The next we men were retired in order and Mr. "Rourke thumped the ball past Cercetas and of course thumped the ball past Corcora, and it also got past Carroll. As a result Mr. O'Bourke went round the bases. The visitors' only earned run was made in the eighth mning on Johnston's triple and Brown's double. Brown was put out at the plate and the decision caused some lively argument. The decision, however, seemed to be fair. Following is the score:

Listless Game Won by the Visitors at Recreation Park Yesterday - Four Errors in Succession the Local Team's

New York and Pittsburg (N. L.) played a listless sort of a game at Recreation Park yesterday before a crowd of 100 people. It was of a very rocky sort, and errors were piled up at a terrible rate. In one inning the local men man-aged to throw in four errors, and, as a result, the visitors got in four unearned runs. Sharrott did the pitching for New York, and put up a very good game, though he was wild, and gave numerous bases-on balls. However, when he to take one to yesterday's ball game at | was at his wildest, the local men could not Exposition Park. The weather was cold touch the ball even for sacrifices, and no runs could be scored. Then his support was excelaround like a dismal canopy. As a result who made two miserable errors in rapid succes-

At stages the fielding is very bad indeed, but the cold weather was fun began in the second inning, when Pittsburg one away over Wilson's head. The glorious fun began in the second inning, when Pittsburg showed what they could do in a pinch at error making. Burkett got first and second on Miller's wild throw, and third on Bassett's grounder which Anderson tumbled. Then Sam La Roque fumbled Hornung's grounder and Burkett scored, Bassett taking second. Denny singled to Berger, who juggled it, and Bassett scored. Hornung going to third. Sharrott sacrificed Hornung home and Denny to second. Tiernan flew out. Clarke singled and Denny scored. Clarke was caught napping and the inning closed. In their half of the inning the local men scored two runs. Berger got a two-bagger and Decker got first on balls. Sales hit for two bases and Berger scored, Decker taking third. Wilson sacrificed Decker home.

No more runs were scored until the fifth, when New York got one in on a two-bagger, a sacrifice and an errof. In the sixth they got in three runs—a base on balls, three hits, a stolen base and a sacrifice. Their last run was made In the seventh on a base on balls, a sacrific and a single. The Pittsburgs got their last run in the eighth on three bases on balls and two errors by Classcock. Score:

St. Louis, September 20.—Al Johnson, of Cleveland, and Secretary Brunell, of the Players' League, were here to-day trying to make a deal with President Stern, of the Cincinnati club. The object was to buy out the club from the National League. The P. L. magnates, however, couldn't pay the price demanded, and the proposed deal was declared off. Messrs. Brunell and Johnson were much disappointed, and it is stated their organization is not in good condition. They want to be clear of two or three cities at present in the Players' League.

Messrs. Brunell and Johnson Fail in Their Mission to St. Louis.

A TALK WITH SECRETARY STERN. He Says That the Club Will Go if the Price is Paid.

CAUSES OF THE DIFFICULTIES

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.1 CINCINNATI, September 20 .- All that portion of Cincinnati which is baseballocally inclined has been torn up over the rumor that Cincinnati had been captured body and breeches by the Brotherhood. The story has only added to the general demoralization that war has brought upon the game. The bomb was fired too soon. Cincionati is still in the League and may stay there. As the club is now officered it will never ally itself to the opposition. Still the future of the Cincinnati club is by no means clearly defined. A fork in the road has been reached. To the right lies the line of League travel, to the left the Brotherhood runs. Before the signboard the club has halted. If the latter route is chosen the Messrs. Stern and Sterne will abandon the parties and it will proceed along under the new management. The future alone holds the secret.

SECRETARY STERNF TALKS. "The probabilities are" said Harry Sterne, to THE DISPATCH correspondent, "that the sea son of '91 will find the Cincinnati club still in the League. I am frank to say that I am no philanthropist, however, and if the Brotherhood meets our figures we will step down and out of the business. In the unsettled state of affairs brought about by the Brotherhood's foolish warfare I cannot see the wisdom in holding on in the hope of regaining in three or holding on in the hope of regaining in three or four years from now what we have lost this season, and may in the next. There is no encouragement offered club owners in these days. Every player in the Cincinnati team knows that the club has lost money this year, and yet if we were to ask them to sign contracts for next year! I feel sure that they would all demand increase of salary. This thing of jumping up salaries has been going from bad to worse until the ruin of professional ball will soon stare the players in the face. The fact that men have played poor ball in the previous season does not prevent them from asking for more money the next.

