to our unprecedented sales, we have been compelled to duplicate our shipments of Double-barrel Breech-loading Shotzuns? Double-barrel breech-loaders at $8 50; at $17 50 we will sell you a Double Breech-loader, laminated steel barrels, choke hore, rebounding bar locks, extension rib, pistol grip and all the latest improvements; Loaded Shells, $2 per hundred; Loading Tools, 55c;

Hunting Coats, $1 25; 100 Paper Shells, 60e; at K. SMIT'S, 932 and 934 Liberty St., Cor. Smithfield. Send for Our Illustrated Catalogue and Price List Free of Charge.

AT LATIMER'S

IT WILL BENEFIT LADIES

To see a full line of Wraps, though they may not have any idea of purchasing. 968 STOCKINETTE JACKETS $3.75. These are the goods well worth while to see for fineness, weight and tailor finish PLUSH JACKETS-This leads all seasons on variety and beauty. Come and see.

T.M. LATIMER.

138 and 140 Federal St. and 45 and 46 South Diamond, Allegheny-

ESTABLISHED 1831. Mellor & Hoene 77 FIFTH AVE.

sel4-The

HARDMAN, RARAUER PIANOS U. S. and Chicago Cottage Organs

Power and Sweetness of Tone, and Handsomest in Appearance.

And sold at the lowest prices and easiest terms, CATALOGUES MAILED FREE