COMMON SENSE REASONING.

"In any line of mercantile business the rule is reversed. If I've a man in my employ who loes badly on the road he is glad to sign a contract for the next season at the same figure. Not so in baseball."
"Has the Brotherhood offered $40,000 for the "Has the Brotherhood offered $40,000 for the club?"
"I do not believe that they have. President Stern has given them a figure, and if it is accepted we become laymen once more. I do not think that the League will die even if Cincinnati is lost to them. I honestly believe they will win the fight in the end. They certainly have the best of the battle. I do not think that we as business men are bound to remain in that fight, however. If the Brotherhood pays us our price, I really think we would be foolish not to accept it. No other such chance will ever be offered to save us from loss, I am sure. I would rather continue in the League. I know of no one who wants to invest, do you? For years the Cincinnati salary list has been mounting up, with no corresponding increase in the receipts. There can be but one end to such a thing—collapse."

COMMON SENSE REASONING.

thing—collapse." Despite all denials there is a faction that believes a deal has been made. LEADING SPORTING EVENTS.

Very little wagering is taking place on the Cambridgeshire, for which Signorina is the favorite at 10 to 1 against.

The leading English sporting papers are taking up the endgels on behalf of Charles Einstein, late United States Consul to Stuttgart, who, as related in THE DISPATCH a week ago, has been ruled off the Belgnan and French racing tracks because of what is known as "the Spa scandal." Spo ting Life, the Sportsman, and the sporting authorities claim that by all the rules of fair racing the confession of the jockey exonerating Einstein should restore to him the privileges he held before, as was done in England. Einstein himself will probably bring suit to compel recognition of the injustice done him unless the Continental Jockey Club are brought to do him justice without coercion. Several more cycling records have been believed in the 1920. Several more cycling records have been broken this week, viz: From 6 miles up to 22 miles, the latter distance being covered in 59 minutes 61-5 econds. The 50 miles has also been ridden in 2 hours 38 minutes 3 seconds, being 51 seconds better than the previous best time. The 100 mile tricycling record has been reduced to 6 hours 40 minutes 28 econds, while in 12 hours continuous riding 164 miles was cov-ered, being 5½ miles better than the previous record.

The fight between McAuliffe and Slavin is to take place at the Ormonde Club early in the week, though the exact time has not yet been made public. McAuliffe is still training at Wells-Next-tbe-Sea, and Slavin at Dovercourt. There has thus far been little betting, and that slightly in favor of Slavin. There is not much interest felt in the match in London outside of the Ormonde Club itself and inner prize fighting circles. The Ormonde Club, however, still adheres to its extorionate Cinb, however, still adheres to its extortionate demands for seats, £20 for one admission being the present quotation for tickets. These prices will probably come down on the day of the fight for there is not much probability that the swell for there is not much probability that the swell sporting element will pay any attention to the match. In the first place, the Pelicans are down on Slavin because he refused to fight at their club, and then the Ormoude is a third rate institution in South London where the ruffiantly element is likely to predominate.

One will be regular and the other the extra pitcher in each ED KINSEY, of Sharpsburg, writes to this paper stating that he will run Ed Be k a foot race for as much money as he wants, four weeks from signing articles. Beck is to visit Sharpsburg to make a match. IT is stated that the Boston P. L. club has cleared $5,000 over and above all expenses, including the fitting up of their grounds, which are valued at $30,000, a remarkable showing for the first year.

MIKE GORMAN, the ex-amateur boxer, and Bill Davis, of Greenpoint, have been matched to fight to a finish with skin gloves for $100 a side and a purse of $200. The fight will take place at a resort near this city within three weeks. FRANK C. IVES has posted a forfeit of 200 to play Frank Maggioli within three weeks three games of 500 points, 14-inch balk line, and offers to wager $1,000 to $750, or any sum in proportion down to one-quarter of that amount. down to one-quarter of that amount.

JAMES MCCABE, of Brownsville, and an unknown, ran a 100-yard race at Wayneaburg yesterday. The unknown won in 11½ seconds. The winner was supposed to be Ed Nikirk of Pittsburg, and the loser James Cherry, of Charleston.

THE negotiations which have been pending be tween the universities and the authorities at Berkley Oval have been completed, and Yale, Harvard and Princeton will fight their hattles over again on the Oval. The first game will be played on Thanksgiving Day.

JAMES STANSBURY, Peter Kemp and Thomas Sullivan will sail for America in November. On their arrival they will arrange matches with faudaur, Teemer, O'Connor, Peterson and Hanlan, and probably engage in pair and double-scull races against American oarsmen.

Col. Rogers emphatically denies that he has made any overtures to secure Larkin to play with the Philadelphia (N. L.) club next season. He says that his talk with Larkin, Delenanty and Brennan in Boston, on Lahor Day, occasioned the rumor. Who is telling the truth?

JIMMY BUILER, the middle weight boxer of the Eagle A. C., and Mike McAuliffe. the 188-pound boxer of the Bridge A. C., have been matched to spar ten rounds for a $100 watch. The question of superiority will probably be estitled at the club nouse of the Bridge A. C., on October I. The Pittsburgers do not play ball like tuit-enders. They fight for a game now just as hard as if they were up in the race fighting for first-place honors. They do not know what it is to 'lay down.'' This is the factor that makes the team such a favorite in every city it visits. They were cheered by the spectators repeatedly for the plucky fight they made against odds,—Evening Telegram.

J. PALMERO'NEIL has been interviewed again. He says it may surprise people, but it is nevertheless a fact that by playing away from home the greater number of games he will come out even on the season. He says that the Pittsburg P. L. Club is a dead failure even without any opposition at home, and will lose $5,000 on the season, which is $13,000 more than they claim to havelost. He states that Hanlon will release Galvin, Morris, Kuehne, Robinson, Carroll and Fields at the close of the season and set new hlood, provided Pittsburg stays in the Players' League. He turther asserts that he never stated that he had seen a contract which "Buck" Ewing had signed with the New York N. L. Club for next season.—New York Nus.

$1 50 PER VOLUME.

Our new Reprint Edition is now complete and includes all the American Copyrighted Articles, which are being omitted from an unfinished work offered the public.

Think of this Magnificent Edition of the Greatest of Encyclopædias in the world being now offered to the American public for $1.50 per volume! This is not an Unfinished, Condensed or M.tilated Edition of that world-renowned book, but an EXACT REPRINT of the Latest Editoburgh Edition (the ninth). It is word for word, page for page, and contains all the Maps, Illustrations and Marginal References that are in the original.

OVER 1,500 CONTRIBUTORS. The Encyclopædia Britannica has received contributions from more than 1,500 authors; their names embrace the most eminent scholars in Great Britain, America, Germany, France, Italy, Scandinavia, and every other part of the civilized world. The Britannica furnishes the amplest means to guide the inquirer to an independent opinion on the subjects that most profoundly agitate the human mind, and concerning which men are most anxious to be informed.

OVER 24,500 PAGES. The immense variety, and the profound learning of the text in this work, places it beyond comparison with all other books of reference in the English language. Of all the works of reference now in the market, any intelligent person will see that our New Reprint Edition of the Encyclopadia Britannica is the Greatest and the Cheapest.

OVER 8,000 ILLUSTRATIONS.

The ALLEN Reprint Edition of the original, published by A. & C. Black, of Edinburgh, is in typography, binding, quality of paper and illustrations, of which there are over 8,000, all of which are in every respect in keeping with the high character of that great work. THIS EDITION NOW COMPLETE.

Unlike the incomplete, mutilated and condensed edition which may or may never be completed, the whole of the volumes of our editions (30), including Index and the American Supplement, are now ready for delivery at the above extraordinarily low price, $1.50 per vol. SUPPLEMENTAL VOLUMES.

Having recently purchased the plates of the Supplement to the Encyclopædia Britannica, which is now complete in five volumes, we are now enabled to offer to our subscribers this additional and valuable part of the work at the same low price per volume that we are now selling the Britannica volumes for. FOR AMERICAN READERS.

While the Britannica is a splendid achievement, the five Supplemental Volumes have made it still more valuable, especially to readers on this side of the Atlantic, as nearly all the articles have been contributed by eminent American scholars. These volumes are beautifully illustrated, and are uniform in size and binding of the Britannica.

Pure Old Rye Whisky FOR MEDICAL PURPOSES. In connection with our wholesale and retail drug business, we are extensive bottlers of pure old Pennsylvania rye whisky. Our special brand, bottled for medical purposes, for use of physicians and private families, is known as "Fleming's Pure Eight Year Old Export Rye Whisky." This whisky is shipped to Germany, where it is stored for several years in what is called aging warehouses, it is then reshipped across the ocean to this country. We guarantee it to be positively pure, and no finer whisky was ever distilled from rye. Put up in full quart bottles (sealed) for $1.00, or six bottles $5.00.
